

Dragon Husband 1769

Chapter 1769

Several more people rushed up, trying to subdue Bai Fengxue.

However, Bai Fengxue is no longer the Bai Fengxue it used to be.

Although she has not entered the blue-haired state, the fitness of her bloodline with herself has been continuously enhanced these days, and her own strength is also soaring at a terrifying speed.

And the people of the cold boat are never the material for martial arts.

According to Wiliam's inference, the strength of their group is only around the middle of Huajin.

For the current wind and snow, he is simply a small soldier, nothing to be afraid of.

I saw Feng Xue move his position again, subduing this group of people at a very fast speed.

The people at the scene had hot faces.

I never thought that Bai Fengxue would be so difficult.

Just now, everyone was arrogantly trying to get this little girl out of her hands.

Unexpectedly, a group of people gathered around, and they were the ones who suffered.

Being played round and round by a little woman made the cold boaters feel dull.

Su Lanbo snorted coldly and scolded aside, "A bunch of trash."

"Damn it! You can do it! Don't be fooling around! You are the one who started this conflict." Some people were angry and shouted at Su Lanbo immediately.

"Can I count on you? Let me step back, don't embarrass me." Su Lanbo said coldly.

I have to say that Su Lanbo is really very annoying.

Originally there was Bai Fengxue as an enemy, but Su Lanbo could take the opportunity of everyone's anger to share the enemy and gain a wave of favorability.

But this guy just didn't want it, he just made himself the most beautiful boy that both sides hated and disliked.

Those people were eager for Su Lanbo to come on, so they retreated in a flash, leaving the stage to Su Lanbo.

Su Lanbo looked at Bai Fengxue and smiled coldly: "I challenged you before, you didn't dare to let out a fart, and you had to hide behind others. Now, don't you want to face me? I am in your life. If you can't get over it, I will be your lifelong nightmare."

A bunch of trash talk came down, and Bai Fengxue's brows were locked.

"If you want to fight, fight, why are you talking trash?" Bai Fengxue scolded and charged directly towards Su Lanbo.

After all, Su Lanbo is the most talented man among the younger generation.

When he saw Bai Fengxue rushing over, he laughed loudly, and a fierce cold wind blew up from his body.

This fierce cold wind swept towards Bai Fengxue in an instant.

Bai Fengxue's movement seemed to have slowed down in an instant, and it was difficult for him to dodge the blow.

William sighed softly, "It still won't work, Feng Xue still hasn't fully adapted to his bloodline."

William said this in a small way.

According to Wiliam's estimation, Feng Xue now has less than ten percent of his bloodline ability.

It is more than enough to deal with ordinary warriors.

However, it is a bit reluctant to deal with the mid-term and above of Huajin.

Su Lanbo was greatly encouraged, "But that's it! It's not that you are very strong, but that your opponent just now was too bad! Now, I will let you taste the taste of the strong!"

This sentence, once again offended both sides.

The faces of the people in the cold boat were all white with anger, but they were speechless.

Feng Xue and Su Lanbo fought again, and Su Lanbo seemed to have a strange ability to control the cold wind.

In other words, his inner strength is the cold wind.

After a while, Bai Fengxue was severely punched on the shoulder.

Her body flew upside down, hit the wall, and slid down again.

Wiliam frowned slightly, but said nothing.

"Oh, do you feel bad?" Su Hongxiu also saw through the situation and couldn't help joking aside.

Wiliam shook his head and said, "No."

"Oh? That's because you have the intention to let your wife practice her hands? Or practice her guts?" Su Hongxiu joked again.

Wiliam couldn't help but glance at Su Hongxiu.

This woman is really smart.

Wiliam hasn't made a move so far, and he really wants to give this place to Bai Fengxue completely.

Because Fengxue needs such a stage and needs such an opportunity.

You need to stand alone in the front, facing the thousands of troops, and stand the test of life and death.

In this way, Feng Xue's blood can be stirred up at the fastest speed, so that she can adapt to the blood more quickly.

Moreover, Feng Xue can be said to be pampered since he was a child, and there are not many opportunities to really fight by himself.

She also needs such an opportunity, whether it is courageous or skillful, in short, she must face some things by herself.

Su Hongxiu saw through Wiliam's mind at a glance, and she was as careful as a hair.

"Look, Feng Xue won't give in. She will force herself to be the strongest." Wiliam just replied to Su Hongxiu lightly.

In fact, there are some things that Wiliam didn't say.

Bai Fengxue will force out the strongest self.

However, it will be after a bloody battle.

Can Wiliam still understand Feng Xue?

Although he is weak on the outside, he is stronger than anyone else on the inside, even stubborn.

She also knew that to adapt to her own bloodline as soon as possible, she had to fight again and again.

So, not until the last minute.

Not to the point of life and death.

Bai Fengxue will not easily enter the state of blue hair.

"Oh? Is that so? It's such a heart-wrenching little cutie. I can't help but want to look down. I hope you don't feel too distressed." Turn your attention to the field.

In fact, Su Hongxiu was also sighing at the moment.

She had fought against Bai Fengxue once before, and knew how terrifying Bai Fengxue was in that state.

However, Su Hongxiu at that time did not admire Bai Fengxue.

I just think this woman is a little interesting and weird.

Now, Su Hongxiu completely admires Bai Fengxue.

This woman obviously has a strong backer.

But still so hard, even to fight with their lives.

Why bother?

Is it bad to rely on men?

Although Su Hongxiu kept saying who said that women are inferior to men.

But Bai Fengxue used anxious actions to tell the world that she was sometimes braver and more fearless than men.

Only with a strong mind can we truly be a heroine.

At this point, Su Hongxiu always wanted to break through, but it seemed like there was some shackles.

Bai Fengxue walked in front of her.

Although Su Hongxiu didn't know what Bai Fengxue had experienced before.

But with this strength, Su Hongxiu knew that Bai Fengxue was not an ordinary woman.

It's good for myself, and it's good for Wiliam.

For the future of her and Wiliam.

This woman is destined to be extraordinary!

While thinking about it, Bai Fengxue was already covered in bruises.

There was blood on the corners of her mouth, but her eyes became colder.

"Hahaha! How's it going! Is it comfortable for you to be served by Lao Tzu's fists?" Su Lanbo couldn't help laughing, mocking Bai Fengxue frantically.

Everyone could see that Bai Fengxue was already at the end of his streak, and he didn't have any strength to fight back.

Su Lanbo is indeed a straight man of steel.

The crazy attack against Bai Fengxue just now had no strength at all.

Therefore, in a short period of time, Bai Fengxue was seriously injured.

Bai Fengxue lowered her head and stood tremblingly on the spot.

No one heard what she was saying to herself.

“Isn’t it okay...”

“No, it shouldn’t be. It’s just that this person hates it.”

“Then there is a chance next time. As for this time...”

Bai Fengxue suddenly raised his head, revealing a sinister smile.

“This time, protect your skull first! I’m here!”
