

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1893

This picture deeply shocked Wiliam.

Wiliam just blended a little bit of tears and ice jade before, but he almost died.

Now such a large piece of ice jade, it has taken the initiative to integrate into the long live safflower, and there is no rejection at all.

It shows how powerful the source power of the azure unicorn is, and how it can resonate with the tears of ice jade.

Wiliam was very excited.

He thought that these tears-breathing ice jade should be able to play a very good role in strengthening the soul.

Long live safflower should be able to recover quickly under such a tempered chain.

Then better help Xiao Wangqing.

The ice coffin in front of her has gradually melted into the long live red flower.

That long live red flower is no longer half red and half white.

Instead, it presents a whole body ice blue, even a crystal clear look like blue ice.

On the other hand, Xiao Wangqing's body was still suspended in mid-air, and there was no movement at all.

Finally, the last bit of ice coffin water completely melted into the long live safflower.

Long live safflower emits a dazzling blue light, illuminating the entire underground.

Vaguely, Wiliam heard the sound of a baby laughing.

Wiliam's spirit was shocked!

It was the sound of the tool spirit that dissipated before!

came back!

He is back!

Wiliam suddenly felt tears welling up in his eyes.

On the other hand, Wiliam also knew that when it wasn't time to celebrate in advance, Xiao Wangqing was still alive and dead.

As if reading Wiliam's mind, that long live red flower reappeared in blue light, and then stabbed Xiao Wangqing's forehead hard, and the needle penetrated halfway!

This icy blue instantly circulated around Xiao Wangqing's body, as if the whole Xiao Wangqing had also become an icy blue person.

And Wiliam could clearly perceive that with the addition of Wanzai Honghua, the abyss aura of the little celestial girl before was instantly suppressed!

There is a play!

Wiliam's eyes continued to stare at Xiao Wangqing.

He couldn't predict what was going on now and what would happen in the next second.

After Xiao Wangqing's body merged with Xiao Tiannv, as Wiliam said, the battle between body and soul began.

But Xiao Wangqing's soul is too weak to compete with Xiao Tiannv.

The little Tiannv has been silent for so many years, and when she encounters the body and soul of the source, she seems to be unconsciously plundering.

Xiao Wangqing was soon unable to resist.

But fortunately, Xiao Wangqing immediately felt that an ice-blue force suddenly broke into the competition between the two, and quickly joined Xiao Wangqing's side.

This allowed Xiao Wangqing and Xiao Tiannv to quickly maintain a delicate balance.

However, the little girl is too strong!

This delicate balance was only maintained for a while.

The little Tiannv has an aggressive instinct, which makes her continue to increase the power of aggression.

This tug-of-war balance was slowly broken.

In Xiao Wangqing's body, that kind of abyss momentum gradually grew out.

Feeling this, Wiliam frowned again.

not good.

Is the little girl really so strong!
Even the power of Long Live Red Flower can't match it!

William thought, reaching out to help Xiao Wangqing.

However, Tianqing Qilin's words resounded in William's heart again, "William, don't do it. In other words, it's useless to do it, and it will break things."

"But Xiao Wangqing, she is now..." William obviously felt unpredictable about the consequences of his actions, and asked Tianqing Qilin directly.

Tianqing Qilin said: "How do you say that little girl beside you, this should be regarded as her doom. If you can't get over it by yourself, it will be completely over. You are now rushing into power, this kind of power can't be directly If you help Xiao Wangqing, you will be robbed by the little heavenly girl you mentioned and become her help, so you can't take action."

"Then what do you say now? Can you just watch?" William asked worriedly.

"You really can't shoot, but you can do one thing." Tianqing Qilin said firmly.

"What's the matter?" William asked impatiently.

"Wake up Xiao Wangqing. In other words, wake up her soul and consciousness! Now Xiao Wangqing, although there is nothing wrong with competing for the initiative with Xiao Tiannv, she is in a kind of half-sleep, half-awake and ignorant. Only by awakening her soul can she fully realize the danger of the situation and arouse her desire to survive and even be a human being!" Tianqing Qilin replied.

"Wake up, wake up, how to wake up..." William muttered to himself.

"Then it's up to you. Your relationship with Xiao Wangqing is so good, I believe you have a way to wake it up." Tianqing Qilin's words disappeared again after saying this.

Obviously, he wanted to leave his precious time to William to think, instead of asking and answering all the time.

William took a deep breath and looked at Xiao Wangqing.

Xiao Wangqing is still the same as before, this is not slightly wrinkled at the moment, as if very uncomfortable.

She had her little feet closed, and her body was still trembling slightly.

This made Wiliam easily think of the first meeting between Xiao Wangqing and him.

Wiliam's throat moved, as if touched.

"Xiao Wangqing, can you hear me? Do you remember the first time we met..." Wiliam's voice seemed to carry the magic of memories.

Wiliam and Xiao Wangqing met for the first time in a forbidden area.

It was the first time that Wiliam saw a little girl who could jump around in that place.

Bare feet, in the ice and snow...

The scenes of the past were narrated by Wiliam.

It doesn't matter if Xiao Wangqing can hear it or not.

Wiliam and Feng Xue have completely regarded this cute little girl as their daughter.

With emotion, with memories, and even in the end, Wiliam still has a little soul-soothing power.

Calling loudly, every sentence is affectionate.

From when they met, to everything that happened after that.

This little girl is already an indispensable daughter in Wiliam's life.

At the end, Wiliam's eyes were red, "Can you still wake up? Your mother is still sleeping, I want to take you and stay by your mother's side, and when she wakes up, she will be able to see you on the side. Eat, and I'll be watching her by the bed, so good..."

At this time, Wiliam suddenly froze.

Because when he said that sentence, he obviously felt that Xiao Wangqing's body suddenly trembled, as if he was suddenly awakened from a dream.

what's the situation!

Wiliam stared at Xiao Wangqing and found that she regained her composure after trembling...

Did your words touch her just now?

Does she love Mother Fengxue more?

Thinking of this, Wiliam couldn't help but repeat the first half of the sentence just now, "I want to take you and stay by my mother's side until she wakes up..."

Xiao Wangqing did not move.

Wiliam was not reconciled, and continued: "When she wakes up, she can see you eating..."

Speaking of this, Xiao Wangqing's body trembled again.

Wiliam's eyes widened, and he finally understood what made Xiao Wangqing tremble!

Eat!

I actually forgot!

Xiao Wangqing is a complete foodie!
