

Dragon Husband 1715 Part 1

Chapter 1715 The fate of spring breeze

"Impurity of blood?" When Wiliam heard this, the whole person was dumbfounded.

Even if Du Zhexing gave him other reasons, Wiliam would dare to believe it.

But for this reason, Wiliam couldn't believe it.

Chunfeng has inherited half of the emperor's heart, so can it be said that the blood is not pure?

What does the pure bloodline look like?

"It seems that I still need to tell you the truth, otherwise you won't believe it." Du Zhaixing shook his head and said, "When you told me about Chunfeng's life just now, I actually felt this problem. ."

"You said just now that Chunfeng's bloodline had awakened once before inheriting the Emperor's Heart, right?"

Wiliam nodded, "Yes."

That awakening was when Chunfeng and Fengxue threw themselves into the blood pool at Beilin Lu's house.

In the end, Wiliam also jumped into the blood pool.

Chunfeng and Fengxue awakened violently in the extreme threat of life and death.

One awakened the ice veins, and the other awakened the flame veins.

At this time, Wiliam's heart suddenly stunned!

Is the problem here!

Du Zhaixing's star-like ruthless eyes seemed to have penetrated Wiliam's mind.

She nodded and said, "Yes, you're right, here's the problem."

"Let me briefly explain to you about the awakening of the bloodline. Ordinary people can only awaken one kind of bloodline in their entire life, just like you, just like your wife." When he said this, Du Zhaixing seemed to have Ruowu glanced at Bai Fengxue.

William nodded, he knew this.

The bloodline itself is a person's talent, and generally speaking, there is only one kind of bloodline.

"And to achieve the ultimate bloodline, this person's bloodline must be very pure, and there should be no other impurities." Du Zhaixing continued, "And the first awakening of Chunfeng may seem to you to be very powerful. But in my opinion it was a huge failure."

"Extreme bloodline?" Bai Fengxue heard these four words, her eyes suddenly widened, and she looked at the unconscious Chunfeng in disbelief.

William squeezed Feng Xue's hand lightly and whispered, "I'll explain to you later."

Du Zhaixing continued: "First of all, she is not an ordinary bloodline awakening, but a bloodline awakening, which is not a good thing in itself. According to what you said, if it wasn't for that hot blood pond, it was a coincidence. Chunfeng's bloodline, otherwise she would have died in the bloodline awakening."

"The sudden awakening of the bloodline is doomed that her bloodline is not pure enough. The sudden awakening of the bloodline is a simple and rude way to promote the seedlings. Can you understand this?" After Du Zhaixing finished speaking, he asked William.

William nodded, which was quite understandable.

Although the Bloodline Awakening has made a lot of profit for a while and its strength can soar greatly, in the long run, it is not ideal, and it has buried a lot of hidden dangers.

"And then, that's the most crucial point. That time, her bloodline atrocity not only awakened the flame veins, but also mixed your wife's bloodline with it." Du Zhaixing said this, sighing. He took a sigh of relief and seemed to feel extremely regretful.

William's face froze.

Indeed.

How can you not think of this.

Dragon Husband 1715 Part 2

When Chunfeng's bloodline was awake, Fengxue's bloodline was also awake.

Two people are in the blood pool, and the two bloodlines of ice and fire cannot mix.

However, how strong the will of the two people was at that time, and the impossible thing of fusion of ice and fire was realized.

It even spread the ice and fire blood to William's body.

Therefore, the blood of the three people can indeed be said to be intermingled with each other.

This is also the main reason for the impure blood of Chunfeng.

"However, my Fengxue's blood is not pure, why..." William instinctively thought of this question, but he swallowed it halfway through.

He originally wanted to say, if this is the case, the Fengxue bloodline is not pure, why can the blood marrow be inherited, creating the ultimate bloodline.

However, William immediately found the answer by himself.

The wind and snow are completely different from the spring breeze.

Chunfeng has been advancing by leaps and bounds since his bloodline suddenly awakened.

And all the foundations are still in the same line on the premise of the bloodline awakening.

Including the inheritance of the Emperor's Heart to her by the Forgotten Blood Clan.

Therefore, the blood of Chunfeng has never undergone essential changes.

But snow is different.

Feng Xue's bloodline can be described as extremely rough.

After the bloodline suddenly awakened, she awakened a dual personality, and then in order to survive, she directly abolished her cultivation, including the bloodline.

This is already a change.

The second change is that Feng Xue, in order to save the members of the Medicine Knife family, suffered an inhuman torture of bliss.

It can be said that Feng Xue's bloodline was completely abolished from the perspective of blood marrow.

Therefore, Feng Xue carried the blood without impurities, and passed on the blood marrow of Petite Rou.

"It seems that this is Chunfeng's destiny." Du Zhaixing sighed and said to Wiliam.

Wiliam nodded, and for some reason, his mood became more relaxed at this moment.

After learning that Chunfeng might awaken to the extreme bloodline, Wiliam's heart couldn't settle down.

Well now, Chunfeng can't inherit the emperor's heart, and can't awaken the extreme bloodline. For the current Wiliam, it is a good thing.

"I've caused you trouble." Wiliam said politely to Du Zhaixing.

"You're welcome, I think since you have medical skills, you can help her with treatment now. It's not good for her to drag her on." Du Zhaixing said to Wiliam again.

Wiliam nodded, knowing the seriousness of the matter.

He was no longer picky about the venue, just sat down cross-legged and summoned the Long Live Demon Lotus to help Chunfeng carefully wash away the internal injuries accumulated in her body.

After a while, Wiliam put away the long live demon lotus and let out a long breath.

Chunfeng's face gradually became ruddy, and it was obvious that he would wake up soon.

"You guys talk first, I'll go outside." Du Zhaixing obviously saw that Feng Xue had something to ask Wiliam, so he got up and said goodbye.

As soon as she left, Feng Xue asked Wiliam anxiously, "Wiliam, I just heard Sect Master Du say what the bloodline of Chunfeng is, what the hell is going on?"

She obviously also thought of that fate that shouldn't be there.

“Don’t worry, I’ll tell you slowly.” Wiliam held Feng Xue’s hand and told Feng Xue about his previous conversation with Du Zhaixing.

In the end, Wiliam said lightly: “I think it’s not bad now, Chunfeng can’t wake up the extreme blood, at least we won’t have some kind of pressure and thoughts that shouldn’t be in our hearts. Don’t worry, I will definitely help Chunfeng to find the real belongings. her own way.”

Feng Xue nodded heavily, clearly agreeing with Wiliam’s words.

At this time, Wiliam heard a low voice beside him.

Spring is awake!
