

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1907

Chapter 1907 The pain of not reading

“How many things do you need? Tell me!” Wiliam asked immediately.

At the same time, I was very happy.

If the two bosses can really reshape their bodies, then when they return to the world, it will be another glorious world!

At the same time, Wiliam also thought that his two elder brothers and Song Huan, the inheritor of the Xuanwu bloodline who had been in a hurry, also obtained the blood crystals of the Earth Bone at the same time.

In their bodies, there should also be the remnants of the four emperors.

I don't know to what extent the remnants of the four emperors have recovered.

“Well, let me think about it. Let's talk about Shandiwu, Zhaoyaozhuyu, and Dimai Zizhi. Once these three are found, they can help us reshape our bodies.” Tianqing Qilin pondered for a while, and slowly said three things.

But Wiliam was at a loss.

what the hell?

Wiliam has always prided himself on being knowledgeable, especially when it comes to medicine.

At the age of three, he could distinguish hundreds of herbs, and he held the “Impermanence Medical Classic” in which countless names of herbs were recorded.

But now, Tianqing Qilin casually said the names of three unheard medicinal herbs, and Wiliam was stunned.

Self-confidence takes a powerful blow.

“What are these three things?” Wiliam finally said helplessly.

At this time, Tianqing Qilin's words were somewhat embarrassed, “Wiliam, I'm sorry, these three herbs are from the ancient times, in fact, I know that there must be many new magical medicines. It can help us reshape our bodies. It's a pity that we have been sleeping for thousands of years and have not kept up with the changes of the generations. I can only reshape the body with the herbs I know.”

Wiliam didn't know whether to do this or not.

"The first one is about the mountain emperor's house. It is a kind of tree crystallization. Its shape is like a pepper, and it can hurt the real body. It can condense the soul. Earth Vein Zizhi, shaped like a narcissus, has three stems and six leaves, a single branch, and bears fruit for a thousand years. All three things are sacred objects of condensed body. Anyway, these three things were relatively rare in our time." Tianqing Qilin said.

Wiliam has a black line.

You said it as if you didn't say it.

Where can I find the key?

However, Wiliam couldn't blame his ancestors.

They had just woken up, and they didn't know where to look.

Anyway, there is no hurry.

Only by fate.

Speaking of Shandiwu, Zhaoyao Zhuyu, and Dimai Zizhi, Wiliam silently remembered the names of these three things.

"I will do my best!" Wiliam gave the two bosses a firm attitude.

The two bosses stopped talking.

At this time, the door of the outer door was pushed open.

Bai Fengxue led Lu Lingfeng and Su Hongxiu in hastily.

"Wiliam!" Lu Lingfeng came over and called Wiliam's name with a distressed expression.

Wiliam regained some strength at this time, and said to his grandfather, "Grandpa, it's okay."

"Hey, you, how can such an unloved body die again and again." Lu Lingfeng tapped Wiliam's head lightly, which was regarded as punishment.

Wiliam smiled embarrassedly, thinking in his heart that I don't want this either.

"It's good to wake up, that's good." Lu Lingfeng finally sighed helplessly.

He knew that no amount of persuasion would be of any use to Wiliam.

Wiliam's life is destined to be a road of thorns.

At this time, Lu Lingfeng was also thinking about whether it was right or wrong to let Wiliam embark on this road.

However, he immediately thought that Wiliam must take this road.

Otherwise, how could he redeem his biological parents!

Concealing Wiliam may have caused more damage to Wiliam.

At this time, Wiliam saw Su Hongxiu beside him.

Su Hongxiu looked resentful, as if she was going to eat Wiliam.

"What's wrong with you? What's your expression?" Wiliam couldn't help asking.

Su Hongxiu took a deep breath and almost exploded on the spot, "Wiliam, Wiliam, I really served your whole family! Let's take turns to destroy one by one! Your wife almost froze our entire red and thin high-rise building to death with one move. , your daughter clings to the whole family of my good daughters. Now it's your turn, more directly, demolishing one of my buildings. "

Su Hongxiu looked at the mess in the house and was heartbroken.

What a day!

How many sins did he commit to meet their whole family!

Really appreciate it!

Wiliam and Bai Fengxue showed a little embarrassment on their faces, but they disappeared immediately.

Who are we with whom, you're welcome!

So Wiliam ignored Su Hongxiu's complaints and asked his grandfather, "Grandpa, do you know about the three ancient herbs, Shandiwu, Zhaoyaozhuyu, and Dimai Zizhi?"

Lu Lingfeng's expression at the moment was exactly the same as Wiliam's expression when he heard these three things for the first time, his face was blank.

And then a little embarrassed.

Obviously it is also the pain of limited knowledge and not reading.

“Well, you just wake up. If you have nothing to do, I’ll go out first, and you can talk. By the way, come to my room at night, I have something to tell you. It’s time to let you know, your father And your mother’s whereabouts, as well as their past.” Lu Lingfeng came directly to go out, and did not forget to leave a suspense.

This suspense made Wiliam’s eyes widen!

Father and mother!

These two names are very familiar to Wiliam, but very unfamiliar!

Wiliam grew up and knew very little about his parents!

Whenever he asked his grandfather, he seemed to be deliberately escaping and put it off.

It’s like there’s a huge secret hidden here.

And Wiliamshi has gradually learned some fragmentary information about his father, but not much.

Miss Su told Wiliam that his father, nicknamed Nie Lin, was in the land of the common people, and it was okay to mix.

He even told Wiliam that his mother was the truly remarkable person.

It’s a pity that there was a new situation at that time, so Miss Su left without saying much.

And the ancestor of Tianqing Qilin said that his father came to the burial place.

More than that, he doesn’t know.

Now, is it finally time?

Is grandpa finally going to tell himself everything?

I thought I would be very excited when I looked forward to this.

But at this moment, Wiliam seemed unusually calm.

I don’t even know why it’s so peaceful.

It’s as if everything is a matter of course, everything is predestined by God...

At this time, Su Hongxiu's voice interrupted William.

"Speaking of Shandiwu? I seem to have heard this name before!"

William was refreshed and raised his head to look at Su Hongxiu!

"Where have you heard of it? Where is this thing?" William asked hurriedly.

Su Hongxiu scratched his head, thought hard, and finally remembered.

She patted her thigh and said with pain and joy: "I remembered, there is a sect that has this thing! And it is based on this thing to start a sect!"

"What sect? It's so awesome!" William held it strongly, making Su Hong's sleeves elated.

She stretched out her hand and pointed to the outside, as if she was pointing to the sky, pointing to the future, and spit out a few words in her mouth.

"Six methods, oh no, the leader of the five methods, Emperor Yao Lingxu!"
