

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1920

Chapter 1920 Three Attacks! Three Guards!

If you can't see Wiliam's bad intentions now, then you're really a fool.

Oh, there are still so many fools out there who can't see through.

Su Hongxiu scolded her mother in her heart, but she put on a witty look on her face.

Damn this kid.

It was waiting here.

Before Wiliam deliberately made such a big movement, it turned out that on the one hand, it was to force the emperor out of Lingxu's basement, and there was another reason.

It is to frighten these disciples of Emperor Yao Lingxu to death.

Then Su Hongxiu could easily feed those poisons that could restrain others into the mouths of these disciples of Emperor Yao Lingxu, so that they would not dare to resist.

Dig the hole here!

This kid, what a big calculation!

The first is to borrow people and things between the six sects.

Then he went to Emperor Yao Lingxu with lightning speed, and started to work if he disagreed.

It just didn't give Emperor Yao Ling Xu a chance to react, and even made them have a kind of numbness and carelessness all the time.

Then Wiliam and his wife joined forces to directly cut down the peak strength of Emperor Yao Ling Xuming's face.

Wiliam knew that he would lose his strength, so he arranged for Su Hongxiu to bring a poison in advance, and now it was fed to Emperor Yao Lingxu's disciples.

Then, the disciple of the emperor demon Lingxu who was pinned down was the vanguard, and the six sects were the supporters, and the emperor demon three stars was hard-fought.

William had time to recover his strength on the side.

If Emperor Yao Sanxing thought of the lives of his fellow disciples, he would naturally be at a loss, and his strength would be greatly reduced.

And if Emperor Yao Sanxing is really ruthless, and really has no friendship with the same family, then it doesn't matter.

Because these disciples of Emperor Yao Lingxu will work hard!

Their lives are in Su Hongxiu's hands. If they don't work hard, they will die. Only by working hard can they return to life.

Tsk tsk tsk, this trick is to use the spear of the child to attack the shield of the child to kill and kill.

Let these disciples have no sense of sect belief.

I believe that at this moment, they definitely don't want Emperor Yao Samsung to defeat William, but hope that William and the others will win Emperor Yao Samsung.

And when the dust of this battle is settled, I believe that with William's terrifying recovery speed, he can fight again long ago.

Only then...

It seems that this battle is not the final battle.

This kid cleverly took advantage of the time difference, not forcing himself, but also letting a militant like Qin Zhanxiong among the six sects have something to do. He is really a good chess player.

Sure enough, after Su Hongxiu shouted this sentence, the people at the scene were completely indifferent between enemy and me, and almost vomited blood on the spot.

Qin Zhanxiong and the others almost lost their anger.

After stepping on the horse, I finally rekindled the fighting spirit, and I felt that a fire in my heart was about to erupt.

Su Hongxiu said such a sentence, which made Qin Zhanxiong go crazy on the spot.

His first reaction was to yell at Su Hongxiu.

But if you think about it seriously, this horse riding is a trick that only a ghost can come up with.

Poisonous enough!

On the battlefield, loneliness is naturally commendable, but one must also pay attention to tactics.

Qin Zhanxiong is not a reckless person, but a smart person on the battlefield, so he immediately knew the beauty of this strategy.

But it's just that I'm not happy, I feel like I can take off my pants again, but Su Hongxiu lifts it up again, saying I can bear it again!

I can't help it, dear!

And the people of Emperor Yao Lingxu were almost swearing on the spot.

It's not a human being on a horse, is it?

Are you using them as cannon fodder?

Our life is not our life!

The person who can come up with this method is definitely not a normal human being!

But they kept these words in their throats.

Dare to say it?

dare not?

Life is in the hands of others!

Desperately, it is possible to die in the hands of Emperor Yao Samsung.

If you don't work hard, it must be in the hands of that bad woman.

The depression and anger in their hearts are about to spew out.

Boil the beans and burn the bean sprouts, the beans are crying in the kettle.

Now I hope that Xingdi Yao Sanxing can look at the face of the disciples and grandchildren and act lightly.

When Emperor Yao Samsung heard this, he couldn't bear it any longer, and immediately scolded, "You guys! Are you still human! It's too much deceiving!"

But what about deceiving people too much?

With Su Hongxiu's words, the hundreds of disciples and grandchildren of Emperor Yao Lingxu had to bite the bullet and rush up.

In the blink of an eye, they had already rushed to the front of Emperor Demon Samsung.

The emperor demon three-star body flew up, and the mighty spiritual power suddenly spewed out.

Under the agitation of aura, those people could not even stand firm on their heels.

However, when he really wanted to kill, Emperor Yao Samsung hesitated.

If these people were slaughtered cleanly, it would mean that Emperor Yao Sanxing personally destroyed the millennium foundation of the ancestors.

Even if this battle can be won, the Emperor Yao Ling Xu must be seriously injured.

Not to mention keeping the title of the top of the Five Dharma, it is possible to fall directly out of the Five Dharma!

These people can be regarded as the mainstay of Emperor Yao Lingxu.

And they didn't kill them, but those disciples cheered up one by one and killed them towards Samsung.

The scene froze there for a while.

The more irritable elder Taishang directly scolded his mother.

This is definitely the most frustrating battle he has ever fought!

There are also those six wretched sects, who actually hid behind the disciples of Emperor Yao Lingxu, releasing cold arrows one by one.

After releasing Lengjian, find a disciple of Emperor Yao Lingxu and hide behind him.

They took the essence of guerrilla warfare to the extreme.

This makes Samsung even more angry!

Time passed minute by minute, until Emperor Yao Samsung was out of breath, the situation at the scene was still stalemate.

"Kill!" The head of the Supreme Elder's eyes gradually became cold, and a word came out coldly.

The other Supreme Elder's face stiffened, and he immediately said, "Absolutely not!"

"Humph! You have also seen the current situation, the other party is clearly playing with our weakness! Do we have time to spend it with them! If we kill these people, we will be seriously injured, but as long as we are there, Emperor Yao Ling Xu will return to the peak one day!"

"And if we don't kill them, we will be dragged to death by them! At that time, the emperor demon Ling Xu will be really destroyed!" The elder Taishang shouted sharply.

The irritable Taishang elder couldn't help but clapped his hands and said, "It should have been this way! I'm suffocating me to death! Watch me kill him without leaving a river of blood!"

After all, he rushed out first, and the energy in his body suddenly became cold and cruel.

It's just that he never found a subtle situation from beginning to end.

The spiritual energy in them goes and returns!

It is equivalent to fighting a battle with no supplies at all!

Hearing the decision made by Emperor Yao Samsung, Wiliam also sneered, "Have you finally made up your mind? This hypocritical mercy. However, it's too late, it's too late!"

After Wiliam finished speaking, he looked at Su Hongxiu and said lightly, "The things that Liuzong borrowed can be used now."

"Three attack, three defend!"

"Fast like wind, aggressive like fire!"

"Xu Rulin, don't move like a mountain!"

"Come on, this Fenglin Volcano that has changed the world!"
