

Dragon Husband 1815

Chapter 1815 Win or die!

This is Wiliam's first use of Soul Rescue Heart Domain.

Naturally, he didn't know the power of Soul Rescue Heart Domain.

But seeing Li Chunfeng's heart, Wiliam had a kind of enlightenment in his heart.

Perhaps, Soul Rescue Heart Domain is a great weapon for him to be able to fight back against the Jedi.

Therefore, it must not be used easily unless it is a last resort or a perfect time.

Now, Wiliam used his life to fight this opportunity!

Soothe the soul!

Ye Qiongqi has lost his hearing.

However, under the gaze of Wiliam's eyes, he only felt his head bang!

As if something exploded in his soul consciousness!

The explosion made him lose his mind on the spot!

He had never seen such a miraculous and terrifying attack in his life!

Just now, that little girl's unintentional cry of blood was strong enough!

Get rid of the physical attack directly, and through the sound kill, constantly weaken Ye Qiongqi's fighting spirit, so that Ye Qiangqi can only escape from this realm by self-mutilation for a while!

And now, the effect of Wiliam's soul-suppressing heart is actually several times that of Wuxin's blood!

Heartless cry of blood also needs to hear the cuckoo cry of blood through both ears, leaving a way to crack.

And the soul-suppressing heart domain is directly imprinted in the opponent's mind, like a bomb thrown into a person's head in a form invisible to the naked eye!

There is no way to guard against it, no way to defend, and no way to crack!

The real killer move!

What's even more terrifying is that Wuxin's blood is just killing through sound, gradually weakening a person's fighting spirit.

And the soul-suppressing heart domain, it's already out of it, as soon as it comes out, it's Wang Zhuang!

Bombard the Soul Consciousness!

I am afraid that someone with a low realm will be turned into an idiot on the spot under Wiliam's sudden soul-suppressing heart!

And now, Ye Qiongqi and Wiliam are still several realms away!

Wiliam seized this blank opportunity and struck a fatal blow!

Ye Qiongqi lost his mind on the spot, his eyes turned white!

Of course, what Wiliam didn't know was that this was only the shallowest and lowest-level way to use Soul Rescue.

With the improvement of the realm, the power of the Soul Requiring Heart Domain will be multiplied!

The Soul Requiring Heart Domain brought by the Soldier's Soul Requiring can be said to be the most special and lethal heart domain among the heart domains!

Of course Wiliam would not miss such an opportunity!

Taking advantage of Ye Qiongqi's absent-mindedness, Wiliam's double fists blasted out again!

This time, the fists hit Ye Qiongqi's body directly!

However, Wiliam felt like he had hit a wall!

Ye Qiongqi's body is too tough, and it is not something someone of Wiliam's level can punch through!

And Wiliam is already determined at this moment!

I don't know how long the power of Soul Rescue Heart Domain will last, so!

Then kill it!

The fists kept slamming on Ye Qiongqi's body!

From heaven to earth!

In the end, Wiliam pressed Ye Qiongqi to the ground to bombard him!

"Bang bang bang!"

The sound of fisting to the flesh resounded throughout the audience!

Everyone looked at this scene and felt incredible!

Wiliam is so strong that he has no friends!

It turned the disadvantage in one fell swoop!

Although they don't know what the reason is inside?

Why was that monster suddenly like a fool, unable to resist?

But the ending is good.

Everyone seemed to see the dawn of hope, and their eyes were red again.

The sound of bombardment continues!

William's fists were covered in blood!

Half is Ye Qiongqi's blood, and half is William's own blood!

"Ah!" William suddenly shouted up to the sky.

"Ancestor! Lend me a punch! A punch is fine!"

Falling down with the roar!

The people saw the miracle again!

William's right fist suddenly became bigger!

In the end it turned into a hideous beast claw!

This animal claw is several meters thick!

Moreover, the animal claws are covered with glittering animal scales!

These scales shone with a strange green light in the sunlight!

William's body is completely out of proportion to this animal's claw!

Poorly small!

But it shows that this animal claws are terrifyingly powerful!

William lowered his head and used the horn on his head to directly lift the soulless Ye Qiongqi into the air!

Then!

The claws of the beast rise to the sky!

It slammed into Ye Qiongqi's body fiercely!

Ye Qiongqi's tenacious body finally shattered in the strong blow of the beast's claw!

Between the heavens and the earth, only the flesh and blood that has fallen in succession is left!

This scene has remained in everyone's hearts forever!

God's blow!

Never exaggerate!

and!

It worked!

William, actually successfully killed this powerful and terrifying monster!

"We survived!" I don't know who said something, and the scene suddenly burst into cheers!

This is the joy and happiness brought by the aftermath of the disaster!

The hell knows what happened to them today!

Encounter a mighty and invincible demon!

First of all, William was bombarded by a single blow and didn't know his life or death!

Then there is the despair brought to everyone by the Lightning Cage!

escape!

die!

There is no hope in anyone's heart.

The long live demon lotus that Wiliam was proud of was smashed to pieces!

Even Luo Tian's overall situation, manipulating the lightning cage to fight back did not kill this monster!

Li Chunfeng incarnated as Emperor Wang, and exchanged his life for his life, but he just let the monster pierce his eardrums and lose his hearing.

The hearts of everyone, during this period, ignited hope again and again, but were ruthlessly extinguished by monsters again and again!

Now, the real dawn has dawned!

Wiliam didn't know where the power came from, and turned into an undead war mad!

A beast claw that appeared out of thin air perfectly fulfilled its mission and smashed the monster's body to pieces!

This scene is always true!

Today's mood is better than the joys and sorrows they have experienced in half their lives.

And what they saw and heard today, it is estimated that they will never see them again in this life!

God's Wiliam!

Everyone rushed towards Wiliam, wanting to share with Wiliam the joy of surviving at this moment.

And Wiliam's animal claw, after completing its mission, returned to its original appearance like a deflated ball.

“boom!”

William’s right hand almost exploded!

At this moment, the right arm is covered with ferocious and terrifying cracks!

This move, but all the power of the sky blue unicorn gathered on the right arm!

It’s like a tank of water that is forced into a bowl, where can it be stuffed!

William forced it down, and naturally he had to bear an extremely tragic price!

However, William was content.

He breathed a sigh of relief.

survived, finally survived.

This is definitely the most difficult and desperate battle William has ever fought!

If it weren’t for the power of the two ancient gods, a hundred William would not be able to defeat this monster!

William stretched out his left hand, trying to wipe the blood from his face.

Left hand, wipe directly from the face back.

With this touch, William’s hand touched something hard.

His heart suddenly trembled violently!

Sharp corners!

The sharp horns on his head did not disappear with the victory of the battle?

Thinking of this, the hairs all over his body stood up!

Never die!

The soldier Chi You said that he borrowed his strength...

Win or die!

This monster has been blasted into powder by himself, isn't it a victory?

Why not disappear?

Strong heart palpitations appeared in an instant!

not good!

The sharp corners have not disappeared, there is only one answer!

The battle is not over yet!

myself, not dead—

Didn't win either!

This monster is still alive!
