

Dragon Husband 1732 Part 1

Chapter 1732 Garbage!

I saw that Qin Zhanxiong's body was covered with a thick green light.

This green light was many times more intense than the green light of Su Qingshan's seal.

Anyway, people around you feel that as long as the green light overflows a little, it will make people feel a happy and fairy-like feeling.

Where did the green light come from?

Everyone is wondering.

Su Qingshan was the first to react and shouted excitedly, "Hahaha, my Sifang Seal is working again!"

Because in his opinion, only his Sifang Seal can emit such a miraculous healing green light.

But the next second, he was stunned again.

Because the Sifang Seal is in his hands, and it does not move at all.

There was no green light at all.

At this time, someone shouted, "Look at Wiliam! Look at Wiliam!"

Everyone looked at Wiliam.

I saw that Wiliam's hands were constantly emitting green lights.

These green lights are continuously wrapping towards Qin Zhanxiong's body.

The green light was actually emitted by Wiliam!

"It's Wiliam! It's our great benefactor Wiliam! He can actually have this kind of healing green light, and the effect is thousands of times better than the sea god doctor!" This group of straight men will kneel to Wiliam in an instant. !

This amazing young man!

First, he gave Lanshan the great kindness of Zhige Zongmen, and then awakened Qin Zhanxiong.

Now there is still such a miraculous healing method!

How many secrets does he have!

Is he human, or is he an immortal!

After everyone got used to the green light, it was clear that Qin Zhanxiong's body was healing at a speed visible to the naked eye!

This curative effect, absolutely!

This breath, hang to death!

Su Qingshan was not feeling well.

He looked at Wiliam in disbelief, only to think that it was impossible for this picture to appear!

Su Qingshan knew very well how his healing green light and the Sifang Seal came from!

That is the divine power in the prayer seal of the Jiangshan Mountains guarded by their Cold Boat Race for generations!

But why Wiliam!

He is not a member of the Cold Boat Race at all!

Where did he get the Quartet Seal!

It must have been stolen!

This damn dog thief!

Su Qingshan thought so.

Because of the spiritual power in the Jiangshan Prayer Seal, after generations of research by the Hanzhou people, it was finally absorbed by the Sifang Seals one after another, and finally released.

There is only one possibility that Wiliam can release his spiritual power, that is, he has stolen the seals of the other four directions!

"Dog thief! Take your life!" Su Qingshan's mentality was completely broken now, and he rushed towards Wiliam.

Can the mood collapse?

The promised reward is not actually available.

The spiritual power of the Sifang Seal is gone again, which is definitely a fatal blow to him.

Here again a series of embarrassment and injustice.

Su Qingshan has never been so humiliated in his life!

Now that the limelight was robbed by Wiliam again, Su Qingshan collapsed directly.

Everyone was still immersed in joy, and they didn't notice Su Qingshan's change at all.

However, Wiliam's body had already avoided, and the green light naturally dissipated.

"Su Qingshan, what are you doing!" Qin Shengzhong immediately shouted without being polite.

Su Qingshan stared at Wiliam with red eyes, "Dog thief! How dare you steal the seals of our cold boaters, damn it!"

"Steal?" The people at the scene were stunned, a little at a loss.

The cold boaters are indeed not something they can provoke.

Although the Hanzhou people are not among the nine sects, they have the important responsibility of ferrying, and the magic power in the ethnic group is magical, which cannot be matched by the other nine sects.

If Wiliam really provokes the Cold Boat Race, that would be a big problem indeed.

Su Qingshan said plausibly: "The spiritual power just now is clearly the exclusive spiritual power of our cold boaters. If it hadn't been stolen from the Sifang Seal, how could it be exerted!"

As he said that, he looked at the person who stopped Ge in Lanshan, "And you, condone the thieves, you share the same crime with him!"

The hat of the crime was covered, and the expressions of the people at the scene changed greatly.

But only Qin Shengzhong said indifferently: "Wiliam has a great favor to our Lanshan Zhige, and is my father's savior, so what if he is a thief! If the Hanzhou people want to punish Wiliam, they must first serve Step on the corpses of all our Arashiyama Zhige!"

In a word, sonorous and powerful!

Instantly swept away the unease and anxiety in the hearts of Arashiyama Zhige disciples just now!

Yes!

Don't be like this!

The grace of dripping water should be reciprocated by the fountain!

Whatever the cold boater he is!

If you dare to touch Wiliam, you must first ask Lanshan Zhige if he will answer!

Destroy the sect, no matter what!

This is the strength and integrity of Arashiyama Zhige for generations!

For a time, everyone just felt that Qin Shengzhong's leadership was overwhelming!

Everyone actually saw Qin Zhanxiong's shadow on him!

"Yes! You said it very well! The cold boaters dare to try Wiliam!" Lanshan Zhige's people shouted out in unison, with an imposing manner.

Su Qingshan was really startled, and her face turned pale.

These lunatics!

The whole sect is fighting not to, are you going to protect this kid!

Damn it!

You will regret it!

"I said, are you all blind? What are you arguing about?" A calm voice suddenly covered the hustle and bustle of the scene.

Everyone saw that it was Wiliam who was speaking.

Everyone looked at Wiliam in astonishment.

Wiliam said lightly to everyone, "I haven't figured it out yet. It's a waste of time to be noisy here."

Everyone was confused by what Wiliam said.

"I said Su Qingshan, which one of your eyes saw what Sifang seal I stole?" Wiliam first asked Su Qingshan.

Su Qingshan choked for a while, but still insisted: "Do you still need to see this with your own eyes?"

"Sifang Seal? Just the one in your hand just now? Garbage, I want to see it." Wiliam said jokingly.

"Okay! How dare you slander my Cold Boat Race! I remember this sentence!" Su Qingshan instantly froze.

"Also, which of your eyes saw me using the Sifang Seal?" Wiliam asked again.

"I still need to see this?" Su Qingshan still replied, completely convinced of Wiliam's guilt.

"You need to rely on the seals of the Sifang for the little trick of carving insects? Aren't you afraid of being laughed at? Well, you can see it clearly." Wiliam said in a cold voice, and his body remained motionless.

However, a more intense azure aura suddenly emerged from his body!

The air of Qingbi was not only directed at Qin Zhanxiong this time, but at the crowd at the scene.

It wrapped everyone up!

Under the wrapping of the azure air, not only did everyone feel at ease physically and mentally, but they even felt like they were in a paradise. The anxiety, anxiety and even anger just now calmed down in an instant.

This huge azure air is simply not something that the Sifang Seal can get out of with a little coaxing!

And this curative effect directly smashes the so-called spiritual power of the Sifang Seal!

However, what shocked everyone even more was the way Wiliam released it!

"Wiliam, there is no seal at all! This healing green light is emitted from his body!" Qin Sheng shouted in shock!
