Chapter 1794 The new ancestor of the cold boat

This night seemed to have been a long, long time.

When Wiliam opened his eyes, all the people in Han Xing's forgetfulness had already come out of the tent.

They saw Wiliam and Li Chunfeng falling asleep on the reef, as if they were surprised, and no one took a second look.

Instead, it was the tall, thin man who pointed at Wiliam with a weird smile on his face.

Wiliamxing stood up straight, naturally ignoring the smiles of these people.

"Wiliam, come and have some breakfast." Su Hongxiu beckoned to Wiliam not far away.

Wiliam nodded, jumped up, and landed in front of Su Hongxiu.

Su Hongxiu handed Wiliam a bowl of boiled millet porridge.

When Wiliam picked it up and was about to eat, he suddenly frowned and looked at the sky.

At this time, someone also complained loudly: "The weather in this Cang Python Squad is really strange, the sky was clear just now, and in less than a minute, it was covered with dark clouds, and it's about to rain, what? Ghost."

Wiliam looked at the sky, and saw that the sky was really covered with dark clouds in an instant, and there was a large black cloud above his head, giving the illusion that a black cloud was pressing down on the city and was about to destroy it.

Seeing this scene, Wiliam felt a faint sense of unease in his heart.

At this moment, an arrogant laughter sounded not far away, "Oh ho ho, it turns out that you haven't gone far, you are actually camping here, are you planning to celebrate? Great, I'm really afraid that you will give it to you. away."

Everyone looked at the sound and saw a person slowly walking out of the woods.

This person is Su Lanbo.

Su Yongcun frowned tightly and asked coldly, "Su Lanbo, what are you doing here? Are you trying to deal with us?"

There was a charming smile on Su Lanbo's face. He shook his head and said with a smile, "How could that be? There are so many of you, I'm so scared."

Saying that, he looked around.

Seeing this, he smiled even happier, "Oh, I didn't find out just now that it turns out that there are all beautiful beauties here! Tsk tsk tsk! I am so blessed, Su Lanbo! What I owe before is going to be doubled to me all at once. Come back, if it is true that Sai Weng loses his horse, it is not a blessing."

Su Yongcun saw that Su Lanbo said that he didn't dare, but his demeanor and the next words were still full of arrogance and domineering, and there was no such thing as dare.

This kid, what medicine is being sold in the gourd?

"If you don't dare, go back to me, don't be ashamed here." Su Yongcun couldn't help shouting.

However, Su Lan waved instead of retreating.

He moved slowly and walked towards Wiliam.

Su Yongcun frowned again, just about to take action against Su Lanbo.

But Wiliam grabbed him.

Wiliam looked at Su Lanbo who came over, and his eyes were full of vigilance.

"Be careful, this guy is different from before." Wiliam said lightly.

Su Lanbo, who Wiliam had seen before, just had an arrogant and domineering skin.

It seems to be strong from the outside.

But now Su Lanbo, although his appearance is still very arrogant, he is obviously a little more sinister.

Not right.

After a while, Su Lanbo was already standing not far in front of Wiliam.

He was single-handedly, and then his eyes recklessly wandered around the beauties around him.

How can those women endure Su Lanbo's red eyes like this, and they all blushed with anger.

Su Hongxiu seemed to have thought of something, and asked Su Lanbo, "What about the people from the Hanzhouzu tribe?"

She didn't believe that Su Lanbo dared to appear here so recklessly.

This guy is dying.

So either this guy has something to rely on.

The biggest possibility is the people of the cold boaters.

But what puzzles Su Hongxiu now is that the cold boaters have become waste, how can they still become Su Lanbo's reliance.

"Cold boater? Oh ho ho, thanks to your reminder, I forgot one thing. I'm really confused. I'm sorry, let me introduce myself to you again." Pretending to be polite, he also bent slightly towards the people around him.

"The one standing in front of you is called Su Lanbo, um, the new Patriarch of the Cold Boaters." Su Lanbo said with a smile.

Hearing this, Su Hongxiu and Su Yongcun looked at each other and said directly, "Impossible!"

You must know that Su Lanbo is a direct line of blood, no matter how much Su Changsheng trusts him to spoil him, it is impossible for him to be confused in the inheritance of blood lines, and give the position of the patriarch to a person of direct line blood.

And even if Su Changsheng was confused, there were still some hidden elders, and they wouldn't agree at all.

"Hohohoho, everything is possible, I just introduce my identity to you, believe it or not." Su Lan said with a smile.

Su Hongxiu seemed to think of a possibility, and frowned instantly, "Where is my grandfather! Where are the other Hanzhou people! What have you done to them!"

Although Su Hongxiu has always disliked her grandfather, but after all, she is related by blood, so she can't just sit back and watch.

"Your grandfather? Hohoho, he knelt at my feet yesterday and licked my feet and called me Hanzhou New Ancestor." Su Lanbo laughed as if he had thought of something funny.

And Su Yongcun's face suddenly turned ugly!

This Su Lanbo has the ability and ability to humiliate Su Changsheng!

How on earth did he do it!

Also, the new ancestor of Hanzhou!

This guy is so arrogant!

What is his confidence!

"Hahaha, I'm confused, right? I'll tell the truth. Speaking of which, I would like to thank you, Su Hongxiu, for giving me a good idea." Su Lanbo said with a big laugh.

It was Su Hongxiu who let Su Lanbo know that this time they were deprived of their strength because of their bloodline strength.

Therefore, Su Lanbo was able to defeat those immortals in one fell swoop and trample them under his feet.

Su Lanbo took this opportunity to briefly explain what happened after William and the others left.

The middle naturally skips the existence of his master.

After hearing this, Su Yongcun was already furious, "Damn it! I should have slapped you with a palm! You are a traitor of this race! White-eyed wolf! You can't vent my anger even if you die 10,000 times!"

"Hacked me? Hahaha, can you do it? Now you are just an ant-like existence in front of me, why are you?" Su Lanbo laughed playfully.

Su Hongxiu's face was grim, "Oh, is it? What about me? Also, what about my subordinates."

In a word, the people in the red and thin high-rise buildings were ready to attack in an instant.

If you can't win Su Lanbo, you can't take the position of the nine sects.

The situation suddenly became tense. With the dark clouds pressing down on the city and the thunder rolling in, the scene became even more tense.

William suddenly raised his head, glanced at the sky, and shouted at Su Hongxiu, "Don't shoot!"
