

Dragon Husband 1752 Part 1

Chapter 1752 Erlang Matchmaker

"Wiliam, it's so hot here! I haven't seen such a hot scene in a long time." Bai Fengxue said to Wiliam with a curious look.

"Yeah." Wiliam replied casually, then was pulled by Feng Xue and walked towards the direction with the most people.

The place where the wind and snow came, is obviously the most important place of the Caixiu Erlang Festival.

Here, there is a big stage.

There was already a row of people sitting on the stage.

Among them, Su Yongcun, Su Changsheng, and the old man Qingfeng also sat on it.

And in the center of the stage, there is also a large seal with a height, width and height of one meter.

The four sides of the seal are written with four characters in ancient books.

After careful identification, Wiliam recognized these four words.

"Jiang", "Mountain", "Pray" and "Pray"!

This big seal turned out to be the prayer seal of the Hanzhou people that has been passed down to this day!

This is also the purpose of Wiliam's trip.

Wiliam's eyes couldn't take his eyes away, and he looked at this quaint seal carefully.

This seal gave Wiliam a very magical feeling.

Wiliam's consciousness wanted to explore the inside of the seal, but it seemed like something was behind it.

After some careful exploration, Wiliam felt as if he was in a vast ocean, surrounded by sea water, and there was no end in sight.

eccentric.....

Just as Wiliam was thinking, Su Yongcun on the stage stood up.

He walked to the edge of the seal and said aloud: "Everyone, be quiet, our ten-yearly colored embroidery Erlang Festival is about to start."

The hustle and bustle all around suddenly stopped, and everyone looked at Su Yongcun.

Su Yongcun cleared his throat and said, "Okay, I'll be the host today."

"Hello everyone, I am now announcing that the Color Embroidery Erlang Festival of our Cold Boat Race is now officially starting!"

"Anyone who will participate in this event, please appear!"

As Su Yongcun said a word, there was an overwhelming whistling sound all around.

And a person, from both sides of the stage, enters in an orderly manner.

Most of these people are young people. They have a red cloth tied around their heads. In the center of their foreheads, they have drawn a small black snake pattern with a pen. The snake is bent into a circle, and in the center is written a ""boat".

Wiliam counted carefully, and there were more than 40 children who participated in this colorful embroidery festival.

Everyone had a smug smile on their faces, as if everything was under their control.

Among these people, Wiliam naturally also saw Su Lanbo.

Su Lanbo's position is in the middle, and he is obviously the one with the highest voice.

Su Lanbo swept away the madness and resentment of yesterday, with a faint smile on his face.

And his broken hand, which was originally broken, was obviously restored as before, and there was nothing serious.

It should have been healed again with the Sifang Seal.

Su Lanbo's eyes kept wandering around the scene, and he stopped for a while after his eyes swept to Wiliam.

But it didn't last long, and he looked away again.

It seems that the conflict that happened yesterday has long since passed.

But Wiliam felt that it was not that simple.

People like Su Lanbo are the ones who must be reported by Jairus, and they won't be exposed so easily.

Afterwards, Su Yongcun was on the stage and introduced the children one by one.

Wiliam didn't even have the intention to hear who's name.

Because it has nothing to do with him.

Until the last Su Lanbo was introduced, there was thunderous applause at the scene.

Obviously everyone has high hopes for Su Lanbo.

Su Lanbo also politely bowed his hands to the Quartet, expressing courtesy and humility.

Su Yongcun added: "As you can see, these forty-two people are the children who are currently participating in the Color Embroidery Children's Festival. Of course, during the competition, we also welcome new children to join the event and participate in the grand event. After all For a grand ceremony only once every ten years, having fun with the people is the most important thing."

There was another round of applause.

"Next, although everyone knows it, let me introduce it to you again." Su Yongcun walked to the edge of the Jiangshan Prayer Seal, bowed respectfully to the Jiangshan Prayer Seal, and continued, " This is the treasure of our Hanzhou people, the prayer seal of Jiangshan, it is the treasure left by our ancestors from generation to generation, and all the activities today are carried out around this treasure of ours."

Everyone at the scene obviously knew the Jiangshan Prayer Seal.

After Su Yongcun's introduction, everyone respectfully bowed to the Jiangshan Prayer Seal.

"Next, please show our Sifang seal." Su Yongcun shouted again.

There were more than 40 people at the scene.

These people are holding a small square seal in their hands.

But these four seals are different from what Wiliam saw before.

The Sifang seals that Wiliam had seen before were generally black and inky.

The square seal that appeared on the scene was crystal clear white and transparent, and the interior of the seal could be seen at a glance.

It's as if the seals were made of glass.

Su Yongcun pointed at these seals and said loudly: "Later, the competition of the Erlangs will be very simple, and everyone must know it. Later, a person will hold a square seal and go to the edge of the Jiangshan prayer seal. As long as the Eight Immortals cross the sea and show their magical powers, as long as whoever can extradite the spiritual power in the prayer seals of Jiangshan to the Sifang Seals, whoever extradites the most will be the final winner."

William understood as soon as he heard it.

Dare to love this is what they have been saying before to test talent.

Really simple and rude.

But simplicity also has its benefits.

Being able to extradite the spiritual power in the Jiangshan Prayer Seal means that it fits in with the Jiangshan Prayer Seal.

The higher the fit index, the more spiritual power will be extradited.

But there is also some scientific place.

Su Lanbo looked at the Jiangshan prayer seal, showed a smile, and shook hands gently, as if he was winning.

At this time, Su Yongcun said again: "Next, is our biggest highlight, which is to invite our matchmaker to appear!"

After that, the scene was like crazy, everyone whistled and shouted to their heart's content, as if they had never seen the world.

"Today's matchmaker please!" Su Yongcun shouted loudly.

Then, five graceful women in red clothes slowly walked out from the backstage.

The four women in the front are still beautiful, and they are also rare beauties in the mortal world.

But when I saw the last person, the whistling sound at the scene was as if it was forcibly cut off by something, and it was silent for a while!

Even William could hear a lot of saliva swallowing.

When William saw the fifth woman, he was instantly dumbfounded.

How could it be her!
