

Dragon Husband 1832

Chapter 1832 Crazy!

Liu Lang was staring blankly, when he suddenly realized that Wiliam was about to fall.

He took a brisk walk, rushed directly behind Wiliam, and hugged Wiliam.

Liu Lang's golden dragon breath madly poured into Wiliam's body!

However, Wiliam's injury this time is completely different from before!

It is the wound of the soul!

Even Liu Lang would have nothing to do with this injury for a while!

Seeing that Wiliam's breath gradually weakened, Liu Lang couldn't help roaring outside: "Lin Jiang!"

Almost as soon as he finished speaking, a figure appeared in front of Liu Lang!

Lin Jiang arrived in an instant!

"What's the matter! No! Something's wrong with Wiliam's soul!" Lin Jiang asked first, then looked at Wiliam, and instantly realized that something was wrong with Wiliam!

"Don't talk nonsense first! Wiliam's soul overdraft is too serious! Let's see if it can be saved!" Liu Lang became serious.

Lin Jiang nodded, took out a silver needle, and inserted it into Wiliam's Tianling cave.

Then, a crimson flame ignited on his body!

The flame instantly spread to the silver needle and slowly injected into Wiliam's spiritual consciousness.

After a long time, Lin Jiang breathed a sigh of relief, "It's not dangerous anymore, what happened just now?"

Liu Lang sternly lit a cigarette and cursed, "This boy Tama is a lunatic! He forcibly used the soul call to wake up his grandfather! No matter how I persuade him, I can't stop him!"

Lin Jiang understood what was going on as soon as he heard it, and he said angrily, "It's all my fault, I shouldn't remind Wiliam about the conjuring of souls..."

In fact, Liu Lang and Lin Jiang both understood one thing.

They all know that Wiliam got the grandmother's root before.

If Wiliam used all his grandmother's roots on his grandfather, perhaps the conjuration might be successful.

But Wiliam used most of his grandmother's roots on Feng Xue, leaving his grandfather's grandmother's roots running out.

According to Wiliam's strength just stepping into Nirvana, it was not enough to wake up his grandfather.

Forcibly awakening it will bring endless troubles to him!

"Don't say it, do you think that if you don't say it, Wiliam won't be able to remember it? His brain is the same as yours, so it's very good! He just focused on other things before." Liu Lang complained.

"Hey, this kid is too persistent. According to his current strength, he can't do such a thing at all. You can see that now, he has not been able to rescue his grandfather, and he almost died, why bother?" Lin Jiang also sighed helplessly. a sentence.

In Lin Jiang's mind, this is an impossible thing to do.

But at this time, Liu Lang's expression became strange, and he said faintly: "But this matter, you may really think wrong, this kid has always made the impossible possible, even if it is Pay the price with your life..."

Lin Jiang's eyes narrowed, and he thought of something in an instant, "You mean!"

Liu Lang nodded and looked at Lu Lingfeng on Hanyu's bed, "If I read it right just now, his grandfather should..."

Lin Jiang couldn't wait for Liu Lang to finish speaking.

He walked fast and rushed to the bed of Hanyu.

Lin Jiang pressed Lu Lingfeng's Tianling Platform with one hand.

With this press, he scolded directly, "How on earth did that kid do it! God!"

Liu Lang took a deep breath, "William is the craziest of the three of us, and I don't know how he did it. Treading the horse, every time I'm with him, I feel like my first love."

"Huh?" Lin Jiang looked at Liu Lang, not understanding what the hell he was talking about.

"My heart beats faster, dear! I don't feel at ease for a moment when I'm by his side!" Liu Lang frantically complained.

Lin Jiang nodded heartily.

He thought he was crazy enough.

But compared to William, it pales in comparison!

This girl doesn't take her own life seriously at all!

Lin Jiang took out the silver needle again and moved it quickly on Lu Lingfeng's body, helping Lu Lingfeng to better stabilize his soul.

After doing all this, he breathed a sigh of relief, "Look at the two of them, who wants to wake up, this is really a miracle, it's rare in this life."

William is small and broad, and he has achieved something that is impossible in the current state. Even if Lin Jiang wants to break his head, he doesn't know how he did it, so he can only attribute it to a miracle.

"How's it going outside?" Liu Lang asked casually again.

"Those women were seriously injured, but they were all traumatic injuries. They couldn't die if I was there. This is a great blessing among misfortunes." Lin Jiang said lightly, having a kind of confidence in his medical skills.

This time, I thought it would cause heavy damage to the red and thin high-rise buildings.

However, according to the current results, the heavy damage is not enough, and the strength of the red and thin high-rise buildings has been stored by 80%.

It's just for a while, the red and thin high-rise buildings are seriously damaged, and they can't run away.

"The world is in chaos, so you have to be more careful in the future." Liu Lang said after being silent for a while.

Lin Jiang naturally knew what Liu Lang was referring to, and nodded, "I will."

Because William hadn't woken up yet, the two of them were always worried, so they stayed in the room and waited.

After an unknown amount of time, William, who was lying next to his grandfather on the bed, let out a painful sound.

Liu Lang and Lin Jiang appeared at the bedside immediately and asked softly, "William, are you awake? How are you feeling now?"

William, who was on the cold jade bed, slowly opened his eyes.

He wanted to get up, but felt that one of his own heads was extremely important.

"You don't move, you haven't fully recovered yet," Lin Jiang said.

Only then did Wiliam give up the idea.

He opened his eyes again, remembering the last scene before his coma.

"Before I fell into a coma, I seemed to have seen the remnant of my grandfather..." Wiliam said suspiciously.

At this time, Liu Lang said angrily: "You are still thinking about this! You are crazy! Do you think that with Lin Jiang and me, you will definitely die! Next time you dare to be so crazy, Lao Tzu is the first to kill you!"

Lin Jiang was relatively mild, and said with a smile: "What you saw should be true. Your grandfather may have been awakened by you!"

Hearing this, Wiliam's heart suddenly thumped!

A trace of blood appeared on his face, and the whole person trembled.

He forcibly turned over!

Then, both eyes saw the grandfather who was close at hand!

Grandpa's face is still so thin.

However, there was actually a trace of blood!

Wiliam's hand touched Grandpa's face tremblingly.

What came from the palm of his hand was the whimsical feeling of grandpa's gray beard tied to his hand.

"Grandpa..." Wiliam's eyes suddenly turned red, and he called softly.

Originally, it was just a soft call from Wiliamxin.

But I didn't think that this call seemed to have magic power...

Lu Lingfeng's eyelids moved slightly!
