

Dragon Husband 1821

Chapter 1821 Painful

The world is completely messed up.

Because of the mutation of the blue python, because of the occurrence of human disasters.

The nine sects are the sects at the outermost periphery of the common people's territory.

The place where these sects are located is the most affected by the Cang Mang Sect.

Dugu Hongshi, Canjian Jiutian and other sects issued orders almost immediately!

All orders!

All the disciples are dispatched!

All of them threw themselves into this world-destroying catastrophe.

Here, there are still many ordinary people, how can they have any strength to fight against this violent storm, let alone against those ancient beasts pouring down from the blue python.

To put it badly, even the nine sects are not the opponents of those ancient beasts.

However, those who practice martial arts and seek immortality have their duty and morality!

Even if it is not the opponent of those ancient beasts, a few sects, there is almost no hesitation.

Protecting the safety of one party is not what you say with your mouth.

Moreover, it is not just nine cases.

Six methods!

Three Heavens!

It was also almost the first time that a full order was issued, and the first time to devote himself to this battle of salvation.

Although they didn't know why Cang Python Tianshen was like this, they didn't have time to think about it.

I'm afraid they can't even imagine that this human disaster was caused by one person.

Comfortable for too many years.

This catastrophe finally made these sects abandon their usual competition and prejudice, and became a rope.

The outside is vigorous and vigorous, but in the center of this vortex, there is a different kind of warmth.

The Frost Cang Python incarnated as a human being is petite and soft, and I still can't believe that this is true.

Just because it came too fast.

She doesn't have the supernatural power of peeping into heaven and earth like the Peach Blossom Lady.

She just pinned a pointless hope on one person.

How long has it been since then?

There is only one way to save her.

That is to first put the Jiangshan prayer seal into the cang python.

Then there is another person of extreme blood to join the sky.

So, exchange soul for soul.

Petite Rou was able to escape the shackles of thousands of years.

The petite Rou, who had just escaped, helped Wiliam eradicate Ye Qiongqi with this sudden gratitude and excitement.

As for the doomsday catastrophe caused, how much pity does Petite Rou have?

In her time and space, wars were protracted.

The ferocity of the war and the horror of casualties are simply not comparable to the trivial disasters in front of them.

So this kind of situation is commonplace for petite Rou.

There was only one thing on her mind right now.

Is the love in front of you real?

After being isolated for thousands of years, I can still see my lover at first sight when I open my eyes.

Beautiful too unreal.

So she held out her hand.

However, she dared not.

Because I am ashamed.

At that time, because of impulsiveness, he agreed to the Three Emperors and turned into a moat to protect the safety of one party.

The result was calculated by the three emperors and imprisoned for thousands of years.

My lover has been waiting for thousands of years!

The suffering of these thousands of years cannot be resolved by a hug.

Therefore, Petite Rou dare not.

Fortunately, Lady Peach Blossom doesn't care about that.

What she cares about is that she sees Petite Rou again.

All these years of waiting and sleeping are worth it.

A hug is enough.

However, during the hug, Lady Peach Blossom glanced at Wiliam and sighed.

Sin ah...

After all, the prophecy came true, and what I saw was fully realized.

At that time, Lady Peach Blossom couldn't help but spy on Wiliam's future.

As a result, I saw this scene.

For Wiliam's sake, Li Chunfeng took the initiative to devote himself to the Cang Mang Scorpio, and exchanged his soul for his soul, so that Petite Rou could be reborn.

This scene is too cruel!

Therefore, Lady Peach Blossom refused to say what she saw when she was killed.

Even when talking to Wiliam, he deliberately concealed something, skipping the condition that he needs the extreme bloodline.

Who knows, Wiliam is too smart, he thinks a lot at once.

Unfortunately, what can I think of?

Can it be stopped by human power?

William, I'm sorry...

Spring breeze, I'm sorry...

Lady Peach Blossom actually knew that this final release was entirely caused by Li Chunfeng.

Since Li Chunfeng awakened his Wangdi bloodline, he seemed to have known his final destiny.

However, she did not turn back and came to Cang Python Tianmo in the name of team building, in order to use all her strength to protect William in this battle where the enemy is strong and we are weak.

Of course, Li Chunfeng also had some extravagant hopes, expecting that the prophecy would be broken, and she also wanted to keep this life.

Damn fate.

After Li Chunfeng knew the power disparity, he gradually strengthened his determination to die.

Even William can't break the game, so who else will break the game?

After thinking about it, there was only the Frost Cang Python in front of him.

When Ye Qiongqi wanted to take the Jiangshan Prayer Seal, she took action.

Directly type the Jiangshan Prayer Seal into the Cang Python Scratch.

It also completed the first step to rescue Petite Rou.

And when William's life was hanging by a thread, Li Chunfeng made up his mind completely.

Even if he dies, he must revive the Frost Cang Python.

Even if life is ruined, Wiliam I will live in Chang'an.

This is a woman's selfishness.

Therefore, when Su Hongxiu knew about Li Chunfeng's decision, she was extremely shocked.

I was shocked by Li Chunfeng's courage and courage.

For one person, it is also possible to subvert the whole world!

Then Su Hongxiu felt that this was not right.

Isn't this the same as burying Li Chunfeng by himself?

It was just that the situation was extremely anxious at the time, and Su Hongxiu could only make up his mind in the end.

A woman's selfishness is fulfilled!

Even at his own risk.

Su Hongxiu was ready to die with Li Chunfeng, because after she did this, she would have no face to see Wiliam, no face to see Feng Xue, no face to see Han Xing's forgetfulness, and no face to see this common man!

But in the end, she was kicked back by Li Chunfeng at the last minute.

A woman's selfishness, a woman can bear the price.

The people at the scene stared blankly at the pair of women who appeared in the air, completely dumbfounded.

They don't know what happened.

At this time, Petite Rou also noticed that Lady Peach Blossom's eyes were looking at Wiliam.

She slowly let go of Lady Peach Blossom and looked at Wiliam.

A soft sigh.

Her body fell and landed in front of Wiliam.

Even if he is reborn, some things still have to be settled by himself.

Lady Peach Blossom also fell beside Petite Rou, as if muttering to herself: "How much sweetness does a woman's painstaking effort take to fill..."

Petite Rou just stared at Wiliam closely, but seemed to be answering Peach Blossom Lady's words.

"No, there are a lot of bitter people in my heart, just a little bit of sweetness can fill them up."

"Wiliam, do you want to see a woman's painstaking efforts?"
