

Dragon Husband 1611 part 1

Chapter 1611

After hearing these words, all the people in Jinyu Valley frowned.

Especially the third message is even more puzzling.

What big event has happened, can compress the final schedule of the nine qualifying matches once every twenty years into one day.

It seems that today, this day is destined to be unstable.

The others at the scene were incredibly unbelievable with the first two messages!

Before that, Wang Xiaoming, who was in the golden jade volley, turned to the enemy, and directly transferred to Qijian Zhetian's sect, also representing Qijian Zhetian.

In this way, won't the Qijian Zhetian come back from the dead, leaving the last hope!

Such a big reversal is shocking!

Especially the people who fragrant flowers and blood, seeing this message, Qi Qi became angry!

I thought they were the second out of the nine cases.

Unexpectedly, Qi Jian Zhetian hid such a hand!

In this way, the fragrant flowers and blood will become a complete joke!

After going round and round, the clown is myself!

Wen Ren Tiange's face was ashen, looking desperately looking for Hu Yixiao!

He also knew that Hu Yixiao, a dog thief, put one out thoroughly!

But what can be done.

This is within the rules.

And Wenren Tiange already feels that things are not so simple.

The second message, that amazing bet.

Hu Yixiao is a scheming man. Since he has such a great ability, he can change the rules of the game.

Dare to propose such a bet.

It shows that he has full confidence that he can win the points of Jinyu Volley.

In this case, Qi Jian Zhetian will be transformed, and it is completely possible to become the new Shangsan Sect!

Dog!

The other people on the scene who had nothing to do with them were dangled with full interest.

They have never seen such a big bet on the honor of a sect for twenty years.

This person named Wang Xiaoming is definitely not simple.

There was also a wave of people on the scene with extremely strange expressions.

They are the elders and sect masters of the Nine Sects.

Many people have already begun to know the true identity of Wang Xiaoming at this time.

Logically speaking, this is another thing that does not comply with the rules of the tournament.

Because Wang Xiaoming concealed his true identity, it was a deception.

Normally, this behavior is to be directly deprived of the qualifications of the game.

Moreover, as the sect of Chi Zhan, whether it is Jinyu Lingkong and Qijian Zhetian, they must bear certain responsibilities.

But none of the three referees said anything.

This is a bit intriguing.

Especially the combination of Qijian Zhetian can change the rules of the game.

Gee tee.

It is very possible that Qi Jian Zhetian and these three referees have all reached some kind of secret agreement.

It's not easy to cover the sky with a strange sword.

And then think of Wiliam was directly assigned to the tenth division before, that division is all his enemies.

From the very beginning, it was a big game.

Qi Jian Zhetian's hands stretched long enough.

The next game is much simpler.

Chi Zhan showed incomparable strength in the game.

Dragon Husband 1611 part 2

He easily defeated his opponent and advanced to the final of the winner group.

And the other one who made it to the final of the winner group was Xu Tongyin.

What he faced was the last lone seedling of the lonely lion.

After a fierce battle, the two finally ended the game with Xu Tongyin's narrow victory.

And down this game, the price is also very obvious.

Whether it was Xu Tongyin or the one with Dugu Hongshi, almost all of them lost their power.

It stands to reason that as long as the two of them take a day off, they will always regain some strength.

However, the current competition system simply does not allow them to have too much rest time.

Almost an hour later, the finals of the winner group started.

But Xu Tongyin was still pale.

Especially the wounds on the body, although they have been simply bandaged, they are still bleeding.

The Lonely Lion is not so easy to deal with.

Especially the one who can stand at the end.

This person consumed almost 90% of Xu Tongyin's energy.

Facing the blood-filled Chi Zhan, Xu Tongyin's eyes were like an abyss.

He knew that there was no suspense in this battle.

"You surrender yourself." Even Chi Zhan said coldly, standing opposite him.

Xu Tongyin suddenly laughed.

The people who laughed at the scene were inexplicable.

Everyone can see that he can no longer win this game.

But why can you still laugh?

Nervous problems?

However, when everyone discovered that Xu Tongyin was looking at another ring, they all realized what Xu Tongyin was laughing at.

On the other arena, Song Hanyu had already given up before facing Wiliam.

Now Wiliam was facing the man who was facing the lonely lion.

That person's situation is worse than Xu Tongyin's.

So very bachelor gave up.

So in the end, Wiliam was killed from the loser group!

He will have a great chance to return to this stage.

"Hahaha, Wiliam won. Chi Zhan." Xu Tongyin said deeply.

Chi Zhan?

Many people were confused when they heard this name for the first time.

Isn't it called Wang Xiaoming?

"In this game, I know I will lose. But according to my personality, even if I lose, I have to lose no room! But, now I don't think so." Xu Tongyin looked at Chi Zhan and said.

"Compared to fighting with you, I am more interested in Wiliam than you!"

"So, I leave my last strength to Wiliam. He is my benefactor, my friend, and my opponent for life."

"And I believe that he will stand till the end, he will face you on this stage, and he will defeat you! This is enough."

"In this game, I surrendered."

"Wiliam, wait, I will meet you!" Xu Tongyin's last words were shouted towards Wiliam not far away.

Wiliam, who was not far away, smiled back at Xu Tongyin, as if saying, welcome anytime.

In the sigh of everyone, Xu Tongyin immediately stepped down.

In this way, Chi Zhan's soldiers stood at the end of the final without blood.

And because of Xu Tongyin's surrender, he won another hour of rest.

He was sitting on a chair slowly adjusting his breath, and suddenly saw Wiliam walking towards him.

"Do you really want to fight me that?" Wiliam asked him with a smile.

Xu Tongyin was as arrogant as before, pointed at Chi Zhan not far away with his chin, and said, "It's him? I don't bother to beat this kind of people. Remember what we said before?"

Wiliam almost blurted out, "Do my obsession, don't ask about life or death."

"Well! Do my obsession! Don't ask about life or death!" Xu Tongyin's eyes sharpened instantly, "I'm looking forward to the long-awaited battle, it's with you!"

Wiliam shrugged his shoulders, and suddenly pressed one hand on his shoulder, a cyan air flowing slowly towards Xu Tongyin.

"You!" Xu Tongyin frowned, wondering what Wiliam was going to do.

Wiliam said indifferently, "If you want to fight with me, you have to regain some strength, right?"

"With me, it is more than enough to restore your full strength in one hour."

"Then, take out 100% of your strength and come to me for a decisive battle of life and death!"
