

Dragon Husband 1698 PART 1

Chapter 1698 Ruthless Snowstorm

Wiliam has a strange feeling.

It seems that Bai Fengxue, who is being hosted at this moment, is Wiliam all along.

And Wiliam turned into Bai Fengxue, looking so weak and helpless.

The roles of the two seem to be reversed.

Because Wiliam has always stood in the position of calculating the sky and calculating the air.

Although every battle he fought, he always had a sense of strategizing.

Now, I feel nothing.

Only a sigh remained.

do not hit me.....

The overwhelming peach blossom demons surrounded Wiliam fiercely in an instant.

Wiliam's actions also became more and more sluggish, and even his head began to be muddled.

This is definitely a ghost created by Feng Xue's peach blossom frost branch.

"Snapped"!

Some branches of the peach tree slapped Wiliam's face fiercely.

Only then did Wiliam wake up a little.

Rao is because his body is extremely strong, and there is also a bloodstain on his face at this moment.

it hurts...

Immediately afterwards, his body was also lashed by endless peach blossom branches.

William suddenly felt that life was worse than death.

I don't know if this devil's fantasy is a ghost created by the peach blossom lady, but it's amazing to feel the pain.

Every time he whipped, although it was only a flesh wound, William had a kind of pain that caused his soul to be cut into the bone by a knife.

And this endless whiplash can't stop.

The further back, the peach blossom branch's attack also carried a biting feeling of freezing cold.

William felt that his whole body was about to be frozen.

He reluctantly opened his eyes, but saw that the peach blossom branches that threw him were already hung with sharp ice edges.

Moreover, by the end, William could no longer see the peach blossom branches in the sky.

It seems to have dissipated.

Just as his heart was about to be moved, he suddenly saw the wind and snow in his eyes plucked up the peach blossom frost branches on the ground and rushed towards him quickly.

With one stick, it slammed hard on William's head.

William had already lost the ability to move.

Feng Xue just hit William's head one after another.

no emotion...

This ride!

The more you fight, the stronger you get, the harder you fight!

Fengxue, be yourself!

Forget it, fade away, fade away.

At the last moment of William's consciousness, he was so helpless.

When he woke up, there was an anxious cry from Feng Xue in his ears.

“Wiliam, Wiliam, are you okay?”

Wiliam thought to himself, there’s nothing wrong, don’t you know the culprit?

He slowly opened his eyes, and saw Feng Xue’s beautiful eyes filled with tears, with a worried look on his face.

“Fengxue, I’m fine, I can’t die.” Wiliam said weakly.

He inspected his body and found that all the physical injuries had disappeared.

However, that kind of pain is still preserved.

Especially his head, it felt like it was about to crack.

Even a person with a copper head and iron arms can’t bear it when he encounters an emotionless snowstorm and beats his head hundreds of times in a row.

Wiliam turned his head, just in time to see Lady Peach Blossom covering her mouth with a chuckle.

He understood instantly.

It’s all this sh*t.

Taoyuan Illusion was created by Lady Peach Blossom, so even if Wiliam was seriously injured inside, he could come out unscathed.

Dragon Husband 1698 PART 2

But how to explain this pain?

It can only be said that the peach blossom lady did it on purpose!

This old evildoer, change the way to torment me, right!

She can’t do it because of her identity, so let my wife do it?

So evil!

For a while, Wiliam couldn’t complain about Madam Peach Blossom.

"How is it? Do you feel the strength of your family's Fengxue?" After the peach blossom finished laughing, she walked over and said to Wiliam.

With Feng Xue's help, Wiliam stood up reluctantly, and said dejectedly: "Zunniang, you are so cruel! Let me and Feng Xue kill each other. I don't care what kind of strength I have now, and you have no intention of letting me know. The strength of wind and snow."

In Wiliam's heart, the real name of this battle called testing strength is revenge.

What Feng Xue showed should not be her true strength.

However, Bai Fengxue on the side was stunned, "What, we killed each other? What happened just now, why don't I know anything?"

Seeing Feng Xue's innocent and distressed expression, Wiliam felt even more aggrieved.

He really couldn't connect the lover who cared so much about him in front of him with the trustee Fengxue who just beat him to death in the fantasy realm.

Totally too divisive.

"It's nothing, it's the grandmother's fault." Wiliam quickly explained to Feng Xue.

But Lady Peach Blossom said nonsense in a serious manner, "What is it that I don't intend to let you know Feng Xue's strength, I'll tell you now."

She thought for a while and said slowly: "Based on the strength Fengxue showed in the illusion just now, Fengxue can reach more than ten times this height in the future. After all, Xiaorou's blood marrow inheritance is not formidable."

Wiliamting's eyeballs are about to fall off!

More than ten times!

Just the ruthless wind and snow in the illusion just now, the strength is far above Wiliam.

Ten times more!

It's just outrageous!

Wiliam couldn't imagine what the wind and snow with more than ten times the strength would look like.

But one thing is absolutely conceivable.

My own head is estimated to be knocked to pieces!

Petite Rou's bloodline is so terrifying!

"But this is not Feng Xue's true strength, it can only be said to be her potential." Wiliam came back to his senses and said again.

"Well, it's not wrong to say that." Peach Blossom nodded and agreed with Wiliam's statement, then changed the subject and said, "But I just said that her strength just now is the benchmark, it can naturally measure her in reality. real power."

"How can I say it, Feng Xue in the fantasy world, my strength has been adjusted to the current upper limit, which is twice her real strength. Now you can push back her real strength, right?"

Wiliam's face was gloomy.

This horse riding is not a math problem!

How to push!

Fight again in reality?

I can handle it with my body, but my head can't handle it!

This, can you still use the illusion to adjust the combat power of people?

When you are playing a game to open cheats!

Thinking of this, Wiliam felt a little more in awe of his grandmother.

This heart domain is really terrifying!

I just don't know if the grandmother has lowered her combat power.

Is this too scary?

In the fantasy world, can grandmother easily control a person's combat power?

As for thinking, can it also be swayed?

However, Wiliam immediately thought of another terrible question and felt numb all over!

Grandmother knew Feng Xue's strength from the beginning, and there was no hope at all to let Wiliam know Feng Xue's strength through an illusion.

He touched his head and looked at the grandmother in disbelief, "That is to say, before you enter the illusion, you know Feng Xue's strength, and after I go in and come out, I still don't know Feng Xue's strength."

"Isn't that what I meant by being beaten for nothing?"

"Grandmother, are you polite!"
