Chapter 1839 Chance!

After Lin Jiang finished speaking, he went to the corner alone and closed his eyes.

What secret method should be used to contact Miss Su.

William and the others didn't speak for a while, waiting for Lin Jiang's message.

After a while, Lin Jiang opened his eyes again and said, "Sure enough, Miss Su is not in the land of the common people."

Not in the realm of heaven...

This sentence has a lot of information.

Go to Cang Python Continent?

Or...

Lin Jiang continued: "However, I told Miss Su about you, and she said something inexplicably, saying that the opportunity has come."

"Then, she said that she would explain to the sect master and take good care of you."

After hearing this, William frowned slightly.

The opportunity has come...

What does it mean?

Moreover, Miss Su was able to directly explain the Sect Master's affairs, this status...

"Moreover, she also gave me an order." Lin Jiang said this, a little embarrassed.

William asked, "What order?"

Lin Jiang shook his head and smiled bitterly: "Because I am out of the customs early, so Miss Su ordered me to return to the sect to retreat immediately within an hour, so that I can succeed."

In this regard, William didn't care, he said with a smile: "It's nothing, you have helped me a lot, but I can't delay you any more, go ahead, I will handle it."

"Well, I believe you, then I'll go first." Lin Jiang bowed his hands to William.

But just as he was about to leave, a man rushed in in a hurry.

When everyone saw it, it was Su Hongxiu.

Su Hongxiu frowned, as if there was something urgent.

"What's the matter, Sister Hongxiu, is there something wrong with the sisters outside?" William asked.

He was ashamed.

The sisters of the red and thin high-rise buildings were injured, and William was to blame.

And he rushed to save his grandfather as soon as he came back, and he didn't help Lin Jiang well.

Su Hongxiu shook her head and said, "Sisters are okay, Lin Jiang is excellent in medical skills, and they have all been placed properly. But there is one person who is in trouble."

"Who?" William's heart raised inexplicably.

"Your daughter, Xiao Wangqing!" Su Hongxiu said anxiously.

"Xiao Wangqing! What's wrong with her!" Wiliam's heart skipped a beat, and an ominous premonition suddenly came to his mind.

"Xiao Wangqing didn't go out with the other sisters this time, but stayed in the sect to sleep. You know, this little girl sometimes sleeps for several days, and then she wakes up and continues to eat and sleep. This time when the red and thin high-rise building went out, I didn't bring her, let her sleep in the room." Su Hongxiu had an apologetic expression on her face.

"I was also busy just now, so I remembered Xiao Wangqing, so I went to see her. I didn't think that Xiao Wangqing was still lying on the bed. I wanted to wake her up and tell her that you are back, she will be very happy. But what I didn't expect was that Xiao Wangqing couldn't wake up. Moreover, I felt the breath of life in her body was gradually losing!"

As soon as Su Hongxiu said it, Wiliam's unease became stronger.

"Take me to see it right away!" Wiliam said to Su Hongxiu first, then turned to Grandpa and said, "Grandpa, I'll take a look."

Lu Lingfeng nodded, "You go first, I'll walk over slowly."

He had just recovered and lost his power again, so he could only pass slowly.

Wiliam glanced at his grandfather, and flew out of the room.

Liu Lang and Lin Jiang followed closely.

However, Su Hongxiu, who led the way, couldn't keep up with the three of them for a while.

Several people quickly appeared in Xiao Wangqing's room.

On the table in Xiao Wangqing's room, there was a table full of food.

Everyone in the red and thin high-rise buildings knows that Xiao Wangqing's biggest hobby in his life is eating, and eating something that is not heavy.

So before they left, they got a lot of food and put it in Xiao Wangqing's room, so that she would have something to eat when she woke up.

But these things didn't seem to have moved at all.

In other words, Xiao Wangqing didn't wake up at all.

William walked vigorously, rushed to Xiao Wangqing's bed, and put one hand on her neck.

Xiao Wangqing is different from ordinary people, and looking at her body temperature is of no use at all.

William suddenly felt that Xiao Wangqing's pulse was very weak.

Even breathing is weak, sometimes stagnant for a long time before re-breathing.

Why did Xiao Wangqing act like this? William didn't have time to think about it.

He looked at Lin Jiang, Lin Jiang understood, took out his silver needle and handed it to William.

William immediately picked up Xiao Wangqing and applied needles with both hands.

But as soon as the pass came down, William's brows frowned more and more tightly!

Acupuncture is useless!

"I'll take a look!" Lin Jiang stepped forward and said anxiously.

William nodded and gave up his seat to Lin Jiang.

Lin Jiang watched for a while, and even injected his own fire of nirvana into Xiao Wangqing's body.

However, Xiao Wangqing was like a clay figurine, and was not treated by external forces at all.

William didn't believe in evil, and all metamorphosis was injected into Xiao Wangqing's body.

Still not useful.

Liu Lang's breath of the golden dragon was also useless.

This is the first time that William has encountered such a situation.

At this time, he suddenly thought of something.

William looked at Lin Jiang, "Xiao Wangqing herself is a rootless spirit. Is her body structure different from that of humans?"

If it's different from humans, then it's true that humans can't cure her.

Lin Jiang frowned and said, "You are right. The rootless spirits are indeed different from human beings and cannot be treated with normal methods."

"However, what I don't understand is another thing." Lin Jiang said again.

"What's the matter?" William asked.

"Rootless people are created! They won't get sick at all! In other words, there is no such thing as birth, old age, sickness and death! Rootless people are either destroyed by external forces, their bodies will be broken, but they will not get sick or internally injured. Now Xiao Wangqing's body is very intact, so I don't understand why such a strange situation occurs." Lin Jiang came one by one.

In Lin Jiang's cognition, rootless spirits can be said to be invulnerable to all poisons, they will not grow up, they will not get sick, and they will not age.

Moreover, the rootless spirit will either live or die, and it will not appear as weak as it is now.

where is the problem?

For a time, several people frowned and began to think.

William touched Xiao Wangqing's forehead with a little distress.

Her forehead, and the temperature of a normal human.

William even started a soul call, wanting to see Xiao Wangqing's soul.

As a result, nothing was seen.

This is also the biggest difference between Xiao Wangqing and humans.

She has flesh and blood to eat and drink.

However, there is no soul.

In other words, her body is her soul.

At this time, William suddenly remembered something, and he was so shocked that he had goosebumps all over his body.

"I know what's wrong with Xiao Wangqing! Damn it! How could I forget about this!"

"In addition to the identity of a rootless spirit, Xiao Wangqing has another more mysterious identity!"
