

Dragon Husband

Chapter 716

What suddenly appeared in front of Wiliam and the others was He Yuewen who was supposed to be in another private room.

Back to He Yuewen's side.

He Yuewen just wanted to get close to the man in black outside the door, but he was disturbed by Wiliam. After returning to the box, he suddenly kicked a chair fiercely.

"boom!"

The loud noise shocked the three women.

Gu Lingling asked with lingering fear: "Old Ho, what are you doing! Be so angry?"

He Yuewen had a grim face and cursed: "I really guessed it just now. The kid knew he couldn't escape, so when he left the house, he actually uttered a rant, wanting to drag us into the water together! kill him!"

Lu Xiaolu's face became stiff and asked, "What did he say? Does it matter? What's the situation now?"

He Yuewen snorted, and then recounted what Wiliam had done outside.

After this, the faces of several women turned pale.

Lu Xiaolu also yelled, "That bastard, you know he's so kind! I didn't expect to bite us before he died! A lowly servant, as soon as he went out, shouted to see Mr. Duan in Lanyue Emperor City! He! Who thought he was! Isn't this deliberately provoking the anger of the Blue Moon Emperor City?"

Gu Lingling and Lin Songfeng nodded together.

Lin Songfeng was relatively calm. She asked He Yuewen: "Then what are we going to do now? Can't we just sit and wait for death?"

He Yuewen said gloomily: "Actually, I secretly observed something outside the door just now. The signal occluder is placed in front of our door, but the area that should be occluded will not be very large. And more importantly, I saw Wiliam I was taken to another box. In that box, I guess Mr. Duan is in it. There must be a signal there."

"So I thought, I'll find an opportunity later. No matter what the price, I will rush to that box and send out the distress message. Now, we don't care if we know it or not. Our fate is critical. "

Lu Xiaolu nodded solemnly, "Well, there are so many things in life and death. As long as we come from the family, we won't be afraid of the Emperor Lanyue City. It is really unlucky to encounter this kind of thing when we come back. "

He Yuewen glanced at Lu Xiaolu strangely, and couldn't tell.

This big brainless woman.

Isn't it all caused by you?

Are you still depressed here?

We were almost killed by you.

Fortunately, there was a dead ghost who went out to take our place first, or we would be the one who is complaining outside now.

He Yuewen stopped talking, took out his phone, and started editing the text message.

He figured it out clearly. After a while, as long as the other party sends back the half-dead Wiliam, he will definitely open the door.

When I opened the door, I found another excuse to sneak out. Even if I was beaten once or twice, I would rush to the box and send out the distress message.

Lin Songfeng showed a look of pleading for the first time, and said to He Yuewen: "Lao He, the life and death of the few of us are all up to you."

He Yuewen nodded and stopped talking.

When he edited the newsletter, he realized that five minutes had passed.

But at this time, He Yuewen felt a faint anxiety in his heart.

After thinking about it, he suddenly patted his head, and asked suspiciously, "Do you think it is strange?"

Several women shook their heads.

He Yuewen looked at the door deeply and said, "That kid, why haven't you come back?"

This said, the other women reacted.

correct!

They even forgot Wiliam, a dead ghost for a while.

Just now He Yuewen went out for the first time, and it only took four to five minutes.

Now this kid has no movement at all.

Will you still be beaten out?

This is too miserable, and the other party is too cruel.

He Yuewen sneered and snorted coldly: "Hmph, let this kid talk gibberish outside just now, he must be taught now, and he feels his own way."

On the contrary, Lu Xiaolu said a little worried: "But, don't we want to keep sending this bastard out? He won't be killed the first time he goes out? Then we really have no way back."

He Yuewen thought about it, that's right.

This kid can't die too early.

He walked to the glass in the doorway, wanting to see the situation outside.

Unfortunately, the glass is already covered.

He leaned his ears to listen, but found that he could not hear anything.

Outside, it seemed strangely quiet.

What is going on here?

"Wait, the scourge left for a thousand years, that kid probably won't die so easily, the other party definitely wants to torture him so that he can't survive." He Yuewen could only say to everyone at last.

Everyone can only nod their heads and sit back in their chairs one by one.

But he was restless.

Time passed bit by bit.

After ten minutes, they couldn't sit still, and looked at the door of the box eagerly.

Lu Xiaolu walked directly to the door, walked around, and muttered: "Why is that kid still not coming back? Nothing will happen, right?"

She was really worried about William's safety. She was afraid that William would be killed. Then it was their turn to suffer.

Other people's faces also have anxiety.

At this time, Lu Xiaolu pricked his ears and whispered: "Someone has come over!"

He Yuewen's face straightened, "It should be that they sent the kid back, and it's almost time to count."

He carefully took out his cell phone and confirmed the content of the distress message again.

The door opened slightly, and the hearts of several women were raised in their throats.

Lu Xiaolu also pulled He Yuewen's clothes for an unprecedented time, and pleaded: "Old He, you must save us."

Seeing Lu Xiaolu showing a look of reliance on himself for the first time, He Yuewen boldly said: "Don't worry! I will save this life and protect you. No, I will keep you safe."

Gu Lingling and Lin Songfeng glanced at each other, their eyes filled with weirdness.

Just when He Yuewen thought that Wiliam would be like the self before, he was thrown in.

However, a voice came directly from the door, "Next, come out!"

This sentence dazzled the few people present!

next!

Lu Yezhen is back!

by!

He won't really be killed!

Otherwise, why would you just call the next one!

This sudden situation suddenly disrupted He Yuewen's rhythm.

He didn't have time to think about this problem, he saw a hand directly stretched in and pulled him out!

By now, He Yuewen was cruel and wanted to go out anyway!

Just die!

So, almost at the moment when he was pulled out, there was wind on the soles of his feet, and before everyone was caught off guard, he rushed directly towards the dark box!
