

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1899

For a time, Wiliam had a strange illusion.

In front of Bai Fengxue, it was as if Xiao Wangqing had grown up.

The words are all the same.

What is a magic trick?

Now Wiliam feels a kind of psychological shadow over this word.

What is the wind and snow going to do?

Bai Fengxue took two steps back with a strange smile.

“Okay!” She looked like a magician.

Wiliam’s eyes were fixed on Bai Fengxue in front of him, and he was about to say, “What the hell are you going to do...F*ck!”

Halfway through the words, Wiliam shouted directly.

He was completely taken aback by the scene in front of him.

The Bai Fengxue in front of him suddenly touched his eyebrows with one hand.

Then, her body actually split in two!

She is still the black-haired Blizzard.

However, there was another wind and snow beside him.

Ice blue hair, ice blue eyes.

Even the clothes on his body have turned into ice blue!

Wiliam was taken aback by the scene in front of him, and he didn’t know what to say.

“Hey! Surprise! Surprise?” The black-haired Fengxue said to Wiliam with a smile.

And the blue-haired Blizzard body disappeared out of thin air.

Wiliam immediately felt that someone had patted his back for fear.

Turning around, he saw the blue-haired Fengxue standing behind him with an indifferent look on his face.

“Fengxue, what’s going on here! Why is your body...” Wiliam looked at Fengxue blankly.

Bai Fengxue seemed to be very satisfied with Wiliam’s reaction, and smiled even happier.

“Guess! Is this magic fun?” Bai Fengxue was teasing Wiliam.

Wiliam felt a dog in his heart.

Where has he seen such a fantastic picture?

Even if Xiao Wangqing performed magic before, he just turned himself into a silver needle.

But Feng Xue, can actually be cloned?

Shadow clone?

Naruto?

Wiliam couldn’t believe it when he was beaten to death.

“Is it illusion?” Wiliam asked cautiously.

“Oh? Then you try?” Bai Fengxue said with a smile, with her hands behind her back.

Wiliam immediately stretched out his hand and pinched Feng Xue’s face in front of him.

Warm as jade, skin like sebum, he is clearly a real person.

He turned around again and reached out to touch the blue-haired blizzard.

He felt that this should be an illusion, and it was a very clever illusion.

However, in the next second, he took a deep breath.

It’s really cool.

His hand actually touched the blue-haired snowstorm.

And the blue-haired blizzard was like an iceberg, and a chilling coolness came from his fingers.

It's clearly an entity, but I don't know if it's a real person...

"Fengxue, stop coaxing, tell me what's going on? What's going on with this blue-haired guy?" Wiliam finally lost his patience and asked Fengxue.

Then Bai Fengxue said with a smile, "Didn't I inherit Miss Xiaorou's blood marrow before, and then, I couldn't adapt to the blood marrow, so I had to force a state."

Wiliam nodded, indicating that he still knew this.

Before Fengxue, in order to improve his combat effectiveness, he would forcefully activate a state.

This is what Wiliam calls the on-hook state.

She will let her consciousness fall asleep, and then hand over the initiative of her body to her own blood marrow.

Created the blue-haired snowstorm that knocked the skull.

Later, Feng Xue got used to his blood marrow a little, and started a new mode.

Wiliam had seen this pattern in the cold boater territory.

It's half black and half blue.

In this mode, Bai Fengxue still has his own consciousness, but he can still have some bloodline strength.

But this kind of...

Thinking of this, Wiliam faintly understood something in his heart.

"Does this mean that you have come up with a new model?" Wiliam asked in surprise.

Bai Fengxue nodded proudly, "Ang!"

Wiliam has a black line.

What the hell is Ang!

"Tell me now!" Wiliam asked eagerly.

There was inexplicable excitement and excitement in my heart.

It seems that the wind and snow in my home has become much more powerful after a sleep.

Bai Fengxue pointed to the blue-haired Fengxue and said, "You guessed it, this is my new mode."

"The previous two modes have their own drawbacks. The first mode you mentioned is the hang-up mode, I can't dominate myself, I can only rest until death, which is very bad. As for the second mode, Although I have a point of my own, my strength is not enough. So after this deep sleep, after my bloodline power was further awakened, I came up with such a method."

"Separation technique!"

Bai Fengxue looked at Wiliam triumphantly, and continued: "I can completely separate my bloodline and create this blue-haired me. Her strength is very terrifying. According to my estimation, she can play the bloodline. One-fifth of the strength!"

one fifth!

Hearing this, Wiliam was really shocked again.

Before, Bai Fengxue could only exert less than one-tenth of his strength.

Now it has increased by more than half!

Horrible!

Can you beat this blue-haired blizzard?

Wiliam couldn't help thinking of the psychological shadow of being knocked on the head by Feng Xue before.

The horse is making progress, and the wind and snow is also evolving!

What the hell is this, it's so enviable.

Wiliam suddenly thought of a question, and immediately asked: "Fengxue, this is not your heart!"

"Heartland?" Bai Fengxue was taken aback, obviously not as good as Wiliam's knowledge in this area.

Wiliam took some time to follow Feng Xue to popularize the knowledge points.

Feng Xuecai thought ignorantly, "If you say that, it should be fine. Anyway, it's the most powerful move I can use now."

heart...

Isn't this something that can be opened only by building a state of mind?

William opened his heart in advance because he was special.

I didn't think about it, I didn't think about it!

Bai Fengxue actually turned on.

She must have reached the state of mind.

Thinking of this, William felt sour in his heart.

Only those who fight to death all the way will reach the state of Nirvana.

As for my mother-in-law, sleeping and waking up is to build a state of mind.

Ho ho, so cute.

So cute I want to strangle her.

People are more popular than dead people.

William looked at Bai Fengxue quietly, and was always a little unwilling in his heart.

He asked casually, "I don't believe that in your mode, there are no drawbacks at all?"

I didn't think of it, I hit it right.

William asked casually, and it really poked into Feng Xue's heart.

Bai Fengxue's face was a little embarrassed, and she was a little afraid to answer William's words.

Seeing her strange expression, William frowned, "It won't really have any drawbacks, will it? Feng Xue, don't scare me?"

Bai Fengxue seemed to have gathered up his courage this time, and said with a gloomy expression: "There seems to be some drawbacks, but it's just a little bit."

"I believe in you!" William looked at Feng Xue like this, it didn't look like a little bit, but like a million dots!

After all, being able to increase one-tenth of the previous strength to one-fifth is such a terrifying improvement, I don't believe that there will be no drawbacks at all!

Bai Fengxue's mouth slumped, and she was so wronged that she wanted to cry, "The blue-haired me that I transformed seems to be a little disobedient..."

As soon as the voice fell, the temperature on the scene suddenly fell directly into freezing point!

As if this sentence angered the gods in the sky.

Bai Fengxue's face froze, William secretly screamed badly, he hugged Fengxue, and the metamorphosis on his body directly covered Fengxue.

Even so, Feng Xue's face was extremely pale from freezing, and she was still shivering!

And in the whole house, the frost appeared directly and spread to the outside!

The blue-haired Fengxue who had been standing all the time, his eyes were cold and sharp, "Who is disobedient?"
