

Dragon Husband 1772

Chapter 1772 The water is indeterminate

"Five Elements Magic Weapons?" Wiliam couldn't help repeating what Su Hongxiu just said.

Su Hongxiu nodded and said, "It's the Five Elements Divine Weapon!"

She pointed to the elder who was holding the golden bowl and said, "That divine weapon is called the golden bowl for subduing demons, and the others are called the wooden oar of the sky, the anger of the immortals, the furnace of the Nine Netherworld, and the immovable like a mountain."

"The five divine weapons correspond to gold, wood, water, fire, and soil!"

"According to the records of the clan's history, these five Five Elements Divine Weapons were given to us in one breath by a very mysterious sect in order to thank our Sect Master for curing them."

"No one could drive the Five Elements Divine Armament in the early years, and it is not good to think that it is now controlled by these five elders separately!"

"Even I have never seen anyone use the Five Elements Divine Weapons, and I don't know how mysterious and powerful they are. But to be so cherished by the ethnic group, their power is absolutely extraordinary!"

"Wiliam, you'd better keep an eye on it!"

Su Hongxiu finished speaking in one breath, and finally couldn't help but explain to Wiliam.

Wiliam nodded and stopped talking.

“Little girl, it’s all your fault, don’t blame us.” The bowl-bearing elder said coldly to Bai Fengxue.

As soon as the voice fell, a surging and roaring spring suddenly descended from the sky!

It was another elder who took action, and the Fengxian Nuquan in his hand was thrown directly at Bai Fengxue.

The small clear spring continued to grow in mid-air, rushing towards the wind and snow.

Bai Fengxue looked up, but his hand didn’t stop.

She waved the rosewood toward the sky, trying to freeze the anger in the bay.

However, this bay is really amazing.

At the moment when the peach blossom frost branch was swung out, it turned into a mist of water, directly avoiding the attack of the peach blossom rose branch.

Then, in an instant, they gathered in front of Bai Fengxue, and directly sealed Bai Fengxue in the anger spring.

The people at the scene only saw that Bai Fengxue was overnight, and their bodies fell into a bay of clear springs.

They burst into applause and cheers!

This is the first time that the people of the Cold Boat Race have suppressed Bai Fengxue on the bright side.

Bai Fengxue, who fell into the clear spring, wanted to break free from the package of this bay’s angry spring.

However, water is indeterminate.

No matter how hard Bai Fengxue tried his best, that angered spring in the bay seemed to be wearing a water jacket on Bai Fengxue’s body.

Feng Xue raised his hand, and Nuquan followed.

The wind and snow swept the legs, and Nuquan followed.

Such as the gangrene attached to the bone, like a shadow.

“This Fengxian Nuquan is really powerful! It’s the first time I’ve seen the third elder use this magic weapon when I’ve grown so big!”

“Hahaha, only the wrong name is given, and there is no magic weapon called the wrong one! Do you know why it is called Fengxian Nuquan? It’s because of this bay that even the gods will seal it up for you!”

“The patriarch is still cautious. He even dispatched five elders with the Five Elements Divine Weapon to deal with this little girl. I think a third elder is more than enough.”

“Hmph, that little girl, come back to your grandfather! I think you are like an ant wrapped in water droplets! Wait to die!”

“It seems that this is an auxiliary magical weapon.” Su Hongxiu said worriedly.

The auxiliary magic weapon she mentioned is different from the offensive and defensive magic weapons.

In the land of common people, offensive and defensive magic weapons are the mainstream.

There are not many auxiliary magic weapons, and most of these magic weapons focus on auxiliary forging and other functions.

Divine soldiers like the one in front of them that can restrain people are even rarer.

Bai Fengxue was wrapped in it, seeing that he could no longer use his weapons normally, and could not exert his strength at all.

Conditioning magic weapons, although not aggressive, are really annoying.

At this time, another elder stood up and threw the immovable mountain in his hand towards Bai Fengxue.

I thought that this immovable mountain would look like a big mountain like the anger spring.

However, Fu Rushan still maintained the appearance of a sculpture and fell directly on Bai Fengxue’s head!

Immediately!

“boom!”

There was a strong roar at the scene!

The platform under Bai Fengxue's feet collapsed directly!

William's eyes narrowed and he couldn't help but say, "Something's wrong!"

"Of course it's not right! You don't know that this immobile is as powerful as a mountain! It looks like a model toy, but it is very powerful!" Su Hongxiu frowned and said.

"This is as immobile as a mountain. If you recognize the master, it will be as light as a toy in the master's hand, but once thrown away, it is really a mountain."

"I mean the weight of a mountain!"

The weight of a mountain!

William took a deep breath and looked at the scene.

Bai Fengxue's body was wrapped by the anger spring, and was suppressed by the motionless mountain.

Her face has become very ugly, and even her body is bending down at a speed visible to the naked eye.

This is the weight of a mountain resting on Bai Fengxue!

I believe that it won't be long before Bai Fengxue will be completely crushed by this motionless mountain!

There were cheers again!

"How fortunate to be in this life, to be able to see the unmoving demeanor! It's really amazing!"

"This little girl is really capable, and she wasn't crushed to death all of a sudden!"

"So what? It's just a matter of time. The other elders don't have to take action anymore."

Sure enough, the other three elders just stood there, the old god was at ease, and had no intention of taking another shot.

Two magic weapons, enough to kill this little girl.

William stared at Bai Fengxue closely, and said nothing.

Fengxue, how will you break this game?

The wind and snow in the anger spring could have struggled.

But with the addition of immobile as a mountain, Feng Xue's actions suddenly became extremely slow.

Even, every time she struggled, the unmoving weight of the mountain would take the opportunity to bless Feng Xue's body, increasing the speed of her bending.

The people at the scene were already celebrating.

The balance of victory has tipped in their favor.

"We Hanzhou people, how can any cat or dog be insulted!"

"Now see how powerful our Cold Boaters are? Here we are, Hidden Dragon Crouching Tiger!"

"What about our ancestors! Now let you see the power of our ancestors!"

Minutes passed by.

Bai Fengxue's movements are getting smaller and smaller.

Even the rosewood branch in her hand had already fallen to the ground because there was no way to drive it.

But at this moment, Bai Fengxue suddenly murmured a word in the angry spring.

This sentence, mixed with the sound of water, became vague.

"I am angry."

Well, the blue-haired Blizzard is angry.

She suddenly put her finger into her mouth and bit her hard!

A streak of scarlet blood, along the corner of her mouth, fell into the fountain of anger, spreading instantly!

A terrifying aura instantly pierced through the Fountain of Fury and swept the audience!

Bloodline!

Cang python bloodline!
