Chapter 1660 When you go back, the day of destruction!

What Wiliam took out was the grandmother's root he got from Peach Blossom Lady.

Wiliam still remembers what Peach Blossom said to him at that time.

Get the roots of my grandmother and escape the cycle of life and death.

Originally, Wiliam was going to use this grandmother's root on his grandfather to see if he could revive him in advance.

Now it seems that it can only be used for Fengxue first.

Although Wiliam didn't know the specific magic of the grandmother's root, but based on his intuition, the grandmother's root should be useful.

He held the grandmother's root and directly pressed it against the frost on Feng Xue's body.

Then use Qi Jin to slowly melt the root of the grandmother.

The roots of the grandmother suddenly turned into a stream of crystal clear streamers, slowly penetrated into the frost, and finally melted into Feng Xue's mouth.

Don't look at this as just a small step, but Wiliam raised his spirits.

And the mind is dual-purpose, constantly checking the breath of the wind and snow.

If she is a little different, Wiliam will immediately stop refining the root of the grandmother.

Fortunately, Feng Xue did not have any other adverse reactions in the process.

It was not until the grandmother's roots were completely absorbed by the wind and snow that Wiliam slowly stopped the energy in his hands.

But he was still detecting the breath of the wind and snow.

After a while, Wiliam's heart beat fiercely!

He clearly felt that Feng Xue's life energy was slowly increasing.

Could it be that this grandmother's root can directly save Feng Xue and wake her up?

Wiliam's face was flushed, feeling so nervous for the first time in his life!

However, slowly, slowly, Wiliam's heart full of tension and joy returned to calm.

Although Feng Xue's life energy was slowly recovering, it only reached a certain level and stopped.

She didn't show any signs of waking up.

It can even be said that she still has no threat of escaping death.

Moreover, as the wind and snow are so frozen, her life will be slowly lost.

We must find a way to completely cure the wind and snow.

Wiliam stayed by Feng Xue's side for a while, making sure that Feng Xue would not be in danger for a few days, so he sighed and got up and walked outside.

He returned to the place where the crowd gathered.

Seeing Wiliam coming out, Li Chunfeng ran over nervously and asked eagerly, "Where is Fengxue! Fengxue is okay now!"

Others also looked at Wiliam with anticipation.

Wiliam slowly shook his head and said, "There will be no danger to life in the next few days, but in a few days, I can't guarantee it."

Hearing Wiliam say this, the faces of the people at the scene froze.

Even Wiliam can't do anything...

Wiliam looked at Su Emei and asked, "Emei, you have been there for a long time, do you know if there is any magic doctor there?"

Su Emei shook his head and said helplessly: "I stayed there for a long time, but I also contacted people from the Nine Sects. And you have seen the virtues of the people of the Nine Sects, I really don't have any. I found out that someone's medical skills are more powerful than you. Even if it is a person who thinks about the immortal prison, I guess there is no way to do it."

Wiliam's expectant heart slowly cooled down again.

"However, Wiliam, you still have to go back and ask your eldest brother and second brother. They are also genius doctors, maybe there will be a way out?" Su Emei couldn't bear to see Wiliam's hopeless look, and hurriedly tried again. Added a sentence.

Wiliam nodded and said, "Well, that's what I mean. I can only hope for the two big brothers."

It was Liu Lang that Wiliam placed his hopes on.

Big brother is well-informed, there should be a way.

Isn't Wiliam's grandfather the one who gave advice to the maze by Liu Lang?

"Wiliam, did you come back after knowing something happened to Fengxue?" He Tiantian asked aside.

She looked left and right before, but she couldn't see the dead ghost appear.

It seems that only Wiliam and Su Emei are back this time.

Wiliam shook his head bitterly and said, "If I had known in advance, how could Fengxue be hurt so much!"

"Wiliam, good people have good rewards, Fengxue will be fine." Dao Xiaofeng also said.

Wiliam nodded and said, "Let's get down to business. I came here this time to pick you up."

"Pick us up?" The others were taken aback.

He Tiantian hurriedly asked, "Didn't we say we waited for you guys to settle down there before we went there? Now that we're going there, I'm afraid we won't be able to protect ourselves at all, right?"

The guardians who stayed here with a strange sword covering the sky made the first sect in the world suffer.

If you get there, there will be a gathering of talents, and it will be even more difficult to move.

William said lightly: "First of all, that place is not as scary as we thought before. You can think of it as another city, but there are more experts. There are also many civilians living in it."

"Then, our three brothers are over there, and they have settled down. I thought about it over there. Even our hostile sects would not dare to act rashly against you."

Nonsense, William has many enemies, but more people.

Can Jian Jiutian is now the first of the nine sects.

Dugu Hongshi also obeyed William.

These are two sects who have both served as the heads of the nine sects, who dares to offend easily?

Not to mention that there are other sects such as Jinyu Lingkong, Lanshan Zhige, Yushizhiren, Hongshou High-rise Building, etc., who are also William's good friends.

In particular, Brother Liu Lang is now a person of the Six Laws. I am afraid that among the nine sects, there will be no fools who will think about attacking the family members and friends of the three of them.

"Finally, the sword covers the sky, ho ho..."

When William said this, a trace of sternness flashed in the depths of his eyes!

"The day I go back is when they will be destroyed!"

Damn it, the sword covers the sky!

Now William thought about it.

Qi Jian Zhe Tian was taking advantage of their status as guardians of the humanitarian order, so they planned to strike first.

It's just that they never imagined that William would come back the next day.

Therefore, the sword covers the sky, and you must die!

The people at the scene looked at William in disbelief.

These latter two pieces of information will keep their trendy trend unquenched for a long time!

How long has it been since the three brothers passed!

Stand your ground right there!

Moreover, Wiliam opened his mouth and said that a sect would be destroyed!

That's not a small sect like them!

It was the former nine sects!

How arrogant this kid is!

Where is the bottom line!

After Wiliam finished speaking, he looked at Su Emei again.

Su Emei was a little uncomfortable when he looked at him, and she always felt that there was some conspiracy hidden in her eyes.

"What are you looking at me for?" Su Emei couldn't help asking.

The corner of Wiliam's mouth twitched and asked, "How many people do you think Lingyu Jinniag can carry at most?"

"A thousand or so, no problem, right?"

When Su Emei heard this number, he was dumbfounded, "What the hell? What the f*ck!"
