

Dragon Husband 1835

Chapter 1835 See you at last

William hurried to Grandpa's side.

Four eyes facing each other.

Thousands of words, it is difficult to express the concern for more than ten years at a time!

In the end, these unfinished words turned into a warm and powerful hug between the two.

The chatterbox finally opened slowly, but basically it was William's talk.

With almost tears in his eyes, William recounted all the big things that happened after he parted ways with his grandfather.

Even if Grandpa had already heard about some things when he was in a coma, William didn't bother to say it.

It took more than two hours for William to finish his story.

Lu Lingfeng was already in tears.

Over the years, Wiliam has suffered!

"Little Ye'er, you've been too tired all these years. Grandpa is sorry for you and put you under too much pressure..." Lu Lingfeng said in a choked voice at the end.

Wiliam shook his head and said, "As long as I can see my grandfather again, it is better than anything. Now, I have seen my grandfather, and I have told my grandfather everything over the years. I am very excited."

In Wiliam's heart, grandpa will always be grandfather, and he will always be the same as when he was a child.

You don't have to pretend to be in front of your grandpa.

"You can get this far, grandpa is happier than anyone else, it proves that grandpa has never misjudged you." Lu Lingfeng said with emotion.

"Well, grandpa, when you woke up this time, I guess many people don't know about it. I'll take Grandma Lingyun over in a moment, and your former old subordinate Qilin Shi, I'll take over the God of Wealth, Furious Horse and Wenren Xinxin. Let them be happy for you too, and you can catch up." Wiliam couldn't wait to do this.

He wanted to make his happiness public.

"Well, it's okay, the most important thing Grandpa lacks now is time." Lu Lingfeng smiled kindly.

"Grandpa, your current skill..." Wiliam hesitated for a while, and finally asked.

However, Lu Lingfeng smiled brightly, "It's all gone, ho ho ho, life is just a big dream, the things outside the body, if you don't have anything, will be gone, if you can live, you can live awake, as you said, it's like Everything is fine."

Lu Lingfeng was almost killed by Wiliam's tendons, so even though he had saved his life, his body was still weak.

A single body of power has long since turned into nothingness.

Fortunately, Lu Lingfeng's bloodline still exists.

Thinking of the bloodline, Wiliam couldn't help but ask: "Grandpa, do you still have that gluttonous bloodline? Does this bloodline affect you?"

Wiliam added the bloodline of gluttonous food at the beginning, which was extremely terrifying.

Wiliam is even more afraid that if this bloodline is harmful to people, grandpa will suffer from the bloodline in the future.

However, Lu Lingfeng shook his head with a smile, touched Wiliam's head lightly and said, "Ye'er, remember one sentence, there is no evil blood in this world, only evil people and hearts."

William looked at his grandfather, but said nothing.

Lu Lingfeng explained: "The gluttonous bloodline on my body will not cause any harm to my body. Let me see how I use him. If I am too greedy, I will naturally suffer backlash. The more benefits, the higher the cost. Great, this is the eternal truth in the world."

Only then did William relax.

At this time, William couldn't help but ask again, "Grandpa, did you really arrange the path I've traveled all these years?"

He told his grandfather all the conjectures he had just outside.

Lu Lingfeng was stunned when he heard it, but in the end he laughed out loud.

William couldn't help scratching his head, and asked embarrassedly, "Did we guess wrong?"

Lu Lingfeng laughed and said, "How do you say it? It's both right and wrong."

"How?" William couldn't wait to know.

"On the right side, when you embarked on the path of medical and martial arts, it was indeed guided by me, and even some major incidents in the middle, I also secretly promoted. Well, my calculations have indeed spanned more than ten years." Lu Lingfeng said.

"But there is also something wrong. How can there be such a powerful person in the world, who will accurately calculate your every step. That is not a human, but a fairy. All I can do is rely on "The Classic of Impermanence" and Xianghuali The divination of the fragrant flowers of blood will calculate some major events for you. Small events are all your own experiences, as long as you don't jump out of the path I chose for you, it doesn't matter."

"You don't even think about it. Every trivial choice you make will affect the occurrence of future events. How can I be accurate in everything."

Lu Lingfeng's answer made William feel extremely credible.

But even so, William felt that his IQ was out of step.

At this time, Wiliam asked again: "Grandpa, are the breaths you left behind, is it maintained by your own ancient beast bloodline?"

Lu Lingfeng was stunned for a moment, and suddenly showed a strange expression, "It's both right and wrong."

It's this sentence again!

Lu Lingfeng didn't hide too much, and continued: "Ancient beast bloodline, this is the basic premise, but it's not enough to maintain my breath count. What really makes me hang my breath count is here!"

Lu Lingfeng suddenly pointed at his head!

"Here, I have hidden something inside, and it is not stimulating my spiritual consciousness all the time!"
