

Dragon Husband 1636 part 1

Chapter 1636 Re-elected

The scene suddenly became quiet.

Many people are looking forward to it and want to know what this final ranking is.

However, Liu Lang lost the chain at this time.

He scratched his head, a little embarrassed, and his expression became a little awkward.

Song Hanyu's heart raised her throat and immediately asked Wiliam in a low voice, "What's wrong with your elder brother?"

With a black thread, Wiliam said, "I guess he has forgotten which sects..."

Song Hanyu nearly turned his eyes out.

Nine qualifying matches. Nine qualifying matches.

His eldest brother doesn't even recognize which sects are, don't remember...

This is the referee of the ball...

How big is the nerve?

But Song Hanyu changed his mind and found it reasonable.

It is normal for Jiu Zong to consider what Liu Lang's eyes are.

"It's over, I have to take over the game again." Wiliam said suddenly depressed.

Song Hanyu was taken aback, just about to ask what the hell, but suddenly heard Liu Lang on the stage say in a casual tone: "My brother Wiliam will announce the results of the Nine Sects and the ranking of the Nine Sects."

This time Song Hanyu rolled his eyes straight out.

This horse is so neat!

How do you look down on the nine cases and let Wiliam directly decide?

Is it appropriate for Wiliam to be an athlete and a referee?

The people at the scene also looked at each other, wondering what the hell the two brothers are doing?

What they thought was, would it be unfair if Wiliamlai made a ruling?

But after thinking about it, I don't think so, because Wiliam walked down the ground with his feet on the ground, and there was no interest in it.

Let's see.....

At this time, Wiliam bit his head and walked up, shoulder to shoulder with Liu Lang.

He pondered for a moment, and said: "According to the points of this competition and the overall performance contributions of the sects in the past, as well as the overall consideration of the areas where each sect is good at. World-made people."

Wiliam first announced the two veteran sects.

Han Xing Wangqing's suzerain stood up and nodded slightly to express his gratitude to Wiliam.

Han Xing Wangqing, as the second in the millennium of Nine Sects, played steadily in this competition. There were not as many moths as the Dugu Hongshi, so he was able to re-elect, and he deserved it.

The same is true for Yushizhi. Huqing Su Emei, as the only woman in the audience to let Wiliam suffer a defeat, blushed at this moment.

Why do you think that Wiliamhui is so good? Now think about how much favor Wiliam gave to the imperial family...

And thinking about letting a fierce like Wiliam defeat him, Su Emei was so embarrassed that he wanted to get into the hole.

This head is under too much pressure!

After going out, people call me the only woman who defeated Wiliam, what should I do?

The two sects announced were quite satisfactory and well-founded. Everyone was satisfied, and the scene immediately responded with warm applause.

Wiliam said again, "Remnant Sword Nine Heavens and the red and thin tall buildings have remained in continuation."

There was applause again on the scene.

Xu Tongyin of Can Sword Nine Heavens was extremely powerful in this Nine Sect Qualifying Tournament.

Dragon Husband 1636 part 2

If it weren't for the existence of William's big BUG level, Xu Tongyin's becoming a champion in one fell swoop would be a sure thing.

As for the red and thin tall buildings, they are quite satisfactory. Although they are not too strong, they must not be underestimated.

In fact, everyone knows in their hearts that the biggest boss of the red and thin tall buildings is Su Hongxiu.

Su Hongxiu is qualified to take part in the game personally.

But she didn't have it, but gave it to younger people.

In the face of the overall situation where the interests and glory of the sect mattered, she was still making way for the younger generation, and this kind of mind was worthy of praise for all generations.

Moreover, no one knows how strong Su Hongxiu is now.

It's been a long time since anyone saw her make a move.

In the past, it was not a problem for her to single-handedly challenge her.

Now two years have passed. Although Shuangjiao is advancing forward, who knows that Su Hongxiu is not...

It is also very reasonable to keep the red and thin tall buildings in nine cases.

William said: "Goodwood Gongshu and Yinianxianyu, as masters of art and craftsmanship, have also won nine sects again. Congratulations."

There was applause again on the scene.

This time William not only announced that the two sects had re-elected, but also explained the reasons very warmly by the way.

Yi Nian Immortal Prison is the only technique among the nine sects, and the healers who travel the world have indeed greatly enriched the connotation of the nine sects.

In the same way, the fine wood of the artisan way is the same. The only artisan way among the nine sects, there is a group of idiots who are fascinated by the wood and stones, which is worthy of admiration.

Yi Nian Immortal Prison and Liang Mu Gong lose again, and everyone is happy to accept it.

Otherwise, all the nine sects are a group of warriors, fighting and killing all day long, and they will die barbarously.

William is a young kid, but he looks at the bigger picture.

All considered the future development.

This is the best. A hundred flowers bloom in the nine cases, which is a beautiful thing.

Right now, William has consecutively announced six sects to be shortlisted in the nine sects.

These six are considered to be re-elected old sects.

With only three positions left, the people on the scene gradually became nervous.

In particular, there are some sects who performed well, staring at William eagerly.

The light in the eyes of the strange sword covering the sky, the fragrant flower and the lonely lion gradually dimmed.

There should be no part of them...

At this time, William looked at the person in the Jin Yu valley.

Their hearts were raised all at once!

come yet!

Is the historic moment of Jinyu valley coming?

The old Sect Master's eyes beamed, and his hands were tightly holding his crutches.

Williamzheng disappointed them.

He said loudly: "The seventh finalist in the nine cases is fresh blood. Jinyu volleys!"

"boom!"

The scene suddenly burst into applause.

The performance of Jin Yu Volley in this nine qualifying matches is obvious to all.

Wiliam, a big bug-level character, passed the test all the way, and even the strongest Xu Tongyin fell to the ground.

Even his age is the youngest in the audience.

His points were already several times ahead of the back, but now he has taken away all Chi Zhan's points.

One person carried a clan!

And even if there is no Wiliam, there is still Song Hanyu in Jinyu Volley!

Although Song Hanyu did not fully demonstrate his strength in the second half of this game.

But the first few games have been amazing.

Most people think that if Song Hanyu and Xu Tongyin fight hard, the result is estimated to be forty or six points.

Song Hanyu himself had enough strength to carry Jin Yu volley forward all the way.

It's just that she sacrificed too much for Jin Yu to volley.

First he conceded defeat to Chi, and then gave way to Wiliam.

Obviously, in the face of strength and honor, Song Hanyu chose the honor of the sect.

Such a character is indeed very admirable.

Jin Yu volleyed into nine cases without precedent in history, and there was nothing wrong with it.
