

Dragon Husband 1786 –

Chapter 1786 The culprit

When Su Lanbo said this, he was full of grievances, but also very proud.

It's settled.

He knew too well how powerful his few hidden elders were.

At the beginning, Su Lanbo tried his best, but in the end he was blown away by an elder with one breath.

The disparity in the strength of the scorpion is too great.

Now that the five Supreme Elders have come out, this is simply the battle power of the Cold Boaters.

Can't deal with a small William?

However, he didn't notice that when he finished saying this, the scene suddenly fell into a dead silence.

People of the Cold Boat, you look at me, I look at you, not to mention how embarrassed your face is.

Especially the five Supreme Elders, their faces were flushed red, as if they had eaten shit.

They even clenched their fists, as if they were happy to smash the Su Lanbo in front of him alive.

And Wiliam, who was walking at the forefront, passed by him as if he had not heard Su Lanbo's words at all.

Wiliam is too lazy to deal with this kind of jumping clown.

However, Su Lanbo suddenly became furious.

Like being stimulated.

He rushed to Wiliam with a quick stride and stopped him.

“Stop for me! Do you still want to run? You dare to be so presumptuous in front of several famous elders of our Cold Boat! It seems that you really don't want to live anymore!” Su Lanbo glared at Lu Lu. leaf.

“You said enough, nothing!” Su Changsheng, who was behind him, couldn't help but drank violently.

His face was ashen, as if he had eaten a hundred catties of explosives.

At this moment, the mood of the cold boaters was already very low, and this Su Lanbo appeared here like a ghost.

It doesn't matter if he appears, he opens his mouth and closes his mouth to provoke Wiliam.

Do you really want Wiliam to wipe out the entire cold boat race!

At this time, no one in the cold boat dared to provoke Wiliam.

At least on the front, no one dared to offend Wiliam.

Su Lanbo said these words, if Wiliam is to blame, it will be the entire Hanzhou people who suffer!

And Su Lanbo looked at Su Changsheng in disbelief.

In his eyes, Su Changsheng has always doted on him the most.

No matter what Su Lanbo did, as long as it wasn't the big crime of genocide, he was confident that he would be forgiven and sheltered by Su Changsheng.

Because he knew Su Changsheng's thoughts too well.

Although Su Changsheng has acted in a low-key manner over the years, his desire to break through the shackles and become the number one meritorious person in the cold boat, Su Lanbo is so stubborn.

Su Changsheng didn't want to live in obscurity and mediocrity all his life, and he wanted to leave a strong mark in the history of Hanzhouzhe.

So he will pin all his hopes on Su Lanbo.

Now, seeing Su Changsheng yelling at him, Su Lanbo couldn't calm down for a while.

He didn't think about it that much, and roared back, "Patriarch! You didn't see how he and his bitch wife treated us Cold Boaters! They..."

"Crack!" Before Su Lanbo finished speaking, his pupils dilated.

He had been slapped hard on his face!

Su Changsheng stood in front of Su Lanbo and threw his hand down,
“You dare to say anything disrespectful!”

“Patriarch! You! You! You!” Su Lanbo covered his flushed face, and even had tears in his eyes.

“What are you! Get the hell out of here! Stop embarrassing me here!” Su Changsheng said angrily.

In fact, Su Changsheng knew exactly what Su Lanbo had done over the years.

But just as Su Lanbo thought, Su Changsheng opened one eye and closed the other as if he could not see.

As long as this kid doesn't cause a big disaster, Su Changsheng usually follows him.

But this time, the situation is different.

This kid actually added another fire when the cold boaters were in jeopardy.

This is the rhythm that will make Wiliam explode completely.

How could Su Changsheng bear it?

And after this slap in the face, Su Changsheng wanted to understand something.

In particular, the source of all this is actually on Su Lanbo!

Think about it, Su Lanbo provoked them for no reason at the beginning.

And it is directly provoking Bai Fengxue, the ancestor!

Then he dared to provoke Bai Fengxue at the feast of offering sacrifices to heaven.

Although Bai Fengxue didn't have any challenges at that time, now it's a fortune among misfortunes.

Next is today.

Su Lanbo provoked Bai Fengxue and Wiliam again and again.

If from the beginning, Su Lanbo would have been calm and would not have provoked Wiliam and Bai Fengxue.

Maybe that's not what happened after that!

Bai Fengxue will not personally participate in the Caixiu Erlang Festival!

Naturally, the truth of her twin body and soul will not be exposed.

The cold boaters and the ancestors will be at peace with each other.

Depend on!

The culprit is still riding a horse here as a shit stick!

Su Changsheng became more and more angry the more he thought about it!

He raised his head and saw Su Lanbo covering his flushed face, walking aside with a look of grievance and resentment.

It seemed that even Su Changsheng hated him.

Su Changsheng was even more angry.

“Stop, come back to me!” Su Changsheng shouted to Su Lanbo again.

Su Lanbo’s face was overjoyed, and he ran in front of Su Changsheng in three steps, “Patriarch, are you finally back to normal?”

“Return to normal? I’ll restore Nima!” Su Changsheng was even more angry after hearing this.

He directly held down Su Lanbo’s head and punched him to death with both fists.

Su Lanbo’s head had been hit hard by Bai Fengxue, but now he was beaten up by the patriarch for no reason.

The scene was filled with Su Lan’s horrific mourning.

It was not until Su Lanbo was beaten to the point of dying that his body was bruised and bruised that Su Changsheng let out a savage sigh of relief, barely letting go of the sigh in his heart.

“Go away!” Su Changsheng stretched out one foot again and kicked Su Lanbo aside who was on the ground.

Fortunately, there were still some people in the clan who couldn’t bear it, and quickly helped Su Lanbo on the ground.

Su Lanbo’s face was covered in blood at the moment, but his eyes became more and more resentful.

He looked at Su Changsheng and muttered to himself, “Why? Why? Why did you beat me for an outsider? Why did you protect that Wiliam so much?”

The face of the person who was supporting him changed, and the two of them loosened their hands.

Su Lan fell to the ground again.

As if they had seen the god of plague, those two people dared not look at Su Lanbo again, and turned around and left.

As he walked, he muttered: “What kind of evil did I do? This Su Lanbo is begging for death, let me beat him!”

Seeing Wiliam go further and further, Su Changsheng became angry again.

He walked in front of Su Lanbo and looked at Su Lanbo condescendingly.

Looking at each other, Su Lanbo’s eyes became aggrieved again.

“Su Lanbo, do you want to know the answer? Okay, I’ll tell you!” Su Changsheng pointed at Wiliam, whose back was about to disappear, and said something that made Su Lanbo’s head burst.

“Bai Fengxue, who was provocative in every possible way before, is really the ancestor of our cold boaters!”

“Frost Cang Python!”
