

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1917

Chapter 1917 The magic knife is unparalleled!

A flood of meaning suddenly hit the audience.

The people present couldn't help shivering.

It was the first time they saw Ye Donglin's appearance.

Even the Emperor Yao Lingxu had only seen three heads before.

It's just that the other two heads opened their eyes, and neither of them had seen it.

Ye Donglin's combat power was soaring in a straight line, and his sanity seemed to be slowly disappearing after opening his eyes.

He rushed towards Wiliam without hesitation.

Wiliam frowned.

Never thought that this guy really hid his trump card.

And the trump card is so big.

The current Ye Donglin's combat power has at least doubled compared to before!

Wiliam swung his sword out again.

Ye Donglin didn't hide, just put his hands in front of him and smashed at the sword energy swung by the magic sword!

"Boom!" The blade qi was blasted by Ye Donglin's hands, and it shattered into a black qi that filled the sky.

With one blow, Ye Donglin had the advantage for the first time.

But Wiliamshou didn't stop at all.

Dao Qi swung at Ye Donglin without any money.

Ye Donglin's footsteps were stopped by Wiliam, and he could only keep bombarding the sword.

But every time Ye Donglin wanted to slam towards Wiliam, Wiliam started to flee.

William is not as dead-headed as Ye Donglin, so he has to fight for his body.

Isn't it better to be faster than Ye Donglin?

Everyone at the scene was stunned.

This ride!

This kid is flying a kite!

The enemy advances, I retreat, the enemy retreats, I advance!

Ye Donglin was also completely annoyed by William, and shouted again.

The arrogance on his body began to frantically attack the surroundings.

Immediately, those who were on the sidelines suffered.

"Flee! The sect master is crazy!" Someone shouted, and the figure began to quickly retreat to the periphery.

The people of the Sixth Sect had already retreated under Qin Zhanxiong's command.

Ye Donglin is an indiscriminate attack, and he has already begun to indiscriminate between the enemy and the enemy.

"Come in!" Chi You's voice suddenly sounded in William's mind.

The voice is full of a kind of indomitable domineering!

At this moment, William is trying to avoid the enemy's edge like everyone else.

William scolded directly in his mind, "Enter your uncle!"

William came to Emperor Yao Lingxu this time, not to fight for his body!

He must retain a large part of his fighting power.

Because William knew that Ye Donglin was just beginning.

You must not waste too much combat power on Ye Donglin's body, or even reveal too many trump cards on him.

It was William's last resort to allow Chi You to possess himself.

William glanced at the blizzard and blue-haired blizzard who were quickly escaping under the protection of Shuangjiao, and his heart was a little more settled.

He ignored Chiyou's angry voice in his mind and started to swim away according to his own thoughts.

Sure enough, after a while, Ye Donglin's indiscriminate attack stopped.

"Coward! I despise you!" Chi You continued to mock William in his mind.

"Shut up for me if you want to reshape your body!" William also scolded viciously in response.

Chiyou collapsed immediately, and immediately shut up.

Only then did William deal with Ye Donglin in front of him with peace of mind.

At this moment, Ye Donglin's sanity is almost dead, and he is no different from a mad beast.

William gritted his teeth and charged towards Ye Donglin.

Ye Donglin's instinct to kill and fight boiled again after seeing William rushing over.

"Give me all your strength!" After William shouted in his mind, he suddenly threw the Chiyou Demon Sword high with one hand!

If you want to fight for your body, I will not fight with you.

But if you have to work hard, I will accompany you to the end!

After Chi You listened to William's words, although he was unwilling, he still did.

William's body suddenly continued to breed Chi You's power.

The magic knife was thrown into the sky, and William roared, "Crack!"

The magic knife split into two, and two split into three!

In an instant, the sky is full of magic knives!

Covered the entire sky of the emperor demon.

As if the end is coming!

Every magic knife carries monstrous anger!

This is the anger from Chi You!

“Kill!” Wiliamxin pointed at Ye Donglin!

The magic knife in the sky suddenly went mad!

“Whoosh whoosh!”

Like cannonballs, they frantically blasted towards Ye Donglin!

Ye Donglin didn't have the chance to dodge, and he didn't even have the opportunity or space to dodge!

All the magic knives slammed into Ye Donglin's body!

The eyes of Ye Donglin's three heads were already staring to the max!

Even the eyeballs are about to burst!

There was also a layer of energy in him, wrapping his body tightly.

With the smashing of the magic knife, the scene was shaken!

The entire Emperor Yao Lingxu will be shattered to pieces under Wiliam's savage slaughter!

end!

advent!

Those people who were the emperor Yao Lingxu had already retreated hundreds of meters away, and they all stared at each other with anger!

This is their home!

With one blow from Wiliam, the family was destroyed!

However, they felt a sense of powerlessness in their hearts.

What kind of monster is this!

If it weren't for Ye Donglin, I believe that this kid alone would be enough to kill the entire Emperor Yao Lingxu on the ground.

The scene was so dusty that it was impossible to see Ye Donglin's body at all.

Only the constant roars still confirmed that Ye Donglin was still alive and he was still fighting.

Finally, Ye Donglin's roar slowly subsided.

The bombardment of the magic knife also slowly stopped.

William's feet trembled, and his body fell straight to the ground, hitting the ground with a bang.

This move is extremely draining on William!

Even this trick directly overdrawn William's spiritual power!

And the power of this move made William's heart skip a beat!

You know, this is the power used by Chi You's ordinary soul.

If Chi You's soul is intact, if Chi You's body is reshaped!

The power of this move!

William couldn't imagine how powerful Chi You was!

As expected of a soldier, he has the qualifications to move forward!

William slowly got up from the ground and patted the dust on his body.

All eyes were focused on the center of the field.

The dust is slowly dissipating.

Gradually, they saw the situation in the dust.

In the dust, where is Ye Donglin's body.

However, when they saw the dust, they all exclaimed in surprise!

Although there is no Ye Donglin in the dust.

But there is one thing!

a knife!

An unparalleled magic knife!

A magic knife that covers the sky and the sky!

The knife in Wiliam's hand was turned into ten million, and now all methods are unified!

However, this knife has become a giant knife!

Hundreds of meters long!

I don't know how many meters the blade tip is inserted into the ground, and only half of the blade is exposed!

The whole knife exudes an air of contempt for whoever the world leaves me!

And in the blade, everyone saw another person!

Ye Donglin!

Ye Donglin, the whole person was actually embedded in the blade!

It was as if Wiliam pointed his finger and turned Ye Donglin into a pattern that decorated the magic knife!
