

Dragon Husband 1604 part 1

Chapter 1604

Song Hanyu looked at Wiliam in a daze, and finally sighed and said, "Otherwise, what else can I do? I don't know how to do things that have been agreed upon..."

Wiliam patted Song Hanyu on the shoulder, "Okay, let's do that, it's not a big problem."

After speaking, Wiliam walked towards his room.

Song Hanyu followed two steps behind, and asked unwillingly: "What do you mean? What does it mean that the problem is not big? Do you have anything to tell me?"

Wiliam turned around and smiled, and said, "It means that it is not a big problem, but that everything is under control."

Song Hanyu's expression became very strange.

She wanted to hit Wiliam very much.

The most irritating thing about this kid is that he refuses to say anything clearly, making people guess that he is half-dead!

However, since Wiliam said so, Song Hanyu had no other way.

The next day, the result of the draw of the game came out.

This result makes everyone fall through!

Chen Zhongyan actually got it right!

Song Hanyu unexpectedly got Wang Xiaoming!

The same door civil war!

This is the first time a civil war has appeared in the nine qualifying matches!

Everyone looked at Song Hanyu and Wang Xiaoming in surprise, their expressions gradually becoming excited!

As the biggest dark horse, Jinyu Volley contributed to the first game this time, maybe the only civil war in the same door!

And when Chen Zhongyan saw this battle information, he was immediately happy!

The sooner Chi Zhan meets Song Hanyu, the sooner she will be eliminated!

Then the more opportunities for Chi Zhan to perform.

God helps me too!

Everyone's attention at the scene was on Song Hanyu's body.

I want to know what kind of sparks this double arrogant will collide with when he encounters the biggest dark horse.

However, the result of the game was very disappointing.

When Song Hanyu confronted Wang Xiaoming, he directly gave in.

The people at the scene can't help but sigh and sigh.

But this is also within many people's expectations.

Who would be so stupid that the same door civil war would fight to death.

Still have to keep the strength to attack the next game.

And everyone can accept it if he chooses to send Wang Xiaoming.

After all, Song Hanyu's strength lies there.

Even if you enter the loser group, you can do something.

It is also possible to reach the finals again.

This is Jin Yu volley giving Wang Xiaoming a chance.

And with Song Hanyu's final surrender, the final results of other games also came out.

The winners group left the last four people, these four people are one from Dugu Hongshi, one from Han Xing Wangqing, Wang Xiaoming, and Xu Tongyin from Can Jian Jiutian.

The results of the loser group are also very obvious, William Yiqi Juechen.

In fact, William's final score was not only the best in the loser's group, but even ranked first in everyone's rankings, and he missed the second place by a lot of points.

People simply can't see the possibility of chasing points.

It's just that everyone's attention to Wiliam has gradually diminished. After all, there have been too many dark horses in this session.

Tomorrow will be a few knockout games of the loser group and the final four of the winner group.

When the storm was about to come, all the people in Jinyu Volley gathered in the hall and continued to have a meeting.

Dragon Husband 1604 part 2

As the game progressed, the old sect master seemed to regain his glory, and his spirit improved a lot.

He said excitedly: "Well, now the situation of the game is gradually becoming clearer. We Jinyu Volley has no problem entering the Nine Sects according to the current results. As long as Wang Xiaoming can successfully win another game tomorrow, Nine Sects will be a no-brainer. It's a matter of course. Congratulations!"

The people at the scene also congratulated the old sect master one after another, after all, this is a rare event in Jinyu volley in a century.

"That's right, Wang Xiaoming, it's not right, Chi Zhan? I want to thank him very much." The old sect master looked around, no one could see Chi Zhan.

Chen Zhongyan immediately said, "Returning to Sect Master, Chi Zhan doesn't like crowded places, so he stays in the room to rest alone."

After hearing this, the old sect master nodded immediately and said: "It is reasonable, but you need a good rest. Then you greet him for me, and for tomorrow's game, be sure to let him go all out!"

Chen Zhongyan laughed and said haha, "That's natural! I am very relieved of Chi Zhan! Tomorrow he will be able to make another city! Let our Jinyu volley sign high in the sky! All of this is the leader of the lord! "

"Hahaha! Well said! Well said! This time we are able to enter the ranks of the nine sects. Chen Zhongyan is your first merit! I will not treat you badly! Of course, Han Yu and Wiliam's performance is also good, continue Come on." Old Sect Master said.

When it comes to Wiliam and Song Hanyu, they are somewhat perfunctory.

Just as there was a lot of fun up and down, someone suddenly shouted: "Sect Master, Sect Master Hu, who has a wonderful sword covering the sky, is here to visit."

The people at the scene were taken aback.

The Sovereign of the Qijian Zhetian unexpectedly came to visit at this juncture?

This is unprecedented.

What is he here for?

Chen Zhongyan immediately thought of a possibility, and said: "It must be here to congratulate us! We have almost entered the nine sects with one foot, but they have fallen out of the nine sects, and their identity has undergone a major change. He thought Isn't it easy to get a good relationship with us as soon as possible?"

The people at the scene suddenly realized that they all said yes.

The old sect master pondered for a moment and said, "It seems that more and more people will visit our sect in the future. It is time for us to make some rules. Some people from the small sect, I will disappear, you know?"

Everyone immediately shouted yes.

Song Hanyu looked at the atmosphere at the scene, feeling somewhat uncomfortable.

This is still not a step into the nine sects, how can all of them be so excited as if they have been knocked on the medicine, as if they were self-proclaimed nine sects.

Even if the horoscope is not scribbled, I start to think about setting the rules, and still regard the others as small sects?

This step is a bit big, which makes people fearful.

But she didn't say this, and it was disappointing to say it.

It must have attracted a lot of verbal criticism.

"By the way, when I see Sect Master Hu, everyone will be polite. Although they are not among the nine sects, they still have the background. The harmony should still be peaceful, not like some people, who specifically add obstacles to others. Yes." Chen Zhongyan stood up and said to everyone.

While speaking, he deliberately glanced at Song Hanyu.

But Song Hanyu was so angry!

This is not clear to say about her!

The old sect master thought for a while, and said, "Chen Zhongyan is right. You still have to save a little face. So, Han Yu, you will apologize to Sect Master Hu for a while, saying that it was a matter of motives, so that he should not take it seriously. Harmony is expensive."

Song Hanyu's face was pale with anger!

Not so bullying!

And just as she was about to jump up to refute, Wiliam suddenly grabbed her and said with a smile: "There's something wrong, let's take a look first, something fun is about to happen."
