

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1877

Chapter 1877 Xu Rushuang

“Who!” William frowned and looked at the roof of the room.

At this time, the roof of the room first melted.

A person fell directly from the roof.

And the roof is still intact!

This scene made William a little shocked!

Is the person here or a ghost?

And as the man fell, there was a tinkling bell in the room.

Su Emei was overjoyed when she heard the words, and immediately stepped forward, bowed and greeted: “Sect Master, you are finally awake.”

metropolitan?

William finally knew the origin of the person in front of him.

I saw that this person was dressed in plain clothes, with silver hair, and a face that was extremely old and full of folds.

Moreover, the woman’s eyes were dim, her eyes were slightly squinted, as if she could fall asleep again at any time.

William also immediately remembered, isn’t this person the dozing old woman I saw in the Nine Sect Qualifying Tournament?

Is she really the suzerain of the world?

Seeing that William was still stunned, Su Emei hurriedly whispered, “William, come and meet our Sect Master soon.”

But the woman smiled kindly and said, “It’s okay, kid William is very talented and has already stood at the same level as me, so there is no need to be more polite.”

Hearing that the Sect Master’s evaluation of William was so high, Su Emei was stunned.

In recent years, I have never seen the sect master speak so highly of anyone, especially a junior.

Even for Lin Jiang, the sect master just silently indulged, without saying anything.

William is really good at it.

“Sect Master, we haven’t had time to report what happened just now.” Su Emei came back to his senses and said quickly.

The woman waved her hand, “Hoho, although I have been sleeping, it’s not that I don’t know anything. I know everything, and I would like to thank William boy.”

William raised his eyebrows, as if he knew the reason.

It was because of the highest level of rootless spirits.

The sect master is sleeping, can he see all directions and hear all directions through his own rootless spirit eyes?

“Speaking of which, William’s old man is too fond of his behavior. It’s too relieved to do rogue things to rogues. You people, how many times have I told you, is the reputation of the sect so important? So? Is it comfortable to be restrained by others for many years? It’s better to be happy and enmity, insist on being right, admit when you’re wrong, what a big deal. With such a big sect, there is no one in his twenties who can live fully. .” The old sect master said again.

Su Emei and the living ghost all lowered their heads, ashamed.

Caring about reputation is an outdated custom for thousands of years, and everyone has been deeply ingrained.

Especially in these years, I met this suzerain who couldn’t sleep at all times, and then I met a suzerain sister, Miss Su, who was always wandering away from home.

The entire sect is almost in a free-range state.

If it weren’t for those elders who were struggling with the affairs of the sect, or if Yu Shizhi really had a little way, they might have closed down long ago.

So this has also indirectly created the fact that Zongmen has been careful in doing things over the years, for fear of ruining their reputation.

“Didn’t you say before that the real body of the sect master is thousands of miles away?” William suddenly thought of what Su Emei said before.

Su Emei’s face was embarrassed and she explained in a low voice: “Well, sometimes I can’t tell the difference between the real body of the sect master and the rootless spirit.

This time I guessed wrong again, the real body of the sect master is actually sleeping, the rootless spirit is definitely hiding in the dark.”

again.....

William has a black line, and it seems that it is not the first time that he has guessed wrong.

This curious sect.

As Su Emei explained in a low voice, William finally had some understanding of the sect master.

The suzerain's name is Xu Rushuang.

This reminded William that Miss Su's real name seemed to be Xu Ruyun.

It seems that the two are really sisters.

As for the age, no one knows.

Of course, few people know who Xu Rushuang and Xu Ruyun are and who is the sister.

Very mysterious.

“William, I've heard my family Ruyun talk about you for a long time, and I can't stop complimenting you. When I see you today, it really is a genius in the world.” Xu Rushuang said with a smile again.

Su Emei's eyebrows kept jumping.

Does the sect master want to say all the words of praise today?

“Sect Master is wrong.” William quickly responded politely, after all, he was an elder.

“Hey, speaking of Ruyun, the old man is so envious of her. Turned into Miss Su, in the game world, at the age of twenty-eight, facing north and south. Unlike me, I only know how to sleep.” Xu Rushuang sighed. , said.

William continued to sweat coldly, saying that both of you made me cry with envy.

One is idle, the other is ignorant, they are all excellent bastards in the world, how wonderful.

Unlike me, I only know how to work hard...

“It doesn’t matter, after this incident, I hope you will learn a lesson and stop making such mistakes, you know?” Xu Rushuang didn’t know whether it was because his thoughts were muddled, or his thinking was jumping, and he jumped on a topic one sentence at a time.

“We know, we will pay attention in the future.” Su Emei and the living ghost quickly said.

The topic finally returned to William.

Xu Rushuang looked at William and said with a smile, “William, you are considered to be kind to us this time, and you are also the winner of this competition. According to the rules you promised, what are you doing?”

Su Emei quickly reminded him: “There are two options. One is to win the highest-level rootless spirit person who has been privately ordered by our Yu Shizhi people. There is another option, Sect Master, you meet a condition he proposed.”

“Oh, so, boy William, how do you choose?” Xu Rushuang looked at William.

William smiled and said, “Can I have both?”

Su Emei almost hit William’s head with a melon seed, “No way! Don’t make an inch!”

However, Xu Rushuang smiled kindly: “Of course you can.”

Su Emei looked at William, and then at Xu Rushuang, the whole person was stunned.

How much did the clown send me?

William put away his smile at this time, and said to Xu Rushuang very seriously: “It is said that there are two choices, but it is actually one choice. Can I make two wishes?”

“Tell me about it.” Xu Rushuang smiled.

William said immediately: “The first wish is to strengthen the soul of my silver needle and restore its peerless style. The second wish is to save my little Wangqing.”

Afterwards, William immediately explained the specific content of these two wishes, and naturally also briefly explained the origin of Xiao Wangqing and Wansui Honghua, especially the relationship between Xiao Wangqing and Miss Su, as well as the soul of Wansui Honghua. The broken disillusionment of that little brat.

After listening to William’s explanation, Xu Rushuang laughed out loud, making everyone puzzled.

Is it funny?

After laughing, Xu Rushuang said to William, "It's two wishes, but it's actually one wish."
