

Dragon Husband 1827

Chapter 1827 Seven Stars

To be precise, this is a black and gold robe with a big hat on top of the robe.

The most peculiar thing is that there is a strange pattern tattooed on the chest of this black and gold robe.

A line resembling a boat runs horizontally, and a line resembling a penny goes up.

The information that was forcibly stuffed into Wiliam's mind just now was about the meaning of this black and gold robe.

Seven Star Ferryman!

There are seven such black and gold robes in the world!

At that time, the old man Qingfeng told Wiliam that there were seven people in the seven-star ferryman. They were the controllers of the land of the common people, but they didn't know each other's identities.

The identity of the ferryman is completely dependent on the messenger clothes on his body.

This black and gold robe turned out to be the symbol of the seven-star ferryman!

In other words, when Wiliam got this black and gold robe, he became a seven-star ferryman!

This thought made Wiliam unable to return to his senses for a while!

He never imagined that the monster turned out to be a seven-star ferryman!

On my side, I actually fought the highest power in this world to the death!

No wonder that monster is so powerful!

And Wiliam learned some of the origins of the monster one after another through the messages from this black gold robe!

That monster has lived for hundreds of years.

He was seriously injured in a battle a hundred years ago, but by chance, he was sojourned by another powerful ancient soul!

This ancient soul teaches monsters to find some ancient things so that they can repair their injuries.

But from this information, Wiliam had some doubts.

Shouldn't be the case.

If it is an ordinary injury, the medicine stone can heal it.

Why are you looking for something ancient?

From Wiliam's own experience, looking for ancient things should be useful for nourishing the soul.

So that ancient soul is really not a good thing.

He's cheating on that monster.

And even Wiliam can speculate that the monster's injury has not improved over the years, it should be deliberately suppressed by the ancient soul.

The purpose is to keep monsters looking for ancient things.

Thinking of this, Wiliam couldn't help but think of his ancestors and the soldier Chiyou.

In this battle, the ancestors and Chi Youyou borrowed strength from Wiliam, so they should be very weak now.

Ashamed to say, Wiliam always wanted the ancestors and Chi You to regain their strength as soon as possible.

But after battles, Wiliam took their power again and again.

Instead, they weakened again and again.

Fortunately, the old ancestor was in the same spirit as him, so he wouldn't blame Wiliam.

It is also fortunate that Chi You is an ancient soldier who has his own arrogance and disdains to do anything to Wiliam.

Otherwise, I don't know how Wiliam died.

I don't know if these five unknown ancient things are useful to them?

Wiliam couldn't help calling out to the two bosses in his heart.

"Are you here? Do you look at these five things, are they useful for your soul?"

After a long time, just when Wiliam wanted to give up, the voice of the old Sect Master Tianqing Qilin sounded in his heart.

"Well, I smell a familiar smell. These five things are very useful to us! It's not an exaggeration to say that it is a help in the snow!"

Hearing this, Wiliam was overjoyed!

Useful!

"Then let's see, how to refine these things?" Wiliam said again.

But at this time, he suddenly thought of something.

There are five things, and the boss has two.

It's not evenly divided.

You can't cut the same thing in half...

William was a little embarrassed for a while.

Seeming to understand William's embarrassment, Tianqing Qilin sighed and said, "I'll take one and give the fourth to that barbarian."

When William heard this, he was stunned!

Only one azure unicorn?

It's too unfair.

"This battle, the barbarian can be said to be doing his best for you. His soul is unstable. After this battle, he is even weaker, so he needs more than me. Do as I say." Tianqing Qilin said.

William thought for a moment.

It seems so.

Incarnate yourself into a god of war, with horns born.

But the horns were pulled off by the monster, which might cause more damage to the soldier.

The soldier didn't say anything, he just didn't want to say it.

It is to compensate some soldiers well.

I hope these four things can restore some soul power to the soldier.

"Okay, then there is Lao Ancestor. I can't contact the Lord of the Army for the time being." William said finally.

"Okay. Leave it to me." Tianqing Qilin said.

William saw those five things, turned into five phantom streamers, and entered directly from William's mouth.

"I really don't know if this is a blessing or a curse. With these four things, the savage is blessed by misfortune, and the soul can not only stabilize, but also repair three or four points. I believe that if there are four or five ancient things, he should completely Wake up." Tianqing Qilin sighed.

"So fast?" William couldn't help smacking his tongue.

"Don't think it's so fast. Do you think these five things are so easy to find? It takes hundreds of years to find so many lucky people, not to mention that there are so many lucky people in the world. This time you picked up the big ones. Leak. That monster should also know that it is constrained by the soul in its body, so it did not give the found ancient things to the soul, but used it as a bargaining chip, waiting for the final exchange. "

"I didn't think that it was cheap for you in the end, and it all fell into your hands."

Having said that, William suddenly felt that he was also out of luck.

However, all of this was based on William paying an unprecedented price.

Long live the demon lotus, especially Li Chunfeng...

"What about you? How many other ancient things do you need to completely repair your soul and wake up again?" William asked again.

"It's almost five. I'm not in a hurry." Tianqing Qilin is an open-minded person, just said lightly.

"You can recognize that black and gold robe first, that robe is very useful to you now." Tianqing Qilin said.

As soon as he was reminded, William acted immediately.

Because the monster was completely destroyed, the black-gold robe naturally had no owner and could be re-identified as the owner.

William bit his fingertips and dripped a drop of blood on it.

The black gold robe suddenly emitted a dazzling black light.

Then, it directly covered Wiliam's body.

Wiliam's face was completely covered by the black hat.

Strange to say, being possessed by this black gold robe, Wiliam has a warm feeling on his body.

It seems that the robe itself has infinite energy, which can allow him to absorb infinitely.

Just when Wiliam felt the warmth, suddenly the black light of the robe flashed again.

An idea popped into his mind involuntarily!

Someone else is summoning this black and gold robe!

It is the other six seven-star ferrymen!

As soon as he recognized his master, he was discovered!
