

Dragon Husband 1858 -

Chapter 1858 Spiritual Root Medicine

The Fairy Doctor Seeking Truth has been held for so many sessions, and it has always been a group of heroes!

How could there be such a terrifying thing as the King of Ten Pavilions!

Of course, on the one hand, it has something to do with the rules that have always been in place. For a long time, one person can only choose one question to answer.

But this time, Xinglin Bodhisattva broke the rules first, and the master answered the questions first, and then Wiliam's ten pavilions answered the questions!

It also directly caused the shocking scene of Wiliam Shiting's title king.

But what everyone can't understand is why Xinglin Bodhisattva easily admits the title of Wiliam?

Xinglin Bodhisattva should see Wiliam very upset.

Moreover, once he has this name, no matter what Wiliam does next, he is destined to live on forever!

Even the momentary limelight will overshadow Xinglin Bodhisattva!

However, the brows of the living ghost on one side have been deeply wrinkled.

Abnormal is a monster!

This is definitely not in the style of Xinglin Bodhisattva.

So there is fraud in there!

One-handed ghosts have an active mind, and immediately thought of a possibility.

He asked Su Emei in a low voice, "Have you ever seen Wiliam practice medicine?"

Su Emei's eyes were blank for a while, and he didn't know how to answer for a while.

She really listened to what Lin Jiang said a lot, and it broke the sky.

The only time Su Emei had seen it.

It was Su Emei who brought Wiliam and the others to the Cangsheng Territory. He originally wanted to bring Fengxue back, but he saw Fengxue miserably being bullied by those who covered the sky with a strange sword.

At that time, Wiliam tried his best to save Bai Fengxue.

But Su Emei didn't dare to say it.

Because she was not sure whether Wiliam used medical skills at that time or the internal strength of a warrior.

If he said the wrong thing, it would have hurt Wiliam.

Seeing that Su Emei was silent, the living ghost probably understood something.

He sighed lightly, then stood up directly, and said to Xinglin Bodhisattva: "Since Wiliam has won the title of Ten Pavilions, the next process is meaningless to him at all, we can Directly seal Wiliam as this year's champion."

The people at the scene were stunned for a moment, but they reacted immediately.

Indeed, the second stage was originally a competition of ten title kings, and the final winner was selected.

But now, Wiliam stands out, and he is the only one left in the second stage. He is the champion anyway.

Xinglin Bodhisattva suddenly laughed.

He felt guilty when he saw a living ghost.

The more this is the case, the more certain Xinglin Bodhisattva feels about his doubts!

It must be so!

"Hohoho, just now Xiaoyou Wiliam's performance was really amazing! Every answer is very beneficial! Although the result has been determined, don't you want to see if the answer can be confirmed? Let's talk about it. Let's gain knowledge, right?" Xinglin Bodhisattva said to the people present.

Immediately, the scene was full of approval.

Really want to see it.

Su Emei's heart skipped a beat.

She also felt that something was wrong.

She looked at Wiliam.

Wiliam stood up slowly and said indifferently: "I said before that I am not here to participate, and I am not a contestant. The king of ten pavilions has no meaning to me at all. Even this ridiculous fairy The Medical Seeking Association is also unattractive to me.

Xinglin Bodhisattva's heart will blossom with joy.

really!

The kid started dodging.

Afraid to come up?

Don't dare to take action?

Then I'm going to let you do it!

So Xinglin Bodhisattva suddenly took out something, took out something, showed it in front of everyone, smiled and said: "Little friend Wiliam, you are not authentic, everyone is expecting a lot from you, so you have the heart to let everyone be empty. Do you want to have fun? In this way, I will take out this prize alone, as long as you can save ten people with the method you wrote down, this thing belongs to you. "

Everyone's eyes turned to the things in Xinglin Bodhisattva's hands.

"Damn it! I'm not wrong!"

"This! This is the treasure of the sect of the Immortal Prison! Only one divine artifact has been refined for thousands of years!"

"It's definitely a magic pill! I can't read it wrong!"

At this time, Wiliam turned to look at Su Emei.

I saw Su Emei's expression changed, his face flushed, his eyes were red, and there was a strong desire in his eyes!

"What is the Spiritual Root Pill?" Wiliam asked when he didn't understand.

Su Emei looked at Wiliam, her voice was shaking, she was obviously very excited!

“You don’t even know what the Spiritual Root Pill is! Haven’t you already stepped into Nirvana?”

William nodded, “But, what does it have to do with Linggen Miaodan?” William was still puzzled.

Su Emei almost wanted to hit William, but she didn’t even know about this fetish.

“When you step into the Nirvana realm, people will further improve and transform on the basis of body quenching, blood refining and bone forging, open the spiritual root, exhale the vitality of the world, and the body will achieve the effect of nirvana. Have you opened the spiritual root?” Su Emei asked again.

William was startled, he had read this statement in the book, but he didn’t care too much.

Never thought that after stepping into the Nirvana realm, the most important thing is to open the spiritual root!

“You’re going to be mad at me! You don’t even know this, it seems that you haven’t opened your spiritual roots! Naturally, you won’t be able to swallow the spiritual energy of the world. It’s no wonder that you should have just stepped into the Nirvana realm, and your research is not that much. Deep. Then you only need to know one thing. The most important thing in Nirvana is to open the spiritual roots, and the most important thing to build a state of mind is to open up the heart. Every state has a characteristic feature.” Su Emei Yi said in a breath.

“And this Spiritual Root Pill can help people to open their spiritual roots?” William suddenly understood something.

However, Su Emei shook his head and said with a strange expression: “To open the spiritual root, it will be based on each person’s own talent. Just like each person can only open one heart domain, a person can only open the spirit of one attribute in his life. root.”

“So this thing can help me unlock two spiritual roots?” William’s ability to draw inferences from one case is very strong.

Because the soldier’s soul-suppressing has allowed William to open the soul-suppressing heart domain in advance, he will be able to open the second heart domain when he enters the building state of mind in the future.

And Su Emei still shook his head, looking at William like he was looking at a fool, “You think beautifully! How can there be such a good thing in the world!”

William had a black line, and wanted to say that I had encountered such a good thing.

However, he didn't say it for the time being, instead he was ashamed to ask, "You said it directly!"

Su Emei forcibly suppressed the shock in her heart, pretending to be calm, and said to Wiliam, "This magical medicine is rumored to have been refined by the only fairy doctor in the Immortal Prison for thousands of years, and it has exhausted his own efforts. It was made by injecting one's own soul. For thousands of years, there has been no second one! No one has been able to make it out of anyone who thinks about the Immortal Prison!"

"Spiritual root magic medicine, the biggest effect is that it can force Nirvana and enhance the spiritual root that has been opened!"
