

Dragon Husband 1714 Part 1

Chapter 1714 Impure

A long time has passed.

Even Wiliam felt a little anxious.

And Bai Fengxue was even more anxious to walk around the scene with anxiety written all over her face.

“Wiliam, why did they talk for so long and nothing happened?” Bai Fengxue asked Wiliam.

She didn’t know how many times she had asked Wiliam this question.

But still tirelessly.

“Wait and see, there shouldn’t be anything wrong.” Wiliam could only answer.

In his heart, he was more assured of Du Zhexing.

But at this moment, they suddenly felt a violent tremor on the ground!

Someone suddenly shouted outside: “Everyone, look at the sky! My God! What is this!”

Wiliam’s heart froze, grabbing Feng Xue’s hand and rushing outside.

When he got outside, his first feeling was that it was very hot!

A heat that burns the soul!

The scene was like entering a scorching hell in an instant.

Everyone’s face was red.

It was taken care of by something.

Wiliam couldn’t help but raised his head and looked at the sky!

Seeing this, he felt a kind of palpitations!

I saw that the sky above their heads was already dyed bright red!

In the sky, a magnificent blood-colored rhododendron blooms!

It is this rhododendron that covers the sky and the sun, and everyone's face is red, and it also makes everyone feel hot!

"What is this!" Bai Fengxue couldn't help shouting out, it was the first time in his life that he saw such a magnificent sight.

"Cuckoo!" Wiliam replied in a deep voice.

He couldn't figure out what happened for a while!

And suddenly, the rhododendron that covered the sky and the sun seemed to have been severely damaged, and instantly shattered into incomparably dense petals.

The petals fell from the sky, and it turned out to be like magma falling from the sky!

"Flee!" Everyone shouted in panic and ran under the eaves.

The people who have never been so calm in Han Xing's mind were never so calm, but under this magma cuckoo, they all panicked.

Everyone hid under the eaves, only to hear the eaves banged by the azalea petals.

Fortunately, the azalea petals are finished, and there is nothing strange.

This strange phenomenon just lasted for less than ten seconds.

But the shock it brings is enough to remember for a lifetime.

"Boom!" Another strong roar came from not far behind them.

Han Xing's forgetful person looked in that direction and exclaimed again, "It's the ancestral hall! There is something wrong with the ancestral hall!"

Wiliam's brows instantly wrinkled, and he also thought of something!

Ancestral hall!

Could it be that Du Zhaixing and Chunfeng are no longer in the hall at all, but went to the ancestral hall!

Since it is the ancestral hall of Han Xing Wangqing, there is a high probability that the inheritance of the emperor's heart will happen there!

The blooming rhododendrons that covered the sky just now must have something to do with the mutation of the ancestral hall!

not good!

There may be something wrong with the spring breeze!

When Wiliam thought of this, there was no reason to be anxious.

At this moment, he didn't care about any etiquette, and rushed directly to the direction of the ancestral hall with Feng Xue.

No need for Wiliam to say, other people also ran in that direction with Wiliam.

Soon, Wiliam and the others arrived at the ancestral hall.

However, something strange happened again.

On the side of the ancestral hall, it was quiet.

As if no one had ever been there.

The vibration just now was clearly pointing in this direction!

Just when Wiliam wanted to directly break into the ancestral hall to find out, two figures appeared in the ancestral hall.

It was Du Zhaixing and Li Chunfeng.

It's just that the spring breeze at the moment looks terrible!

She was covered in blood and seemed to lose consciousness.

She was hugged by Du Zhaixing and walked out of the ancestral hall!

"Spring Breeze!" Bai Fengxue was the first to rush up.

All she cared about was the life and death of her best friend.

Wiliam quickly followed.

Du Zhaixing gently handed the unconscious Li Chunfeng into Wiliam's hands, then turned around and took the door of the ancestral hall.

She also took out the strange key and locked the door again.

Then he turned the hand holding the key behind the crowd and shook it.

William didn't have time to ask Du Zhaixing what happened. He first carefully checked Chunfeng's injury.

Fortunately, after a short examination, William found that although Chunfeng's injury looked serious, it was not a threat of death.

Chunfeng's appearance is full of bloodstains, but in fact the internal injury is more serious.

It was as if something had been blasted out from the inside out, causing all the internal organs to be severely damaged.

However, William is confident that the spring breeze will gradually recover.

He first used the Long Live Demon Lotus to stabilize Chunfeng's injury, and then raised his head to look at Du Zhaixing.

I want to see a trace of indebtedness on her face.

After all, Du Zhexing swore before that he would not do anything disgusting to Chunfeng.

But what is the explanation for this situation now?

"Come with me, the others go back first." Du Zhaixing didn't see any expression on his face, he just said lightly to William.

William resisted the anger in his heart, and followed Du Zhaixing to the inner hall with Chunfeng in his arms.

And Bai Fengxue quickly followed.

She is also eager to know what happened to Chunfeng just now.

When they got to the inner hall, Du Zhaixing stopped telling people to watch the tea, but said directly, "As you expected, there was a little accident, but it's not an accident."

"Please tell me directly." William asked directly without his previous politeness.

"Chunfeng promised to try the inheritance of the emperor's heart just now, so I took her directly to our ancestral hall and let her start the inheritance of the emperor's heart." Du Zhaixing said indifferently.

“Unfortunately, as I expected, Chunfeng did not succeed in inheriting the emperor’s heart, or rather, the qualifications were not enough. However, to my surprise, she dared to directly force the inheritance of the emperor’s heart, but she was backlashed, resulting in the current situation, To be able to save a life, it is estimated that my ancestors thought that she had his own bloodline, and spared her not to die.” Du Zhaixing said.

Wiliam frowned upon hearing this.

Has Chunfeng succeeded in inheriting the emperor’s heart?

Kind of weird.

Logically, Chunfeng should be the most qualified and most qualified to inherit the emperor’s heart.

After all, she has all the blood of the Wangxue family, which is half of the emperor’s heart.

Still fail.

How harsh are the conditions for the inheritance of this emperor’s heart!

Bai Fengxue on the side was confused.

She didn’t know the cause and effect, and she couldn’t understand what Wiliam and the others were saying.

At this time, Wiliam asked in a deep voice, “Do you know why Chunfeng’s inheritance failed?”

Du Zhaixing nodded indifferently, “I naturally know, it’s my fault, knowing that she has little chance of inheriting the emperor’s heart, but for the sake of the sect’s glory, let her give it a try.”

“To put it simply, the reason why Chunfeng failed to inherit the emperor’s heart is that her bloodline is no longer pure...”
