

Dragon Husband 1733 Part 1

Chapter 1733 A boy is a teenager until he dies

“This! This is impossible!” Su Qingshan’s eyes widened, and he shouted in disbelief!

Never seen before!

Unheard of!

How can there be such a miraculous thing in the world!

This kid, how could he be able to emit spiritual power similar to the prayer seal of Jiangshan without using anything!

No, not right!

Not similar!

It is beyond the spiritual power effect that I know!

Su Qingshan and even the vast majority of people don’t even know the magical power of the divine power contained in the Jiangshan Prayer Seal!

However, just the spiritual power that overflowed, absorbed into the seals of the four directions, has already shocked the world.

This kid, where the hell is the monster coming out of!

Could it be that he is Jiangshan’s prayer and printing essence?

The people at the scene were already cheering.

Rao is Qin Shengzhong, who has seen the magic of Wiliam time and time again, and is still shocked by him at this moment.

Such a magical light can emerge from the body, this is the walking ginseng fruit!

What made Qin Shengzhong relieve his anger the most was that Wiliam’s hand had completely left his relationship with the Hanzhou people.

It’s ridiculous to say that Wiliam stole the seal of the Hanzhou people from all directions!

The eyes are really blind!

While curing Qin Zhanxiong, Wiliam looked at Su Qingshan, who was dumbfounded, and asked, "How is it? Do you still think that I stole your Sifang Seal? I said that Sifang Seal is garbage, do you have any opinions? "

Su Qingshan was speechless at all.

According to the current situation, Wiliam should stop saying a word of rubbish, say hundreds of words of rubbish, or dare to say a prayer to print rubbish, the Hanzhou people are powerless to refute.

"You, how on earth did you do it?" Su Qingshan could only say this feebly at the end.

However, will Wiliam answer?

Wiliam turned to look at Qin Zhanxiong.

Qin Zhanxiong in the green light was originally covered in blood.

But under the healing of the green light, those wounds were slowly healing.

After a while, the wounds had all healed, and even some scars had begun to fall off, revealing the new flesh inside.

The people at the scene saw their jaws drop.

Wiliam was also very satisfied with this.

Originally, his chemotherapeutic effect could not reach this level.

However, after the chain quenching again and again, plus the senior Tianqing unicorn and the remnant soul of Chiyou, the power of the soul is slowly awakening.

This also resulted in the continuous breakthrough of the power of metamorphosis, the new life from the ashes, and a terrifying healing effect.

Wiliam can now bluntly say that as long as it is a trauma, no matter how serious the injury is, Wiliam can help him recover in a short period of time.

Even internal injuries will recover slowly.

Moreover, Wiliam has a feeling that with the blessing of the soldier's soul-suppressing, metamorphosis may have the function of healing the soul in the future.

After a while, Wiliam slowly withdrew the power of transformation, and said lightly: "Okay, your Sect Master's wound is already good."

"So miraculous?" The people at the scene were all incredible.

As if to confirm Wiliam's words, Qin Zhanxiong slowly opened his eyes.

However, his body was still relatively weak and could not stand up immediately.

Qin Sheng was overjoyed, and immediately went to help his father to stand up.

Qin Zhanxiong looked at the people at the scene with a bewildered expression, "How long have I fainted? It's so embarrassing."

Qin Sheng reused his strange eyes and said, "Father, you have only been in a coma for ten minutes."

"Ten minutes? This!" Qin Zhanxiong's eyes widened instantly, he couldn't believe this fact!

Before he fell into a coma, he was very aware of his physical state.

He fought more and more bravely in the sea wolf ancient station, and finally slaughtered a sea wolf messenger before returning with his wreckage.

His body had just woken up, and beheading the sea wolf messenger was already a serious overdraft, not to mention that there were still so many wounds on his body.

Now that Qin Zhanxiong looked at his body again, he only felt that his body was numb for a while, and it was obvious that the wounds had scabbed over.

This is ten days and a half months, can it recover to this level?

For more than ten minutes, this group of people are not taking care of my face, are they deliberately playing with me?

"Father, it's only ten minutes. Look, the sea wolves you killed are still here." Qin Shengzhong seemed to know the confusion in his father's heart and immediately explained.

Qin Zhanxiong looked at the battlefield and the sea wolf messenger he killed, so he believed Qin Zhanxiong's words.

“What the hell is going on? My body...” Qin Zhanxiong asked suspiciously.

“Father, it was Wiliam who saved you again. Wiliam is simply amazing!” Qin Shengzhong immediately explained Wiliam’s healing of Qin Zhanxiong vividly.

When a man tells a story, he will be somewhat boastful.

So in Qin Shengzhong’s mouth, Wiliam was like a medical fairy descending to the world, with a wave of his hand, love is a light, so green that people panic.

Everyone at the scene clearly saw the scene of Wiliam saving people with their own eyes, but listening to Qin Sheng re-telling the story, one by one showed a mesmerized expression.

It’s like a child listening to a legend.

The veins on Wiliam’s forehead throbbed, and he scolded these crazy people in his heart.

Is a boy a teenager until he dies?

After listening to the story like the Arabian Nights, Qin Zhanxiong was trembling with excitement and almost knelt down to Wiliam.

“Wine! Where’s my wine! I can’t wait to have a big jar to honor Lu’s benefactor!” Qin Zhanxiong said tremblingly.

Listen, listen!

Not a cup, not a pot!

It’s a big tank that has been handed down from generation to generation!

Wiliam finally knew how Qin Shengzhong’s strange problems came about.

At this time, Wiliam finally spoke, “Sect Master Qin, let’s put the drinking matter for a while. Although your trauma is not a serious problem, the internal injury will not heal for a while, and drinking will only aggravate you. I don’t even know what kind of accident will happen at that time.”

Qin Zhanxiong was stunned for a moment, feeling his body seriously, and then sighed, “A man without alcohol is like a battlefield without a knife! Thank you Lu Enren for the reminder, then postpone it for a few more days.”

Wiliam nodded, but he was very proud.

This hand is perfect.

William wasn't sure to directly cure Qin Zhanxiong's internal injury, it would only take a few more hours.

But William didn't.

He just wanted to make this old thief paralyzed and unable to drink.

A few days later, Lao Tzu will retreat today.

In this place, William felt less comfortable than in the red and thin high-rise building.

At this time, William glanced at a person.

He looked in that direction and said with a smile, "Poseidon Doctor, where are you going? You were not in a hurry before, but now you are in a hurry. Where are you going? I still have something to ask you."

William twisted his neck and continued: "Your previous business has gone bad, then I will do another business with you, to ensure that your reputation as a genius doctor will continue, and your fame and fortune will roll in."
