

Dragon Husband 1627 part 1

Chapter 1627 Bloodline Suppression!

As Wiliam's voice fell, the majestic aura of blood on his body rushed towards the Hongshi Five Elders!

The five elders showed a witty smile one after another.

That's it?

Want to suppress the five of us all at once?

Want us to kneel?

Are you afraid that you don't know what is there, there are people outside of heaven!

The blood of the Dugu Hongshi burst into them instantly, and they wanted to give this kid a lesson of blood when they wanted to come up.

"Boom!" The two breaths suddenly blasted together.

An air wave visible to the naked eye burst out from the middle of the breath!

Everyone only felt that the world was dull and shocked, and they couldn't help but close their eyes!

When they opened their eyes, they shouted in exclamation!

Wiliam's body still stood proudly in place!

And the five elders of Hongshi, who was opposite Wiliam, did not know why, their legs were trembling violently!

Their faces were filled with an expression of horror.

They stared at Wiliam stubbornly, as if under pressure that shouldn't be there!

How is this going!

It was just a blink of an eye!

When Wiliam faced the Wu Lao's first active attack, he completely gained the upper hand!

The five elders made the shot together, even if the sect masters of other sects were to bear the blow, they would be enough to drink a pot!

And Wiliam took another step!

step!

Two steps!

Getting closer and closer to the five elders!

The five elders didn't know if they had taken the wrong medicine, and they didn't even make another shot. They just watched Wiliam come over!

The closer the distance, the more sweat on their faces, the more their legs tremble!

Until Wiliam took the last step, his steps were only lightly on the ground!

But it made people feel like they stepped heavily on the heads of these five people!

"Boom boom!"

A string of sounds sounded!

Wu Lao couldn't bear it anymore, and all knelt on the ground!

To the direction of the landing leaf!

The people at the scene burst into exclamation!

Wu Lao kneels down!

Every step Wiliam took, the breath of the five of them weakened a bit!

Wiliam walked to the last step in front of them, just right, let these five people kneel on the ground together!

What kind of picture is this!

incredible!

Incredible!

After exclaiming, there was silence in the audience!

Everyone stared at this scene blankly, completely unaware of what to say.

What a special thing!

Another few seconds are over!

This Wiliam, a crazy stroke!

The wounded body confronts the five elders of Hongshi!

Give birth to lotus every step, let them kneel, they have to kneel!

You have to kneel if you refuse to accept it!

This is the man!

This is the man that everyone is so yearning for!

Rebuke Fang Qiu, give directions!

Too overbearing!

“What are you doing!” A thunderous sound came from the rostrum.

It is the same incredible White Sword Star!

Bai Jianxing thought that sending out the five elders in this battle was already a sledgehammer!

I didn't think that this chicken would overturn all five scalpel knives!

Five people kneel down!

What a shame!

What happened to them!

Friends on Wiliam's side, seeing that Wiliam took a few steps to control the enemy, he didn't even use his strongest Long Live Demon Lotus, and they were all shocked!

However, after the astonishment is ecstasy!

William won!

Those five people are suppressed by William's blood and breath, and they have to bear the ridicule and mocking eyes of the surrounding audience. Has never been so embarrassed in this life!

They are really going to cry.

Hearing the suzerain's question, these five people barely raised their heads.

Dou Da's sweat has wetted his hair and beard, and his face is muddy.

One of them, with trembling lips, said bumpingly: "Blood, blood is suppressed!"

The people around don't understand, can they still not understand when they are in it!

The strongest among them is the blood of this red lion!

The Hongshi bloodline can temporarily increase their strength, and it carries a violent aura in itself.

But to Shang William's blood and aura, he was shocked without saying a word!

With the presence of William's bloodline aura, the bloodlines on their bodies first seemed to have been sealed, and they couldn't be used at all.

Then, William's breath invaded their bone marrow!

Let them feel a sense of awe from the bottom of their hearts.

And this feeling forced them to bow their heads and kneel down!

This is exactly the performance of bloodline suppression!

Only the blood of a higher level can suppress the blood of the Hongshi, so that even if they have full strength, they can't use it!

When he heard the words suppressed by blood, Bai Jianxing's head bounced and he looked at William in horror!

Bloodline!

This kid is actually in blood!

And what is even more incredible is that the bloodline on his body is even more sacred than the bloodline of the Hongshi!

It was able to suppress the five elders, making it difficult for them to move!

Miscalculated!

Miscalculated!

No wonder this kid dared to speak out the rhetoric that one challenged one by one!

It turns out that blood is his biggest advantage and killer!

Thinking of the battle between him and Xu Tongyin, there is still room for energy!

Bai Jianxing thought naturally, but fell into a misunderstanding.

William naturally has no twin bloodlines on his body, but it can only play a limited role in Shang Xu Tongyin's bloodline.

So William chose not to use it.

And against the Dugu Hongshi, it would be embarrassing!

The bloodline of Dugu Hongshi happened to be the direct lineage of the bloodline of William's ancestor of Qilin!

The ancestors have come out, can children and grandchildren not bow their heads?

Just five people want to resist?

I'm afraid it's not dreaming!

Bai Jianxing's whole body was trembling.

He didn't know how terrifying this bloodline suppression was, but the fact before him was that the five elders knelt down and the lion's face was lost!

This is even more disgusting than the Wu Lao's all-out defeat!

William definitely did it on purpose!

He wants to use the most ruthless means to make Dugu Hongshi suffer the heaviest humiliation!

Did you just lose like this!

If you lose, it means that the gambling appointment Dugu Hongshi has already lost.

Dugu Hongshi not only had to give up his position as the leader of the nine sects, but also fell directly out of the nine sects!

How can this be accepted!

I want to be engraved on the pillar of shame in the history of the Dugu Hongshi!

Bai Jianxing's heart suddenly became confused, and his eyes became cold!

How can you give up!

Not that time!

Didn't this kid say that one person will fight one case?

It's only now against the five people!

I am a lonely lion, and there are thousands of people!

Thousands of people are here, so what do you do!

No matter how powerful his bloodline is, can he suppress thousands of people at once!

If it can be suppressed, then I, Bai Jianxing, can kneel and kowtow to this kid!

It's about the honor of the sect, and Bai Jianxing can't take care of any face at the moment.

In front of everyone, he said in a cold voice: "All the disciples follow the order! This kid said that one person will fight one case! We are just as he wants! Give me everything!"

"I see how long he can cross!"

"I want him to know that the dignity of the lonely lion cannot be trampled on by anyone!"
