

Dragon Husband 1722 Part 1

Chapter 1722 Are you sick?

The people who stopped Ge in Lanshan were stunned for a moment, and their expressions suddenly became tense.

Su Qingshan took back the green light, her eyes were full of annoyance, and she felt a little bit of regret!

Qin Nuoshi said in a panic, "Poseidon doctor, what are you talking about, how come I don't understand?"

"Humph! Are you still pretending to be garlic with me!" Su Qingshan said angrily.

"Please make it clear!" Qin Nuo really didn't understand what went wrong.

He only felt that his father's complexion improved, but not completely.

Su Qingshan is still so angry, why?

Su Qingshan shouted loudly: "My Sifang Seal is a divine object of heaven and earth, and there is no disease in the world that cannot be cured! However, your father was not affected by the Sifang Seal at all, instead he was constantly absorbing it. The spiritual power in my seal, then there is only one answer! That is, your father is not sick at all, but he came to deceive my supernatural power!"

Su Qingshan felt annoyed in her heart.

Naturally, he would not say that his seal can cure all diseases, it is entirely because of the effect of prayer.

And the power in the seal, after all these years of his squandering, there is not much left.

If it wasn't for the tempting conditions offered by Qin Nuoshi this time, how could Su Qingshan be willing to continue using the power of the Sifang Seal!

Who would have thought, now that such a long time has passed, it is only now that I realize that I have been deceived.

The power in the seal is even rarer.

Can he not be angry!

However, Qin Nuoshi said blankly: "Dr. Sea God, did you read it wrong? My father was seriously injured. This year, he couldn't move at all, let alone go into battle to kill the enemy, it was himself. Walking is a problem."

"Also, my father used to be an eight-foot-tall iron-blooded man, and he was not very old. It can even be said that he was in his prime. But you look at my father now, his body is constantly shrinking, and he has become a little boy. Old man, the weight is less than half of what it was before, isn't this pain or torture?"

Qin Nuo's words were eloquent and sincere, and Su Qingshan looked a little suspicious of himself.

However, the reaction on the seal cannot be faked.

Su Qingshan had no choice but to hold back his anger and ask: "Tell me in detail what your father's injury is!"

This is also unprecedented.

After all, Su Qingshan never asks about the disease in treating illness and saving people, it is simple and rude.

Now he suspects that there is a problem in the middle, so he is forced to ask.

Qin Nuo felt a little uncomfortable.

But he still said politely: "About two years ago, when my father was attacked by a beast wave, because the strength of the beast wave was really terrifying, he was able to successfully retreat and stay alone in order to protect us."

"Then, when we saw him again, he was almost out of breath and bleeding. He just walked up to us all alone and passed out."

"This coma has been in a coma for a few days and a few nights. It's also my father's life, and he's still breathing. We searched for a genius doctor and finally stabilized his injury."

"Afterwards, his injuries kept going up and down, and his body was getting thinner and thinner. At the beginning, he was able to walk freely, and he could even barely lift a weapon. He was still thinking of continuing to fight to kill the enemy. I was stopped by us. Just like this, we can still fight and kill the enemy? If we hadn't stopped us, maybe my father would no longer exist."

Qin Nuo said seriously.

“Then there were good times and bad times. Until a year ago, my father’s injury deteriorated so much that he could only lie in bed. Now you see, you can’t even open your eyes, and your body is slowly shrinking. We were really impatient, and we went out to find a lot of magic doctors to treat my father, but those famous doctors were helpless when they encountered my father. There is no way, didn’t I go to you in the end? ”

Hearing this, even Wiliam understood what was going on.

The poor old man.

Wiliam was also watching the old man carefully.

The more he looked, the more curious he became.

I saw that Qin Zhanxiong’s face was dark, but if you look closely, you will find that these black qi are only entrenched in his face, and have not invaded his body at all.

And Wiliam took a closer look at Qin Zhanxiong’s other parts, and it was the same phenomenon.

This shows one thing, Qin Zhanxiong’s injury is actually almost better.

These black qi are just sitting and lying down for a long time all the year round, and they are accumulated for a while and difficult to disperse.

Wiliam also had a big question mark in his heart.

Is Qin Zhanxiong really sick?

However, Qin Nuo’s words should also be true.

If you are not sick, you will lie down for a year, and you will be a god.

Who the hell is Qin Zhanxiong and Qin Nuoshi doing the trick?

Wiliam gradually became interested.

At this time, Qin Sheng on the side whispered to Wiliam: “Wiliam, otherwise you can go up and have a look, it’s not the way to stand still like this...”

Wiliam nodded and said, “Okay, I just happened to be interested.”

Qin Shengzhong got Wiliam’s approval, and immediately said to Qin Nuoshi: “Brother, or let my friend come and see, he can also have some medical skills.”

In front of the famous Sea God Doctor, Qin Shengzhong didn't dare to brag about William's medical skills, he just said in a low-key manner that he knew some medical skills.

Before Qin Nuoshi had time to speak, Su Qingshan, who was on the side, sneered first, "Do you know some medical skills? Then you dare to come to the class to get an axe? There is a way back, why, from the beginning, I felt that my medical skills were not good, so once I had no choice, you immediately let this kid on top? Not bad!"

Qin Nuoshi's expression suddenly became more panicked.

He glared at Qin Shengzhong fiercely, and then quickly explained: "Poseidon doctor, you have misunderstood. I don't even know the name of this kid, I don't know him at all, I've never seen it before, how is it possible? Keep a hand behind your back."

Qin Shengzhong on the side was also annoyed.

He was holding his breath before.

Now that my father is injured and can't be cured, it's interesting to hear this group of people arguing!

"Brother, let my friend try it! A dead horse can be used as a living horse doctor!"

Comparing his biological father to a dead horse, this upright man is absolutely amazing.

This time, Su Qingshan didn't get angry but laughed, "Okay! Then try it! I can't cure the disease that Su Qingshan can't cure, but I want to see, who else in the world can cure it?"

He still had nothing to say.

Even the Sifang seal can't find the root of the disease, can this kid find it?

The big joke of slipping the world!

And William didn't care about Su Qingshan at all.

He just stepped forward and simply put his hand on Qin Zhanxiong's wrist. In less than a minute, he smiled.

"Your father, really isn't sick. But it's interesting, interesting."

"I think I know what the problem is."
