

Dragon King 131

Dragon King's Son-In-Law Chapter 131

: What a Coincidence

Bang!

With half of his body in the car, Hao Ren stood up abruptly and banged his head on the door frame.

"Ren, are you all right?" Grandma who was sitting in the rear seat asked Hao Ren anxiously.

"It's nothing, nothing..." Hao Ren rubbed the back of his head before getting into the car.

"Good evening, Uncle Xie."

"Hehe! I haven't seen you for many years, and you've grown into such a big boy now." Xie Ming grinned at Hao Ren. "I still remember your cute face and the cartwheels you used to do when you were little."

Hao Ren smiled bashfully, but he was actually very nervous.

"So, this is Xie Yujia's dad, and tonight..." he thought.

"Ming, Ren's basketball match is about to begin, and I will take the three of them to the stadium. Then, the two of us can take a walk around the campus and relive our time in the school."

"Good plan! I took Yujia here when she entered the school, but I never imagined that I could one day walk around in East Ocean University with you again!" Xie Ming said excitedly.

“Speaking of which, are you sure you don’t want to call Little Carrot?” Hao Zhonghua asked.

“It’s a basketball match. With my nephew Xie Wanjun as the Captain of East Ocean University’s Basketball Team, Yujia will definitely watch the match. I want to give her a surprise,” Xie Ming said with a chuckle.

Suddenly, he turned to Hao Ren.

“Your father told you her name. Why didn’t you look for Little Carrot? She called me to ask me the identity of her Little Older Brother these past two days, and I refrained from telling her thinking that I’m coming back anyway on Thursday.”

“Ugh. Because...” Hao Ren stammered, finding it hard to give a proper explanation. Of course, he couldn’t say the reason he didn’t tell her was that Little Carrot liked her Little Older Brother.

“Well, I know why. You feel awkward after not seeing her for more than ten years, don’t you?” seeing Hao Ren’s expression, Xie Ming guessed.

“Yeah. Yujia may have a boyfriend already, and Hao Ren would feel weird if he visited her suddenly. They were so close to each other that they ate and slept together. They will feel embarrassed when they meet again as adults,” Yue Yang said.

At her words, Hao Ren suddenly remembered that Little Carrot’s family used to visit his family. While the adults played cards late into the night, he and Little Carrot would sleep early on the same cool bamboo bed.....

It had happened when they were in elementary school, but he still blushed at the memory.

“I’m sure that Yujia has no boyfriend. When I call her every week, she is either studying in the classroom or studying in her dorm. She doesn’t look like a girl who has a boyfriend,” Xie Ming said.

“Hehe, unlike Ren, I can’t wait to see what Little Carrot has grown into. Anyway, your Little Carrot was pretty when she was little, and I’m sure she is beautiful now,” Hao Zhonghua said while driving the car.

“She is ok.” Xie Ming said modestly. He glanced at Hao Ren and said, “Your Ren is really handsome.”

“Ok, stop trading compliments,” Grandma interrupted them and laughed, “Listening to you, I’m quite curious to see what the girl who used to run around with Ren has grown into.”

“Yeah. You used to give her the best treats when she came to our home. No wonder Ren was displeased whenever Little Carrot visited us, haha!” Yue Yang said with a laugh.

While they talked about the old times, Hao Ren couldn’t put in one word.

Seeing Hao Ren remaining in silence, Grandma asked, “Ren, you are quite nervous to see Little Carrot again, aren’t you?”

“Yeah.” Hao Ren exhaled helplessly and thought, “They would be surprised that Little Carrot is, in fact, my classmate.”

Seeing their excitement, Hao Ren decided to give them a shock since they were keen on making surprises.

The car arrived at the stadium, and Hao Zhonghua parked his car. He took a walk around the campus with his old classmate Xie Ming after asking the others to go to the stadium and get seats for them.

Knowing that the two old classmates had a lot to catch up on, Yue Yang didn’t stop them.

She helped Grandma into the stadium.

“Mom, how come Uncle Xie came with you guys?” Hao Ren asked.

Yue Yang put on a peaked cap and replied, “Your father encountered your Uncle Xie when he was in a meeting in the U.S. They were so excited after not seeing each other for more than ten years that your father insisted Uncle Xie to come back with him. Uncle Xie wanted to visit his daughter too, and they ended up coming back on the same flight.”

“How come he came to watch the match in the same car?” Hao Ren continued to ask.

“They flew to East Ocean City this afternoon. Since the airport is not far from our house, he paid a visit to us. After knowing that you have a match tonight, he decided to come with us to watch,” Yue Yang explained.

Hao Ren turned and saw Hao Zhonghua and Xie Ming talking animatedly while walking into the depth of the campus. It occurred to him that their friendship remained intact even though they had not seen each other for more than ten years.

“Didn’t Little Carrot’s mom come back?” Hao Ren asked.

“They have a factory in the States, and it’s hectic at this time of the year. Your Uncle Xie made a lot of rescheduling before he could come back. Her mom must have stayed in the U.S. to tend to the business,” said Yue Yang.

“Got it.” Hao Ren nodded and didn’t ask any more questions.

“After so many years, we still feel close to Little Carrot’s family. After graduation from the university, your dad and I were all as poor as rats. Your father wanted to enter a research institute while your Uncle Xie wanted to build his own business. They had been good friends when they were at the university, and they continued to help each other after they married; they got through the most difficult times together. Later on, your Uncle Xie went abroad, and we lost contact with each other due to the limited communication methods at that time. After we sold the downtown apartment and moved to the seaside, it became more difficult for them to find us.”

Yue Yang said emotionally.

Hao Ren had a vague memory of those happy days in poverty. He faintly remembered that Little Carrot’s family had been a bit better-off than his since his parents insisted on building their careers in science research which at that time had been short of funds. Her family had helped his family a lot financially.

“I guess Uncle Xie doesn’t read science periodicals; otherwise, he should have seen Dad’s name and photos. Am I right?” Hao Ren asked abruptly.

“Your Uncle Xie has been busy managing a manufacturing plant. I suppose he doesn’t have much time to follow the biotechnology news. Besides, your father changed his name from Hao Hua to Hao Zhonghua as required by the institute, and it became even more difficult to follow his news.”

Then, Yue Yang waved her hand and said, “The past is the past. It’s a blessing that we can meet each other again. I just want to remind you that Little Carrot’s family helped us in the most difficult times, and you must be nice to her.”

“Got it.” Hao Ren sighed again and entered the gym. He couldn’t postpone the inevitable any longer, and he was just anxious to see Xie Yujia’s reaction when the truth was revealed to her.

It was her who drew the line between them after sensing the danger of attraction. Now, the situation got tricky.

It was still one hour from the match, and there were not many people on the stands. Yue Yang helped Grandma to a front row seat so that she could have a better view of the match.

“Grandma!” Suddenly, a clear voice pierced through the air in the gym.

Grandma turned and saw Zhao Yanzi, in the company of Zhao Guang and Zhao Hongyu, skipping toward her.

“Oh, Zi! I missed you so much.....” Grandma clapped her hands before taking Zhao Yanzi into her arms.

Yu Yang in her peaked cap smiled and said to Zhao Guang and Zhao Hongyu, “I didn’t know you would come.”

As if in a tacit agreement, Zhao Guang and Zhao Hongyu were also wearing peaked caps. They smiled at Yue Yang and replied, "A few days ago, Zi told us that Ren would be playing in the match, and we agreed to come and watch him."

On the court, Hao Ren had changed into his jersey and was doing warm-up exercises with his teammates.

"I didn't know our Ren could play basketball," Grandma looked at Hao Ren on the court and said.

"Humph! I bought him the new basketball shoes!" Zhao Yanzi invited compliments.

"Hehe, our Zi is such a considerate girl." Grandma looked down on Zhao Yanzi's pretty face and rubbed her head lovingly.

Hao Ren turned his head and saw Grandma and Zhao Yanzi's family sitting together.

He waved at them.

"Go! Ren!" Zhao Hongyu called out to him.

Hao Ren smiled before turning back to the warm-up. Zhao Jiayi who stood beside him saw Zhao Guang, Zhao Hongyu, and Zhao Yanzi and recognized that they were the family whose daughter was being tutored by Hao Ren. He wondered why they had come to watch this match.

However, he didn't notice that the woman standing beside Zhao Yanzi was Yue Yang, an academician of CAE.

The door to the other locker room in the stadium opened, and the Basketball Team of Jinghua University in black jersey filed out.

Their average height was terrifying; they were on average 1.9 meters tall.

On the side of East Ocean, except for Xie Wanjun, there were only a few members who were taller than 1.9 meters. The tall members such as Bai Zhixiong couldn't play the match due to the fight with Hao Ren; they were not even allowed in the warm-up zone and could only watch on the sideline.

The Captain of Jinghua University's team was a guy who was even taller and looked stronger than Xie Wanjun.

With heavy steps, he walked over to them.

He glanced at the line-up of East Ocean University, and his gaze rested on Hao Ren and Zhao Jiayi. He said sarcastically, "Well, Xie Wanjun, you know you can't beat us regularly, so you resort to the dwarf strategy now?"

With a cold face, Xie Wanjun pointed to the place behind him. "Your warm-up zone is over there. I don't want to bicker with you. We will find out who is stronger on the court!"

"Go!" The guy who looked to be the Team Captain waved his hand arrogantly and led his players past the East Ocean University players toward the other half court.

While they passed, they intentionally bumped into the East Ocean University players with their brawny shoulders.

Hao Ren was also bumped in the shoulder by the Captain of Jinghua University Basketball Team, but he didn't fight back. Instead, he backed off two steps intentionally.

"Power Forward." Xie Wanjun patted Hao Ren on his shoulder as his eyes locked onto the Captain of Jinghua University Basketball Team whose number on the jersey was one.

"Bump into him hard in the match!" Xie Wanjun whispered.

Dragon King's Son-In-Law Chapter 132

: Little Older Brother?!

It was half an hour before the match.

On the campus road, a white figure was riding a bike speedily. Darkness had fallen, and the streetlights spread weak illumination on the street.

It was Xie Yujia.

It took her some time to help the Administrative Office to organize some stuff. Afraid of missing the match, she skipped dinner and hurried toward the stadium.

“Ugh?”

Abruptly, she stopped paddling and looked ahead at the figures of two middle-aged men not far from her.

“Dad?!” staring at their backs, she braked slightly and called out tentatively when she got closer.

The two middle-aged men turned their heads simultaneously.

“Dad!” with her dad’s identity confirmed, Xie Yujia was pleasantly surprised.

However, when her gaze turned to the man standing beside Xie Ming, her expression froze, and she almost fell from the seat of her bike.

“Academician Hao?” her eyes widened as she called out in disbelief.

“Is this your daughter Yujia? She’s very pretty,” Hao Zhonghua said with a chuckle. Suddenly, he found that something was not right, and his face turned weird too.

“Isn’t she the girl who dragged Ren to line up for signatures?” he thought.

During that signing session, Yu Yang had winked at him. When she got home, she kept saying that Hao Ren had finally attracted a girl, and that girl looked so pretty and elegant; that was why he had a deep impression of Xie Yujia.

Hao Zhonghua and Xie Yujia looked at each other with weird expressions on their faces.

Seeing that they were in a daze, Xie Ming was confused as well. He told Xie Yujia, “He is your Little Older Brother’s dad, Hao Zhonghua. He used to be called Hao Hua and is my old classmate. You should call him Uncle.”

“Little Older Brother’s dad!” Xie Yujia’s hands holding the handles of the bike shook as she thought.

“Un...Uncle!” she gathered her thoughts and greeted Hao Zhonghua.

Meanwhile, Hao Zhonghua was still confused. He wondered what the relationship was between the pretty Xie Yujia and Hao Ren.

“Had they known each other or... ” he thought.

Xie Yujia’s eyes looked distracted, but her mind was turning furiously fast. “Hao Zhonghua is Dad’s old classmate and Little Older Brother’s dad? Little Older Brother is the son of Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang, two influential international scientists!”

“Dad called to ask me if Little Older Brother has visited me or not, which means he has known about me. Maybe he didn’t show up because he is so excellent that he thinks I, the childhood playmate, am not worthy of a reunion.”

“Hey! What’s wrong with you?” Xie Ming patted his daughter’s cheek.

“Oh, nothing. Why are you here?” Xie Yujia shook her head and regained her composure before asking.

“I’m here to visit you and the school with my old classmate,” Xie Ming said. He asked again, “Did your Little Older Brother come to see you?”

“No.” Xie Yujia shook her head.

She looked at Xie Zhonghua with complicated feelings.

“Time is almost up. Let’s go to the stadium,” Hao Zhonghua checked his watch and said. He was a bit confused, but he decided to wait until he called Hao Ren and questioned him before saying anything.

With a blank mind, Xie Yujia got off her bike and walked with them toward the stadium. As smart as she was, she was so confused right now that she didn’t think to ask them why they wanted to go to the stadium.

Hao Zhonghua was her most admired scientist, and her Little Older Brother was his son.

But for some reason, she didn’t feel happy about it. Although she always thought that her Little Older Brother would be excellent, it was still a shocker for her to suddenly found that he was so far above her.....

“As the son of world-famous scientists, he must have a girlfriend who is also excellent...”

The three of them entered the stadium and looked for Yue Yang and Grandma in the stands.

The match was about to begin shortly, and the stands were now full of students; it was difficult for the three to find them.

Hao Zhonghua had no choice but to take out his cell phone and call Yue Yang.

After receiving the call, Yue Yang immediately took Grandma to look for Hao Zhonghua. Grandma had wanted to keep Zhao Yanzi company, but she followed Yue Yang since she wanted to meet Little Carrot whom she had not seen for so long.

When they met, Xie Yujia was less surprised than Yue Yang who froze on the spot.

Xie Ming didn't know why the couple and Xie Yujia reacted so weirdly when seeing each other.

However, Xie Yujia recovered quickly and greeted them, "Auntie! Grandma!"

Grandma was very pleased with Xie Yujia who was both pretty and considerate. She held Xie Yujia's smooth and soft hand and said, "I can't believe you've grown so much! Little Carrot! Grandma has never forgotten you..."

In her faint childhood memories, except for the ever stronger image of her beloved Little Older Brother, the other distinct impression was Little Older Brother's grandma who had been very good to her. Whenever she went to their home, Grandma would take out her precious snacks.....

Somehow, Xie Yujia was struck with a sudden sense of sadness. While she looked at Grandma who almost hadn't changed, tears rushed into her eyes. "Grandma..."

"Well, kid. Why are you crying?" Grandma's heart ached when she saw that Little Carrot was about to cry. She took her into arms and patted her back to comfort her.

At this moment, Xie Yujia's tears dropped like pearls falling from a broken string.

Yue Yang and Hao Zhonghua exchanged a look, knowing that something was wrong. They thought for a moment and reached the same conclusion, "Hao Ren, the despicable boy, must have dumped her after making her his girlfriend."

Grandma was not troubled by these thoughts. She thought Little Carrot cried because she was too excited after about a dozen years of separation. She quickly found Xie Yujia a seat, thinking that Little Carrot was still prone to crying just like when she was little.

In the past, she used to cry when Little Older Brother ‘bullied’ her, but now it seemed like no one would do that.

“Well, well. Don’t cry. You should be happy about our reunion today.” Grandma consoled Xie Yujia.

When Xie Yujia was little, Grandma treated Xie Yujia as her own granddaughter. Although she was grown up now, Grandma’s affection toward her remained the same.

Xie Yujia sniffed, trying to calm down. She knew she had been in a mess recently with her feelings divided between Hao Ren and Little Older Brother.

She dried her tears and forced out a smile, which looked like a blooming magnolia and brightened Grandma’s mood.

“Good girl! Good girl!”

Standing beside them, Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang exchanged a look uneasily, thinking that Hao Ren must have something to do with Xie Yujia’s tears.

“Grandma, how come you are here to watch the basketball match?” Xie Yujia calmed herself down before asking.

“Yeah, I’m here to watch Ren play the match. Oh, Ren is your Little Older Brother when you were little, and we used to call him Maomao as a nickname.” Grandma nodded before asking abruptly, “Well, hasn’t Ren met you yet?”

“Ren? Hao Zhonghua?”

Xie Yujia's slightly numb brain suddenly made a connection between those two names.

Baffled, she glanced at the amiable Grandma who was holding her before turning her gaze toward the court. Dragon King's Son-In-Law Chapter 133

: Two Became One...

The game was about to start after the warm-up period.

Hao Ren high-fived all of his team members in his jersey that had '8' on it. He was a little nervous since this was his first formal basketball game ever.

On the stands, Xie Yujia turned back and asked grandma, "Is my Little Older Brother...Hao Ren?"

Grandma looked at her kindly and answered, "Yeah! See that No.8? I'll ask him to come up here and meet you after the game. You guys can talk for a bit."

The group found a spot to sit before the game, and Hao Zhonghua, Yue Yang, and Xie Ming all sat beside Grandma.

Xie Yujia felt a little dizzy when she heard Grandma's calm answer. It turned out that the Little Older Brother she had always cared about was this classmate of hers who she could see every single day!

The seemingly ordinary Hao Ren, who was running around on the court amongst the giants, was actually Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang's son!

"He... Had been hiding it so well," Xie Yujia suddenly flushed as she remembered the time when she dragged him to the guest lectures and told him about her admiration for the two outstanding scientists.

Her dad owned a company in the States, and his annual earning was at least USD$300,000. Although the company had been expanding over the years, she had always had a low profile. She never put on lots of makeup or purchased high-end products. Instead, she focused on her studies and self-improvement. Some people even thought that she came from a low-income family.

Hao Ren's parents, on the other hand, were world-famous scientists who had won tons of global rewards and prizes. The bonuses they received would be over a few hundred thousand each year, yet Hao Ren had never advocated it.

He would pay the bill when he needed to and go out when he wanted to. However, he never spent his money lavishly and never purchased clothes and shoes from luxury brands. His appearance was even more low-key than Xie Yujia.

She thought her Little Older Brother must have gone through top-ranked schools and stuck out as an extremely outstanding person amongst his peers; she could never have guessed that he would be just another ordinary student.

The Little Older Brother turned out to be Hao Ren! No wonder the more time she spent with him, the closer she felt towards him. Xie Yujia's emotion changed from astonished to emotional and then to confused.

Peng! The game started as the basketball was thrown high into the air.

Hao Ren was in his new basketball shoes, and he jumped up immediately as if there were springs installed under his feet. He easily flipped the ball away from Chen Dali, the Captain of Jinghua University's Basketball Team who was in his No.1 Jersey.

Boom!

Chen Dali looked at the shorty in the No.8 Jersey in surprise; he couldn't believe what just happened because even Xie Wanjun couldn't jump as high as him.

Boom! Hao Ren landed steadily and dashed into the other half for the court without stopping.

Xie Wanjun noticed how surprised Chen Dali was. He caught the basketball with one hand and dribbled quickly ahead. He dodged the defense of two players from Jinghua University and came to the basket.

Then, he jumped up like a mountain in the sky!

Bang! An excellent dunk won East Ocean University the first two points!

On the stands to the east side, Zhao Yanzi proudly turned to Zhao Hongyu and said, "See, it's all because of those new basketball shoes!"

Zhao Hongyu smiled speechlessly; it was her who bought Hao Ren those shoes, but it was all Zhao Yanzi's idea now.

"Um? How come Grandma isn't back yet?" Zhao Yanzi looked around and asked.

"Looks like she saw an acquaintance from before, and she went to say hi with Ren's dad," Zhao Hongyu answered.

"Oh...," Zhao Yanzi looked back at the game without any more questions.

Chen Dali glimpsed at the scoreboard and saw a '2' light up; it was on East Ocean University's side, and he was still surprised.

Everyone on East Ocean University's side burst into cheers at the impressive dunk.

Since they were hosting the game, this first score was a huge hit for Jinghua University.

Xie Wanjun walked to Hao Ren and patted his shoulder. "Well done!"

He asked Hao Ren to do the jump ball and played supportive himself. It turned out that Hao Ren really wasn't a disappointment since he got the ball.

Therefore, Xie Wanjun was able to cut into the other half of the court unexpectedly and earn those two points.

Chen Dali realized that he underestimated this 'shorty army' after the first two points were taken. He shouted at his teammates madly, " Six 1 ! Shuan! Keep an eye on Xie Wanjun!"

Pa! Pa! Pa!

Jinghua University's team did a few smooth passes; it could be seen that they were very skilled as well.

The player with the No.5 Jersey on Jinghua University's side made a shot after he had gotten a good chance.

Xie Wanjun instantly raised his hand to block the ball!

Its trajectory was shifted, and it smashed onto the backboard before bouncing off!

Miss! Rebound!

About five or six players jumped up at the same time!

Hao Ren, who was in the middle, jumped the highest as if he was shot up from a volcano. He grasped the ball with one hand and hugged it in his arms.

He kept Xie Yujia's words with him at all times. "The priority of a Power Forward is to get the rebound!"

Xie Wanjun was guarded tightly by two players of the other team, and Hao Ren found an excellent opportunity to pass the ball on to his buddy, Zhao Jiayi, through a gap.

Zhao Jiayi was under no defense. He got the ball with excitement and dashed to the opposite basket like a bomb.

“Defense! Defense!” Chen Dali, who didn’t get the rebound, shouted.

“A shorty like him shouldn’t be able to do much!” he shouted out what he was secretly thinking in panic.

Zhao Jiayi was the shortest on the court; even shorter than Hao Ren. However, because of his height, his lower center of gravity allowed him to run fast with a smooth dribble.

A smooth turn, a cross-leg dribble, and a fake move! He was able to leave everyone behind.

He ‘swam’ through all the giants from Jinghua University like a fish and made a standard yet accurate layup!

Three ‘giant walls’ jumped up to block his shot at the same time! It felt like a huge wave was coming towards him while he was surfing in the ocean!

Zhao Jiayi suddenly threw a behind-the-back pass!

Hao Ren was standing still as he saw the basketball landing perfectly in his hands! What an excellent pass!

“He is a Power Forward! Ignore him and defend Xie Wanjun!” Chen Dali shouted with his arms open.

“Do it!” Xie Wanjun commanded while he was guarded tightly by three players.

Hao Ren held the ball with both hands, and the time around him suddenly froze.

All the eyes in the stadium were on Hao Ren’s hands including the players on the court.

Everything was so clear and in slow motion in Hao Ren's eyes, and even the slightest movement was clear to him.

There were dripping sweat, intense stares, the touching of arms under the basket...

Boom! Hao Ren made a shot.

The ball drew a curved trajectory over those three players from Jinghua University who had just jumped into the air.

Hao Ren could see the spinning of the ball in the air.

Whoosh!

He scored! Dragon King's Son-In-Law Chapter 134

: What a Shame...

"Woah..." everyone in the stadium cheered loudly.

Xie Yujia, the crazy basketball fan, jumped out of her seat immediately!

Although Grandma didn't know much about basketball, she could still tell that Hao Ren just scored. Therefore, she also stood up with the nearby students in excitement.

Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang looked at each other in surprise; they had no idea that Hao Ren got so good at basketball after he had gone to university.

Can Ronghua, Yu Rong, and the guys on the other side of the stadium were all shocked; they wondered if the person in the No. 8 Jersey was actually Hao Ren.

East Ocean University was hosting the game after all. Therefore, the cheer for the straight four points lead took place for a long time before it stopped.

Afterward, Xie Yujia held Grandma's arm as they sat down. Grandma asked Xie Yujia proudly, still excited, "Our Ren is quite handsome, isn't he?"

"Yeah." Xie Yujia nodded.

"Little Carrot, Oh, I should probably call you Yujia now," Grandma held Xie Yujia's hands as she looked at her blushing smooth cheeks, "We couldn't do much since we have lost contact with your family. Since we have finally met again, our two families need to stay in touch. I know that your parents are still in the States; it must not be easy for you to be on your own. Come to spend some time with me whenever you are free!"

"Okay." Xie Yujia nodded again.

Grandma looked at the shy girl who was so pretty that it looked like she was carved out of jade. She remembered how Little Carrot and Ren played together as kids and wondered how nice it would have been if they had grown up together.

The game continued on the court below them.

The Captain of Jinghua University, Chen Dali, looked extremely mad. He underestimated Hao Ren and Zhao Jiayi, and that caused him four points in a roll.

Hao Ren and Zhao Jiayi were the shortest players on the court. To his utmost surprise, they messed up the entire plan he made before the game.

Currently, Jinghua University was still at zero points; four points behind. Their team was going hard and tried to take two points back in order to boost their morale.

Pa! Zhao Jiayi suddenly dashed crossways and cut off their pass successfully.

“Good job!” Xie Wanjun couldn’t help but shout out.

Zhao Jiayi dribbled quickly and passed it on to his team member Bear, and Bear found a great position and passed it on to Xie Wanjun. When two players went over to defend him, Xie Wanjun passed it back to Zhao Jiayi.

Chen Dali noticed that two of his team members were going for Zhao Jiayi and shouted, “Watch Xie Wanjun!”

Two Jinghua University players blocked Xie Wanjun, so he didn’t have a chance at all. However, Xie Wanjun secretly praised Chen Dali as this Captain could accurately determine Hao Ren’s Power Forward position and Zhao Jiayi’s Point Guard position through the way they played so far.

Neither of these positions was the leading score getters in the game. As long as Jinghua University kept an eye on Xie Wanjun who was the Center and Little Fatty who was the Small Forward, they shouldn’t need to worry about East Ocean University winning the game. After all, the two teams played against each other last year, and they all knew about the old players’ abilities.

When Zhao Jiayi saw that Hao Ren had been guarded, he made a quick decision and hopped up with both hands on the ball.

Pa! Pa!

Two players from Jinghua University reached out to block him.

“Watch out for his pass!” Chen Dali shouted.

However, Zhao Jiayi didn’t pass the ball this time.

Fadeaway shot!

His body leaned backward as he made the shot. The ball passed through those two players and shot towards the basket.

Peng! Peng!

The ball bounced on the basket before it went in!

Woah! There was another wave of cheers on the stands.

6:0!

“What the hell!” Chen Dali shook his head.

Zhao Jiayi suddenly became the hero, and he turned to the audience with his arms up.

“F*ck, now Zhao Jiayi will be famous, and there will be lots of girls interested in him!” Zhou Liren cried out on the stands.

Bai Zhixiong and a few other suspended players were surprised; they had no idea that this ‘shorty’ whom they looked down upon was actually so good at basketball!

6:0! East Ocean University was in the lead even though the game had just started. The entire basketball hall was cheering crazily.

As the game went on, Hao Ren, the Power Forward, kept Xie Yujia’s words in mind: rebound and defense.

Hao Ren kept up the good teamwork with Xie Wanjun, the Center. They worked together on getting the rebounds, blocking in the restricted area, defending for each other, and controlling the tempo. On top of that, the Point Guard Zhao Jiayi succeeded in stealing the ball several times with his agile movements. East Ocean University kept scoring, and they maintained a lead of over ten points!

Chen Dali's shouting turned into roaring. However, Hao Ren, Xie Wanjun, and Zhao Jiayi were like a fantastic iron triangle. One of them could always get the rebound, one of them was constantly making horrifying dunks or blocking shots, and one of them was a ball-snatching machine who could always deliver the ball to his teammates for scoring.

Half of the game was almost finished, and the tallest and strongest player on the side of Jinghua University, Chen Dali, finally gave away his Center position to focus on defending Hao Ren!

There would be no chance for Jinghua University to win if they couldn't break the iron triangle.

"Ren, catch the ball!" Zhao Jiayi made a smooth behind-the-back pass, and the ball accurately fell into Hao Ren's palm.

"Cut to the inside lane! Pass it if there is no opportunity to score!" Hao Ren remembered Xie Yujia's instruction vividly and tried to break through the defense line with the basketball.

Boom... A 'tank' came to him out of nowhere!

He turned around and saw Chen Dali dashing over madly with a twisted face.

Boom!

Their shoulders collided; Chen Dali was even stronger than Xie Wanjun with his two-meter height.

Xie Yujia opened her eyes wide and held her fists tight on the stands. Her nails even sank deep into her skin!

Xie Wanjun had already cut into the inner lane and was waiting for Hao Ren's ball; he was nervous in this situation as well.

Bang... Out of almost everyone's expectation, Chen Dali was knocked away!

He backed up five or six steps before falling onto the floor and sliding to the outside of the court, unbalanced.

He turned to the referee, but the referee signaled everyone to carry on with the game.

Hao Ren passed the ball successfully to Xie Wanjun, and there went another exciting dunk!

The game carried on, and Chen Dali had his eyes on Hao Ren again.

Bang! Chen Dali was flipped aside in another crash.

"Referee! It was a foul!" he stood back up and shouted to the referee.

However, the referee shrugged in disagreement. That seemed to be a reasonable collision. If anything, Chen Dali's malicious intent was more noticeable.

Chen Dali returned to the court madly; he couldn't figure out how this 'shorty' was that heavy. Chen Dali felt like Hao Ren's feet were rooted to the floor. It was absolutely impossible to knock him over. On the other hand, Hao Ren could easily knock him away with just a little movement.

Bang! Chen Dali, who was strong as a hill, was knocked away again in another collision.

"Referee! He made a ball collision!" Chen Dali cried out since he couldn't stand it anymore.

This referee was invited from the East Ocean City Referee Association.

He couldn't stand Chen Dali anymore either and said to him, "I will give you a foul if you do this kind of fake moves again!"

"What fake? I was knocked over by him..." Chen Dali yelled as he was pulled back by his team. It was really irrational for this Captain to argue with the referee.

As the game went on, Chen Dali kept on defending Hao Ren. However, whenever he tried to crash into him on purpose, he would immediately get bounced back.

His movement of being knocked over appeared to be extremely exaggerated; the referee got annoyed by him gradually, and the audience all hissed at him as well.

"Six, you come and defend him!" finding this strange, Chen Dali shouted at one of his teammates.

When Hao Ren got the ball again, it was this Six, who was about eight centimeters shorter than Chen Dali, who started to defend him.

The two teams were hostile to each other at this point, especially when Jinghua University was many points behind. All their players were a bit furious, and Six's defense was a bit overdone as well.

He smashed his arm heavily into Hao Ren's shoulder while Hao Ren was dribbling with his knees bent, and Hao Ren immediately got knocked a few steps back.

Hiss... The referee whistled and signaled the collision foul.

The audience burst into an uproar.

The captain of Jinghua University team, Chen Dali, was just about to argue with the referee. Then, he suddenly realized, "Wait a minute...I got knocked back when I collided with this 'shorty', yet Six who is shorter than me could knock him over... Doesn't this show that my contacts with him are all fake?"

He swallowed his words while the audience realized the irony and hissed at Chen Dali again.

The fact was, he was over two meters while Hao Ren was only a bit over 1.7 meters. Physically, his arms were even thicker than Hao Ren's legs. No one would believe that Hao Ren could knock him over instead of the other way around.

Everyone thought Chen Dali was overly dramatic with his acting, including the referee.

Pa! Hao Ren scored a penalty shot, and the entire gym cheered again.

Xie Wanjun secretly raised his thumb at Hao Ren.

"That player in the No.1 Jersey from Jinghua University is too sneaky. He couldn't win in skills, so he is going for collisions and putting dirt on Hao Ren. With a fake move like that where he backed up six to seven steps out of the court? Who would even believe that's real?" Zhou Liren said angrily on the south stands.

"Yes... Too fake... Just too fake..." the guys beside him agreed.

The coach of Jinghua University, who was sitting in the corner, looked really bad. He thought the special training on the island did a lot to improve the team members in both strength and skills. The goal of this 'friendly match' with East Ocean University was to take the edge off of East Ocean University's spirit and get off on a flying start for the National College Basketball League this year.

However, instead of a flying start, Jinghua University was being defeated right from the start. Despite the poor points they have gotten, their players were getting injured, and they were the ones asking for it. Vice President of the University, Lu Qing, who was on the opposite side of the stadium, was smiling.

"Xie Wanjun, as the Coach as well as the Captain of the team, is indeed the best in the country! Also, Chen Dali is such a shameful bastard since he went for fake injuries and fakes fowls in this disadvantageous situation," he thought.

Dragon King's Son-In-Law Chapter 135

: The Basketball Babies

Beep... Halftime.

Hao Ren was covered in sweat, and he followed Xie Wanjun to the side of the court to rest.

Zhao Jiayi also walked proudly to the resting area to wipe his sweat off under the public's gaze.

Dang, dang, dang.

Music started playing.

When all the basketball players and the audience were just about to take a break and grab a sip of water, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili jumped onto the court in their tight thin mid-sleeved shirts and red short skirts.

They were holding four pom-poms.

Everyone looked straight at them, especially the guys in the audience.

Six pretty girls followed Lu Linlin and Lu Lili onto the court before they started their hot dance.

“Pu...”

Hao Ren couldn't help but spit a mouthful of water out.

No wonder he hadn't seen the sisters lately; it turned out that they have been practicing the dance.

Hao Ren had no idea that they became members of the cheerleading team...

He looked behind the sisters at the other six pretty girls but didn't find Lin Li. Hao Ren then realized that the former Cheerleader Captain had been completely ruled out of the team.

This was Lu Linlin and Lu Lili's first show. They brought up the excitement with their nice figures and hot dance. The guys were crazily whistling at them to attract their attention. Even a glimpse was to die for.

"So pretty..."

"Very pretty..."

"I haven't seen them before... What are their names?"

"I'm going to ask around after the game... I can't believe that I have no idea our school has such beautiful twin sisters..."

"Wasn't Lin Li the Cheerleader Captain before?"

"Damn, take a good look! How can Lin Li compare with them?"

"Ah... I'm so jealous of the Basketball Team... Obviously, you will get to see a lot of pretty girls as long as you can play basketball..."

The discussion could be heard here and there along with the whistling.

Lu Lili was dancing and bouncing rapidly as she waved the pom-poms up and down. She said to Lu Linlin, "Sister, this is so embarrassing..."

"What's embarrassing about it? Just think of it as if you are dancing for Gongzi," Lu Linlin answered as she danced.

“Um...Alright...” Lu Lily looked towards Hao Ren as she waved her slim legs and arms.

Hao Ren was holding a bottle of water when he realized that the sisters were both staring at him. He couldn't help but feel a chill run down his spine.

After the seven-minute dance was over, all the guys were having trouble taking their eyes away from Lu Linlin and Lu Lili.

Even Yue Yang couldn't help but praise to Hao Zhonghua, “There are so many pretty girls at East Ocean University. Those two little girls are especially beautiful.”

Hao Zhonghua glimpsed at her and said, “Don't be jealous. I never fell for anyone while I studied here although pretty girls were pursuing me as well.”

Yue Yang smiled in admiration at his fast reaction.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili walked to the side of the court and put down their pom poms. They went over to talk to the players of East Ocean University with the other cheerleaders.

Seeing two super pretty girls coming their way with six other beauties, the big guys on the basketball team all panicked.

“Gongzi, are you thirsty?”

“Gongzi, are you tired?”

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili walked to Hao Ren's side; one held up a bottle for him while the other wiped off his sweat with a towel.

This made Hao Ren even more nervous because all the guys in the audience were looking at them at this moment.

Zhou Liren, who was whistling at the two girls crazily, almost bit his own tongue when he witnessed this scene.

Zhao Yanzi from the stands also saw this scene; her eyes were wide open, and her mouth was tightly closed. Electric currents were shooting out of her robot-like eyes.

Xie Yujia looked down quietly, though grandma couldn't help but turn around to ask Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang, "Ren is this popular at school?"

"Mom, it's nothing. There are always girls around when kids play basketball," Yue Yang explained.

She was actually saying this to comfort Xie Yujia. She felt sorry for Little Carrot who was 'abandoned' by Hao Ren for those two girls. Yue Yang had decided to give him a thorough interrogation after the game.

Yue Yang had already considered Xie Yujia as Hao Ren's girlfriend. She only agreed to that arranged marriage with Zhao Yanzi because she wanted to get along with the family.

The game started again after halftime. Lu Linlin and Lu Lili went up to the stands to sit beside Lu Qing. Everyone still had their eyes on their slim legs; either in admiration or jealousy.

"Ah... Those two beautiful girls are Vice-Principal Lu Qing's granddaughters?"

Who would dare to have a thought for the Vice-Principal's granddaughters! The guys who were determined to pursue the girls immediately gave up this idea.

Yue Yang, who was also paying attention to the sisters, saw them sitting beside Lu Qing and knew that there must have been a special relationship between them. After some consideration, she realized that they were the Lu Qing's granddaughters. She originally planned to keep a low profile and go back after the game; however, she decided to talk with Lu Qing afterward. Yue Yang could tell that Little Carrot liked Hao Ren, and she didn't want her to be wronged.

On the other side of the stands, Zhao Hongyu decided to have a talk with Lu Qing after the game as well as she looked at the pretty sisters chatting happily. Although the sisters were paying a debt of gratitude, it made Zi look really bad as they acted so close to Hao Ren in public. It was too much even though they were trying to get on East Ocean's good side.

Just when they were both thinking about this, Chen Dali got knocked over again by Hao Ren while he was trying to defend him.

This time, even the players on his team showed disdain at Chen Dali's act. "What a Captain! He keeps making these fake moves to the extent that it has got boring. Does he want everyone to think that the reason he is losing this game is that he is not as strong as the short Power Forward?"

However, when the other players on Jinghua University's Basketball Team ran into Hao Ren while he was defending or dribbling, they would always knock Hao Ren back a few steps. This had made Chen Dali very embarrassed, yet he couldn't explain it. Therefore, he had to give up on defending Hao Ren.

The Captain's panicked movements had brought down Jinghua University's spirit to another degree.

Hao Ren got all the rebounds in the game while Zhao Jiayi kept on getting the ball as the Point Guard. Zhao Jiayi had slowly become the most active player on the court.

He could always appear at the most needed places and score through the gaps. This had made him the second scorer after the Small Forward.

The difference in score got bigger and bigger. This game was easier for East Ocean University yet more difficult for Jinghua University.

Zhao Jiayi had completely stolen the show with Hao Ren's assistant and his excellent skills. Some of the girls were starting to look at him with admiration.

Since the winning token was already safely in their pockets, Zhao Jiayi stopped playing conservatively.

At this moment, the competition was more like an exhibition match due to the significant difference in scores.

Pa! Zhao Jiayi threw the ball to Hao Ren who was standing outside the restricted area.

Hao Ren was used to dashing inside for the rebounds, so he was a little confused when taking charge of the ball.

From over the shoulders of two Jinghua University players who were running madly towards him, Hao Ren saw that Zhao Yanzi was looking at him full of expectation.

Jump shot!

Hao Ren threw the ball out without further hesitation.

He hopped up as the ball drew a long curvature in the air. The air filled up his baggy jersey as he slowly landed on the ground; his firm legs were exposed as the shorts got blown up a little by the air as well.

Boom! It was an accurate and straight score!

Three-pointer!

Woah! The stadium was filled with cheering once again.

Not only Zhao Yanzi on the east stands but also Xie Yujia on the west stands were astonished.

Hao Ren's jump shot posture was awesomely handsome!

Pa! Pa! Pa!

To pay Hao Ren back, Zhao Jiayi, who was already the center of the game, kept feeding Hao Ren the basketball in different ways, and Hao Ren kept scoring after seeing Grandma's smiley face, Xie Yujia's nervously clenched fists, Zhao Yanzi's brightened eyes, and Lu Qing's kind smile.

Bang... bang... bang... bang...

The ball kept sliding into the basket from Hao Ren's hands.

He made four three-pointers in a roll and got the team 12 points!

Compared to how arrogant Chen Dali was at the beginning of the game, he now looked as if he was about to have a breakdown.

"How many freaks are there hiding in East Ocean University's Basketball Team?!" he thought.

Ring...

The game came to an end, and East Ocean University took a lead of 25 points at 86:61!

The entire Jinghua University team was crushed in spirit as they returned to the courtside with their heads down.

Their coach glimpsed at the score, broken-hearted.

This would be the kind of scores between a first-class team and a second-class team...

He looked back at his team and saw how they had gone from extremely confident before the game to completely devastated now. The coach knew that this game had completely erased the outcome of that specialized training. At the same time, it would probably take over half a year for the elite team of Jinghua University to recover from this game.

“Chen Dali, Jinghua and East Ocean University, who won?” Xie Wanjun suddenly shouted at Chen Dali with a smile on his face.

Xie Wanjun was no ordinary person. As the Captain of East Ocean University’s Basketball Team, he did not forget about Chen Dali’s sneers from before the game!

“This time... You won.” Chen Dali gritted his teeth.

Xie Wanjun laughed out loud.

Xie Wanjun noticed that they were packing up their belongings depressingly and had quietly gone back to the fitting room. He knew that in the next few years, Jinghua University would never be able to defeat East Ocean University again!

This game was like a dagger, stabbing into their hearts.

Dragon King’s Son-In-Law Chapter 136

: Let’s Have a Talk

East Ocean University and Jinghua University had been competitors on the basketball court for years. Now that Jinghua University was here to pick a fight, East Ocean University was able to win with a large lead, out of everyone’s expectation. The Basketball Team just lost a few of the main forces, yet they were able to guard their host game. The entire stadium became the heaven of celebrations.

Xie Wanjun sighed deeply as all his pressure immediately disappeared. It was his decision to kick Bai Zhixiong and the guys out of this game, so there was a lot of pressure on him to win this game against Jinghua University.

And now, Zhao Jiayi’s rapid improvement made him stand out, and Hao Ren’s hidden potential made him unbeatable at rebounds and three-pointers. All these showed that his original decision was right!

“Great work guys! Dinner is on me!” Xie Wanjun waved at the cold bench as well. “You guys are coming too! Zhixiong! Come apologize to Zhao Jiayi!”

Hearing this, the four of them on the cold bench knew that they still had a chance to play for the team; they all ran over hurriedly.

“You are the big hero today, Ren! Join our team officially!” Xie Wanjun patted his shoulder again.

“Nah, I was only here to help. I have no interest in playing basketball long term,” Hao Ren said upfront as he wiped his forehead with a white towel.

Although Xie Wanjun wanted to persuade him, he gave the thought up after some consideration. “Alright, we all have our passions. But with your talent, I’m sure you can succeed in anything.”

He had been the Captain of the Basketball Team for a few years. Therefore, he had excellent leadership skills and sharp eyes for seeing people’s potentials. From what he could tell, Hao Ren’s outstanding abilities would never keep him inside a little basketball court.

He certainly considered for his sister as well. Although a basketball player might seem cool on the court, their lives were usually filled with training. Basketball players were always seen sweaty, smelly and exhausted. Xie Wanjun didn’t want his sister’s boyfriend to be like that; he wished that Hao Ren could be able to spend more time with her.

Then Xie Wanjun said, “I think you are a good guy. If you do like Yujia, I will do my best to help!”

Zhao Jiayi and the rest of the team were both surprised at how straightforward he was. Zhao Jiayi was surprised because Xie Yujia was the Class President, and the others were astonished because they knew Xie Wanjun was very protective of his charming little sister and never let any of them get in touch with her.

“Hao Ren must have excellent character and ability to make Xie Wanjun fond of him,” they thought.

Hao Ren laughed quietly, and Xie Wanjun waved at the guys again. "Come on, I'm paying!"

Hao Ren walked to the side and picked up his phone. There were several missed calls; they were from his dad, his mom, Zhao Hongyu, Xie Yujia, Zhao Yanzi, Lu Qing.....

At this moment, Lu Qing walked in between aisles with Lu Linlin and Lu Lili. He said, "The team did very well this time!"

The players were all surprised at the Vice Principal's praise. In the past, he didn't even show up when they won the championship in the National College Basketball League.

At the same time, Zhao Yanzi's family, Hao Ren's family, Xie Yujia and Xie Ming came over from both sides.

They gathered in the resting area.

Zhao Yanzi's face twisted a little when she saw Grandma holding Xie Yujia by the arm.

Xie Yujia sensed the hostility in Zhao Yanzi's eyes, but she still thought that Zhao Yanzi was Su Han's cousin, and she was defensive on behalf of Su Han. Therefore, she didn't care much about her and turned to Xie Wanjun. "Great job this time, Brother!"

"It's all thanks to Ren!" Xie Wanjun took advantage of this opportunity to praise Hao Ren.

He noticed Xie Ming and greeted, "Uncle."

"Wanjun, you are getting better and better!" Xie Ming smiled.

Seeing all those pretty girls coming to them, Zhao Jiayi suddenly recognized Zhao Yanzi, who caused the big scene at school last time, and Zhao Hongyu, who came to pick Hao Ren up in her Ferrari. However, he didn't recognize Yue Yang under her peak cap and Hao Zhonghua in his sweatshirt. Zhao Yanzi never paid attention to the news and never thought these world-class scientists would appear here.

Xie Wanjun didn't want to stay there after seeing that all these people were coming for Hao Ren. He said to Xie Ming, "Uncle, I'm going out with the team for dinner. Are you coming to stay at my place tonight?"

"I'm staying with an old friend of mine tonight and will be going over to your place tomorrow. I'm not staying here very long; I probably will head back the day after tomorrow," Xie Ming said.

"Ok," Xie Wanjun nodded and turned to Lu Qing, "Vice Principal, I'm taking them out for dinner then."

"Go ahead," Lu Qing smiled and waved.

Xie Wanjun knew that Hao Ren wouldn't be able to leave, so he didn't insist. He took Zhao Jiayi and the other guys to the locker room.

After that, Hao Ren was only left with the three groups of people.

They surrounded hao Ren, formed in a triangle.

They looked at each other as they wondered what the relationship was between each other. All of them were too cautious to say something first. Even Grandma sensed the strange atmosphere and kept her mouth shut.

"Auntie, who is this?" Zhao Hongyu looked at Xie Yujia and asked after a few seconds.

"Oh, this is little Yujia. She has been a friend of Ren's since they were little," Grandma said.

Then, she continued, "This is Xie Ming, Zhonghua's university classmate, and Yujia's father."

"Hello," Xie Ming smiled lightly at Zhao Hongyu.

“Hello,” Zhao Hongyu smiled back politely.

Then, everyone started to introduce themselves in harmony. Of course, everyone learned that Lu Qing was the Vice Principal.

Grandma wanted Zi to be her granddaughter-in-law. However, she wouldn't introduce her that way in front of everyone. Therefore, Zhao Yanzi's family was introduced to Xie Ming as Hao Ren's family's good friends in East Ocean City.

Xie Yujia felt strange when the Vice Principal stayed with them with his two granddaughters.

“Does he have a relationship with Hao Ren as well?” she thought.

“Xie Ming just came back from the States today, and Zhonghua is going to have dinner with his old friend. Now that you all know each other, would you like to go together?” Grandma asked Zhao Hongyu's family.

“Hehe, that's alright. It's been a long time since you saw each other. You should spend more time together,” Zhao Hongyu said.

She glimpsed at Xie Yujia as she spoke and thought to herself, “This girl is really pretty. Her temperament isn't weak at all even though she has never cultivated.”

She was a world-class architect and was extremely good at appreciating beauty. Even if Lin Li were to stand in front of her with a lot of makeup, she would think that Lin Li was just an ordinary looking girl.

Then, she turned to Lu Qing, “Vice Principle Lu, I would like to talk to you in private. Is that ok?”

Lu Qing said with profound respect, “Sure, sure, Mrs. Zhao. After you.”

A few minutes later, Lu Qing and Zhao Hongyu came back from a few meters away. Then, Yue Yang suddenly said, “Vice Principal Lu, may I borrow a few minutes to talk to you as well?”

Lu Qing looked at Yue Yang.

He sure didn't want to reject her either. "Of course, of course..."

In a few minutes, Lu Qing followed Yue Yang back as he wiped his forehead with a handkerchief.

Hao Ren looked at Xie Yujia, trying to guess what was going on. Hao Ren assumed she had already learned about him being her "Little Older Brother". However, he had no idea what she thought about this. Just like him, Xie Yujia was wondering what Hao Ren's thoughts were on it as well. They were both lost and confused.

Zhao Yanzi rolled her big eyes around, trying to analyze the situation. She knew that something was going on between them, yet she didn't know where exactly the problem was.

She felt a bit jealous, but she didn't want to admit it. Zhao Yanzi still felt like she didn't like this "Uncle". However, it made her uncomfortable to see him talking to other girls.

"I still need to tutor Zi today, so I'll pass on the dinner," Hao Ren said abruptly.

Everyone including Hao Zhonghua and grandma were surprised at Hao Ren's decision.

"You haven't seen Little Carrot for so long, Ren. Don't you want to catch up with her?" Grandma asked.

"She is my Class President, and I have lots of time to catch up with her," Hao Ren answered.

Grandma and Xie Ming were both surprised at Hao Ren's words. However, they could tell from Xie Yujia's facial expression that he was telling the truth."

"In that case, Ren is coming with us. Principle Lu, come along with your granddaughters. It's my treat," Zhao Guang said.

Hao Zhonghua didn't want to fight over Hao Ren with Zhao Guang. He nodded. "Ok, your Uncle Zhao's family came to watch your game today, so you should spend some time with them tonight. You can eat with Uncle Xie tomorrow."

When the two groups of people were about to leave, Zhao Yanzi, who stood beside Zhao Hongyu, finally opened her mouth after being silent. "Big Sister, I would like to talk with you for a bit as well."

It was to Xie Yujia's surprise. However, she still nodded.

The two of them walked a few meters away from the crowd in front of everyone's gaze. Zhao Yanzi was much shorter than Xie Yujia. They talked facing each other with no emotions what so ever.

The two girls came back after a little while. Zhao Yanzi said to Zhao Guang, "Come on, dad. Let's go for dinner."

Xie Ming looked at Xie Yujia with a questioning look. But she only smiled lightly and said to Hao Zhonghua, "Let's go for dinner too, uncle."

"Um, yes," Hao Zhonghua nodded and waved goodbye to Zhao Guang and the others.

The two groups of people left through two aisles. Hao Ren was beside Zhao Yanzi. He wanted to ask what she said to Xie Yujia, but he tried his best to hold it back.

Lu Qing and Zhao Guang both parked on the other side of the stadium. They started their cars and left the campus in tandem. Lu Qing had Lu Linlin and Lu Lili in his car while Hao Ren and Zhao Yanzi were in Zhao Guang's car.

Zhao Yanzi kept her little mouth shut on the way to the restaurant. Her bright eyes reflected the brilliantly illuminated city, and no one could tell what was on her mind.

Zhao Hongyu smiled at Hao Ren in comfort. Then her eyebrows twisted in worry.

The restaurant was in the core of downtown. The seven of them sat around a table perfectly. This time, instead of sitting on both sides of Hao Ren, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili sat on one side of him while Zhao Yanzi sat on his other side.

The topic was mostly about the sisters. They asked about their lives and if they had adapted to the new environment. However, Hao Ren could sense Zhao Guang was paying a lot of attention to the sisters. This dinner was also a welcome dinner for them.

After dinner, Lu Qing took the sisters to Zhao Guang's house – they seemed to have more important issues to discuss.

After arriving, Zhao Guang and Lu Qing went up to the attic on the third floor. They even put on a soundproof array formation.

Hao Ren noticed the seriousness in their looks. He knew that there must have been some tension in their situation lately. However, instead of asking, he went to Zhao Yanzi's room to help her with her homework questions.

As usual, the Lu sisters were happy as long as they could be by Hao Ren's sides. So they went to the room beside Zhao Yanzi's room to rest.

An hour later, Lu Qing and Zhao Guang's secret meeting came to an end. Lu Qing went downstairs with a serious look. He called over the sisters and prepared to head back home.

Hao Ren took advantage of this opportunity to finish up his lesson. He walked out of Zhao Yanzi's room.

"Come back with me, Hao Ren. You can stay at my place, and I can give you a ride to school tomorrow. Let's not bother the Dragon King," Lu Qing said to Hao Ren.

"Ok," Hao Ren nodded in agreement.

"Um, stay with Elder Lu tonight. I need to do some decorating with my place tonight," Zhao Guang said.

Hao Ren nodded. "Take care, Uncle."

Zhao Guang laughed and patted Hao Ren on his shoulder. "We are fine. Just go with Elder Lu." Then he stopped and said to Lu Qing, "Can Zi stay with you tonight as well?"

"Sure. Not a problem. I will take good care of Ms. Zi," Lu Qing said immediately.

Zhao Guang went into Zhao Yanzi's room and talked to her for a bit. Then she walked out of her room, pouting. She had her school bag and a toiletries bag in her hands.

"Let's go," Lu Qing walked downstairs and drove away with the four of them.

There were city lights in the night. They seemed like floating lanterns through the car window.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili sat on each side of Hao Ren as they each looked to their side of the window.

The light reflected on their faces through the window as the car passed by. They looked very beautiful and elegant under the light. The sisters' beauty was beyond words. No wonder the guys would always shout and yell in surprise when they saw them.

Zhao Yanzi, however, was in her blue school uniform still. She sat in the passenger seat with her hands holding onto her school bag, falling asleep.

"Elder Lu, is something going to happen soon?" Hao Ren finally couldn't hold it back anymore.

"No need to worry. It's just that we have heard some big characters from West Ocean are coming here this time. Hence, we need to do some preparations," Lu Qing answered as he gazed into the traffic flow ahead.

Dragon King's Son-In-Law Chapter 137

: Sword Cultivation? Lightning Cultivation?

About half an hour later, the vehicle entered a residential area named Flower City. It was a top-tier residential area with high-rise apartment buildings in the high-tech district of East Ocean City.

When they drove into the underground garage, Lu Qing woke Zhao Yanzi up, who was soundly asleep with her bag in her arms. Then, the five of them took the elevator up to his apartment.

There were two apartments on each floor. Although it was not as quiet as Zhao Yanzi's house, it was still a pretty decent place.

Lu Qing opened the door and guided them inside. Hao Ren noticed the exquisite interior design of the apartment; there was even a water miniascape at the entrance which brought a very elegant sensation.

The living room was clean and tidy. Three large couches and a giant flat-panel TV were placed nicely in the spacious area. There were three independent bedrooms, a small balcony, an open study area, a kitchen, and a large modern bathroom. It was very luxurious for Lu Qing to live here alone.

It must have been very comfy for Lu Linlin and Lu Lili to stay here too.

"This is my room, Linlin and Lili are sharing that room, and you and Ms. Zi can stay in this one," Lu Qing said as he pointed at each room.

Zhao Yanzi was still a little drowsy with the bag in her arms, but she immediately blushed when she heard Lu Qing's words. "I'm not sleeping in the same room as him!"

Lu Qing laughed. "Then, Gongzi Hao will probably have to stay on the couch."

"No problem." Hao Ren nodded.

The couches in Lu Qing's living room were even bigger than the ones at Zhao Yanzi's place, so there was definitely enough space for him to sleep on.

"Ms. Zi, you must be tired. Please take a shower and go to bed," Lu Qing said to Zhao Yanzi.

"Um..." She threw her backpack into the room and took her other bag with toiletries and pajamas into the bathroom.

"Linlin, Lili, and Hao Ren; You guys should rest too after you shower." Lu Qing said before going back to his room to work on some other things.

"Go rest now. You guys don't have to keep me company," Hao Ren said to the twins.

"Ok..." the sisters answered in their clear and melodious voices at the same time before they went back to their room hand in hand. Their heads were close together as they were busy talking to each other.

"They are so close..." Hao Ren sighed as he watched them leave. Then, he sat on the couch with his legs crossed and started to cultivate the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll.

Hao Ren felt more Nature Essence in here than the outside. All the five elements were abundant, especially the water element.

He opened his eyes to check out the decor of the room. The more he looked, the more ingenious it appeared to him. Every single thing in the room was there for a reason. The miniascape at the entrance, in particular, functioned as the core of the water element. From there, the water elements gathered in the living room through the structure of the apartment.

The array formation here was more substantial than the one at Zhao Yanzi's house. The couch and the tea table were all of the enormous sizes; it looked like it was a usual meeting place for the Elders.

Hao Ren wasn't able to figure out the profound theory of the array formation after some thinking, so he closed his eyes again and started to absorb the five elements in the room.

The key to cultivating the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll was to gather all five elements at the same time. Any imbalance would cause failure in leveling up. Because of this, if the elements were to be absorbed at the same time with the same speed, Hao Ren's realm would be very stable.

The five elements could benefit and counter one another at the same time. The advantage of the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll was that other techniques wouldn't be able to counter it in the later stages of cultivation, but it was able to counter other techniques.

However, a technique like this was extremely difficult to cultivate. Some might say that it was an 'idealized technique' which could never be adequately cultivated. The initial stages of it were unbearably slow. Therefore, most cultivators would have given up on it long before the benefits could be realized.

However, in Zhao Guang and the others' opinion, this technique could help Hao Ren build up his foundation. Even if he had to switch to another one in the future, it would still benefit him.

Hao Ren lost track of time, and he suddenly heard the door to the bathroom opening; it could have been half an hour or an hour. Hao Ren opened his eyes at the sound and saw Zhao Yanzi in her pink pajamas. Her hair was dripping with water as she walked across the living room into her room with her bag.

She didn't even look at Hao Ren, who was on the couch, as if he didn't exist.

Hao Ren felt ignored again and smiled bitterly. He stretched his arms and went into the bathroom for a shower as well.

It still smelled nice from Zhao Yanzi's shower gel, and there were her small footprints on the tile floor and one or two strands of hair in the sink.

"She had made up her mind not to let me get near her, and I am only able to get closer when I tutored her. She still treats me as an enemy most of the times..." Hao Ren looked in the mirror and shook his head.

He picked up a brushing cup and noticed there were two toothbrushes in it; a red one and a green one.

“These must be Linlin and Lili’s brushes... How careless is Elder Lu? He has lived alone for so long and isn’t capable of taking care of people. He knows that I came with nothing, yet he didn’t think of getting a toothbrush out for me,” Hao Ren thought.

No wonder when Linlin and Lili first came, Lu Qing didn’t even think of buying them some modern clothes; they were still in their ancient silk outfits when they went to school. It was Zhao Hongyu who purchased the clothes that they had now.

Hao Ren understood that Lu Qing was very busy, so he didn’t want to disturb him with such a little thing. He picked up a toothbrush randomly and decided to use it anyways.

After the nice shower, he got back into his clothes since Lu Qing didn’t get him any clean pajamas to change into. He knocked on the sisters’ door. “Linlin and Lili, I’m done. You guys can shower now!”

“Ok! Gongzi!” they answered at the same time from within the room.

Hao Ren went back to his couch to cultivate in the same position.

It was either out of careless or something, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili forgot to close the door after they went into the bathroom. Thankfully, the door was facing their room, so Hao Ren wouldn’t have been able to see even if he had his eyes open.

“Ah, sister, it seems like someone used your toothbrush! It’s wet!” Lu Lili shouted from the bathroom, and her voice came into Hao Ren’s ears in the living room.

Hao Ren, who was in the middle of his cultivation, immediately blushed.

“It’s ok. It was Gongzi.” They didn’t realize that the door was open at all.

“Haha, sister, you are blushing! What do you call that? Oh, indirect kissing,” Lu Lili continued.

Hao Ren's face flushed even more at the sound of that, and the Nature Essence almost went on a wrong track in his body. He had never thought about that when he randomly grabbed a toothbrush in the first place.

"You don't focus on cultivation, but you pay so much attention to strange things like this. Saying that I'm for falling for a mortal being... I think you are the one who is falling for him," Lu Linlin said.

Their voices sounded exactly the same, so Hao Ren could only tell one from the other from the context. He didn't expect Lu Lili to be so naughty in front of her sister; she was always so shy in front of others.

They chatted and joked about Hao Ren, and he could hear everything through the open door.

They chatted as they brushed their teeth. Then, the two of them went for a shower together. The sound of the water could be heard when it dropped down onto the tiles, and Hao Ren gave up the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll and started to cultivate the Spirit Concentration Scroll which could calm him down. However, he could still imagine the scene of the sisters showering inside.

After about ten minutes, Linlin pulled over the curtain in her green pajamas and shouted out, "Sister! How come you didn't close the door!"

"Ah? I forgot again... Usually, when Elder Lu goes into his room, he never comes back out until the next day." Lu Lili said before suddenly remembering something. "So Gongzi heard everything we said?"

Hao Ren answered in his head, "Yes, I heard it all. I even heard the sound you made when you played around in the shower."

They sneaked outside of the bathroom and saw Hao Ren cultivating with his eyes closed. The girls walked over quietly and said softly, "Gongzi..."

Seeing that Hao Ren didn't react, they raised their volume a bit, "Gongzi..."

Hao Ren opened his eyes and pretended to be confused, "What's up? I was too caught up with cultivation; I didn't hear you."

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were blushing from their necks up, and the redness under their smooth skin suddenly faded a bit in relief when they heard Hao Ren's words.

"Oh, nothing," Lu Linlin covered her face with her hand and put on a straight face. "I just wanted to tell Gongzi that there are actually some profound secrets with the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll you chose."

At the moment, their faces were only about ten centimeters from him, and they both smelled really nice from the shower.

Hao Ren calmed himself down and pushed the girls back up with his finger on their foreheads. "What profound secrets?"

The sisters were both in green pajamas, and hot steam was coming off of them. Their bodies were in great shape, yet Hao Ren's heartbeat didn't speed up. It was all because the Spirit Concentration Scroll had laid a great foundation for him.

"Does Gongzi know what the purest five elements will become when they are mixed?" Lu Linlin asked Hao Ren.

"I don't know." Hao Ren shook his head as he wouldn't pretend to know something that he didn't.

"Lightning," Lu Linlin said.

"Oh? You mean..." Hao Ren suddenly understood a little.

"The so-called Tiangang is actually lightning created by the gathering of the five elements. Gongzi's Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll is rather a Lightning Cultivation Technique than a Sword Cultivation Technique. It is not a technique of the Dragon Tribe. They may have acquired it from somewhere, but they have no idea that this technique needs to be cultivated with the Lightning," Lu Linlin lightly smiled at Hao Ren and said. Dragon King's Son-In-Law Chapter 138

: The Report Card of Five Elements?!

“Lightning Cultivation?” Hao Ren was interested.

“Yes, Lightning Cultivation is a type of cultivation that relies on the five elements but would be above the five elements at the end. It’s mighty but also very difficult to cultivate. Therefore, it was lost within the human cultivation world,” Lu Lili interrupted and said.

“Lightning counters all five elements. Therefore, all cultivators are afraid of the Heavenly Tribulations. The reason is that they only cultivate one or two elements, and other elements are eliminated to secure the pureness of those particular elements. Yet, because of the missing elements, one would become very fragile. In the Heavenly Tribulation, the cultivators would have to fight against the lightning, which represented five elements, using only one element. That’s also why dual-elemental cultivators have an easier time going through the Heavenly Tribulation,” Lu Linlin explained.

“Then what should I do?” Hao Ren asked immediately.

“What Gongzi has to do first is to secure the balance of the five elements in the body. Every single element cannot be more or less. You can build the foundation from there and gradually increase it,” Lu Lili said.

Hao Ren looked to his left and then to his right. Two sisters surrounded him and made him feel slightly dizzy.

“I have a little suggestion for you guys,” Hao Ren said.

“What do you want, Gongzi?” They asked curiously.

“One of you is older, and another is younger, but I can’t recognize who is who. How about this, from now on, older sister Lu Linlin will have two pigtails, and younger sister Lu Lili will have one ponytail. What do you think?” Hao Ren suggested.

It seems like he would be interacting with them a lot more, but being unable to distinguish between them would really be a problem.

“We’ll follow Gongzi’s order!” Lu Linlin and Lu Lili stood up right away and walked towards the washroom.

Hao Ren didn’t know how to react; he said it casually and didn’t expect them to go and make their hair into braids right now.

After a few minutes, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili walk out of the washroom. Their hair was to their waists, but now, one had a ponytail extending to her waist, and the other had two beautiful pigtails in front of her.

Even though their hair was long, it wasn’t dry, nor did it have any split ends. Their hair looked like it came out from the ink, both dark and straight.

Although they were still wearing the same clothes, it was obvious who was the older sister and who was the younger sister.

They circled Hao Ren and giggled, and Hao Ren didn’t expect that just by changing their hairstyles, they would become super adorable!

“Wait for a bit, Gongzi!” They smiled at Hao Ren and went into their room suddenly.

After a few seconds, they walked out wearing two pairs of glasses. “Do we look nice, Gongzi?”

Seeing them in their braids and glasses, Hao Ren held his breath. “They are super duper cute!” he thought.

The sisters looked at each other through the glasses and stuck their tongues out at each other.

“Yes.” Hao Ren could only say that. Beauties were simply different from others; changing their style casually by wearing a pair of glasses made them look entirely different.

“See? Gongzi said we look nice,” Lu Lili, who had two braids, pouted her lips at Lu Linlin and said proudly.

Lu Linlin smiled happily, “I went to an optical shop near the school today with my younger sister after school. We were just looking around because we thought it was interesting. Then, the guy gave these two pairs of glasses to us and didn’t even charge us.”

Hao Ren smiled too. They thought everything was interesting because they just arrived in this environment. However, that guy was shocked by how cute they were when he saw the twins wearing glasses.

“Alright Gongzi, let’s get back on topic.” Lu Linlin, who had a single braid behind her, held up Hao Ren’s arm. “Let younger sister and I help you with the first step of cultivating the Light Splitting Sword Shadow technique!”

“How are you guys going to help me?” Hao Ren asked in a rush as Lu Lili also grabbed his other arm.

“Of course, it is to balance the five elements in your body!” Lu Linlin smiled sweetly. “Gongzi, take off your clothes!”

“Ah?” Hao Ren felt his arms were both controlled by them, but how could a person like him without even reaching Kan-level resist two people of top-grade Kun-level?

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili unbuttoned one button each with one of their hands and stripped off Hao Ren’s top.

“Gongzi just has to practice the most fundamental Spirit Concentration Scroll,” Lu Linlin’s sweet voice sounded again.

At this moment, Lu Lili was blushing without saying anything.

Their delicate hands touched Hao Ren's chest and back.

Hao Ren didn't ask anymore. He knew that they were definitely helping him. Therefore, he closed his eyes, threw away the random thoughts, and cultivated the Spirit Concentration Scroll.

He was still unfamiliar with the content of the Light Splitting Sword Shadow technique. However, he was very familiar with the Spirit Concentration Scroll because he practiced it every day, whenever he can, even while sleep. The five elements quickly revolved and circulated in his body.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lily's expressions became serious as they frowned and didn't dare to ignore any details.

"Metal, 12%... wood, 16%... water, 54%... fire, 11%... earth, 7%..."

He didn't know if it was Lu Linlin or Lu Lily who reported the numbers in order.

"It's done, Gongzi." Their crisp voice sounded again, and they moved their hands away from Hao Ren's body.

Hao Ren opened his eyes and saw a piece of paper beside Lu Lily and some data was recorded on it.

Lu Lily handed the piece of paper to Hao Ren, "This is the ratio of the five elements in Gongzi's body. From this data, Gongzi needs to strengthen the absorption of the four elements, metal, wood, fire, and earth. Earth element has an especially low ratio!"

Hao Ren took over the piece of paper and felt like he was looking at his report card.

"You guys know statistics?" Hao Ren looked at the data and put the piece of paper on the side.

"Yeah, my younger sister and I have been learning mathematics lately and found many things quite useful!" Lu Linlin smiled sweetly again and said.

At the same time, Zhao Yanzi suddenly came out of her room. She saw the Lu sisters sitting intimately beside Hao Ren and growled, "I knew that you wouldn't be sleeping!"

Hao Ren couldn't understand why she was angry suddenly and wanted to explain, but Zhao Yanzi said abruptly again, "Idiot! Jerk! Stinky bastard!"

Hao Ren was scolded by her cluelessly. Lu Linlin was going to say something back, but she was pulled back by Lu Lili.

Lu Qing, who stayed in the master bedroom looking at all kinds of documents, heard the quarrels outside, rubbed his head, and pretended he didn't hear anything. Sigh, he was merely an Elder. How could he deal with these things?

Peng! Zhao Yanzi released her anger and suddenly went back to her room and slammed the door.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili made eye contact with each other, and both felt sympathetic toward Hao Ren. "This little Zhumu is very tough. Gongzi's life wouldn't be an easy one..."

"It's getting late. You guys go back and rest too," Hao Ren said to them.

"Yes, Gongzi." Lu Linlin and Lu Lili both stood up.

They looked very beautiful in their pajamas. Especially when they walked on the floor barefooted. They looked graceful and wonderful.

When they returned to their room, Hao Ren looked at his "report card" again, sighed. He closed his eyes and began cultivating.

Ka. Suddenly, a room's door opened again.

Hao Ren opened his eyes and saw Zhao Yanzi holding a pillow as she stood outside her door.

“Hey, I can’t fall asleep.” Dragon King’s Son-In-Law Chapter 139

: A Talented Artist?!

“Then... I’ll sleep with you?” Hao Ren thought for a bit and asked.

Seeing Hao Ren’s reaction, Zhao Yanzi’s eyes widened. “Who wants you... To sleep with me!”

“Then... What can I do?” Hao Ren looked at her innocently.

Zhao Yanzi held the pillow and walked in front of Hao Ren. She thought for a bit, sat on the sofa, and curled up her legs. “There’s a way I can fall asleep.”

“What is it?” Hao Ren asked her.

“I can fall asleep if you lecture me,” Zhao Yanzi said.

“Uh.....” Hao Ren was stunned. “I didn’t know that my tutoring was that boring,” he thought.

“But I didn’t bring any materials.” Hao Ren looked at her again.

“Just talk about anything.” She put the pillow behind her head, raised up her legs, and hesitated for a bit before laid them on Hao Ren’s thighs.

Her feet were soft, and they were in soft pink. Hao Ren maintained an upright posture and didn’t dare to move randomly. It was apparent that Zhao Yanzi was more superior in their relationship of ‘husband and wife’. If Hao Ren touched her at all, she would definitely scream and be very mean to him.

“Okay, then I’ll talk about anything randomly. The way to calculate definite integral is to utilize the simple formula of calculus...”

Hao Ren simply talked about the content from his morning class of Advanced Mathematics. He combined them randomly and spoke according to his memory and comprehension.

Zhao Yanzi opened her eyes and leaned her head on the pillow as she listened to Hao Ren’s lecture, but she obviously didn’t understand.

“Variable rectilinear motion’s position function and velocity function can be used to derive the basic formula of this calculus.....”

Suddenly, Hao Ren asked her, “Do you understand?”

“My *ss! There’s no way that I understand!” Zhao Yanzi gave him a ferocious glare.

Hao Ren coughed twice and thought that his little fiancée wasn’t reserved at all. He continued to ask her, “What did you say to Xie Yujia at the stadium today?”

“Why are you so nervous?” Zhao Yanzi asked.

“Just...” Hao Ren’s face turned slightly pale, and he explained, “Asking.”

“You like her, right?” Zhao Yanzi sat up suddenly and asked.

“No,” Hao Ren replied.

Zhao Yanzi glanced at him and said, “Lies.”

“What did you say to her?” Hao Ren asked again.

“Not telling you!” Zhao Yanzi raised her head. “You can go ask her yourself!”

Hao Ren gritted his teeth and glared back at her. As of Zhao Yanzi, he couldn't do anything to her.

“Keep talking,” Zhao Yanzi laid down again and used her small heels to kick Hao Ren's thighs.

Hao Ren grabbed her small feet and put them on his thighs. He had a headache when he talked to her about the content of Advanced Mathematics as well, so he switched to history and said, “Speaking of the big traitor in history, Yan Song, he was actually a man of honor as well. Historical records said that he was huge and tall, had great facial features, and was talented. However, he was actually trained to be a traitor by Emperor Jiajing. First.....”

Zhao Yanzi realized that the content of the lecture has changed and was confused, but she didn't care as she squinted her eyes and started to listen.

“Yan Song did so many bad things. However, they wouldn't have happened without the Emperor's implicit permission. The most well-known event was.....” Hao Ren kept on speaking from his memories of the history books he has read.

“This Uncle seems somewhat knowledgeable.....” Zhao Yanzi listened and thought at the same time.

Hao Ren wasn't aware of the time.

When he checked the clock, he realized that it went from ten o'clock to eleven o'clock. Hao Ren was thirsty from talking, so he turned around to look at Zhao Yanzi and found that she had fallen asleep.

He scratched the bottom of her feet lightly, and Zhao Yanzi pulled back her feet slightly but didn't wake up. Seeing her acting soft like a small animal, Hao Ren could only describe her as 'cute' at this moment even though he still remembered how ferocious she was earlier.

He pinched her feet with his hand, and she still didn't wake up. This made Hao Ren certain that she definitely fell asleep.

“This little girl’s feet are so soft.....” Hao Ren sighed as he put his hands on her back and beneath her legs soundlessly, and he held her up slowly from the sofa.

Zhao Yanzi, who was already a middle-schooler, wasn’t light in weight. However, for Hao Ren, who already broke through the Spirit Concentration Scroll, had strengthened his body. Especially since he had to wear the Mount Tai Bracelets that were now about 200 kilograms, even three to four Zhao Yanzi wouldn’t be too heavy for him to hold on.

After passing through the living room and walking towards Zhao Yanzi’s small room, Hao Ren put Zhao Yanzi on the bed slowly as he could feel her breathe out softly.

She pouted her lips, and it seemed like she was still trying to make an angry face. Hao Ren smiled, lightly knocked her on the forehead for her ferocious attitude earlier, and then put a blanket on top of her.

He left the room quietly, and the whole apartment was already silent. Hao Ren looked at the clock, and it was already past midnight. Hao Ren then thought that his dad and mom should probably be home already.

The careless Lu Qing didn’t even prepare a blanket for him.

Hao Ren sighed slightly and could only curl up on the sofa for the night.

The second day arrived, and Hao Ren cultivated in his sleep and didn’t feel tired at all.

The apartment gradually became livelier. Even though Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were pretty, they didn’t know how to make breakfast, and Lu Qing couldn’t cook either. Hao Ren could cook, but it didn’t taste that good, so he didn’t want to embarrass himself, and Zhao Yanzi was definitely out of the question.

The five people went downstairs to a small restaurant to eat, and then Lu Qing drove them to school.

There were dozens of Elders assisting Zhao Guang in the city, and Zhao Yanzi grew up in their care. No one would dare to provoke any of the Elders, so it wouldn't be too much to call Zhao Yanzi a princess of a super big boss.

Lu Qing drove Zhao Yanzi to school first before heading to East Ocean University. This weekend, Zhao Yanzi was going to Beijing with her parents to visit an Elder.

Hao Ren looked at the road outside and felt somewhat strange; he slept over at the Vice Principal's home and took the Vice Principal's car to school.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili wore wavy British-style dresses and pink jackets, and they looked lively and charming.

It was obvious that Zhao Hongyu purchased these outfits for them. Lu Qing was usually busy with managing the school and cultivating after work. In addition, he had always been single, so he couldn't think of buying clothes for the Lu sisters.

They were so perfect that it seemed like they had walked out of an anime, and their hairstyles were now also very special. Hao Ren thought that the guys in their class must be very excited.

Besides, they were wearing the glasses that made them even cuter. By the time they entered the classroom, they would cause a big scene for sure.

The car entered the school and stopped behind the Administrative Building. Hao Ren walked down with the Lu sisters and rushed towards his dorm when no one else was around.

If anyone found out that he came to school in Lu Qing's car with the Lu sisters, he didn't know what kind of 'bloodstorm' it would cause.

Zhao Liren and Cao Ronghua came up to him immediately when he returned to the dorm. "Brother Ren! I admire you! You're my idol!"

"Where's Zhao Jiayi?" Hao Ren asked them.

“He went out to eat with the Basketball Team and drank a lot. He’s still sleeping right now!” Zhou Liren said.

Hao Ren nodded and grabbed his textbooks. “Let’s go to class.”

“Hey, you’re too calm!” Zhao Liren dragged onto Hao Ren and asked, “Be honest with us, who are the two beauties beside the Vice Principal?”

“What’s up? Why are you so excited?” Hao Ren glanced at him.

“All the guys at school were asking about them after the basketball game! Their dance video has become the most viewed video on our school’s blog!” Zhou Liren said and turned on his cell phone. “Look here!”

Hao Ren came close to take a look and saw Lu Linlin and Lu Lili wearing sleeveless shirts and red short skirts as they waved the pom-poms and danced.

“It’s not that revealing,” Hao Ren said.

“It’s not about being revealing or not. They look so gorgeous!” Zhou Liren took his cell phone back excitedly. “They would be the most popular girls in the school!”

“Can there be two most popular girls?” Hao Ren frowned. For a long time, he never thought that Lin Li was good-looking, and her temperament wasn’t as good as Xie Yujia’s either.

“Twins are allowed! Didn’t you know that? Even the people from the nearby universities want to check them out! If there’s a rating of the most popular girls in the universities in the region, these twins would be No.1!” Zhou Liren said proudly.

Hao Ren was speechless towards him. If he could put half of the enthusiasm towards his studies, his grades would probably be the first or second in the faculty.

Seeing Hao Ren grabbing his textbooks and walking out of the room, Zhou Liren followed behind him and yelled, "Brother Ren! Brother Ren! You're so close with the twins. Ask them to come for a meal! I don't have a lot to ask; I just want a picture with them! A picture is enough!"

Cao Ronghua followed behind them as well. He couldn't understand Hao Ren anymore! He used to think that Hao Ren couldn't even find a girlfriend. But unexpectedly, all the girls Hao Ren was interacting with recently were all on the goddess-level.

As they walked out of Green Hill Cafeteria, Hao Ren found that the banner promoting the basketball game was changed.

"Welcome Famous Artist Qin Shaoyang to East Ocean University for a Personal Art Exhibition!"

Hao Ren nibbled on the Youtiao 1 , walked to the Academic Building, and asked Zhou Liren, "Who's Qin Shaoyang?"

Zhou Liren wanted to show-off his knowledge and said immediately, "I've heard about Qin Shaoyang! He's known as Asia's most talented artist. He's actually similar to Liu Qian 2 , who does magic tricks. Because he looks handsome, he has had some exhibitions and has fans of his own."

Seeing Hao Ren becoming somewhat interested, Zhou Liren continued, "He's coming here for an exhibition next week. I heard that the girls from the art faculty are super into him. They've been excited for the past two days when they heard that he is coming. They've been yelling and screaming in the dorm building next to ours all day long. Sigh....."

Hao Ren hadn't been living in the dorm lately. Besides, he wouldn't pay as much attention to the activities going on in the girls' Dorm Building as Zhou Liren.

"Having the girls being so crazy all over him... He sounds like a super handsome guy....." Hao Ren finished nibbling on the Youtiao and wiped his hands. Then, he walked towards the Academic Building.

Dragon King's Son-In-Law Chapter 140

: An Evident Swank

Friday's classes were probably the most relaxing classes of the week. Hao Ren and the guys only needed to take two fundamental courses in the morning and could go back home after lunch.

When Hao Ren, Cao Ronghua, and Zhou Liren arrived in the classroom, it was almost full. However, Yu Rong saved them a few seats at the back.

Hao Ren held his textbooks, sat down, and looked at the front habitually. However, he noticed that Xie Yujia didn't come today; the seat beside Ma Lina was empty.

It was a minute before class starts, but Xie Yujia was absent.

Hao Ren's heart suddenly felt empty. Yet, when he thought about it again, it was normal for her to be spending time with her dad, who hasn't come back to the country in a while.

After the lecture started, Yu Rong came up to him. "Ren! You did great in yesterday's basketball game!"

Hao Ren smiled at him and continued to organize his tutoring material.

Seeing Hao Ren didn't reply, Yu Rong came close to him again and said, "Ren, why don't you introduce us to those twin girls?"

"Get lost!" Hao Ren waved his hand and shooed him away.

"They are first-year students, and they are super beauties as well. Ask them out for a meal!" Yu Rong continued to instigate.

Yu Rong finally used his final move when he saw that Hao Ren was still doing his own things and didn't bother to talk to him. "I have important news. Do you want to know?"

"Speak." Hao Ren finally raised his head.

"It seems like Huang Xujie wants to pursue the twin girls," Yu Rong said.

Hao Ren sneered in disdain and continued to organize the tutoring material. He thought it was an important piece of news, but it turned out to be such a trivial matter.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were both Kun-level Masters, and their existences were something Inspector Su Han dreaded. They could kill Huang Xujie just by pinching a finger, and he didn't need to worry about this at all.

Yu Rong was surprised when he saw Hao Ren ignoring this news.

"Why doesn't Hao Ren care about this news? Isn't he afraid that Huang Xujie will cause trouble? Or, could it be that the relationship between the twins and him is normal?" Yu Rong thought.

"Sigh, you guys know that the girls have been excited lately. The legendarily handsome Qin Shaoyang is hosting a personal exhibition at our school next week!" the guys, who were on the other side of the table, chatted at a low volume since the lecture was too dull.

Yu Rong was bored with Hao Ren's reaction and went up to them immediately. "I know! He's the guy with the golden eyes, right? I've seen him on TV before. He looked alright, just slightly worse compared to me!"

"Golden eyes?" Hao Ren stopped moving the pen in his hand and concentrated.

He then raised his hearing. Now, he could not only hear Yu Rong's conversation but also the girls' discussion in the front of the room.

“I heard that Qin Shaoyang is really good-looking! Don’t know how he looks in person though!”

“I have his poster; it was from a magazine! Many female celebrities seem to like him!”

“His oil paintings received many awards internationally. I heard that his traditional Chinese painting is also very good. This exhibition is his first time showcasing his traditional Chinese paintings! Many well-known figures from the art community are coming too!”

The few girls in the class discussed in whispers, and they seemed to be slightly excited as well.

“Even these girls in this faculty have heard of this Qin Shaoyang. It seems that this Qin Shaoyang is indeed handsome and talented,” Hao Ren thought.

“And his eyes are golden and very charming!” a girl said again.

“Golden? From wearing colored contact lenses?”

“No, the golden color is actually from his golden pupils. Rumors said that he’s mixed and that’s why he’s good-looking. However, he said his parents are both overseas, and they’re both Chinese Citizens. He went to France for two years and just came back to his home country again,” another girl said.

Hao Ren could only obtain this much information after listening to their conversations. Therefore, he began paying attention to the lecture and continued to organize the tutoring material.

These two Mount Tai Bracelets have been getting heavier and heavier now, and it probably meant that his cultivation had been improving. According to what the Lu sisters had said, as long as the five elements in his body reach the equilibrium, he would successfully reach Kan-level.

There were only two weeks left until Zhao Yanzi’s birthday party.

Ding, ding, ding.....

The two lectures in the morning ended.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili, who were wearing glasses, appeared at the entrance of the classroom on time.

“Wow! Glasses! Sooooo cute!” Yu Rong, who already walked out of the classroom, suddenly covered his eyes and jumped back into the classroom as if he saw something very dazzling.

“So cute...,” even the girls who passed by and saw these twin girls couldn’t help but compliment them.

“Gongzi!” They both yelled when they saw Hao Ren walking out.

Hao Ren felt like his scalp became numb, and his spine turned chilly from the guys’ intense jealous gazes.

“What are you guys doing here again?” Hao Ren’s tone sounded helpless.

However, the guys wanted to stomp Hao Ren to death when they heard his tone.

“This guy showed an impatient expression when the extremely cute twin sisters came to see him!”

“To go home with Gongzi!” they answered.

Yu Rong and the others, who stood on the side, almost had their eyes pop out when they heard this answer.

If Su Han was the superior beauty who one couldn’t get to see often, then these two were actual beauties who lived in the real world.

“Let’s go, let’s go,” Hao Ren waved his hand helplessly because this was not a good place to talk.

Seeing Hao Ren leading the two girls to the stairs, all the guys began yelling together in their minds, "It's too despicable and too shameful!"

Walking out of the Academic Building, Hao Ren still felt like many eyes were on him. Yet, it didn't feel like people were surrounding him anymore.

"Why aren't you guys going back home but follow me?" Hao Ren asked them.

"We said last time; it's to visit Taijun!" Lu Linlin said.

Hao Ren sighed again, "This..... This isn't necessary....."

Grandma already had Zhao Yanzi and Little Carrot. She probably couldn't take it if little Linlin and little Lili were added.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili didn't talk but insisted on following Hao Ren. It looked like they would follow as well even if Hao Ren went on a bus.

"Hao Ren!"

Suddenly, a clear voice came from the side.

Hao Ren turned his head and saw Su Han, who was dressed in white, standing underneath the shade of a tree not so far away.

Hao Ren saw that the guys passing by were looking at him with murderous gazes. He endured the discomfort of being in the center of the attention, led the two beauty followers, and walked towards her.

"What's the matter, Su Han?"

“You picked the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll as your main cultivation technique?” Su Han asked directly.

“Yeah.” Hao Ren nodded. “Ah, I have been too busy for the past two days and didn’t have time to come to see you.”

“You’re not busy; you’re just afraid of me, right?” Su Han glanced at him coldly. “Don’t worry; I won’t add any imprisonments on you again. I’m just here to remind you that the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll isn’t easy to cultivate. You should change to another one when it’s still early.”

“I’m not changing. This cultivation technique is slower, but it’s stable,” Hao Ren replied.

Su Han didn’t persuade more since Hao Ren already made up his mind. He changed the subject and said, “There are still two weeks until Zi’s birthday. Starting next week, come to cultivate in my office for two hours every day.”

“Okay!” Hao Ren accepted right away.

“Also, there was a Li-level River Dragon in your basketball game yesterday. But it seemed like he was just there for fun and didn’t try his best,” Su Han said.

“Li-level?” Hao Ren was slightly surprised because that was one level higher than Kan-level.

“When you’re at Kan-level, you’ll be able to see other dragons,” Su Han said.

Hao Ren nodded.

They looked at each other and were silent for a few seconds.

“That’s it,” Su Han said.

A cold wind blew.

Hao Ren thought there was more, but who knew that Su Han was already finished. She really was an icy beauty.

Su Han turned around and walked towards her office.

Hao Ren looked at her graceful figure. He couldn't help but sigh when he thought that he has been 'skipping classes' quite often recently and he had to go to her office for training every day now.

"Linlin, Lili, don't follow me on Zi's birthday. There will be many hidden masters appearing. You guys won't be safe following me around," Hao Ren walked towards the entrance of the school and said.

"Um, we won't participate in Dragon Tribe's gathering. However, we heard from Elder Lu that it'd be safe if Gongzi cultivates to Kan-level," Lu Lili said with a smile.

From her perspective, it seemed like cultivating to Kan-level was a very easy thing to do.

Hao Ren returned to the southern dorm, put his textbooks back in the room, took his small bag, and prepared to bring some snacks back over the weekend.

Beautifully dressed Lu Linlin and Lu Lili waited downstairs. If those guys saw this scene, they would stomp Hao Ren to death due to jealousy.

Making the two beautiful girls waiting for him outside of the Dorm Building as he slowly organized his things in the room. This was such an evident swank!

"Such a glorious Sophomore!" When Hao Ren walked to the bus stop, Huang Xujie's voice suddenly sounded.

Hao Ren turned over and saw Huang Xujie leading a bunch of henchmen and waiting near the bus stop.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili felt the hostility, walked up two steps spontaneously, and blocked Huang Xujie.

“Ay, you have two little bodyguards!” Huang Xujie swung his arm and said with a smile.

He was wearing an athletic vest that showed off his solid muscles. After all, he has practiced rock climbing for a few years.

“Linlin, Lili, come back!” Hao Ren yelled.

He was worried that if they fought without knowing the consequences, Huang Xujie would be knocked into the sky.

“I know that I screwed up the recruitment for your club last time and you didn’t feel good about it. You can come at me if you want,” Hao Ren took two steps forward and said, “We can arm-wrestle since you want to show off your muscles.”

Hao Ren was wearing a shirt that he had been wearing for two days, and he couldn’t compare himself with the handsome Huang Xujie in terms of appearance. Also, His skinner arms underneath his sleeves couldn’t even be comparable to Huang Xujie’s arms.

Huang Xujie indeed endured a week of anger. However, before the basketball game, Hao Ren was still a member of the Basketball Team, and Huang Xujie didn’t dare to provoke Xie Wanjun.

Since Hao Ren decided not to join the basketball team, Huang Xujie had one less thing to worry about and decided to fight against Hao Ren since Hao Ren was on a roll right now. Not only was he close to Su Han but also the twin girls who just enrolled at the school. They followed him everywhere and made everyone envious.

Huang Xujie wasn’t scared to reveal his motive. He was jealous! Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were the Vice Principal’s granddaughters; other people didn’t dare to pursue them, but he was not afraid!

The moment they appeared on the basketball court, he felt like he had to pursue them! Su Han was his long-term goal, and these two beauties who just enrolled in the school were his short-term goals!

No matter what methods he had to use, he had to get to know them and approach them! They were beauties who would make people's hearts skip a beat! If he got to date them, his university life would be complete!

There was a bench in the waiting area at the bus stop.

Huang Xujie pinched his wrist and squatted down.

Hao Ren rolled up his sleeves and squatted down as well.

They locked hands.

Huang Xujie's henchmen counted down, "Three, two, one!"

Pa! Almost immediately, Huang Xujie's hand was pressed underneath Hao Ren's.

Hao Ren wiped his hand, stood up, and waved his hand. "Let's go, Linlin, Lili! The bus is here!"

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili didn't even look at Huang Xujie; they followed Hao Ren tightly and hopped on the bus!