Chapter 1662 Crossing the Heaven Again

"What! Passing through the cang python! You are crazy! This is impossible!" Su Emei looked at Wiliam in disbelief.

What the hell kind of advice does this guy make when he's about to leave!

It simply doesn't work!

Seeing that Wiliam didn't respond, Su Emei couldn't help but say: "Do you know what I'm talking about? I just told you that there are restrictions on the cang python, so the gods can't fly over. Neither can Yu Jinnieng."

However, Wiliam seemed to be determined and said, "Try it, how will you know if you don't try it?"

"Why are you doing this!" Su Emei was about to explode with anger, but he swallowed the words when they reached his lips.

She knew that every choice Wiliam made had his reasons.

And now Ling Yu Jinnieng has the family of the three brothers and Wiliam's forces in her stomach.

He wouldn't joke about their lives at all.

So, what is he going to do?

Is this step the possibility that Wiliam said?

Su Emei looked at Wiliam deeply, nodded, and said, "I hope everything is as you expected."

Saying that, she took Wiliam and jumped directly onto Lingyu Jinnieng's shoulder.

There is no need to go into the stomach anymore.

And Lingyu Jinnieng grunted, not knowing what she was talking about.

Her body slowly vacated the air, and directly broke through the air.

I don't know how long it took, Ling Yu Jinniāng finally came to the edge of the blue python.

The water of the Cang Python Squadron is still surging, as if it had been the same for thousands of years.

And this time, Wiliam didn't see the cold boat.

It is estimated that it is not the best time to cross, so they are gone.

"Wiliam, have you made up your mind?" Su Emei confirmed for the last time.

"Well, let's go." Wiliam nodded and asked Ling Yu Jinniāng to release the frosty wind and snow.

He put one arm around Feng Xue, and his expression became complicated.

Wish, wish...

I hope that the original agreement can be realized...

Ling Yu Jinniāng's body once again rushed towards the sky of the blue python.

Su Emei was not at ease and said the last sentence, "If it is too dangerous, to the point of everyone's life, I will immediately tell Lingyu Jinniāng to stop."

"Well." Wiliam said.

As soon as Lingyu Jinniāng entered the sky of the Cang Mang, her expression became ugly.

She was still muttering incessantly, as if she was not happy to rush up so violently.

Fortunately, Su Emei was constantly comforting him.

At the beginning, Ling Yu Jinniāng was able to break through toughly.

Even Wiliam clearly felt that there was a mysterious force in the sky that was constantly blocking Lingyu Jinniāng's advancing body.

She seemed more and more irritable in it.

Although we can continue to move forward, the resistance is getting bigger and bigger.

According to Wiliam's estimation, it would be considered good to be able to enter the middle of the Cang Python Sky Moat in this way.

Is this true?

William didn't have any confidence in his heart.

Soon, Ling Yu Jinning's body seemed to be nailed in mid-air.

Hard to move!

And just when Su Emei was about to give up and let Ling Yu Jinning go back, Ling Yu Jinning didn't know what was going on.

She roared loudly, and her body suddenly grew bigger!

"Boom!" She was no longer flying sideways.

Instead, he stood straight in the air.

In this way, under the incomparable pressure, he took a few steps forward!

It seems that this ban on heaven and earth has also inspired Lingyu Jinning's arrogance.

Step by step, she stepped in the sky with an extremely heavy weight!

And her roar became heavier and louder, and even at the end, it was a little hoarse!

"William! Do you want to continue!" Su Emei looked at William nervously.

And William didn't answer, his eyes were on the front.

We are about to reach the center of the Cang Python Squad!

If it's in the center, it's not even possible...

William was about to give up!

"Five steps forward!" William suddenly shouted loudly!

He handed the frosty wind and snow to Su Emei.

Then the whole person also vacated directly, and even rushed in front of Lingyu Jinni-ang.

He wants to share some pressure for Ling Yu Jin Niang!

Arriving in front of Lingyu Jinni-ang, a surging sense of oppression rushed towards Wiliam in an instant!

At this moment, Wiliam spat out a mouthful of blood!

His body was almost squeezed into flesh by this oppressive feeling in an instant!

Fortunately, Wiliam's unicorn body was released immediately!

The unicorn's scales instantly wrapped Wiliam's body, and his pressure was relieved!

But it's far from enough!

Wiliam roared violently, and the Qilin breath on his body suddenly swelled, and he rushed directly to the peak!

"Go!" Wiliam shouted at Ling Yu Jinni-ang who was behind him, and he had already taken a step forward.

Fortunately, Lingyu Jinni-ang didn't have any anger with Wiliam, and soon took a step with Wiliam.

In this way, Wiliam continued to walk forward despite the danger of his body being shattered, putting all the pressure that originally belonged to Lingyu Jinni-ang on himself!

His body was protected by unicorn scales, and he was torn and bruised all over!

last step!

Wiliam seems to be crazy!

His eyes were red, staring straight ahead!

One more step!

If not dead!

Back off!

"Come on!" Wiliam roared again and forcibly took a step forward!

“boom!”

This time!

The whole piece of Cang Python seems to be disturbed!

Trembling violently!

The water in Cang Python’s moat seemed to come alive and swept towards Wiliam frantically!

How can Wiliam still have the strength to fight these storms!

He only knew that his own footsteps had already stepped out, and Ling Yu Jinniāng, who was behind him, also took a step.

Then, the crazy water waves devoured them completely and completely!

Wiliam’s consciousness also blurred instantly!

In the vague moment before, he could still hear Su Emei shouting something loudly...

The next second, he was already unconscious.

I don’t know how long it took before Wiliam gradually recovered some feelings.

However, what followed was a tear-like pain.

He couldn’t help screaming.

All around, it was pitch black.

He screamed and looked around, looking for something.

where is this...

hell?

Just as Wiliam was thinking, a sneering sneer came from his ears.

“Does it hurt...”

“Who?” Wiliam immediately became alert and asked sharply.

In the darkness, a faint blue light suddenly appeared.

Blue light slowly illuminated the space around him.

William saw it.

In front of him, someone stood at some point.

A person who doesn't know if it's male or female.

"Who are you?" William asked.

"Who are you?" The man asked back, his voice also being male and female.

William stared at the man in front of him and answered his own question.

"Frost Cang Python, Petite Rou?"
