

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1916

Chapter 1916 Open your eyes!

Strange to say.

This Chiyou Demonic Sword is the imitation of the Long Live Demon Lotus, and it stands to reason that the breath of the Long Live Demon Lotus will still be lingering around it.

But at this moment, on the Chiyou Demon Sword, there is no trace of the aura of the Long Live Demon Lotus.

The devilish energy lingered on it, and it was clearly the howls of ghosts and wolves coming from the gate of hell!

William was also very surprised by this.

After thinking about it, I understood.

It must be Chiyou who covered his own breath on the magic knife and created another Chiyou magic knife abruptly.

As for the Chiyou Demon Sword, it was the treasure that Chiyou carried with him back then when he was so powerful!

At this moment, William's body is possessed by Chiyou, and with the blessing of the magic knife, the whole person has completely transformed into the soldier master demon god!

He grabbed a knife flower in his hand and rushed towards the three-headed Ye Donglin.

Ye Donglin was obviously also frightened by the changes in William's body.

At this moment, Ye Donglin is thinking frantically with the last bit of rationality left!

why!

Why is he just an ordinary boy with so many secrets hidden in him!

First, he summoned a blue-haired woman, and easily killed so many masters of his emperor demon Ling Xu.

Then, he can use his own power to order the six sects to fight together!

These six sects don't even hesitate to offend the emperor demon Ling Xu!

Now, this kid can transform!

This only shows that he is also a bloodline inheritor!

Just, what kind of bloodline is this!

So sturdy and so terrifying!

Ye Donglin couldn't see Wiliam's bloodline all of a sudden, but instinctively noticed that Wiliam's aura had completely changed at this moment.

Not as sharp as before!

Instead, it is full of a kind of hegemony that destroys all things!

Especially the knife in Wiliam's hand at this moment is even more terrifying.

Those wailing and wolf howling sounds like they are about to get into Ye Donglin's three heads and wreak havoc!

There is no blood flowing into rivers of corpses, and there is no way to raise such an evil weapon!

Ye Donglin patted his forehead suddenly!

At this time, Wiliam had already rushed in front of Ye Donglin.

Originally, according to Ye Donglin's arrogance at the moment, he wanted to directly resist Wiliam's blow from the sky.

But just after Wiliam slashed out, Ye Donglin suddenly felt a terrifying heart palpitation!

It seems that if this knife is hard-attached, it will cut him in two!

At the critical moment, Ye Donglin actually persuaded!

He moved around and avoided Wiliam's knife!

However, Wiliam slashed into the air with one knife, but his castration remained unabated.

I saw a knife swipe down, and the black knife aura skyrocketed!

"Boom!" The black qi rose to 100 meters and slashed down at the land of the emperor demon!

Immediately, the entire emperor demon Ling Xu seemed to be divided into two under this knife!

The earth trembled, and finally a deep crack opened directly!

The disciples of the six sects and Emperor Yao Lingxu who were fighting at the scene were stunned by this knife.

Actually gave up the fight directly.

Everyone's eyes turned to William.

This knife is so powerful that it is completely unreasonable!

A knife, split the earth!

With a single knife, the Dharma door is cut off!

They looked at William, and then at the deep crack on the ground at this moment, and they were collectively stunned!

And Ye Donglin also saw this sky-defying scene.

His nose was gasping for breath, and he seemed to be deeply fearful, but also deeply grateful.

If he hadn't avoided the slash just now, it would have been his body that had been slashed now!

Ye Donglin has always been very proud of his current body inherited from the bloodline.

But for the first time, I doubted my life.

He has every reason to believe that his body cannot withstand the blow of this black knife!

What the hell is this kid!

After William slashed with a knife, he was obviously not satisfied with the effect.

He held the magic knife and charged towards Ye Donglin again.

Ye Donglin grinned, and saliva slowly flowed from his mouth.

The whole person seems to be slowly going crazy.

He roared up to the sky, and he had a long mace in his hand!

This mace is obviously not of ordinary quality. Under the sunlight, it actually flashes a strange purple light.

He just held his mace and rushed towards William.

If he hides any longer, the old face of Emperor Yao Lingxu will be completely unprotected.

The two swords were about to face each other.

But before that, the magic knife's saber aura is one step ahead!

There was also a dazzling purple light on the mace.

The two auras collided fiercely.

However, the purple awn of the mace is almost powerless to fight back.

In an instant, it was torn apart by the magic knife.

The magic knife is still powerful!

He slammed into Ye Donglin's mace.

"Bangcha!" Ye Donglin's mace was cut into two pieces like a piece of paper!

In this way, more than half of the magic knife's knife gas was evaporated!

The remaining blade energy of the magic knife hit Ye Donglin's body directly.

On his chest, there was a bloodstain deep visible to the bone!

The people present were completely dumbfounded.

William slashed and slashed, even Ye Donglin couldn't stop it!

You must know that the mace in Ye Donglin's hand is a real magic weapon!

Over the years, Ye Donglin relied on this mace to gain a great reputation!

And Ye Donglin's style of play is also fierce and domineering, just like William at the moment.

But Ye Donglin's fierce and domineering meets William's fierce and domineering, just like a small quail meets a golden-winged Dapeng!

He was crushed so that he didn't even know his parents!

Even the magic weapon mace is like a paper paste, and it breaks immediately!

Before this, I am afraid that no one dared to think so!

They looked at the black magic knife in William's hands, and they felt cold!

What kind of monster weapon is this!

For a time, whether it was the Six Sects or even the Emperor Yao Lingxu, a strange feeling emerged.

They feel pity for Ye Donglin.

So far in this battle, Ye Donglin has not been able to take the slightest advantage.

On the contrary, in battles again and again, he was bombarded, and the magic weapon was cut in two!

Even the body has been cut with a knife now, and the blood is not stopping!

So pitiful.

After William's knife, he did not continue to attack, but looked at Ye Donglin coldly.

He knew that Ye Donglin had yet to show his true strength.

Sure enough, the roar in Ye Donglin's mouth slowly subsided.

A suffocating aura, like an iron plate, pressed down directly towards Emperor Yao Lingxu.

No matter how stupid the people at the scene were, they felt something was wrong.

They are having trouble breathing!

What happened to Ye Donglin?

No one was disappointed.

Ye Donglin really changed.

Changes appear in the two heads on that shoulder.

The eyes of the two heads that were originally closed, in this terrifying momentum, at a speed visible to the naked eye—

Open slowly!

“You! Damn!”

Three mouthfuls, the voice is indifferent and desolate, revealing an unspeakable killing intent!
