

Dragon Husband 1731 Part 1

Chapter 1731 scold people

The sharp corner of the Sifang Seal smashed directly on Qin Zhanxiong's forehead.

His originally well-protected head suddenly opened a small hole, and blood came out like a pillar.

The people at the scene exclaimed for a while, and they were in a hurry to cover the blood that just came out.

"What are you doing! Is this saving people or killing people!" Some people with a more upright temperament scolded them directly.

Qin Nuoshi hurriedly looked at Su Qingshan and said nervously, "Poseidon Doctor, what are you doing?"

Su Qingshan's expression became extremely embarrassed.

doing what!

I also want to know what happened?

Just when he was thinking about how to explain the unreasonable scene just now, a few smart people immediately spoke up for Su Qingshan, "What do you know! The Sea God Doctor must have his reasons for doing things! I think the situation just now. Very reasonable."

"How is it reasonable?" Someone asked in unison.

"Of course, just like William's benefactor, let him die and then come back to life! If you smash it like this, we will see if the sect master will wake up again." The man replied immediately.

After saying this, the group of upright men stood up in unison, "So that's how it is! The sea god doctor is really brilliant."

Su Qingshan's whole body is not well.

Explain shit.

The more you explain, the more confusing it becomes.

I thank you all!

Those people are still arguing, "But it was thrown into the sea wolves just now, and now it's smashing the head, no matter how I think about it, it doesn't feel right."

"You know what, the sea god doctor's shrewdness is something we can guess? Look, if you smash it a few more times, the sect master will wake up again."

The people around were arguing endlessly, and Qin Shengzhong's head was getting bigger.

He couldn't help shouting: "Shut up for me!"

The people around were silent for a moment, looking at Qin Shengzhong.

Qin Shengzhong looked at Su Qingshan, "Poseidon Doctor, is that so? You are not Wiliam, I still want to ask you to clarify first."

This sentence attracted both Wiliam and Su Qingshan's eyes.

Wiliam looked at Qin Shengzhong, helpless.

What's the matter with you guy!

If you scold people, you will scold them, and bring mine?

Why are you not Wiliam?

What's wrong with me?

And Su Qingshan was scolding mother in her stomach.

Do you want me to admit to you personally that I accidentally hit your dad on the head?

"Poseidon Doctor, my father's condition is very bad and he is dying. I don't think it is appropriate to give severe medicines like this! I see that the green light you used before seems to be very effective. If it lasts for a while, my father will recover. , do you continue to treat like this?" Qin Sheng continued to ask Su Qingshan without answering.

Su Qingshan's eyes rolled even more, "What green light and green light! It's so ugly! That's the spiritual power in my Sifang Seal! You have some knowledge! Forget it, for the sake of the conditions you promised me, I will Reluctantly donate some spiritual power to your suzerain."

With that said, Su Qingshan picked up the Sifang Seal on the ground and held it in his hand.

He tossed his hands, and the seal floated over Qin Zhanxiong's body again.

However, at this moment, there was no green light seeping out.

The seal is about to fall off again.

This time, Qin Sheng has learned to behave again, and has been waiting by the side for a long time.

Seeing that the seal was about to hit his father's head again, Qin Shengzhong grabbed the seal and looked at Su Qingshan with a bad look.

"Poseidon Doctor! What are you doing! I have every reason to want to murder my father in public!" Qin Shengzhong said angrily to Su Qingshan.

Su Qingshan's whole body is not well.

Murder your uncle, murder!

Do I have a deep hatred with him? To murder him in front of so many of you!

Do you have a brain!

However, Su Qingshan has no intention of having a debate with Qin Sheng now.

He snatched the seal from Qin Shengzhong's hand, his face full of horror, "Impossible! Impossible!"

When the seal fell off for the first time just now, Su Qingshan just thought it was because he was distracted and did not control the seals of the four directions.

But this time, Su Qingshan really couldn't feel the connection with the Sifang Seal!

There is only one reason!

That is the spiritual power in the Sifang Seal!

It's been squandered!

Su Qingshan didn't want to believe this fact, and wanted to force it again, but found nothing.

On the other hand, the people who stopped the Ge in Lanshan were still chattering, wanting to seek revenge for Su Qingshan.

Su Qingshan's temper also came up, and he shouted loudly: "Shut up on horseback! I still want to settle the account with you!"

"Find us to settle the account?" These people were stunned at once.

Su Qingshan said plausibly: "Before your suzerain was obviously sick, but you deceived me and caused me to waste most of the spiritual power of the Sifang Seal. Is this your fault?"

Qin Shengzhong and others were immediately blinded when they heard it.

It makes sense.

But it felt something was wrong, it was weird.

At this time, a person with a good mind immediately whispered: "But we don't know if there is anything wrong with our suzerain's body. We invited you, a doctor, to come here, not just to let the doctor diagnose and see if he has any physical problems. Is there anything wrong?"

"It's your doctor who didn't diagnose anything at first, and then operated like a tiger. Can you blame us? What kind of doctor are you?"

After these words, the people of Arashiyama Zhige were enlightened!

It's no wonder that something was wrong just now. It turned out to be here!

What Su Qingshan said seemed to make sense, but in fact it was just shirk responsibility.

He is a doctor. If he is ill, he must first diagnose it and then see how to treat it?

This is the most basic operation.

But Su Qingshan started the treatment right away, wasting spiritual power or something was entirely his own fault.

It's no wonder that Arashiyama Zhige's head went up.

The eyes of the person who looked at Lanshan Zhige suddenly changed, and Su Qingshan's heart went blue.

This was completely unexpected, and he didn't want it.

According to past experience, spiritual power can cure any disease or injury.

It happened that Qin Zhanxiong, a freak, could not be cured.

Well, now it's alright, I wanted to settle the old account, but was mocked by the other party.

It seems that the previous chips are not to be obtained.

Su Qingshan was ruthless at this time, and said with a sneer: "Okay, you can continue to talk to me here, I want to see how much time your suzerain has left. Let me tell you the truth, the remaining ones just now. Lingli told me that your suzerain is in a very bad situation right now, and without my spiritual power, even if a genius doctor came down to earth, he would not be able to control his breath, not to mention the follow-up life extension!"

"It's a dead game now! There's no cure, and no one can save it!"

Su Qingshan's swear words made the people at the scene like falling into an ice cellar!

Is there really no way for the Daluo Immortal to come back to life?

Just when everyone's heart was ashes, suddenly someone felt their body refreshed and relaxed for a while.

When I turned around, I couldn't keep my eyes open.

"Hey, where did the green light come from?"
