

Dragon Husband 1635 part 1

Chapter 1635 Immortal Combination

A vigorous coercion slowly permeated from the sky.

The people present only felt their hearts burst open!

What kind of strength is this!

Between raising hands and feet, the sky turns into dragon scales!

Everyone looked at Liu Lang in amazement, only feeling incredible.

This is not the level they can reach at all!

Even when William saw this scene, he felt as if his whole body had been ignited, and he felt uncomfortably impatient.

When Liu Lang was in the Anaconda Continent, he had been suppressing his realm all the time.

So William didn't know exactly how strong his eldest brother had reached.

Now in the common people's territory, Liu Lang no longer needs to suppress his strength.

With this gentle move, the situation changed.

William weighed in his heart, if he had full firepower, how long would he be able to fight his eldest brother before he could lose?

It deserves to be the eldest brother who has lived for several years!

The heaven and the earth give birth to gold, so that everyone present has a layer of golden light on their faces.

The golden light also obscured the complex look in everyone's eyes, making it difficult to distinguish emotions.

In the golden light, Nie Shuangxingdou's cold sweat broke out.

This.....

What the hell is this!

Looking at the golden light of the dragon scales in the sky, Nie Shuangxing felt cold from the bottom of his heart.

He seemed to be in a prehistoric battlefield, and in front of him was the endless five-clawed golden dragon, and he was a tiny ant like dust.

Under such a strong psychological suggestion, Nie Shuangxing didn't have any resistance to it at all.

It will die...

The chill in his heart made him a little afraid to look directly at Liu Lang.

This kid, where is the monster that popped up again!

A William is scary enough!

Add Liu Lang!

What kind of fairy combination!

"Huh? No move?" Liu Lang stared at the sweaty Nie Shuangxing and asked faintly.

"This, this..." Nie Shuangxing touched the sweat on his forehead, and said quickly, "Liu Lang, if you have something to say, we are all people with identities, so why bother to shoot in front of them?"

"Oh? You mean..." Liu Lang asked pretendingly in doubt.

Nie Shuangxing bit his lip and said decisively: "I thought about my ruling just now and it was really biased, otherwise you can give me an opinion? We take it for granted!"

An arc was drawn at the corner of Liu Lang's mouth, and his breath relaxed.

The golden light in the sky gradually dissipated.

The sky returned to its previous appearance in a short while, and it was gray.

It seems that the dragon scales of heaven and earth just now were just a dream.

"So you can speak human words." Liu Lang resumed his previous hippie smile.

It makes people feel that the prestigious person just now seems to be just an illusion.

Faced with Liu Lang's ridicule, how dare Nie Shuangxing refute.

He just sneered and said, "I'm joking and joking."

Liu Lang ignored him, looked at everyone on the scene, and said loudly: "The ruling just now is invalid. We will make a new ruling."

After a brief silence, thunderous applause erupted from the scene.

Applause dedicated to this vicissitudes of man.

Because of his existence, the nine qualifying matches for this place have saved the dignity and continued their lives.

Amidst the applause, several families were happy and some were sad.

From the beginning of Hu Yixiao, all the people with strange swords covering the sky were bleak and bleak.

After working hard for a long time, he even showed his two hole cards.

In the end, there was nothing to say, and the reputation of his sect was completely stigmatized.

Let's not talk about the other eight sects now, even those small sects, it is estimated that they are all scornful of Qijian Zhuangtian.

It's over, what can I do next?

Many people with a strange sword covering the sky have already begun to quit their sect in their hearts at this time.

After all, some people on Hu Yixiao are Hu Yixiao's business, and it is estimated that the others will be unable to move an inch between the nine sects in the future.

At the same time, there are people who have this idea.

Xianghua Lixue was the first sect to be kicked out of the nine sects this time, and all of them were miserable.

Wenren Tiange had no blood on his face at the moment, staring blankly at a person at the scene.

Wiliam!

He admitted that he had miscalculated.

And he has been underestimating Wiliam.

Wiliam's strength was already amazing enough.

He didn't think of his brother, whose status was so high.

If you had a good relationship with Wiliam before, not only would you have the head of the nine sects at your fingertips, you could even use Wiliam to climb up the relationship of the six methods.

From then on, the fragrant flowers and blood went straight up, glorifying forever!

However, everything is too late.

From the time he looked down on Wiliam, Xianghua's blood was destined to be a failure.

In fact, there is still a chance for Fragrant Blossoms to drain blood.

Because the final ruling power has been handed over to Liu Lang.

As long as Wiliamken opens this mouth...

He couldn't help looking at his two daughters.

However, Wen Renqing said in a cold voice for the first time: "Father, you can accept this reality. This is the retribution of our fragrant flowers. We will not speak to Wiliam."

Wen Renqingqing also nodded and said, "Moreover, Wiliam's eldest brother just came forward because of unfairness and unfairness. Now you want us to embarrass Wiliam and make his eldest brother unfair and unfair? Are you trying to make them brothers? The two have become a joke?"

"What the jokes mean for a while, our scented glory is more important..."
Someone couldn't help but say from the side.

But what was exchanged was a sneer from the sisters.

There is no cure for the fragrant flowers to drain the blood, and all sins are deserved.

Wen Renqing had this premonition when Wiliam left Xianghua to drain his blood.

The fragrant and bloody dusk and doomsday are here.

It just doesn't attract everyone's attention.

Now the facts once again verify that her hunch is correct.

Fragrant flowers and blood are not only dusk and doom, but even eternal night and abyss.

I got up again, I don't know which year and era it was.

Bai Jianxing was also sad.

Because of his cowardice and the difference in thoughts, he caused the loss of the head of the nine sects, not to mention, now he fell directly out of the sects.

He was at a loss.

There is even an urge to apologize on the spot.

He is sorry to the sect, sorry to the ancestors!

The happiest person at the scene was the one in the sky.

They are about to enter the nine sects with unprecedented glory, and may even be the first of the nine sects.

The old sect master seems to be rejuvenated, with red eyes looking forward to it, and waiting for the final answer to be announced, he can return to his hometown to comfort his ancestors!

At this time, Liu Lang coughed on stage.

The people at the scene suddenly became quiet.

They knew that nine final verdicts were coming.

Even the sorting of nine cases is coming together!

Whoever is in the upper nine cases and who is in the next nine cases determines the development of the next twenty years.

Liu Lang directly ignored Nie Shuangxing and said: "Now, on behalf of the referee team, I will judge the sect that won the nine positions in the nine qualifying matches."
