

Dragon Husband 1719 Part 1

Chapter 1719 Sea God Doctor

The first is the sect gate of Zhige in Lanshan.

After all, it is the face of the entire sect.

But it looks like the door of an ordinary person's house.

Made purely of wood, and the wood looks like it's been around for years.

It was full of messy scratches.

And the door on the left looks crumbling, as if with a little force, the entire door will fall directly.

And when they went in again, they were even more stunned.

The entire Arashiyama Zhige is made up of many small houses.

The house in the middle looks the largest, but it is only three stories high.

It also looks shabby.

Not to mention the other houses, with only one floor, all made of stones.

This foul wind blows all the year round, and even these houses seem to exude a bloody smell.

William seriously doubted whether these stone houses could keep out the wind and rain.

It is estimated that when it rains, it will really rain heavily outside and light rain inside.

Seeing the shocked expressions of William and others, Qin Shengzhong finally showed a hint of embarrassment.

He scratched his head in embarrassment and said, "I'll make you laugh. Our Lanshan Zhige is naturally incomparable to the other nine sects in the bustling city. The cards of any of their sects are much better than ours."

Wiliam complained in his heart, not to mention the other nine sects, even any sect is more stylish than you.

It seems that the person who came here this time to make his brothers suffer, really came to the right.

Living conditions are unforgettable.

“Hey, there is no way to do it. We have been fighting against ancient beasts all the year round, so how can we build some beautiful houses. Besides, even if we build beautiful houses, when the ancient beasts attack at night, it is estimated that the area will be almost destroyed. Yes. In history, there were indeed suzerains who built sects in a grand style. However, they built and damaged while repairing. In the end, no one thought of it, and they simply broke down. Don’t look at these shabby houses. It was built with stones. But it is because only stones can be built to resist the attack of the beast tide at the first time.” Qin Sheng re-explained.

Having said that, Wiliam had a little more respect for this sect in his heart.

The people of this sect are suffering.

It is not too much to think about protecting the family and the country.

It seems that this time is really the right time.

“Come in, I think it’s good here.” Wiliam said lightly, even with the wind blowing now, Wiliam didn’t feel the stench anymore.

The others obviously thought the same as Wiliam, and their eyes were full of respect for this sect.

And just as they were about to go in, they suddenly heard a disgusting voice coming from outside the door, “This is the so-called Lanshan Zhige? This is the so-called Nine New Sects? Is this just a nest of beggars? Great disappointment! “

Qin Shengzhong’s face suddenly turned ugly, and he looked outside.

I saw a few more people coming outside.

The one at the head, wearing a green robe, looked extremely delicate.

This middle-aged man even disliked this place and walked on tiptoe.

Behind the green-robed middle-aged man was a man in black armor, followed by a group of followers.

"Brother?" Qin Sheng frowned and shouted.

The man in black armor raised his head and saw Qin Shengzhong, with a proud expression on his face, and replied lightly, "Oh, isn't this my dear brother? You are finally back."

Looking at the expressions of the two brothers, Wiliam instinctively noticed that their relationship was not so harmonious.

"Who is this person? Why did he speak rudely to us Lanshan Zhige?" Qin Shengzhong is a straight man, and the resentment in his heart has not dissipated.

But after saying this, Qin Shengzhong's elder brother's face became ugly, and his voice became sharp, "Shengzhong! How did you talk! This is the peerless sea doctor I finally invited over this time! Just come over and give it to him. Good morning, old man!"

Qin Shengzhong looked at the green-robed middle-aged man with surprise in his eyes.

This guy is the Peerless Sea God Doctor?

It seemed a bit arrogant.

Qin Shengzhong didn't even walk over, he just cupped his hands and said politely, "I've seen the sea god doctor! My father's injury, I'll leave it to you!"

The green-robed middle-aged man just gave Qin Sheng a serious look, then continued to walk on his toes, and said as he walked, "Come in, this place stinks, and I agreed to come here because of my own interests. Now that I think about it, I regret it so much. Come here, I will wash off a layer of skin when I go back to see if I can get rid of this disgusting smell. "

In the words, there is no respect for Arashiyama Zhige.

Qin Shengzhong was even more dissatisfied.

Fortunately, he is also aware of the overall situation, and he did not show it on the spot.

"Wiliam, come in with me. As for the other brothers, I'll let you take you to rest first. It's been very hard to travel for days. Drink some tea first." The smell of local snakes is gone, and everything is properly arranged.

Wiliam nodded and followed Qin Shengzhong.

Feng Xue, God of Wealth and Angry Horse were not outsiders, so naturally they also went in with Wiliam.

A group of people came to the largest house in their sect, and there were already a few people standing in the house.

These people have stubble faces, and the words vicissitudes are written all over their faces.

There was also a strong smell of blood.

Apparently, he has been fighting against ancient beasts all year round.

“What did you do? Haven’t bathed for hundreds of years? It stinks me.” As soon as the middle-aged man in green robe entered the room, he covered his nose, “I thought it would be better inside than outside, I don’t think the house stinks more.”

Qin Shengzhong’s eldest brother, Qin Nuoshi, immediately put on a complimenting look, bent over and smiled: “Master Su has more to do, but our conditions are a bit crude, and I will compensate you well in the future.”

“Okay, no need to talk nonsense. I’ve been in bad luck for eight lifetimes, and it’s the first time I’ve seen such a disgusting place. Go and call someone out, I’ll go back soon after reading it. I don’t want to think about this place for a minute or a second. Too much stay. It’s disgusting.” The green-robed middle-aged man continued to curse.

This time, even Qin Shengzhong couldn’t hold back anymore.

From the moment I saw this person, every word I said was to slander and humiliate Lanshan Zhige!

Even if he came to save his father, he couldn’t be like this!

“The sea god doctor, I respect you as a peerless doctor, and I came to save my father. I have already given you every courtesy. But please show some respect, and don’t allow me to humiliate my sect again!” Qin Sheng said in a humble voice.

However, the Sea God Doctor didn’t speak yet, and Qin Nuoshi was the first to be furious.

“Keep your mouth clean! If you get angry with the Sea God Doctor, can you afford the crime! Only the Sea God Doctor can heal my father’s illness!”
