

Dragon Husband

Chapter 954

The people at the scene buzzed their heads, and the first reaction was to find a notebook and write it down.

There are three knowledge points in it.

William said: "First, since we have already introduced the above and the people know what happened today, we have to go back to the original point. Old lady He forged Biluo's heart and soul is obviously a big taboo. Why don't people stop He Granny?"

Everyone's heads continued to hum.

"Second, since Mrs. He has set up this game, she must have thought about the consequences? If this game is seen through, she will face the troubles of the martial arts family in the city. Oh, some people say she is self-conscious. It's very high. I thought it would be revealed at all, ho ho, it's impossible. Okay, as you said, I didn't think about it before, but now, is it considered a reveal? If it's you, when the strategy was revealed, when so many people are now surrounded, what is the first thing to do?"

Someone tentatively said weakly: "Run?"

Lu Yehe smiled, "It's wrong, just run away. Just now everyone has seen that Old Lady He is extremely vigorous, although she can't beat so many of you, she can still escape. But she has thoughts. Ever escaped?"

Everyone looked at Mrs. He. She still holds the fake bead in her hand, and she doesn't seem to run away.

When William said that, this was indeed extremely abnormal.

William continued: "If you can set up this big game, there is no way to think of a future? And I believe that there must be more than one future. The question is again, what is it that makes her feel confident and can be here today? Retiring all over the field? Surely it won't be the support of the Li family of Nanjin."

Everyone nodded, what is the Li Family's prohibition in the south.

Besides, the Nanjin Li family has already hated Granny He, how could it be possible to protect Granny He again.

She was isolated and helpless in that scene, why didn't she run away?

Shock?

despair?

Totally impossible.

A man of seven old eighties, a man with such a careful mind!

A man who has been guilty of repentance for so many years returned to the Li family of Nanban to seize power this time!

How could it be completely desperate because of a momentary strategy.

As Wiliam analyzed a little bit, a thought had already faintly formed in everyone's hearts.

"What about the last point?" someone asked Wiliam again.

Wiliam looked at Mrs. He and smiled, "The last point, it couldn't be easier."

by!

Everyone almost scolded his mother!

Do you say simple is simple!

We totally disagree!

"The last point, everyone might as well return to Su Yuchun's death again, or to return to the rules of this game." Wiliam said.

Everyone really started to scold their mother!

I knew it would not be that simple!

"There is a rule for this competition, which I have heard before. The contestants and related personnel are protected by the people above before the official invitation letter, right?" Wiliam said.

Everyone nodded.

Wiliam smiled, "That's right. The South Ban Li family was originally the organizer of this event, and Su Yuchun was the default specific organizer. All invitations were sent from her side."
