

Dragon Husband 1687 part 1

Chapter 1687 Killed

Hearing this, the pupils of Xiang Hua Li Xue shrank, but they didn't react at once.

It was so quiet there.

The disciple who reported the letter and the senior leaders of Xianghualixue stared at each other for two minutes.

Then, the people who were fragrant and bloody suddenly started to riot!

Everyone was just like flies, scurrying around, and the scene turned into a pot of porridge!

Even Wenren Tiange's forehead had fine beads of sweat.

His face was also full of horror.

However, he is the head of a sect after all, so he still forced himself to calm down and shouted, "Quiet me all!"

Only then did the people at the scene realize that their first reaction just now was to run around trying to escape.

Wiliam didn't know when it had become their nightmare.

"You repeat what you just said!" Wen Rentiange looked at the disciple.

The disciple was trembling all over. He was stunned by the sect master, his legs trembled, he knelt directly on the ground, and said stumblingly, "I said, Wiliam killed him..."

After it was confirmed that it was Wiliam, everyone's faces became even more ugly.

Sure enough, this kid is a man who will pay revenge. It has only been two days since he finished cleaning up the sword and covering the sky.

This ungrateful dog thing!

"Is he alone?" When Wen Ren Tiange asked this, he felt quite uncomfortable.

If it is a person, he is afraid.

Because Wiliam was the one who leveled the sword and covered the sky.

But if it is not one person, but a group of people, he is even more afraid.

He couldn't handle it alone, not to mention the several sects of the brothers behind Wiliam.

"Uh, two people." The disciple said without hesitation.

This answer made Wenren Tiange stunned.

Not one person, not a group of people.

But two people?

What the hell is this?

"Who else is there?" Wenren Tiange asked.

"It should be his wife, I see them standing arm in arm," said the disciple.

Snowstorm!

In the past two days, the name of Feng Xue has spread to every corner of each sect.

I didn't expect to see a living person today.

Wen Ren Tiange frowned and suddenly thought of something.

"You said they were standing together? Where are they standing?" Wen Rentiange asked.

"Stand at the door of our sect." The man said.

Wen Ren Tiange suddenly let out a sigh of relief and said, "I don't think Wiliam came here to seek revenge from us. If he wanted to seek revenge, he would just kill him directly, why should he stand at the door. There must be other things, We don't have to worry too much."

The people at the scene also felt that Wenrentiange's analysis was reasonable, and they all breathed a sigh of relief.

It's just that when they looked at each other, their eyes were somewhat awkward.

When they heard Wiliam kill them just now, every soul was scared away, and those instinctive escape moves were even more ashamed to be known!

Some people immediately vented their anger on this disciple, and they rushed over and beat him violently.

While beating, he made up for himself, "Then you are killing me! It's obvious that they came over to ask to see you, okay! I can't speak, and I will sew your mouth!"

That disciple is also innocent. While suffering the beatings and crying, his head was thinking. It was an instinctive reaction. When he saw Wiliam, the first reaction in his head was to kill him. No wonder !!

When you heard Wiliam's name one by one, didn't you freak out too?

It's just that he doesn't dare to say these words.

"Okay, don't be embarrassed anymore! Be quiet!" Wen Rentiange couldn't help shouting.

This group of people really can't be on the big stage at all!

The disciple was relieved and ran out of the hall in a hurry.

"Quick, please come out and please come out. We will meet Wiliam at the door immediately." Wen Rentiange immediately explained to another person with neat legs.

It was said that everyone went to the door to greet him immediately, but not a single person moved, including Wenrentiange.

Obviously everyone was waiting for the pair of sisters to come and go to the door together.

Otherwise, Wiliam really has other goals. If there are no sisters in the way, wouldn't everyone take the initiative to send people's heads in the past?

Everyone was so restless waiting for the sisters to come over and use them as a shield.

But after waiting for a few minutes, they didn't see them coming.

Even Wenren Tiange was in a hurry, so he couldn't help sending someone over to urge him.

However, the man came back and gave them a very speechless message.

It turned out that Wen Renxin also came over when he heard Feng Xue, and he was just as happy, so he rushed to the door with the old sister.

I didn't even think about taking them there.

This can make Wenrentiange angry.

This little girl with her elbows turned out!

Nothing!

"Let's go, we'll go over immediately! Otherwise, people will think we're putting on the air." Wen Ren Tiange walked out of the door decisively.

Everyone looked at each other.

The Sect Master always feels that his face changes quickly.

Wen Rentiange walked for a while, and immediately saw a few people standing at the door.

Among them, Wiliam is particularly conspicuous, dressed in white, and his temperament is outstanding.

Look at the temperament of the big guy.

Standing there without saying anything, it makes people feel very majestic.

Wiliam is good, Wiliam is very good.

On the side of Wiliam, there was also a woman in white who was more beautiful than the snow.

At this moment, Wen Ren Tiange's good daughter Wen Ren Qingxin has hugged this woman tightly, as if she is talking.

The other daughter was standing aside and talking to Wiliam.

Wen Ren Tiange patted his face, showing the most kind and hospitable smile, and quickly strode up to greet him.

"Aah, hahaha! Wiliam, it's been a long time since I've seen you, but I'm so nervous! Rare guest! Come here today, why don't we have a drink and catch up on the old days, don't you know, since the last time After saying goodbye, I miss you so much, and I was thinking about when to visit, but I didn't think you were here, hahaha." Wen Rentiange said with a smile as he walked.

The faces of the people following him became extremely strange.

What the hell is the sect master?

Are you changing your face too fast?

Missing hard? Isn't it disgusting for a man to say it to another man?

Moreover, the last time we parted, wasn't it just the nine qualifying matches?

Is it a full week by now?

It's just talking nonsense with my eyes open, and it's so licking a dog!

William was neither sad nor happy, looking at Wenrentiange approaching, he went straight to the subject, "I didn't come to you, I came to your ancestors."

Hearing Renrentian's song, he gave a thumbs up without hesitation!

"William is William! Look at it! Look at it! Also, how can we, Xianghualixue, be qualified to compare with you now! Only our ancestors are qualified! Please, please!"
