

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1891

At this moment, William didn't feel any joy in his heart.

As if he had expected something, he looked at the mortal idiot.

The mortal idiot is like a pillar, and the pestle remains motionless in place.

He doesn't speak anymore, he doesn't move anymore.

And slowly, the gray hair on his body suddenly turned red from the inside out.

"Ah! Human Chi! What's wrong with you!" Someone shouted out when they discovered the abnormality on Human Chi.

All eyes were drawn to the mortal idiot.

And the idiot in the world has no answer, just like a stone carving.

Red hair with blood on it.

It was blood that slowly dyed his hair red.

Elder Dongfeng grabbed the mortal idiot, but found that his arm was also stained with blood.

"This! This! What the hell is going on?" The old man Dongfeng looked at William, who had the highest IQ among the crowd.

William sighed, bent down slowly, and bowed respectfully to the world.

Nothing happened.

Probably can't survive.

Probably, he doesn't want to live anymore.

The idiot senior in the world was enlightened, and he no longer had the belief to survive.

From before to now, the belief that supported his survival had always been to guard the little goddess, guarding the love in his heart that he wanted to get but did not dare to speak.

But today, this love is torn apart.

He was also relieved.

“Thank you, senior.” Wiliam straightened his body again and said softly.

Having said that, the atmosphere at the scene suddenly fell silent.

They also seemed to have thought of something.

One by one also had a stiff expression on his face.

All of them bowed to the mortal idiot in unison.

“Let’s go, we’ll take you here. When I meet my sister, I’ll tell her, you’re gone.” Xu Rushuang said softly.

But there is still a word in my heart that I can’t bear to say.

If my sister still remembers you...

After a while, the body of the mortal idiot was completely stained with blood.

Then.....

The body slowly crumbled.

Broken into blood.

Wiliam’s body was full of cold air, and a fierce frost was wrapped around the blood on the ground.

It freezes in an instant.

Then, Wiliam thought about it.

These bloody frosts slowly gathered.

In this small room, the image of a thin man with a height of 1.8 meters was condensed.

This is the image that Wiliam’s idiot predecessors should have.

After doing this, Wiliam picked up the small teapot on the table and gently placed it in the hands of Bingshuang Renjianzhi.

In this life, probably only this pot of tea will accompany you.

Several people saw this scene, and their hearts were even more sad.

However, Xu Rushuang finally remembered why they came here.

She immediately told Su Emei to carry the sleeping Xiao Wangqing on her back.

After Xiao Wangqing came back, Wiliam took over Xiao Wangqing.

“Next, I’ll go down by myself.” Wiliam said to the people at the scene.

Those poor old men present lost the fun of eating melons all of a sudden because of the self-destruction of their idiot predecessors.

They nodded one after another, signaling Wiliam to hurry down.

Wiliam turned around, carrying Xiao Wangqing on his back and walked into that small poor family.

In the cold door, there are still other caves.

Going down the narrow stone ladder, Wiliam soon saw that there was a small ice coffin stored in the space below.

After Wiliam walked in, he saw a body inside the ice coffin.

This body is the so-called little goddess, that is, the most perfect rootless spirit made by Miss Su.

Seeing this little girl, Wiliam couldn’t help showing a strange look.

The appearance of this little goddess is exactly the same as that of Xiao Wangqing.

Even the expression on his sleeping face is the same.

However, Wiliam felt a strange temperament in this little girl.

It was as if the person in front of Wiliam was not alone.

but an abyss.

When Wiliam stared at the little Tiannv, he always had the illusion that the little Tiannv was also staring at him.

Obviously, the little girl has no soul.

However, this feeling of being stared at actually made Wiliam feel dizzy.

It was as if the ground under his feet was no longer the ground, and his feet were empty, and he fell slowly.

William forcefully bit the tip of his tongue to keep himself awake!

He was horrified.

William knew how strong his soul was.

Even far beyond the immortal seekers of the same realm.

There is even a soldier's soul on his body.

In the fire of the soul against the mortal idiot just now, it was also easy to win.

But just looking at the little girl, William felt that his soul was about to be inhaled.

This little girl is too scary.

William didn't dare to continue to stare at the little girl, but turned his eyes to other places.

In this way, he slowly returned to his previous state.

Think about it, the mortal idiot should be accompanied by the little goddess all the year round, and he has also learned some magic tricks of the soul, so that the fire of the soul exists.

William rested on the spot for a while, then closed his eyes and stretched out a hand into the ice coffin.

The cold air in the ice coffin followed William's hand and climbed up.

This cold air can instantly freeze a person!

Luckily, William has the extreme blood of the wind and snow, and William can still bear the frost and cold.

And William also understood the origin of the first level of madness in the world, the origin of Jie Bing piercing the heart, and it is probably the magic method of Yubing found in the ice coffin.

A small ice coffin, a small goddess, just by studying them, you can create a human idiot, and you can create the first two levels, so that no one can break the rule of the world for decades.

You can imagine how terrifying it was.

William's hand gently touched the little girl's body.

The touch of the little Tiannv's skin is not the same as that of human beings.

However, when Wiliam tried to pierce the little Tiannv's skin, he felt like his strength was hitting a ball of cotton.

disappeared immediately.

Wiliam was surprised again in his heart.

Terrible!

Little Tiannv didn't know what material it was made of, but she was able to completely remove the power of an immortal seeker like Wiliam!

Before, Wiliam still didn't believe in the most perfect rootless spirit, but now he completely believes in such an experiment.

From the weirdness of the body to the terribleness of the soul, if the little Tiannv wakes up, she will definitely be the character who seeks defeat in the nine sects, and no one can match!

It should be easy to destroy nine sects by one person!

However, the more he praised the perfection of the little goddess, the heavier Wiliam's heart became.

Xiao Tiannv is so perfect, so as an incomplete product, what kind of capital and ability does Xiao Wangqing have to snatch control of her body and consciousness from her?

What Xu Rushuang said was no exaggeration at all.

Even a lifetime of death is possible!

However, after a brief hesitation, Wiliam took a long breath and made a decision.

Wiliam believed in the perfection of the little Tiannv.

But I believe that Xiao Wangqing wants to come back to life!

Yes!

The only thing that Xiao Wangqing is stronger than Xiaotiannu is that she has her own soul!
