

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1875

Chapter 1875 I haven't done such a thing

For some reason, Xinglin Bodhisattva saw William's eyes and was so frightened that he didn't dare to speak.

One-handed ghost asked: "William, now that you know about this matter, what are you going to do? Will our scandal be made public?"

It is against ethics to use human bodies for experiments, not to mention that it happened to the most respected and most famous Yu Shizhi people.

William said indifferently: "Why should I say it? It's you who say it."

"Ah?" The one-handed ghost looked blank, unable to react.

William said casually: "After all, you are doing something wrong in this matter. But this matter is not as serious as you think. With the development of modern medicine today, human experimentation also exists, but it is only in the case of strictly abiding by the system. You guys are making a big fuss. Besides, knowing your mistakes can improve a lot. Since you know you're wrong, you can openly issue an edict to yourself, admit your mistakes, and believe it's not a big problem."

"Otherwise, when this matter is caught, you will not feel comfortable every day, and you will be threatened from time to time. This is the real shame."

After William's words, he said, "It seems to make sense! I will report this matter to the sect master. If I make a mistake, I will be beaten. This mistake, we Yushizhiren should recognize it!"

"And without the test items, are you still holding this competition?" William asked.

The one-handed ghost suddenly laughed, "Competition? It's still more than wool! This incident has already made us see the ugly face of Immortal Prison. We are ashamed to be in the company of this kind of sect. How can we hold a competition with them? Second, we are not a medical and Taoist sect. We hold this meeting purely because of the decision of our ancestors at a very early time. And finally, this year, you, a great evildoer, was born and fought in the first world war. Fengshen, the starting point of the game has been raised infinitely, and later people will never be able to compare with you, so it's worth noting."

"That's fine." William just asked casually, and didn't take it to heart.

But at this moment, the people who thought about Immortal Prison became anxious.

This seems to be going in the wrong direction.

If William did this, the secret of the world's control of the world might really be dispelled by the world.

How does this work!

Elder Li hurriedly said: "One-handed ghost, we have something to discuss. In this way, as long as you let us go today, this matter is over, and it will not happen, how about it?"

"Oh? It didn't happen? Those people outside are still waiting for an explanation, why didn't it happen?" One-handed ghost asked jokingly.

Elder Li's face stiffened, and he said, "This, we will naturally explain it to them. But I also advise you to keep this secret well, otherwise no one knows what the consequences will be."

Elder Li has made plans.

It's not wrong for those people outside to be ants, Yu Shizhi can be coercive, and the same can be done with a thought of the Immortal Prison.

If you really can't give some sweetness, it's over.

But Elder Li didn't plan to let them tell the secret of Yu Shizhi.

Say it yourself, it may be resolved.

But if it was said by Yi Nian Xian Prison, it would be interesting.

As long as I can stabilize Yu Shishi today, the first thing I do after I go back is to tell this secret!

Hoho, a shadow backstab, let's see how you Yushizhiren take it!

"Hoho, I won't tell you about Yu Shizhi, I'll leave it to you, right?" William saw through Elder Li's trick at a glance.

"You! You spicy chicken don't spit out blood!" Elder Li blurted out, but immediately regretted it.

"Bang!" Elder Li's body was already flying, and he spat out a mouthful of blood in the air.

William put away his feet and said lightly, "What? Do you think I'm standing here to convince people with virtue?"

“William, don’t deceive people too much! We really think that the immortal prison is muddy!” Elder Li struggled to stand up from the ground and shouted with a cold face.

At this moment, the four people in Yi Nian Immortal Prison are close to each other, supporting each other.

William suddenly laughed.

This inexplicable smile made the four people present feel a creepy feeling.

What are you laughing at?

are you crazy!

William looked at the one-handed ghost, and suddenly said, “One-handed ghost, I suddenly have a better suggestion, do you want to listen to it?”

Confused and confused, he asked, “What advice?”

William said with a smile: “I suddenly feel that what this elder Li said just now is quite right. Don’t publish this secret of yours, lest there be any problems that we can’t predict.”

One-handed ghosts and black lines, “Ah? But you didn’t say it just now. If we don’t say it ourselves, they will say it, especially this Elder Li!”

On the other side, the Yi Nian Immortal Prison group of four looked at each other with excitement in their eyes.

What did they expect, William actually compromised!

He actually planned to persuade the one-handed ghost to give up on this matter.

It seems that this kid is not a brainless generation, and he knows how to endure the calm for a while, and take a step back to open the sky.

However, excited they suddenly heard William’s words.

With a playful smile, William said, “Oh, be careful that the four of them will speak out, that’s easy, wouldn’t it be enough to silence the four of them on the spot?”

William spoke as if he was an experienced butcher, admiring a few calves with great body structure, thinking about how to deconstruct them.

William’s appearance made the four people instantly lose their excitement, and they all fought a cold war!

Horse riding devil!

Murder and kill!

But on second thought, this method is too simple and rude, absolutely!

The one-handed ghost seemed to be thinking seriously, and then said with a ruthless heart: "Okay! Then it's up to you, kill and kill!"

William was still nodding there, thinking about it, and said, "And killing them is just enough to tell the people outside that the four of them have harmed the common people just now, but now they feel guilty and committed suicide on the spot."

Young Master Miaoshou was almost scared to pee!

Is this man a devil!

If you die, you will die, and you will be splashed with dirty water after you die!

Or Xinglin Bodhisattva was impatient at this time, and immediately said: "No! Do you think it will be useful to kill us? Will this matter be concealed! Let me tell you, I have informed the sect with a secret method, as long as we have a few more today. If you don't return to the sect safely in an hour, then this secret will be revealed on the spot!"

Of course, Xinglin Bodhisattva is fooling William, where does he have the secret technique of transmitting sound from a thousand miles.

And William seemed to be really fooled, frowning, looking very depressed, "Well, it's a bit difficult to handle."

"Forget it, let's send the Buddha to the west. Let me take the four of you back to the sect right now."

As soon as these words came out, the four people on the scene were ecstatic!

Sure enough, this kid was frightened, he compromised!

But in the next second, they urinated like they were struck by lightning!

William added another sentence later——

"By the way, step on your sect as well, so that you have no way to say it. Well, it's not that I have done such a thing before, and I feel a little careful."
