

Dragon King 761

Chapter 761: Crazy Dragon! Evil Dragon!

The lights that were released from the runes floating around the array formation of the Dragon God Shrine got more radiant.

Like a glass sphere, the array formation engulfed the entire Dragon God Shrine including the platform.

Xie Yujia looked at the runes carefully and found that she didn't know many of the runes. Therefore, she memorized them and decided to study them later.

The power of the Spells' Origin Note Scroll that Old Grandma taught her could mimic all the techniques in the world, and the Life-Death Notes' basic function was to create all kinds of runes and dharma notes.

Different runes and dharma notes had different effects, and one could control all kinds of powers with them. After reaching a high level, the cultivator would be free from the constraint of runes and dharma notes and control the natural powers at will.

Qingfeng Hermit used this Spells' Origin Note Scroll to obtain her power, and the fact that she taught this scroll to Xie Yujia showed the ultimate trust.

Outside the array formation, the wind gathered, and the clouds surged up.

Similar to Zhao Kuo's Heavenly Tribulation, the clouds in the high sky condensed into swirling vortexes which collided with each other and formed bigger vortexes.

With the activation of the array formation around the Dragon God Shrine, the surrounding nature essence moved swiftly and formed tribulation clouds at a great speed.

Some peak Qian-level cultivators didn't dare to take the Heavenly Tribulation and thus dodged it with all kinds of methods, but some peak Qian-level cultivators embraced the Heavenly Tribulation and tried their best to fight it.

Su Han had prepared for her Heavenly Tribulation for nearly 20 years since she had decided to charge at the Heavenly Dragon Realm since the first year of her cultivation.

Even without the help of the Dragon God Shrine, she would activate her own nature essence to trigger the Heavenly Tribulation.

The golden runes on the platform lit up the sky, looking like countless golden light beams were swimming on the platform.

Su Han still sat on the ground cross-legged, but the longsword by her side had sensed the changes in the nature essence, and it hummed in vibration and rose from the ground slowly.

The level 4 inspectors who were remaining in the Dragon God Shrine also came from the building, including Qin Shaoyang.

Bang! Bang! Now the runes in the array formation turned purple, and they let out blinding lights in the air while more secret golden runes flashed around the Dragon God Shrine.

The nine Deputy Shrine Masters were astonished by the sight of the purple and golden lights flashing together. They knew the spirit essence was abundant inside the Dragon God Shrine but hadn't expected such a great power outside of the building.

In the very center of this big platform stood the Dragon God Shrine which was surrounded by 96 big and small square-shaped arenas.

However, the arenas and the surrounding walls had collapsed due to Yue Zilong's stomping when he was catching Zhen Congming, but 96 interacting runes appeared slowly from the positions where the arenas were stationed before.

The Dragon God Shrine that was in the center had naturally become the core of the big array formation!

It was the perfect platform for passing Heavenly Tribulations. The nine Deputy Shrine Masters suspected that the Dragon God Shrine had been built especially for today's event!

Lichun, Yushui, Jingzhe, Chunfen, Qingming, Guyu, Lixia... All the 24 big arenas in each direction were named with the 24 Solar Terms. It made sense since they were a part of a big array formation!

The Deputy Shrine Masters of the Dragon God Shrine began to realize that things were going in the direction beyond their imaginations.

Bam!! The first heavenly lightning bolt accumulated in the thunderclouds and struck toward Su Han from the high sky.

It broke through the deep purple array formation of the Dragon God Shrine as if it had shot into a layer of glass, and its speed was greatly reduced.

All kinds of golden runes on the platform lit up, and Su Han's longsword shot toward the heavenly lightning bolt.

Hua... The surrounding cultivators almost couldn't keep their eyes open at the blinding white light.

When the light was gone, Su Han was still sitting on the ground cross-legged, not injured at all.

The nine Deputy Shrine Masters all retreated half a step.

Six of them had reached peak Qian-level, but none of them had experienced a Heavenly Tribulation before, and they were astonished by its power.

Seeing Su Han remained motionless after the lightning bolt scattered, Hao Ren relaxed a bit.

He had witnessed several Heavenly Tribulations, and the most powerful one was Lady Zhen and her husband's, which was why he wasn't that astonished while he watched Su Han withstand this Heavenly Tribulation.

Boom... All kinds of heavenly lightning bolts brewed and combined, forming a more powerful heavenly lightning bolt.

Su Han's longsword hummed and released waves of green lights under her powerful presence.

After repeated refineries, her natal dharma treasure was close to a Supreme Spiritual Treasure!

The nine Deputy Shrine Masters were amazed inside when they saw Su Han's calm expression and the suppression of her natal dharma treasure, knowing that her strength was probably greater than theirs!

Besides the Deputy Shrine Masters of the Dragon God Shrine, the metal-elemental dragon elders had also realized that Su Han's strength had surpassed theirs.

While the power of the heavenly lightning bolts grew, the nature essence in the Dragon God Shrine was also gathering.

The Dragon God Shrine was helping Su Han withstand the Heavenly Tribulation with all the nature essence that it had! It was a great price to pay!

The metal-elemental dragon elders lamented silently while they calculated what things they should give to Su Han to draw her back into the metal-elemental dragon clan.

From their perspective, Su Han would pass this Heavenly Tribulation for sure! After all, not all cultivators had the Dragon God Shrine at their back.

Boom!

The second heavenly lightning bolt shook the Dragon God Shrine slightly while it crashed toward the platform from the high sky.

Su Han remained sitting while the longsword flew up and drew the heavenly lightning bolt to the ground. The lightning traveled along the array formation and gathered around Su Han.

A white barrier appeared around Su Han. It was an ice wall made by her metal-elemental and water-elemental nature essence.

When the heavenly lightning bolt struck onto the platform and then gathered around Su Han, its power had significantly decreased. After shattering her ice wall, it didn't have any extra strength to strike her body.

The third heavenly lightning bolt struck down immediately.

Su Han drew up the longsword which had been inserted in the white platform and flew up lightly.

She leaped up by dozens of meters from the platform and withstood the third heavenly lightning bolt with the longsword and her body!

The power of this heavenly lightning bolt was no less than those at Zhao Kuo's Heavenly Tribulation, but Su Han withstood it with ease!

Su Han slashed out her sword and blocked the fifth, the sixth, and the seventh heavenly lightning bolts consecutively!

The nine Deputy Shrine Masters and the metal-elemental dragon cultivators were dumbfounded, not expecting Su Han to have such great strength. She wasn't risking her life in the Heavenly Tribulation. Instead, she had everything in her control!

She would become a Heavenly Dragon very soon!

This was a Nine Bolts Lightning Tribulation, and Su Han had blocked seven of them without any difficulty!

The six Deputy Shrine Masters calculated silently and knew that they could probably only block six heavenly lightning bolts. It seemed that Su Han would have a good chance of reaching the Heavenly Dragon Realm even without the support of the Dragon God Shrine.

Su Han who had done little in the Dragon God Shrine and lived quietly in the disguise of a university teacher in East Ocean City had reached such a high realm without their notice!

Seeing Su Han blocking the three heavenly lightning bolts consecutively, Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia were also sure that she could pass the Heavenly Tribulation. They wondered what would happen after Su Han become a Heavenly Dragon.

Standing beside Taiyi Cave Master, Xu Ke experienced the suppression of the heavenly lightning bolts with widened eyes of astonishment.

The lights from the heavenly lightning bolts lit up his body, bringing stinging pain to his skin.

"Disciple, answer my question. Who created you?"

In his white robe, Taiyi Cave Master asked Xu Ke abruptly.

"It's you, Master," Xu Ke looked at Taiyi Cave Master in alarm and replied carefully.

"It's good that you understand it." Taiyi Cave Master nodded with satisfaction before asking again, "Shouldn't you make some contribution if your master can reach the Heavenly Dragon Realm?"

"Master, you mean..." Xu Ke looked up at Taiyi Cave Master and retreated half a step.

"You are a thread of my soul with your own consciousness. Why do you want to struggle?" Under the flashing light, Taiyi Cave Master got closer to Xu Ke and said mildly.

His old face looked distorted and vicious under the light.

"Master, you said that we came from the same origin. If I die, you die," Xu Ke said in a panic.

Xu Ke had known from his birth that he was a split soul of his 'master', and he contained all the disobedient thoughts that Taiyi Cave Master couldn't suppress.

In order to reach a higher realm, Taiyi Cave Master had split out the 'dirty' piece of his soul that distracted him from cultivation and injected it into a mortal who he had killed.

However, after the split soul got its own body, it developed its own consciousness. Its strong connection with the main soul in Taiyi Cave Master's body still affected his cultivation, so he sent Xu Ke to the distant East Ocean City and gave him the golden shield for defense.

Xu Ke knew that he was a split soul of Taiyi Cave Master and thus couldn't escape from him. Due to his mortal body, he couldn't achieve a good cultivation result as well. However, knowing that Taiyi Cave Master couldn't kill him, he had lived a free life.

Now that Taiyi Cave Master's expression gave him a bad feeling, he turned to run.

"Humph! You're getting more and more disobedient!" Taiyi Cave Master suddenly reached out his right hand at lightning speed and caught Xu Ke's head.

Xu Ke turned to look at Hao Ren and the two girls and saw that they were all watching Su Han who was blocking the Heavenly Tribulation. Meanwhile, the metal-elemental dragon elders beside him were all turning their attention to Su Han as well, and none of them noticed his movements.

Crack! Xu Ke's body collapsed onto the ground.

The metal-elemental dragon elders were not alarmed when they saw Xu Ke collapsing at their feet, thinking that he couldn't withstand the mind-wrenching suppression of the heavenly lightning bolts due to his low realm.

"Die!"

Taiyi Cave Master suddenly launched a sneak-attack at the six metal-elemental dragon cultivators before suddenly changed into a black dragon and rushing toward Su Han who was blocking the last heavenly lightning bolt!

Chapter 762: The Unpredictable Change!

The six metal-elemental, peak Qian-level dragon cultivators collapsed onto the ground immediately.

No one had expected something like this would happen.

The magnificent ninth heavenly lightning bolt poured down from the high sky. This heavenly lightning bolt was the final one of this Heavenly Tribulation, and its power was equivalent to all the previous eight heavenly lightning bolts combined.

If Su Han could withstand this heavenly lightning bolt, she would achieve the breakthrough and reach the Heavenly Dragon Realm.

At this moment, Taiyi Cave Master suddenly changed into his black dragon form and dashed toward Su Han!

However, he wasn't dashing toward Su Han precisely but to the heavenly lightning bolt above Su Han!

Not only Hao Ren but the nine Deputy Shrine Masters of the Dragon God Shrine froze at this scene as well!

Was the Taiyi Cave Master seeking his death?!

Bam! The heavenly lightning bolt struck Taiyi Cave Master's black dragon body before it reached Su Han.

Taiyi Cave Master instantly released a black light which filled the sky and absorbed almost all the energy of the last heavenly lightning bolt!

The six seriously wounded metal-elemental dragon elders struggled to get up from the ground and realized that they had been tricked when they saw the black dragon in the white blinding lightning.

No one had thought that Taiyi Cave Master, the most senior member of the Elder Council of the metal-elemental dragon clan, had given up the righteous dragon cultivation and turned to evil cultivation!

A metal-elemental dragon cultivator who had reached peak Qian-level would have a golden or white dragon body!

However, Taiyi Cave Master had turned into a weird black color. Not only were his dragon scales black, but his breath was black as well.

It was an evil dragon! The people in the area wondered where Taiyi Cave Master got this evil technique!

Different from the five elemental dragon clans, the evil dragons were not afraid of Heavenly Tribulations. They were born in the boundless void and would turn into devil dragons after the strikes from the Heavenly Dao!

Bang!

The last heavenly lightning bolt that was meant for Su Han had been blocked by Taiyi Cave Master!

Hao Ren had wanted to dash up when he saw Taiyi Cave Master rushing up in his black dragon form. However, he had thought that the heavenly lightning bolt would kill Taiyi Cave Master. Besides, no one dared to make a rash move at the last heavenly lightning bolt.

Hao Ren hadn't expected that the black dragon would swallow all the heavenly lightning bolt and release layers of black mist!

"You.. will die!"

The black dragon roared in Taiyi Cave Master's voice before flying toward Hao Ren with its black devil dragon body.

"Devil dragon! Don't you dare!"

A bright black light shot from the direction of the Dragon God Shrine while Yue Zilong instantly moved to stand before Hao Ren immediately. His fists expanded to the size of millstones, punching out with violent force.

Thud! Yue Zilong whose body had expanded to twice its previous size was sent flying.

The black devil dragon paused slightly and retreated half a meter before reaching out its claws to grab Xie Yujia who was standing by Hao Ren's side.

Surprised that Yue Zilong had blocked the attack for him, Hao Ren used the precious half-second that Yue Zilong gained for him to release Zhao Haoran's strength of peak Qian-level.

The mystic crystal in his chest released five-colored lights while Hao Ren's nature essence turned into sword energies at his control and stabbed at the black devil dragon like a flooding river.

"Explode!"

When the sword energies stabbed into the black dragon's body like many needles, Hao Ren clenched his fists and controlled the nature essence, triggering the sword energies to explode inside Taiyi Cave Master's dragon body.

"Roar!" Taiyi Cave Master lifted his black dragon head and froze for half a second in pain.

Hum!

A flowing black light shot out from the top floor of the Dragon God Shrine.

The evil dragon shook its tail and instantly absorbed all the sword energies that were in its body before flying up hundreds of meters, waving its dragon claws.

Whoosh! The black light shot by the Shrine Master of the Dragon God Shrine cut off half of its dragon tail!

A great amount of black blood gushed out!

Xu Ke's body that was lying on the ground turned into a puddle of black liquid instantly when the black blood splashed on it.

Dragon blood was an excellent tonic, but the blood of devil dragons was deadly upon touch!

Zhao Yanzi was pale with fright while Xie Yujia could barely keep her balance when she saw the devil dragon trying to grab her. If Hao Ren didn't block it for her with all his force, she would be gone already.

As young girls in the city, they had never witnessed such a fierce battle. If not for Hao Ren's brave act, the devil dragon would have gotten them.

Knowing that it couldn't catch Xie Yujia, the devil dragon wagged its remaining dragon tail and released giant waves of black light while it fled of the platform of the Dragon God Shrine.

Yue Zilong covered his chest and looked up at the top floor of the Dragon God Shrine, yelling, "Shrine Master!"

Another black light shot out from the top floor of the Dragon God Shrine, but it couldn't reach the area outside of the platform. Yue Zilong was hoping that the Shrine Master would rush out of the Dragon God Shrine to kill the black dragon. However, a slight sigh came from the top floor, and no more attacks followed.

"Hahaha.. The rumor is true! The Shrine Master of the Dragon God Shrine can't come out!" The devil dragon fled from the platform while he laughed arrogantly.

The six metal-elemental dragon elders got up from the ground and realized that Taiyi Cave Master had tricked them. It was a scheme of his to come to the Dragon God Shrine!

His purpose was to use the energy of the heavenly lightning bolt in Su Han's Heavenly Tribulation to turn himself into an ancient devil dragon!

The six metal-elemental dragon cultivators were tricked into the Dragon God Shrine, and they were attacked from the back by him. He had used them!

According to their investigation, Taiyi Cave Master's disciple Wang Shitong, another peak Qian-level cultivator in the Elder Council, had been killed while he went to catch a small demon king in East Ocean City!

It was probably Taiyi Cave Master who had told Wang Shitong the information about the small demon king!

He had tried to get his disciple to catch this small demon king so that he could improve his evil cultivation strength, so he lied to his disciple and sacrificed a metal-elemental dragon elder!

Who would have thought that Taiyi Cave Master who had the largest number of disciples in the metal-elemental dragon clan would pursue the road of devil dragon instead of charging at the Heavenly Dragon Realm!

"Release again!" Hao Ren shot more than 30 hundun lightning bolts from his hands!

The sword energies that he exploded in the devil dragon's body were absorbed by the latter, which brought great damage to Hao Ren's mind.

However, seeing Taiyi Cave Master trying to flee, Hao Ren wouldn't let him go so easily!

After launching the lightning bolts, Hao Ren flew up to chase after him!

"Sister Su!" Zhao Yanzi yelled suddenly.

Hao Ren looked back and saw Su Han laying motionless on the platform, and his heart turned cold.

Meanwhile, the six metal-elemental dragon elders suddenly changed into their golden dragon forms, and the six metal-elemental dragons with flashing golden scales and blinding white light around them dashed toward the devil dragon which was engulfed in the black mist!

Among the eight elders in the Elders Council of the metal-elemental dragon clan, except for Wang Shitong who was the youngest one without his own force and Taiyi Cave Master who had the greatest strength, the other six were all senior metal-elemental dragon cultivators.

They knew that they must catch Taiyi Cave Master. Otherwise, the metal-elemental dragon clan couldn't get out of the tricky situation!

More importantly, the six elders wouldn't be able to answer the questions from other metal-elemental dragon cultivators!

Although the six metal-elemental dragon elders each had their own technique and power, they had to change into their dragon forms at this moment! Taiyi Cave Master attacked them from the behind and almost broke their bodies.

However, due to Hao Ren and Yue Zilong's efforts, they had had a few seconds to recover their strengths. A metal-elemental dragon caused the situation, so metal-elemental dragons must solve it!

In the sky, six giant golden metal-elemental dragons surrounded the black devil dragon.

A fierce battle!

At this moment, the metal-elemental dragon elders threw out all the distracting thoughts, determined to stop the devil dragon even if they would be covered in wounds!

Boom! Boom... The nine Deputy Shrine Masters of the Dragon God Shrine had all changed into their dragon forms and dashed into the sky as well!

The Dragon God Shrine and metal-elemental dragon clan had never had dealings with each other, let alone co-operations. However, today's event involved the Dragon God Shrine and Inspector Su Han, which was why the nine Deputy Shrine Masters joined the fight!

Yellow, red, black, and green!

Earth, fire, water, and wood! The nine Deputy Shrine Masters had different elemental attributes!

The 15 giant dragons that could destroy mountains and rivers surrounded the devil dragon, plunging their claws toward it!

The level 4 inspectors remaining on the platform saw the 15 giant peak Qian-level dragons surrounding the devil dragon in a tight circle. Knowing that their combat strengths were too weak to join the battle, they had to remain where they were and watched the fight in the high sky anxiously.

The inspectors lower than level 3 had been floating outside of the Dragon God Shrine. Seeing this battle, they immediately flew to the distance to stay away, knowing that any dash of violent energy from the battle would be enough to kill them!

Stepping on a sword energy, Hao Ren flew to Su Han's side and helped her up before Xie Yujia and Zhao Yanzi reached her.

Su Han would have passed the last heavenly lightning bolt successfully if Taiyi Cave Master hadn't blocked it in the last moment.

It was not a good thing for Su Han!

It was similar to a runner suddenly realizing that the last step was removed at the last moment!

Without the heavenly lightning bolt's strike, the energy that was about to be released from Su Han's body had instantly exploded in her body!

"Sister Su!"

Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia raced to Su Han's side.

Due to their extreme anxiety, they had forgotten to use their dharma treasures to fly; they had run over on foot.

At this moment, Su Han's eyes were tightly closed, and her lips looked pale. She even couldn't hold her natal dharma treasure and let it fall on the ground beside her.

Xie Yujia dug out three elixir pills immediately and stuffed them into Su Han's mouth. She had specially made these three level 6 pills for Hao Ren by combining dozens of level 5 pills. Now, she took out these best elixir pills to save Su Han.

Hao Ren patted lightly on Su Han's chest, sending these three pills into her stomach from her throat.

She looked to be on the verge of death. With the energy that was great enough to block the ninth heavenly lightning bolt exploding inside her body, it was more damaging than letting the ninth heavenly lightning bolt strike her body.

Bang! The battle in the high sky had ended in a flash while Hao Ren gave up his chase of Taiyi Cave Master and flew over to check on Su Han.

The six golden dragons were knocked back while the nine Deputy Shrine Masters were all sent flying.

The level 4 inspectors had thought that the devil dragon with only half a tail left was no match for 15 peak Qian-level cultivators, and now they were horrified.

Seeing the black dragon turning its gaze toward him, Qin Shaoyang was scared and tried to flee from the Dragon God Shrine on his natal dharma treasure.

"Wastrel!"

The black dragon shot out a beam of devil essence which pierced the array formation of the Dragon God Shrine.

Qin Shaoyang felt like he was immobilized. Alarmed, he saw Hao Ren at the center of the platform and yelled, "Hao Ren, help me!"

However, the moment that he said those words, his chest was pierced by the devil essence.

With his horrified expression and a wide-open mouth, he dropped to the ground.

The metal-elemental dragon elders who had been knocked back onto the platform of the Dragon God Shrine looked at the black dragon in the high sky with astonishment.

If Qin Shaoyang could reach Qian-level, he would have known that he was the son of Taiyi Cave Master!

Taiyi Cave Master had even killed his own son!

Boom! The black devil dragon flew toward the direction of East ocean at great speed.

Chapter 763: Take Care of Princess Zi...

The black devil dragon turned into a thick beam of black essence and flew more than 1,000 kilometers in the blink of an eye.

With Su Han in his arms, Hao Ren couldn't chase after the devil dragon. He was injecting the abundant five-elemental nature essence continuously from his mystic crystal into Su Han's palm, trying to activate her meridians.

If he stopped, her life would come to an end!

Meanwhile, that beam of black essence flew across the sky above the Kunlun Mountain toward East Ocean.

"Evil!" Voices of several cultivators came from the Kunlun Mountain.

Bright lights shot from the mountain, but none of them could block this high-speed beam of black essence.

Boom!

The beam of black essence flew across the sky and East Ocean City before shooting into the ocean.

The people in the city felt like the sky dim for a few seconds before returning to normal.

Liu Yi was leading a team of soldiers and patrolling the nearby sea area of the East Ocean Dragon Palace.

At Hao Ren's instruction, he had strengthened the guarding force around the East Ocean Dragon Palace. Later, Hao Ren didn't withdraw his order, so Liu Yi continued with the tightened security around the dragon palace.

The news about Hao Ren's success in planting the mystic crystal had reached the generals, and Liu Yi was happy from the bottom of his heart, knowing that Hao Ren's realm increased a lot.

Boom! Suddenly a surge of thick black mist appeared and dashed toward the direction of the East Ocean Dragon Palace.

"Everyone! On guard!" Liu Yi raised his hands and tightened his grip on his Green Dragon Crescent Blade. While flying up swiftly from the bottom of the ocean, he hacked toward the black mist.

Although he didn't know what the thick black mist was, he could sense the aura of a cultivator lurking inside.

The soldiers followed Liu Yi and threw out their long black spears.

The long spears were heavy and hard, and they were made with the iron essence from East Ocean. The soldiers of East Ocean could pierce a city wall as thick as five meters with ease when they threw these spears out.

Bang!

With the brand-new Green Dragon Crescent Blade, Liu Yi flew to the edge of the black mist, but his weapon broke before it even touched the mist.

Liu Yi's body was knocked back like a cannonball while the Green Dragon Crescent Blade was shattered into pieces.

Meanwhile, the long spears threw at the black mist were bounced back one by one, killing or wounding the soldiers.

Protected by the black armor, Liu Yi landed onto a rock on the bottom of the ocean and spat out a mouthful of blood. He immediately dug out the level 4 elixir pill that Hao Ren gave to him and managed to stay alive. He had no choice but to watch the cloud of strange black mist dash into the East Ocean Dragon Palace.

Their team consisting of hundreds of elite soldiers couldn't even block it for half a second!

This cloud of black mist dashed into the East Ocean Dragon Palace directly, and the grand array formation did not affect it!

Wherever it went, the guarding generals and soldiers fell to the ground, either dead or severely wounded!

Sensing this strangeness, the elders flew up from the buildings one by one. Since their families all lived in the outer city of the dragon palace, they would be in danger if the grand array formation broke.

"You overestimate yourselves!"

A deep voice came from the cloud of black mist which suddenly split into dozens of black ball.

These black balls dragged long tails and shot around the East Ocean Dragon Palace, and piercing any elders who tried to block them.

Zhao Guang and Zhao Hongyu ran from their palace. Seeing the danger, Elder Lu and Elder Sun dashed before them immediately.

When two black balls shot at them, Elder Lu and Elder Sun unleashed all their strength but couldn't stop the black essence from entering their bodies. Their bodies turned stiff while blackness began to spread from their hands to their feet.

Like heavenly lightning bolts, the devil essence could break everything comprised of the five elements. The elders of East Ocean cultivated water-elemental techniques, and it was impossible for them to block the devil essence with their power!

"Humph! Zhao Kuo isn't here!"

Hovering above the East Ocean Dragon Palace in the cloud of black mist, Taiyi Cave Master said coldly.

Zhao Guang clenched his fists and felt fortunate. He didn't know what this cloud of black devil essence was, but it seemed like the East Ocean Dragon Palace was in a disaster.

It was fortunate that Hao Ren had talked Zhao Kuo out of seclusion, and the latter had gone to a southern city for relaxation in the company of Elder Xingyue. Otherwise, Zhao Kuo would have come out and fight to the death.

Boom!

The cloud of black mist suddenly withdrew the black balls and flew toward the back mountain of the East Ocean Dragon Palace!

“No!”

A thought suddenly dawned on Zhao Guang, and he shouted out.

The position of the East Ocean Dragon Palace hadn't been chosen randomly. It was built to suppress an ancient 'Eye of Devil Essence'.

The legendary godly item that the East Ocean Dragon Clan had was used to suppress this devil eye.

Due to the abundant nature essence released from this godly item, the strengths of the East Ocean cultivators had remained in the No. 1 Spot.

However, since the devil eye had been quiet and released no devil essence for thousands of years, East Ocean cultivators thought that it had been sealed completely. Later, when the Dragon Tribe had to guard against the human cultivators, the godly item had been loaned to the Dragon God Shrine.

This secret had been passed down to the East Ocean Dragon Kings, and even Zhao Hongyu didn't know about it!

Seeing the cloud of black devil essence flying toward the back mountain, Zhao Guang knew that something terrible would happen.

If the devil eye were opened, it would be a catastrophe for the entire world! The East Ocean Dragon Palace would be destroyed, and even East Ocean would become a black hell!

Seeing that Zhao Kuo was not in the East Ocean Dragon Palace, and sensing no presence of that legendary godly item, Taiyi Cave Master knew that the godly item had indeed been loaned to the Dragon God Shrine.

Therefore, he lost interest in slaughtering the East Ocean cultivators and flew toward the back mountain of the dragon palace in a hurry.

He had everything in his control! Despite a small deviation in his plan due to Hao Ren, he would finally succeed!

He had secretly begun the plan hundreds of years ago, and everything that he had done was for today!

Once he became a true devil dragon, even the Heavenly Dao couldn't handle him!

With immortals, there would be devils. With the Immortal World, there would be the Devil World... Once the balance in nature was broken, he would become the new ruler of the Devil World!

Bang!!!

Taiyi Cave Master changed back into his black dragon form and shot out a beam of black essence toward the back mountain impatiently.

A big hole appeared in the back mountain.

The ocean waves surged up while East Ocean City shook violently. For the mortals living in East Ocean City, it was an earthquake!

Zhao Guang hurried toward the back mountain, and Elder Lu and Elder Sun who had taken elixir pills followed him to the back mountain with several purple-robed elders who weren't severely injured.

These elders didn't know about the devil eye, but they did know that it was the burial ground for all the previous dragon kings and elders! It was a forbidden place!

"No one is allowed in the forbidden place of East Ocean!"

An old but magnificent voice came from the back mountain.

In a dark grey robe, hunchbacked Premier Xia glared at the surging devil essence in the high sky and spread out his arms.

Zhao Guang and others were a bit surprised when they saw Premier Xia.

As an official who served under Zhao Haoran and one of the most senior people in the East Ocean Dragon Palace, Premier Xia was responsible for the internal affair of the dragon palace and guarding the dragon cemetery.

No one had expected that Premier Xia would run to here and guard the dragon cemetery of East Ocean at this dangerous time.

"Hahaha... Old b*stard, get out of here!"

Taiyi Cave Master laughed arrogantly. Then, he changed back to his human form rushed toward the back mountain while striking toward Premier Xia.

"Premier Xia!" Zhao Guang cried out immediately.

It was a catastrophe for the dragon palace, and no one could dodge it. As an old loyal official, Premier Xia's guarding of the cemetery entrance was very touching, but Zhao Guang didn't want to see him die here.

"Old Dragon King! I'm coming!" Premier Xia lifted his hands, and his hunched back suddenly burst open.

Ding! A soft golden sword shot out from his back.

Premier Xia reached out and grabbed the soft sword, and his previous fatigued look suddenly disappeared. Although the skin on his face was still wrinkled, his eyes were sharp with intense light!

Heavenly Dragon Realm!

Zhao Guang and the elders froze in astonishment.

Premier Xia who managed all the operations in the dragon palace had concealed the strength of the Heavenly Dragon Realm!

The soft golden sword was the Vital Yang Sword that was lost from the dragon palace for hundreds of years! This great treasure of the East Ocean Dragon Palace had been hidden in Premier Xia's back!

"Heavenly Dragon! There is a Heavenly Dragon cultivator in the East Ocean Dragon Palace?!" Taiyi Cave Master sounded surprised as well.

Two long spears suddenly appeared in his hands. Condensed from devil essence, these two long spears had been merged into his body.

“It’s a pity that you appeared so late! My devil body has become stable!” Taiyi Cave Master released two waves of thick black light while two black dragon wings reached out and swept toward Premier Xia with surges of black mist.

Premier Xia swung the Vital Yang Sword in a seemingly random way and drew 18 distinct sword energies, and the suppression coming off each sword energies was powerful enough to force the purple-robed elders who were standing some distance from them to retreat three steps.

The sword spirit was so sharp!

Crack... Taiyi Cave Master’s black figure was shattered into several pieces.

However, the thick black essence instantly gathered and re-formed the black figure.

Hua... Premier Xia unleashed the full strength of the Heavenly Dragon Realm and froze everyone, including Zhao Guang.

“How can it be...” Taiyi Cave Master’s shadowy devil body couldn’t move as well.

Turning his wrist, Premier Xia moved quickly and formed 18 phantoms. With speed too fast for Zhao Guang to see, he slashed out 18 times, and more than 300 interlacing sword energies dashed toward the condensed black figure!

Hiss... In the last strike, Premier Xia combined himself with the sword and went through the middle of the shadowy black figure!

Bang!

The golden Vital Yang Sword broke into two pieces.

The shadowy black figure scattered slowly, and Premier Xia’s body rushed forward and rolled to Zhao Guang’s feet.

“Hahaha... Master, you didn’t realize that I’m still a fragment of your soul, right? It was me who immobilized you!” Xu Ke’s weak voice came from the shadowy figure.

The shadowy figure which had almost scattered suddenly condensed into a black ball, and this ball moved to the distance about 10,000 meters away instantly.

With heavy eyelids, Premier Xia watched the black ball flee helplessly. He had wanted to die together with his rival, but he still hadn’t been able to destroy the devil soul. He didn’t anticipate that the devil dragon had a split soul.

Looking up at Zhao Guang, Premier Xia’s face began to dim. “Dragon King... take care of... Princess Zi...”

Chapter 764: Want to Become a Mortal

Zhao Guang helped Premier Xia up with shaking hands.

As an old official from Zhao Haoran's reign, he was loyal to Zhao Haoran and the East Ocean Dragon Palace. He had seen Zi's birth and her growth. Although Zi didn't come back to the East Ocean Dragon Palace very often, he was like an old man who was guarding the old house, hoping that she would come back so that he could take good care of her.

Living with Zhao Guang, Zhao Yanzi couldn't understand Premier Xia's loving care, and even Zhao Guang had sometimes neglected this diligent old official.

Premier Xia could unleash the strength of the Heavenly Dragon Realm, but he was not a Heavenly Dragon cultivator after all.

The moment that he opened the seal, he had known the result. After Zhao Haoran left the East Ocean Dragon Palace, Premier Xia's purpose in life was to block a catastrophe for the East Ocean Dragon Palace.

Although he could unleash the strength of the Heavenly Dragon Realm, he couldn't use it until the moment when the East Ocean Dragon Palace was on the verge of destruction, and the forbidden place was about to be broken.

Even during the fierce battle between the East Ocean Dragon Clan and the West Ocean Dragon Clan where Zhao Haoran had fought in person, Premier Xia had to hide his true strength.

Premier Xia, the loyal official of Zhao Haoran, had abided by the agreement which he and Zhao Haoran made. He had waited for this day ever since he was a handsome and tall man. Now, he had become a weak old man.

Bearing the solitude for hundreds of years, he had waited until today. The only bright light in his grey life was watching the vivacious Zhao Yanzi growing up little by little. She was like a granddaughter to him, and she got taller and prettier each time she came back to the dragon palace.

Premier Xia's happiest moment was the days when he stayed in East Ocean City. It was his first time leaving the East Ocean Dragon Palace to see the land and the prosperous life in the city.

After that, even though Zhao Guang and Hao Ren asked him to go to the city often and get some relaxation, he didn't dare to leave the dragon palace.

He was satisfied after seeing what the current mortal world looked like. He had to stay in the East Ocean Dragon Palace to guard it against the powerful potential enemy who could destroy the dragon palace, just like today.

"Well..." Looking at Premier Xia, Zhao Hongyu sighed heavily in sadness.

She remembered that on her wedding day, Premier Xia who had been busy tending to the internal affair of the dragon palace was both the organizer and a kind senior.

However, Premier Xia's meridians were all broken, and he was dying.

"Premier Xia!"

Hao Ren's crisp voice suddenly came from the high sky.

Zhao Hongyu looked up and saw Hao Ren hurrying over with Xie Yujia and Zhao Yanzi.

“Grandpa Xia...” Seeing Premier Xia’s blackened face and the absence of his hunched back, Zhao Yanzi froze for half a second and then landed immediately by his side.

Hao Ren had steadied Su Han’s injuries with his nature essence in the Dragon God Palace while the three elixir pills began to work. Then, the nine Deputy Shrien Masters had immediately taken her into the shrine to heal.

Although Su Han was still unconscious, she was no longer in the danger of dying. Worried about the situation in the East Ocean Dragon Palace, Hao Ren immediately flew back with Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia.

When they came to the back mountain, it was too late, and the devil essence containing Xu Ke’s fragment soul had fled.

“Princess... Zi...” Seeing Zhao Yanzi, Premier Xia’s dim face brightened a bit with satisfaction.

“Grandpa Xia...” Zhao Yanzi’s tears rolled down her face.

She didn’t have a deep attachment to Premier Xia, but Premier Xia had taken good care of her each time she came back to the dragon palace and had been a very kind senior. Despite her outward willfulness, Zhao Yanzi was soft-hearted and couldn’t hold back her tears when she saw that Premier Xia was dying.

Seeing the dark faces of the elders around Zhao Guang, Xie Yujia knew that they had all been poisoned by the devil essence. Immediately, she handed them some Detox Pills.

Now that she could make level 6 pills, she had stored many level 5 pills in her bracelet.

The elders had been sustaining themselves with nature essence. When they saw the level 5 Detox Pills, they immediately swallowed them. Gradually, the devil essence in their bodies began to recede.

The level 5 pills were precious in this world and could be called celestial pills which even could bring the dead back to life.

Seeing Premier Xia’s weak state, Xie Yujia wanted to help, but she had given her level 6 pills to Su Han, and the level 5 pills probably would have no effect on him.

“Gongzi Hao... Take care of... Princess Zi...” Premier Xia looked at Hao Ren and said slowly.

Hao Ren took his hands and tried to inject nature essence into his body, but he found that the latter’s meridians were all broken.

Premier Xia was a peak Qian-level cultivator, and he had suppressed his strength for hundreds of years with the Vital Yang Sword in his back. Today, he released all his strength abruptly and obtained the power of the Heavenly Dragon Realm for a short time, but he had broken all the meridians in his body by doing so.

“Grandpa Xia, don’t die! Don’t die...” Zhao Yanzi finally realized how much Premier Xia loved her, and she clutched his hand while her tears kept pouring down her face.

“Let me have a try!”

Seeing everyone's sadness, Xie Yujia walked over and placed her hand on Premier Xia's forehead, injecting about a dozen Life-Death Notes into his body.

Life-Death Notes had an impressive name since it could control people's life and death.

Life Notes drew out the life energy from nature while the Death Notes borrowed the killing intent of nature.

The silver Death Notes kicked out the black devil essence from Premier Xia's body while the golden Life Notes sucked in the life energy from nature continuously.

Breathing shallowly, Premier Xia suddenly found that the meridians in his body begin to heal themselves slowly!

While his face turned pink, Xie Yujia's face turned pale.

Xie Yujia had never tried to inject Life-Death Notes into a cultivator's body before.

It was a very powerful technique, and only Qingfeng Hermit could use it at will. It was due to this power that the Soul Formation Realm cultivators didn't dare to mess with her.

"Yujia!"

Seeing her pale face, Hao Ren immediately took her left hand and injected five-elemental nature essence into her body continuous.

Zhao Guang, Zhao Hongyu, and the elders were amazed when they saw Premier Xia recovering little by little.

Bang!

Xie Yujia's right hand was suddenly bounced off from Premier Xia's forehead, and it was the limit that her Life-Death Notes could achieve.

"Gongzi Hao, Ms. Xie, thank you for saving my life..." Premier Xia cupped his hands and was about to kneel.

With one hand supporting the weak Xie Yujia, Hao Ren reached out in a hurry and stopped Premier Xia from kneeling.

Seeing that Xie Yujia was shaking slightly, Zhao Yanzi immediately caught her shoulders to support her.

"Premier Xia, it's great that you are ok..." Zhao Guang heaved a sigh of relief. "You must go into the dragon palace to rest."

"Dragon King, now that I've come back from death, I have a request," Premier Xia struggled to stand up and said.

"Premier, please go ahead." Zhao Guang looked at Premier Xia earnestly.

Premier Xia hesitated for a few seconds and said, "My dragon core had been shattered. Even though I'm still alive, I can only be a mortal and thus can't take the role as premier. I... want to live like a mortal."

Zhao Guang nodded. "Elder Lu and Elder Sun have identities in East Ocean City, and..."

"I... just want to be an ordinary mortal," Premier Xia said immediately.

Zhao Guang looked at him and understood what he meant.

After being busy for about 800 years in the East Ocean Dragon Palace, Premier Xia was tired. Now that Zhao Haoran had passed away, and Premier Xia had finished his mission, he didn't want to manage the dragon clan's business anymore.

"Elder Lu, please take Premier Xia to land," Zhao Guang said with a slight sigh.

"Thank you, Dragon King!" Premier Xia cupped his hands at Zhao Guang and then turned to look at Hao Ren and Xie Yujia. "Thank you, Gongzi Hao and Ms. Xie!"

He finally could go onto land as a real mortal, and he would never return to the East Ocean Dragon Palace. Of course, he would never speak to anyone about the East Ocean Dragon Palace.

With the elixirs in East Ocean, he could go back to his thirties and probably would have his own children and grandchildren. However, his grandchildren would never know that their grandpa had once been the Premier of the East Ocean Dragon Palace and a master who had possessed the strength of the Heavenly Dragon Realm.

Watching Premier Xia walking into the depth of the dragon palace with Elder Lu, Hao Ren felt as if an old man who was tired both physically and mentally was leaving the company in which he had worked for dozens of years.

Suddenly, Hao Ren shivered when he thought of his grandma.

Taiyi Cave Master could get any information. Since the metal-elemental dragon cultivators could find his home, Taiyi Cave Master naturally knew the whereabouts of his family!

Hao Ren had rushed to the bottom of the ocean immediately when he saw the surging ocean waves around the East Ocean Dragon Palace, but he hadn't thought that Taiyi Cave Master might go to his home!

Boom!

Stepping on the sword energy, Hao Ren flew up instantly.

Taiyi Cave Master had attacked suddenly while Su Han was going through the Heavenly Tribulation, disturbed the East Ocean Dragon Palace, and then almost destroyed the East Ocean Dragon Clan.

Hao Ren had busied himself with saving Su Han and then the elders in the East Ocean Dragon Palace, but he had neglected his grandma and his parents who had nothing to do with cultivators!

An ordinary dragon cultivator would never make a move against mortals no matter how fierce the battle was. However, Taiyi Cave Master wasn't under the rules of the Dragon Tribe anymore!

In Hao Ren's mind, his parents and grandma were mortals and outside of this circle, which was why he hadn't thought of them right away!

Hua... Hao Ren rushed out from the ocean and flew toward his home immediately.

In his home, the window on the first floor had been shattered!

Chapter 765: The Savior

“Grandma!” Hao Ren dashed into the house from the high sky.

Seeing Hao Ren flying away suddenly, Xie Yujia and Zhao Yanzi immediately followed him out of the East Ocean. When they saw the broken windows in Hao Ren’s home, they were alarmed.

“Hao Ren, why did you come in from the back door...” Yue Yang who was scrambling to help Grandma looked back and saw Hao Ren rushing in from the broken French window. She asked him in surprise.

Bang! Bang!

While she asked, Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia also dashed into the house.

“What happened to Grandma?” Seeing Grandma lying across the sofa, Hao Ren asked anxiously.

“Don’t ask questions now. We must get your Grandma to the hospital first.” Yue Yang shook her head.

Bang!

Hao Ren slammed his fist onto the glass tea table in front of the sofa and instantly shattered it.

He was angry at himself for not thinking of the possibility that Taiyi Cave Master might attack his family.

Yue Yang was startled when she saw Hao Ren shattering the tea table with one punch.

Seeing blood oozing from his fist, she knew that it was due to his worry for Grandma, but his reaction was a bit extreme to her.

When Xie Yujia and Zhao Yanzi saw Hao Ren’s bloody fist, their hearts ached for him, knowing that he hadn’t put any nature essence into his fist. However, when they saw Grandma who was unconscious, their hearts stopped for half a second.

“Oh... Little White!” Zhao Yanzi turned her head slightly and suddenly spotted Little White lying in a corner beside the curtain, so she ran over to pick her up.

Seeing the blood on Little White’s pure white fur, Hao Ren gasped.

He had arranged Little White to protect his family, and she was injured in the process as well!

Hao Ren clenched his fists while rage burned inside him!

However, he didn’t know that it was Xu Ke who was controlling that devil dragon rather than Taiyi Cave Master.

Screech! Hao Zhonghua drove his car from the garage and stopped at the door.

Hao Ren and Hao Zhonghua looked at each other, and Hao Ren saw the anxiety on his father’s face. He immediately carried Grandma on his back and rushed out, placing her in the car.

“Hurry! Let’s go!”

At Hao Zhonghua’s impatient urging, Hao Ren and Yue Yang got into the car in a hurry.

Since Grandma lay on the back seat, Yue Yang sat beside her to take care of her, and Hao Ren sat in the passenger seat, there was no room for Xie Yujia and Zhao Yanzi in the car.

Therefore, the two girls had to stay at the door anxiously.

Hao Zhonghua saw Zhao Yanzi carrying Little White in her arms, but he had no time to worry about the dog. Stepping on the gas, he drove onto the main road and headed toward the hospital.

Looking back at Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia, Hao Ren knew that they could follow, but he was worried about Little White, wondering if she were still alive.

The anxiety that he had never experienced before spread all over his mind, making him shiver all over.

Grandma had taken care of him all his life; he wondered what he should do if anything happened to her. Little White liked to play silly and cute and could now even change into a loli; what if she died?

Hao Ren was panicking, but he was sure of one thing – he would kill that devil dragon who had hurt his family!

No matter if Grandma and Little White would be saved, he would kill that devil dragon for sure!

“She’ll be fine. She’ll be fine...” Seeing Hao Ren’s shoulders and arms shaking uncontrollably, Yue Yang comforted him while supporting Grandma.

Keeping his eyes on the road ahead, Hao Zhonghua remained silent while driving at the fastest speed possible.

“It was a spherical lightning bolt. East Ocean City had an earthquake, and then a black spherical lightning bolt fell from the sky. Your grandma was standing at the window, telling your dad to call you and ask you if you were ok. Suddenly, the black ball dashed in. Little White probably thought that it was food and leaped up to catch it. However, the lightning ball knocked away Little White and moved toward your dad. Then, your grandma rushed over to block it,” Yue Yang explained.

Hao Ren knew that Little White wasn’t a puppy, and it wouldn’t jump up to catch a frisbee as puppies did. It had known that the black ball was dangerous, and it had blocked it with its body!

Hao Ren lifted his head slightly and saw Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia flying above the car inside an energy sphere. Little White was still in its puppy form lying in Zhao Yanzi’s arms.

For some reason, Hao Ren was a little calmer when he saw the two girls.

When one was in a desperate moment, they would want their loved ones to be close to them.

Hao Ren saw them and felt as if he had all the support that he needed.

Right now, Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia were also panicking. When they followed Hao Zhonghua’s car and saw Hao Ren, they also found some comfort.

Grandma was kind to them, and they were worried that something terrible would happen to her. Besides, they were afraid to see Hao Ren's sadness if he lost Grandma.

They hoped that they could live together happily and didn't want Grandma to leave them like this.

Hiss! Hao Zhonghua turned the car to the Eastern Hospital, the best hospital in East Ocean City. Hao Ren opened the door and carried Grandma in his arms, dashing into the building.

While Hao Zhonghua got the car out of the garage, he had contacted the president of the Eastern Hospital. When they arrived, doctors and nurses immediately came over and moved Grandma into the emergency room.

Hao Ren could inject his five-elemental nature essence into cultivators, but he could do nothing with mortals. When he carried Grandma, he had tried to inject some nature essence into her but found that Grandma had very fragile meridians. If he injected nature essence into her body, it would put her in greater danger.

"If Linlin and Lili are here, they might find a way..." Hao Ren thought.

They had often nursed Grandma in secrecy and knew how to nurture mortals who had weak nature essence, but Hao Ren couldn't do the same.

A little while later, Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia ran to the door of the emergency room. Seeing them arriving so quickly, Yue Yang and Hao Zhonghua were a bit surprised but didn't think much of it, assuming that they had found a taxi and followed them here.

"Do you have any cure?" Seeing Xie Yujia coming over, Hao Ren asked her in a low voice.

Hao Ren had been impressed by Xie Yujia when she healed Premier Xia. It seemed like the power of the Life-Death Notes could bring the dead back to life.

Xie Yujia shook her head helplessly. If she could do it, she would have let Grandma stay in the house and heal her.

Xie Yujia's Life-Death Notes were effective on cultivators, but she didn't dare to use them on mortals. Both Life Notes and Death Notes were too violent for mortals.

Likewise, she didn't dare to feed elixir pills to Grandma. They were great for cultivators, but they were poisons that could detonate the bodies for mortals.

"If Old Grandma could help, she probably can save Grandma," Xie Yujia said after a moment of consideration.

Hao Ren shook his head.

Old grandma was beyond their reach. Besides, Grandma's condition was still uncertain, and she might be in a coma or a more dangerous situation. Since Little White had blocked the attack for Grandma, and there was no external injury on her, she might be just unconscious temporarily.

Several specialists in white coats hurried into the emergency room to join the consultation. Since the patient was Hao Zhonghua's mom, the hospital had arranged the best doctors to tend to her.

"I noticed that the emerald ring on Grandma's finger had cracked, so I guess the ring that Lady Zhen gave her must have blocked the attack. I think Grandma will be ok." Seeing the anxiety on Hao Ren's face, Xie Yujia comforted him in a soft voice.

Hao Ren hadn't noticed this detail. Hearing Xie Yujia's words, his tension eased a bit.

Lady Zhen had indeed given Grandma an emerald ring, and Grandma liked it very much and wore it every day. He knew that Lady Zhen's gifts were no ordinary stuff.

"How about Little White?" Hao Ren turned to ask Zhao Yanzi.

"I think...she is sleeping..." Zhao Yanzi said.

"Ugh..." Hao Ren looked down at Little White in Zhao Yanzi's arms and found that she was snoring with her eyes closed.

"Damn dog!" Hao Ren had been worried about it, but now he realized that it was very tough and got only some minor external injuries.

Under Hao Ren's patting, Little White woke up drowsily and rubbed her ears with her paws, looking like a little girl rubbing her eyes.

It seemed that the black ball's target wasn't Little White but Hao Zhonghua. However, Little White was very brave to block it.

"Zi, I think Grandma will be ok. You should take Little White outside and buy her some clothes," Hao Ren said.

It wasn't proper for Zhao Yanzi to run around in the hospital with a puppy in her arms. Since Little White would want to stay in the hospital, it would be better for her to change into her human form and stay by Zhao Yanzi's side.

After being severely injured by Premier Xia, that devil dragon came to Hao Ren's home. However, it seemed like the emerald ring that Grandma wore had also given that devil dragon a heavy blow. Otherwise, it wouldn't have fled.

"Ok..." Zhao Yanzi was concerned about Grandma. But knowing that she wouldn't be of any help here, she walked toward the stairs with Little White in her arms.

"How is Auntie?"

A female doctor in a white coat appeared at the entrance of the staircase and walked over to ask Yue Yang and Hao Zhonghua.

"She's still in there." Hao Zhonghua shook his head with a sigh. "President Bai, thank you for your help."

"I'll do everything I can." The female doctor smiled. "Don't worry. I'll go in and check on her."

When she pushed open the door and entered the emergency room, she glanced back at Hao Ren.

Hao Zhonghua also turned to look at Hao Ren. Seeing his son's bafflement, he explained, "She is Wu Luoxue's mom, President Bai Ze of the hospital. Well, I hope your grandma will be fine."

Chapter 766: Kunlun Mountain!!!

“Wu Luoxue’s mom...” Hao Ren looked at this doctor and sensed a peaceful presence which was different from cultivators’.

Standing beside Hao Ren, Xie Yujia also thought that this beautiful female doctor had a calm aura around her.

Despite her young age, Bai Ze was now the Vice President of Eastern Hospital. Besides her identity as Premier Wu’s wife, she was famous in the medical circle in East Ocean Region for her excellent skills.

A short time ago, she had been to Russia to study and had just come back. According to the gossips, she had gone to Russia to treat the President of Russia and had cured him after a period. The top-level officials of the Russian government had hoped that she could stay.

President Bai Ze excelled in everything from surgery and pediatrics to obstetrics and even Chinese Medicine.

After returning from abroad, patients from all over the country had come to see her. Bai Ze had been impartial to her patients; even the high-level officials must send their secretaries to stand in line in the early morning to get registered for an appointment with her.

However, when Hao Ren’s grandma was sent to the Eastern Hospital, she had personally arranged specialists to treat her, and she had come over to check on the patient herself. It was a rare exception from her.

Crack! The door to the emergency room was suddenly pushed open.

Bai Ze walked out and said, “She’s safe for the time being, but she must stay in the hospital for more observation. There might be some changes in her condition later.”

“Thank you so much, President Bai!” Hao Zhonghua heaved a sigh of relief.

Bai Ze was a miracle in the medical circle at the Eastern Ocean Region and could cure anyone except for a few patients who had late-stage critical illnesses.

“Academician Hao, don’t mention it. You’ve done many favors for my husband and helped us taken care of Little Xue.” Bai Ze smiled. “I’ve arranged a ward for her and will have people finish the remaining process for you.”

Yue Yang looked at Bai Ze gratefully, not knowing how to express her gratitude.

She had stayed abroad a lot. When she was in East Ocean City, she spent most of her time in the research institute, which explained her unfamiliarity with Bai Ze, the star in the medical circle.

However, Zhao Hongyu was familiar with Bai Ze. When Grandma got ill last time when both Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang were abroad, Zhao Hongyu had contacted Bai Ze and took Grandma here.

“Sister Yue, you are Sister Hongyu’s friend, right? She mentioned you many times.” Bai Ze looked at Yue Yang and said with a smile.

Yue Yang smiled back. Among the few friends who she had in East Ocean City, Zhao Hongyu was the closest to her, and it seemed like Bai Ze would become a friend of hers very quickly.

“It is fortunate that Bai Ze came to help this time, and I must thank her later,” Yue Yang thought to herself.

When Grandma was pushed out from the emergency room, she had come out of the coma.

“Mom!” Hao Zhonghua dashed over anxiously and walked alongside her bed toward the ward.

Despite his busy work, Hao Zhonghua was a good son. When Grandma was in danger, he had pushed all his work aside.

Seeing Hao Zhonghua walking away, Bai Ze said to Yue Yang. “The old lady is now awake, but her condition isn’t stable yet, and she is very weak. Let me be frank with you: I can only keep her condition stable for one to two weeks. But after that, it’s hard to say what will happen.”

Yue Yang had relaxed for a bit, but her expression turned grim again after hearing Bai Ze’s words.

Standing beside Yue Yang, Hao Ren’s heart stopped beating for a second while Xie Yujia furrowed her eyebrows.

“Got it...” Yue Yang nodded with a heavy mind. “President Bai, please use the best medication and equipment you have.”

“I will. She is safe in the next two weeks.” Bai Ze nodded.

Yue Yang thought for a while and strode to the ward quickly. She was concerned for Grandma and knew that these two weeks was a critical period before any changes.

Now, only Hao Ren, Xie Yujia, and Bai Ze were left in the corridor outside of the emergency room.

Hao Ren looked at Bai Ze, and he had a feeling that this doctor’s words had a hidden meaning, and it was intended for him.

“Everyone has their destiny. According to the rules, I shouldn’t have interfered in today’s incident.” Bai Ze looked at Hao Ren and said, “However, your grandma is wearing Lady Zhen’s ring, and I owe Lady Zhen a favor. That was why I extended your grandma’s life for two weeks at the risk of working against the Heavenly Dao.”

Xie Yujia widened her eyes and looked at Bai Ze in astonishment, wondering about her true identity.

Hao Ren wasn’t so surprised since he had sensed that Wu Luoxue’s mom was an extraordinary figure. He just wanted to know what to do next.

“I can predict the future, but I don’t dare to make too many calculations. Your grandma’s life is in danger, and her chance of living all depends on your efforts.” Bai Ze paused before continuing, “However, it seems unworthy to change the Heavenly Dao to save a mortal’s life.”

“I don’t care as long as I can save my grandma,” Hao Ren said.

A mortal’s lifespan was too short, but Hao Ren wouldn’t stand by and watch his grandma die!

“Su Han is still unconscious in the Dragon God Shrine, and your grandma’s condition will deteriorate in two weeks. I guess that Shrine Master of the Dragon God Shrine will send Su Han to me, but I can only sustain her life for the time being and can’t save her. To save them, you must get the celestial liquid of the Ageless Godly Spring in Kunlun Mountain,” Bai Ze said.

Hao Ren looked at Bai Ze in astonishment this time, not expecting her to know about Su Han’s condition even though she wasn’t there.

Sure enough, when Hao Ren came out from the Dragon God Shrine, the Shrine Master had sustained Su Han’s life with a secret technique. Su Han’s nature essence could circulate in her body, but she hadn’t woken up yet.

Bai Ze sounded as if she were sure that the Dragon God Shrine would bring Su Han to her.

In the entire world, she was probably the only one who could keep Su Han alive, and even the Shrine Master of the Dragon God Shrine must ask for her help.

“Kunlun Mountain... I’ll go there now!” After a moment of thought, Hao Ren turned around and was ready to leave.

“Stop! I’m not finished yet,” Bai Ze called out helplessly.

Hao Ren who was feeling a bit hot-headed stopped in his tracks.

“Those Soul Formation Realm cultivators won’t let you into Kunlun Mountain easily. But since you have Zhen Yuan Immortal’s Penglai Immortal Token, they probably will do him a favor. However, the godly spring is a sacred treasure, and it depends on your luck if you can get the celestial liquid.”

“Ok. I got it!” Hao Ren touched his necklace and found the Penglai Immortal Token in there. Then, he walked toward the stairs.

If not for Bai Ze’s reminder, he might have forced his way into the Kunlun Mountain in a moment of desperation.

“I’m not finished...” Bai Ze said again in exasperation while looking at him.

Hao Ren turned again and looked at her.

“If you can’t find the Ageless Godly Spring in Kunlun Mountain, you can’t get into conflict with the Soul Formation Realm cultivators. You must go to Eighth Heaven with her to find her master.” Bai Ze glanced toward Xie Yujia.

“Me? Master?” Xie Yujia pointed at herself in surprise.

“Don’t be surprised. Your master took you as her disciple not only because you took care of her. In fact, your physique is very special and rare, and only you can cultivate her Life-Death Notes.” Bai Ze looked at Hao Ren and Xie Yujia calmly and said, “If you can’t find the Ageless Godly Spring in Kunlun Mountain, you must go and beg for an Immortal Elixir.”

“Immortal Elixir?” Hao Ren and Xie Yujia asked at the same time.

“Speaking of it, Hao Ren, you have some connections with the Queen Mother of the West,” Bai Ze continued.

“Connections?” Hao Ren was even more baffled.

“You don’t know that Lu Linlin and Lu Lili, the two bright girls who stayed with you, are two favorite girls of the Queen Mother of the West. The Queen Mother of the West cherishes them so much that she only grounded them in the East Ocean Dragon Palace when they made mistakes.”

“Huh?” Hao Ren had thought that the Lu sisters were two maids who had made mistakes and got sent to the mortal world from the Heavenly Realm, and he had no idea that they were the favorite girls of the legendary Queen Mother of the West.

Those ancient immortals were the first group of cultivators, and their cultivation strengths could rival against heaven!

“Thousands of years ago, Lady Zhen and I spent some time cultivating in the Kunlun Mountain which was governed by the Queen Mother of the West who had many fairies under her command. Lady Zhen and I had some occasional tutoring from her and were not close to her. If you can ask the favorite girls of the Queen Mother of the West to speak for you and beg for an Immortal Elixir from her, you can divide it into two and give them to your grandma and Su Han. It will be the most convenient solution,” Bai Ze said.

“Ok...” Hao Ren had never imagined that he would still have to ask for a favor from Lu Linlin and Lu Lili. Besides, it wasn’t as easy as it sounded to get to the Heavenly Realm and find the favorite girls of the Queen Mother of the West. After all, they were all legendary figures.

“Is that all?” Hao Ren looked down and thought for a while before raising his head and asking Bai Ze.

“That’s all.” Bai Ze looked at him helplessly.

“I’m surprised that this impulsive Hao Ren is the chosen one of the Heavenly Dao. He doesn’t look to be someone who can guard the Heavenly Dao. Ay! My son-in-law can’t be someone like him.”

“Then, I’m heading to Kunlun Mountain first!” After creating an energy sphere, Hao Ren flew out from the window at the end of the corridor.

After a moment of consideration, Xie Yujia nodded to Bai Ze and thanked her before stepping onto her Ruyi Cloth which looked like a white cloud and following Hao Ren out of the building.

The air currents that they created fluttered Bai Ze’s coat.

Watching them disappearing in the high sky, Bai Ze raised her hands and made some calculations.

“On the day that the Heavenly Dao turns into the next cycle, the heavenly dragons, demon kings, and grand Soul Formation Realm cultivators aren’t daring enough to make a move, and all the clues are gathering around Hao Ren. However, the center of the vortex has been moving continuously... I wonder if Zhen Yuan Zi made a mistake... Anyway, this kid’s peach blossom luck is strong! Humph! If Zhen Congming is a womanizer like him, I’ll get rid of him who chases after Little Xue all day long!”

Chapter 767: Countless Treasures...

Flying at a high speed, Hao Ren arrived at the territory of Kunlun Mountain in a short while. Meanwhile, Xie Yujia chased after him on the Ruyi Cloth, afraid that he would offend the Soul Formation Realm cultivators in Kunlun Mountain.

The Ruyi Cloth that looked like a cloud was a rare dharma treasure. Although it could only carry one person, it was fast and light and didn't consume a lot of nature essence, making it a perfect dharma treasure for a low-level cultivator like Xie Yujia.

It was already dark when Hao Ren came out of the hospital. When he reached the edge of Kunlun Mountain, he saw that the sun was setting behind the black mountains.

"Who is it?"

Dozens of white-clothed female cultivators flew out from Kunlun mountain. When they saw Hao Ren, they shot light beams at him without asking any more questions.

In their minds, this black-haired man who used five-elemental sword energies had broken into Kunlun Mountain several times, and the patrolling cultivators knew him well.

When they saw him again, they attacked him together, not caring to ask why he came.

Seeing their attacks, Hao Ren knew that he had become their enemy in the past half year while he broke into the territory of Kunlun Mountain on his way to the Dragon God Shrine and even accidentally injured some of them when he was in a hurry to get away.

It seemed that all the female cultivators here held a grudge against him.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Powerful treasure wheels condensed by lights hacked toward Hao Ren.

Just as Hao Ren was about to block these five-colored treasure wheels which were similar to array formations, he heard whistling noises in the air.

About a dozen energy arrows swept past Hao Ren and hit the spinning treasure wheels, shattering them instantly.

Stepping on a cloud, Xie Yujia pulled the bow and shot out the arrows while the thumb ring on her finger shone in the dusk.

Seeing the female cultivators trying to organize a counterattack, Xie Yujia shot dozens of energy arrows from the demonic bow, knocking away the swords beneath the female cultivators.

She had excellent aim!

Hao Ren looked back at Xie Yujia in surprise.

The dozen female cultivators froze for a moment and then felt that their feet hurt a little. Seeing their swords getting knocked away, they fell into the valley.

Then, the other female cultivators immediately flew down to catch them.

“You keep fighting with them... The relationship between you guys is already getting intense!” Xie Yujia stomped her feet on the Ruyi Cloth and sped up to Hao Ren’s side.

While pulling him into Kunlun Mountain, she said to Hao Ren with some jealousy.

Despite their hostility toward Hao Ren, the female cultivators were all gorgeous girls.

Xie Yujia was afraid that Hao Ren would get intimate with them due to the constant fights.

“That’s nonsense...” Hao Ren shook his head helplessly. In fact, he was grateful that Xie Yujia fought off the female cultivators for him so that he wouldn’t have to deal with those girls.

“Let’s go in!” Seeing more cultivators flying over to them on swords from a distance, Hao Ren took Xie Yujia’s slim hand and dashed into the internal region of Kunlun Mountain like a flash of light.

The interior of Kunlun Mountain looked like an immortal realm with birds singing and the fragrance of flowers permeating the air. Structures with unique shapes were built along the mountainside and by the rivers, looking like pearls in seclusion. It was a soothing sight.

Hum!

When Hao Ren and Xie Yujia were about to land in the valley, they suddenly stumbled onto an invisible barrier.

“Villain! You’ll die for trespassing on the territory of Kunlun Mountain!”

Countless white-clothed female cultivators chased after them, trying to surround Hao Ren and Xie Yujia angrily.

Hao Ren looked at them in exasperation since he felt like many Duan Yao were shouting at him at the same time.

To Xie Yujia, Hao Ren was the best guy in the world. However, to these female cultivators in Kunlun Mountain, he was the vilest villain.

When these female cultivators dashed toward them with slashing swords, Hao Ren took out the Penglai Immortal Token and placed it on the invisible barrier.

Ding! The barrier suddenly opened, and Hao Ren dashed in with Xie Yujia.

“Villain!”

The female cultivators rushed over, but Hao Ren and Xie Yujia had entered the barrier to their surprise.

It looked like they were separated from Hao Ren and Xie Yujia by a glass wall; they could see each other but couldn’t touch each other.

The female cultivators glared at Hao Ren in a fury but couldn’t pass the barrier. On the other side of the barrier was the core region of Kunlun Mountain and the legendary place where the Queen Mother of the West had cultivated and lived in ancient times. Only the grand Soul Formation Realm cultivators could enter this place.

A beam of devil essence had flown across the high sky at noon today, and all the Soul Formation Realm cultivators in Kunlun Mountain had gone out to investigate it.

When Hao Ren arrived, there was no Soul Formation Realm cultivator in here at the moment.

They wondered what secret method that Hao Ren had used to get through the barrier and enter the core region of Kunlun Mountain.

Hao Ren knew that he could get into the core region of Kunlun Mountain because of the Penglai Immortal Token. After all, Zhen Yuan Zi was the leader of all Earthly Immortals and enjoyed the same status as the Queen Mother of the West.

After changing into a devil dragon, Taiyi Cave Master almost turned the East Ocean Dragon Palace upside-down, but it still wasn't enough to disturb Zhen Yuan Zi who was tending to his flowers and plants in the Demon Sea. This was only a small change in the world, and he knew that the Soul Formation Realm cultivators who were staying on land would track it down.

The Penglai Immortal Token that Hao Ren held was the token that the King Father of the East, who had the same status as the Queen Mother of the West, had left in Penglai Island. When Hao Ren came into Kunlun Mountain with this token, he was like an envoy from the King Father of the East, and the array formation didn't see a reason to stop him.

However, Hao Ren hadn't thought that his mission would be so easy since no Soul Formation Realm cultivator was in Kunlun Mountain right now. After waving his hand at the fuming female cultivators, he flew to the center of Kunlun Mountain with Xie Yujia.

According to the legends, Kunlun Mountain was the sacred cultivation place of the Queen Mother of the West, and it was a mysterious place to ordinary cultivators. All kinds of rare plants grew on the cliffs, in the crevices in the rocks, and by the creeks.

In the center of the valley were several ancient palaces with mysterious presences, and they were made with gold and jade and looked brand-new despite their great age.

In a pond before a huge palace grew countless 10,000-year snow lotuses!

Although there was no spirit beasts and cultivators in the palaces, yards, and even the colorful sky bridges connecting the palaces, Hao Ren could imagine the magnificent sight of Kunlun Mountain when many fairies cultivated under the guidance of the Queen Mother of the West in the ancient times.

"Where is the Ageless Godly Spring?" Xie Yujia followed Hao Ren closely and asked.

Everything was quiet in the core region of Kunlun Mountain.

These quiet palaces seem to be telling them the stories of Kunlun Mountain during the Mythical Age. Even without any fluctuations of array formations, they emitted such power and authority that Xie Yujia moved carefully and didn't dare to speak in a loud voice.

This was the place that the Queen Mother of the West had once lived, and the ordinary cultivators couldn't enter this sacred location.

In this sacred place, there must be some hidden treasures that the Queen Mother of the West had left behind when she flew to the Heavenly Realm. The Soul Formation cultivators had taken turns guarding the Kunlun Mountain to prevent the peace of the mountain from being disturbed by the reckless cultivators who came here trying to find the ancient treasures.

“We must search for it.” Hao Ren grabbed Xie Yujia’s wrist and pulled her to his side.

Since no Soul Formation Realm cultivators were in the Kunlun Mountain right now, and Hao Ren had the Penglai Immortal Token which allowed him to enter the core region, it was a perfect time for them to search for the treasures or dig out spiritual herbs. However, Hao Ren wasn’t in the mood for such stuff. After releasing the golden shield from his necklace, he instructed, “Go and find the godly spring!”

Hum... The golden shield released layers of golden light, sensing the spirit essence fluctuations in Kunlun Mountain.

When Taiyi Cave Master changed into a black devil dragon, the golden shield had sensed that the danger was too great for it. Due to the Supreme Spiritual Treasure’s self-preservation instinct, it had hidden inside Hao Ren’s necklace.

Now that they were in Kunlun Mountain, it detected no danger around them. Relaxed, it released its golden lights and began to search for the treasures.

Hum... Hum... Golden waves spread out from the golden shield into each corner of Kunlun Mountain.

Looking at Hao Ren and then at the golden shield anxiously, Xie Yujia was a little confused since she didn’t know that the golden shield had the power to detect the treasures in the area around it.

Suddenly, the golden shield moved, and Hao Ren followed it immediately while pulling Xie Yujia with him.

A huge black cauldron was sniffed out by the golden shield from the foot of the mountain. The golden shield flew two circles around it and flashed two golden lights as if it were asking Hao Ren a question.

Hao Ren shook his head, and the golden shield immediately shot out a blinding golden light which shrank the huge black cauldron into the size of a thumb before absorbing it into the heart of the shield.

There were indeed a lot of treasures in Kunlun Mountain! Since Hao Ren didn’t want them, the golden shield would take them!

After the Heavenly Tribulation, it was now a Nature Celestial Treasure, and these treasures in Kunlun Mountain that weren’t taken by the Queen Mother of the West had all been Supreme Spiritual Treasure despite their dilapidated looks!

If the golden shield absorbed more treasures, its strength would elevate to a higher realm!

A white jade Ruyi, a pink jade hairpin, a golden treasure gourd, a heavy stone lion... The treasures that had weak spiritual properties or had lost their spiritual properties were dug out by the golden shield one by one.

The golden shield sucked them into its body to absorb happily. If these treasures were found by the cultivators on and above Fifth Heaven, the cultivators would spend a lot of time and energy to repair and study them. However, the golden shield just swallowed them into its body.

Anyway, Hao Ren cultivated the Light Splitting Sword Shadow and didn't rely on dharma treasures too much, and Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia had their own dharma treasures already. Besides, Hao Ren knew that quality always triumphed quantity.

Just as the Lu sisters had said, one must pick the best dharma treasures! That was why Hao Ren didn't care about these random treasures which had been buried in the ground for ages.

As long as the golden shield was obedient to him, the more powerful it got, the more useful it would be to Hao Ren.

A sense of admiration rose in Xie Yujia when she saw Hao Ren's indifference to the treasures found by the golden shield.

Not everyone could appear unmoved in front of treasures.

A junior cultivator would feel incredibly excited and lucky when getting a treasure or a technique. However, when the cultivators reached a certain realm, they would know what they truly needed.

If one wanted to get all the treasures and techniques in the world, they would seem to have more, but they would lose more in the process.

Xie Yujia suddenly found that the appealing thing about Hao Ren was not his identity as her 'Little Older Brother', but his indifference to fame and fortune and persistence.

Despite his indifference to a lot of things, he knew what he wanted.

Xie Yujia liked guys with these qualities.

Chapter 768: The Sealed Godly Spring

Swoosh! Swoosh! Several lights appeared in the high sky above Kunlun Mountain.

Hao Ren knew that the Soul Formation Realm cultivators had returned, and he urged the golden shield, "Go and find the godly spring!"

The golden shield was digging out a treasure from the ground, but Hao Ren shot a sword energy onto its surface.

It was knocked up for half a meter, and then it sensed the aura of Soul Formation Realm cultivators drawing near. It released dense lights to search for the godly spring which was probably be buried deeper in the ground.

Now that it had received enough benefits in Kunlun Mountain, it couldn't leave the mountain so easily if it didn't listen to Hao Ren.

Bang!

A crack suddenly appeared on the cliff wall behind a golden palace.

Hua... A clear mountain spring poured out from the cracked stone wall.

Stepping on the Ruyi Cloth, Xie Yujia flew over immediately and filled a porcelain bottle with the spring water.

When the spring water flowed into the pond in front of the grand palace, the snow lotus flowers all stood straighter.

“Who is it?”

The Soul Formation Realm cultivators had come back, and they all rushed into the core region of the mountain.

When they saw Xie Yujia was collecting the spring water, one of them shot out a dharma treasure and shattered the porcelain bottle in her hand.

Each flower and plant in Kunlun Mountain were left behind by the Queen Mother of the West, and even these Soul Formation Realm cultivators didn't dare to take them out. There was no way that they would allow trespassing cultivators to do so.

After receiving the alert from the female cultivators guarding Kunlun Mountain, the Soul Formation Realm cultivators had rushed back to catch the thieves. When they saw Xie Yujia and Hao Ren opening a mountain spring and collecting the spring water, they became furious.

Bam! About six dharma treasures crashed toward Xie Yujia and Hao Ren.

The Soul Formation Realm cultivators were afraid of breaking the items in here. Otherwise, they would have put more power in their dharma treasures.

Bang!

The golden shield suddenly released a circle of golden light, knocking away the dharma treasures.

It had got many treasures with Hao Ren's permission, which was why it wanted to return the favor.

“Celestial treasure!”

The two Soul Formation Realm cultivators at the front yelled in astonishment when they saw the power of the golden shield.

The barrier separating the core region from the other places suddenly opened, and hundreds of female cultivators rushed in after the Soul Formation Realm cultivators with swords in their hands.

Surrounded by the six Soul Formation Realm cultivators and hundreds of female cultivators who could create array formations, Hao Ren and Xie Yujia could never get out of their siege.

The female cultivators glared at Hao Ren with swords in their hands, wanting to see how Hao Ren would get punished!

However, Hao Ren calmly took out the Penglai Immortal Token and said, "Seniors, due to an emergency, I came here to obtain some of the godly spring water from the Ageless Godly Spring. I'm sorry for the inconvenience that I caused."

He was no match for them, but he didn't have to fight with them since he got the best token.

Sure enough, the Soul Formation Realm cultivators looked at each other when they saw the Penglai Immortal Token in Hao Ren's hand, and they looked astonished when they saw the mark on Xie Yujia's shoulder.

"I'm grateful toward the senior who gave me the spiritual herbs," Xie Yujia took the opportunity to express her gratitude.

"Don't mention it," an old cultivator standing in the front said in a husky voice.

Seeing Hao Ren's Penglai Immortal Token, these Soul Formation Realm cultivators knew that Hao Ren's background was extraordinary. However, different from their peers on Seventh Heaven, these Soul Formation Realm cultivators were independent and free from any sects in the world, which meant that their status was higher.

In other words, the Soul Formation Realm cultivators on Seventh Heaven probably were not qualified to enter Kunlun Mountain.

"Hurry up and greet this master." the husky-voiced old cultivator turned to the female cultivators and said.

Looking at Hao Ren, the female cultivators hesitated for a few seconds and called out in soft voices, "Master... Master..."

In the cultivation world, some cultivators enjoyed frighteningly great seniority despite their seemingly low realms and youthful looks due to the long lifespan.

Hao Ren smiled helplessly when he saw the female cultivators' expressions turning from resentful to respectful.

He turned his gaze to that old cultivator and asked, "So, can I fill another bottle of the spring water?"

Hearing his words, Xie Yujia took out another bottle to fill it with the spring water.

"Gongzi Hao, due to your connection with Kunlun Mountain, we don't mind you taking some spring water. However..." that old cultivator looked at Hao Ren and continued, "The core of this spring had been sealed off for many years, and this spring water is indeed precious, but it isn't the spring water from the Ageless Godly Spring that the Queen Mother of the West used to make the Immortal Elixir."

"Oh?" Hao Ren looked at him in surprise.

Having filled a bottle of this spring water, Xie Yujia stood up and sealed the bottle, looking surprised.

"The Ageless Godly Spring is located in the Kunlun Palace where the Queen Mother of the West lived. However, Kunlun Palace has been locked for countless years, and it's hard to say if the sacred spring still produces water or not," that old cultivator said.

The Kunlun Palace that he mentioned must be the grand palace built with gold and jade in front of the big lotus pond.

When Hao Ren began walking toward the palace, that old cultivator said immediately, “The palace is sealed up, and even we can’t go in there. Gongzi Hao, if you want to damage the sacred palace, we won’t stand by and watch.”

That old cultivator looked serious when he spoke while the other five Soul Formation Realm cultivators released their auras.

The Queen Mother of the West sealed the Kunlun Palace, and it was connected to the lifeline of the world. If anything happened to it, the consequences would be earth-shaking.

No demons or devils dared to come into this place. If any demons or devils with evil essences touched the barrier which Hao Ren had walked through with the Penglai Immortal Token, they would be turned to ashes instantly.

These Soul Formation Realm cultivators’ responsibility was to guard the palace against the human cultivators and dragon cultivators who couldn’t be burned into ashes by the array formation of Kunlun Mountain. With their Soul Formation Realm strength, they were top-level masters and could perform the duty well.

Hao Ren could enter Kunlun Mountain with the Penglai Immortal Token, and they could do nothing about it. However, if he wanted to touch the Kunlun Palace, these Soul Formation Realm cultivators would never allow him to do so.

“Ok...” Looking at their expressions, Hao Ren knew that it was impossible to break into the Kunlun Palace by force. “Then, I’ll go directly to the Queen Mother of the West.”

Hearing Hao Ren’s words, the Soul Formation Realm cultivators’ expressions changed slightly, and the female cultivators looked astonished.

It sounded like Hao Ren could even go to the Heavenly Realm and find the Queen Mother of the West!

According to the news that they got, the Soul Formation Realm cultivators knew that Hao Ren was Zhen Yuan Zi’s brother and the choice of the Heavenly Dao in the recent 500 years. However, it wasn’t enough for him to meet the Queen Mother of the West who was the ruler of the Heavenly Realm!

At the Soul Formation Realm, they knew a little about the secrets in the world. Despite his high seniority, Zhen Yuan Zi wasn’t someone who had top-tier power.

Of course, these Soul Formation Realm cultivators couldn’t afford to mess with Zhen Yuan Zi, but the big decisions in the world were made by the real ruler, the Queen Mother of the West!

If Hao Ren angered the Queen Mother of the West, even his brother Zhen Yuan Zi couldn’t protect him!

“Hehehe... Thank you for understanding, Gongzi Hao.” That old cultivator cupped his hands, ready to see them off.

Hao Ren looked at these Soul Formation Realm cultivators and then turned his head to look at the Kunlun Palace, knowing that even the Heavenly Dragon cultivators or Soul Formation Realm cultivators couldn't open it.

He had no choice but to try his luck in the Heavenly Realm!

Taking Xie Yujia's hand, he flew out of Kunlun Mountain.

The golden shield flew out after Hao Ren at a relaxed pace.

While looking at Hao Ren, that old cultivator shook his head slightly and thought, "The disciples of Qingfeng is quite reckless."

Then, he suddenly thought about something, "Will Qingfeng send Hao Ren above Ninth Heaven? It had been a long time since the last cultivator ascended. This kid would be knocked down even though he is Zhen Yuan Zi's brother."

Passing Heavenly Tribulations and ascending into the Heavenly Realm were two different things nowadays. Even these Soul Formation Realm cultivators didn't have the power to ascend!

Whoosh! Hao Ren flew out of Kunlun Mountain with Xie Yujia and dashed toward East Ocean City.

Since Grandma had woken up, he hurried back to the hospital for fear that she would fall back into unconsciousness.

Feeling Hao Ren's anxiety, Xie Yujia held his hand tightly while they flew.

She understood Hao Ren's feeling. He wouldn't feel so anxious if Grandma passed away peacefully at 80 or 90 years old. However, Grandma had been in good health in her sixties before getting hurt by that devil dragon! Hao Ren felt very guilty for not protecting his grandma.

Many people took everything that others did for them for granted and blamed all the bad things to fate instead of trying their best to change the situations.

Hao Ren wasn't one of them.

While Xie Yujia thought about all that, Hao Ren had taken her back to the hospital. After removing the energy sphere, they dashed toward the stairs.

"Grandma!"

Hao Ren rushed into the ward and yelled anxiously.

In the ward, Zhao Yanzi, Zhao Hongyu, Zhao Guang, Yue Yang, Hao Zhonghua, and the little girl who was changed from Little White were keeping Grandma company.

Having woken up from the coma, Grandma was talking with Zhao Hongyu. When she saw Hao Ren, she lifted her hand with a smile. "Ren, I'm fine."

"Grandma..." Entering the room after Hao Ren, Xie Yujia called out as well in a gentle voice.

"Good girl!" Grandma lifted her dry hand and patted Xie Yujia's head lovingly.

Little White was sitting on a chair beside Grandma and crunching away at a big apple.

Anxious to see Grandma, Zhao Yanzi hadn't taken time to pick clothes for her. Instead, she chose a set of fluffy and loose clothes that looked like a rabbit for Little White.

"I'm fine. You can all go and buy yourself something to eat. I have Ren to keep me company." Grandma glanced around and said.

After asking Grandma to take care, everyone except for Hao Ren filed out of the ward. Seeing Little White still eating the apple on the chair, Zhao Yanzi grabbed the two ears of her rabbit blouse and dragged her out.

Even though Xie Yujia was reluctant, she walked out after Zhao Yanzi.

Looking at Hao Ren who had fatigue written all over his face, Grandma didn't ask where he had gone with Xie Yujia. Instead, she picked up his hand and said gently, "Ren, I have to talk to you..."

Chapter 769: Impossible to Save

"Grandma..."

Hao Ren sat on the edge of the bed and took Grandma's wrist.

Grandma who had been looking healthy under Lu Linlin and Lu Lili's care seemed a lot older today.

At the level which was equivalent to the Nascent Soul Realm, Hao Ren could feel that her meridians were still broken when he took her wrist.

Worse than the broken meridians, he felt threads of devil essence in her meridians. Even the five-elemental nature essence couldn't get rid of this devil essence; only the chaotic lightning energy could probably destroy the devil essence, but mortals wouldn't be able to withstand heavenly lightning bolts.

Hao Ren tried to force out a comforting smile, but his face remained bleak when he felt Grandma's poor health.

"I've been pleased in recent years. The only regret is that I can't see Linlin and Lili anymore; I was at the peak of my health when those two girls stayed with me," Grandma said slowly while looking at Hao Ren.

"Grandma, don't say it." Hearing the hidden meaning in her words, Hao Ren tried to stop her.

"I know my own body." Grandma nodded slightly and looked at Hao Ren steadily before continuing, "I don't have many days to live. I look fine now, but it won't continue for more than a few days."

Hao Ren remained silent.

"I might have looked light-hearted, but I've been observing the girls for you. Zi and Yujia are both good girls, and you must choose one and don't let her down.

"Ok..." Hao Ren lowered his head.

Despite her fondness of each girl, she was observing them for Hao Ren, trying to choose the most fitting granddaughter-in-law.

However, the more she observed, the more indecisive she got. She liked all the girls and was reluctant to give up any of them, so she left the decision to Hao Ren.

Her wish was to see a great-grandson, but it seemed that her wish wouldn't be granted.

"Tell your dad not to spend too much money on me since he must save money for your wedding. I know that staying in the hospital is expensive, and it costs tens of thousands of yuan each day," Grandma continued.

"Grandma, you will get better," Hao Ren held Grandma's wrist tightly.

He was fighting his tears since he didn't want to cry in front of Grandma who used to say that boys must be strong and know what to fight for and what to give up.

"Little Su didn't come. Has something happen to her?" Grandma suddenly asked.

"She..." Hao Ren hesitated for a few seconds and said, "is sick."

"Ay, it seems to me that this girl doesn't know how to take care of herself," Grandma sighed slightly.

"Congming and Luoxue came to visit me today. I think they will become a couple when they grow up," Grandma said.

Hao Ren smiled; it was the only good news so far.

"Zi introduced that little girl, Zhao Baibai, to me; she is Zi's younger cousin. She looks cute and is quite close to me. For some reason, I find her quite familiar." Grandma continued.

Probably to distract Hao Ren from his sadness, Grandma turned to some happy topics, and Hao Ren sat beside her and smiled occasionally.

It had been a long time since she had a good chat with her grandson, and Grandma couldn't stop talking. It dawned on Hao Ren that ever since he began cultivating, he had gotten busy and hadn't spent any quality time with his grandma.

The seniors sometimes might be too chatty, but they just wanted to talk with their young family members. Hao Ren loved his Grandma very much but had spent too little time with her.

They talked until midnight, and Hao Ren went out to get some hot water for Grandma. After walking out of the door, he saw Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia sitting on the long bench in the corridor outside of the ward, still waiting for him.

They were napping shoulder to shoulder, holding each other's hand. When they saw Hao Ren coming out of the ward, they both woke up suddenly and asked, "How is Grandma?"

Hao Ren looked at them and didn't expect them to stay in the chilly corridor until midnight. With a slight sigh, he said, "I thought you had gone back. Why didn't you come in?"

"Grandma was talking to you and didn't ask us to go in," Zhao Yanzi said.

Hao Ren rolled his eyes. "Well, it was just small talk. Go into the room now. It's cold outside."

Holding each other's hand, Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia finally stood up and pushed open the door cautiously before entering the room.

Looking at them, Hao Ren shook his head helplessly, realizing that these two girls were quite lonely. It was good to see them care for each other.

When he came back with a big bottle of hot water, Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia were helping Grandma wash her face and hands by the bed.

Grandma didn't know that these two girls were waiting outside, and her heart ached for them.

"It's too late for you to go back now. You can spend the night here on the spare bed," Grandma said.

"Ok!" Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia nodded.

They had planned to spend the night here with Grandma. Feeling helpless with her current condition, they could do nothing but to stay with Grandma and keep her company.

Bai Ze had chosen this ward for Grandma since it was one of the best wards in Eastern Hospital. Besides the air conditioning, microwave oven, and the TV, the room had sunlight during the day and was very quiet.

Zhao Baibai, which was Little White, had gone back with Zhao Hongyu and Zhao Guang. Yue Yang and Hao Zhonghua had planned to stay with Grandma, but since Grandma had asked Hao Ren to stay with her and considering the fact that Hao Ren had school the second day, they had gone back home and were prepared to take their turn after Hao Ren the next day.

Grandma was surprised that Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia offered to stay with her. They were not her blood-related granddaughters, and their concerns warmed her heart.

In the early morning, Bai Ze came to check on Grandma in her white coat. As the vice president of Eastern Hospital, she didn't need to work during the night, but she had stayed to monitor everything.

Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia were asleep under a white quilt, lying close to each other on the spare bed.

Hao Ren had remained alert beside Grandma's bed, watching for any changes in her condition. When he saw Bai Ze enter, he stood up quietly.

"I've suppressed the devil essence with a special method, and she will be fine for one to two weeks," Bai Ze said lightly.

Hao Ren nodded, knowing Bai Ze meant that she couldn't guarantee Grandma's safety after one to two weeks.

After glancing at Hao Ren, Bai Ze continued, "Su Han is in the hospital as well."

"Oh?" Hao Ren looked at her in surprise.

"She is next door, and it was Yue Zilong who brought her here," Bai Ze said.

After looking back at Grandma who was sleeping soundly, Hao Ren knew that she was fine right now. Then, he turned to the door.

Bai Ze led him into Su Han's ward, and they saw Su Han lying in the white bed quietly in a deep sleep.

"The devil essence in her body is worse than that in your grandma, and I've given her the same treatment. However, for a cultivator, the consequences of broken meridians are more serious than a mortal. More importantly, Su Han was at peak Qian-level and going through the Heavenly Tribulation when her meridians were broken. The devil essence has entered her mystic crystal and dragon core," Bai Ze said.

"How much time does she have?" Hao Ren asked.

"One to two weeks, the same as your grandma." Bai Ze stood by the bed and looked at Su Han quietly. "She will be fine in the first week, and she will need a Heavenly Dragon cultivator or a Soul Formation Realm cultivator to sustain her life. In the third week, no one can save her."

Hao Ren clenched his fists, creating a lot of cracking noises.

Xu Ke, the split soul, had swallowed the main soul of Taiyi Cave Master when the latter was severely injured by Premier Xia. Right now, he was probably resting somewhere and would come out again at any time.

"I've done everything in my power. If the Shrine Master of the Dragon God Palace didn't ask me for a favor, I wouldn't have helped Su Han," Bai Ze looked at Hao Ren and said, "You've come back from Kunlun Mountain empty-handed, which means that even those Soul Formation Realm cultivators don't know how to open the Ageless Godly Spring. The only way that you can save Su Han and your grandma is to try your luck in the Heavenly Realm."

After receiving no response from Hao Ren, Bai Ze continued, "I'll take care of your grandma and Su Han. As long as I'm in East Ocean City, that devil dragon won't dare to show himself here. However, after one to two weeks, he will recover."

Hao Ren gritted his teeth, knowing that the time was not on his side.

"You must hurry up. With the Heavenly Dao entering the next cycle, Qiu Niu would have to go back to his position, and Ya Zi ¹ will take his place. With Ya Zi's temperament, he will kill anyone with devil essence. Your grandma is a mortal and has weak devil essence in her so that I can cover it for her. However, Su Han is a peak Qian-level dragon cultivator and will release more devil essence as time goes on. Ya Zi probably will kill Su Han to prevent any future consequences."

Bai Ze's words startled Hao Ren.

Since the law of nature was weak these few days when the Heavenly Dao was rolling to another cycle, Su Han had chosen today to pass the Heavenly Tribulation while Taiyi Cave Master chose today to turn into a devil dragon. In all this mess, Hao Ren had neglected the new Ancestral Dragon who was about to go on 'vacation'.

Ya Zi's character was violent and blood-thirsty, and he broke everything evil and devil-like with bloody murderous spirit.

Qiu Niu was still a little reasonable, but Ya Zi was a lone wolf and would bring peace to the world by killing!

Containing devil essence which could change at any moment, Su Han might become his first target!

Once every 4,000 years, the Heavenly Dao would wash away anything evil and filthy by letting Ya Zi take charge and kill. The only consequence was that there might be a lot of wrong killings in the process!

"I've given you all the information I have. I will not get myself involved in this conflict. If Ya Zi comes, I won't help either side," Bai Ze said.

Hao Ren nodded.

Bai Ze had concealed her identity by living in the mortal world since she didn't want to get involved in the conflicts. It was already a great favor that she had temporarily sustained Grandma and Su Han's lives.

Without anyone caring for her, Su Han looked lonely in the ward. Hao Ren guessed that the Dragon God Shrine must be in chaos right now since the nine Deputy Shrine Masters had also gotten some devil essence in their bodies while fighting with Taiyi Cave Master and were forcing it out of their bodies. As to the other inspectors, no one was fitting to take care of Su Han.

Hum!

A golden light flashed outside of the window, and Hao Ren closed his eyes subconsciously at the blinding flash. When he opened his eyes again, he saw a female cultivator in white standing in the ward.

Chapter 770: Charging to Eighth Heaven!

This woman in white was the Heavenly Dragon cultivator whom Hao Ren had seen twice before.

The first time was on Seventh Heaven when those Soul Formation Realm cultivators attacked him, and this female cultivator had rescued him. The other time was during the battle between Su Han and Zhao Kuo, and this female cultivator had shown her face in the crowd.

At this moment, she suddenly appeared in Su Han's ward. Hao Ren and Bai Ze stood beside the bed and looked at her, but she sat down quietly by the bed and looked at Su Han as if Hao Ren and Bai Ze weren't here.

"Let's go." Seeing Hao Ren still standing there, Bai Ze said in a low voice.

It seemed that Bai Ze knew everything in the world, so the identities of Su Han's parents weren't a secret to her.

Since this cold female cultivator had no intention of speaking, Hao Ren followed Bai Ze out of the ward. Anyway, it was comforting to know that Su Han had someone to take care of her.

Bai Ze walked down the corridor to rest in her office.

When Hao Ren returned to Grandma's ward, he saw that Grandma, Zhao Yanzi, and Xie Yujia were still soundly asleep. Nested in the quilt, Zhao Yanzi rested her head on Xie Yujia's arm as if she were hugging her older sister.

Hao Ren walked over and lightly touched the hair on Xie Yujia's forehead and then carefully pinched Zhao Yanzi's cute nose. Then, he lay down on the couch in the room and began circulating his nature essence according to the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll.

Kun-level!

After planting the mystic crystal, he had reached Kun-level.

However, he had been busy running around and dealing with all kinds of situations, which gave him no chance to battle with any cultivators.

Grandma and Su Han lay in their beds, and modern medical technology couldn't save them. Even the level 6 elixir pills that Xie Yujia made couldn't remove the devil essence from their bodies.

Since Premier Xia had unleashed the power of the Heavenly Dragon Realm, it prevented the devil essence from giving him fatal blows. Although he couldn't cultivate again, he was lucky that he could become a mortal.

However, Su Han couldn't even become a mortal.

At dawn, Yue Yang and Hao Zhonghua hurried into the ward.

Seeing Grandma that was still sleeping, they immediately lowered their voices. Then, they noticed Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia who were sleeping in the spare bed, and they were a bit surprised.

Shortly, Zhao Hongyu and Zhao Guang had also driven to the hospital with Zhao Baibai in her white rabbit clothes.

"Grandma..." Zhao Baibai called out in her sweet voice and rubbed her soft and smooth face on Grandma's hand.

[TL Note: Baibai literally means White White in Chinese. Without this context, the next paragraph wouldn't make sense.]

"Hehe. It's Little White." Grandma opened her eyes and saw Little White before rubbing the latter's soft and jelly-like cheeks happily.

She had said 'Little White' without thinking before she realized that it was the name of their puppy, but she didn't think much of it.

Shaking her head cheerfully, Zhao Baibai's eyes curved up like two crescent moons. She was proud that she had finally got her official name while 'Little White' became her nickname.

After turning into the human form, she could move around more. For example, she had been brought to a breakfast spot this morning by Zhao Guang and Zhao Hongyu and ate several buns and fried dumplings in comfort.

"Mom... Dad..." Rubbing her eyes, Zhao Yanzi slowly got up from the bed.

Suddenly seeing so many adults in the ward, Xie Yujia pushed aside the quilt in a hurry and greeted them one by one before picking up the hot water bottle in the corner of the room to get water for Grandma.

“These two girls are so good...” Looking at them, Yue Yang said to Hao Zhonghua in a low voice.

She had no objection to either Xie Yujia or Zhao Yanzi and found them both to be great girls, leaving the choice to Hao Ren.

They didn’t know that Zhao Yanzi and Xie Yujia had reached an agreement on this issue, which was why they were getting along so well.

Hao Ren walked out with Xie Yujia to get hot water and took the opportunity to check on Su Han next door.

Through the glass on the door, he saw that Su Han was still in a deep sleep while that female cultivator in white guarded her motionlessly.

Xie Yujia didn’t know that Su Han was lying in the ward that they passed by, and Hao Ren didn’t plan to tell her yet.

The situation was clear to him; he must obtain the Immortal Elixir from the Queen Mother of the West to save Grandma and Su Han.

When it was noon, more and more people came to see Grandma.

The news that Hao Zhonghua’s mom was hospitalized had somehow gotten out, and Hao Zhonghua’s colleagues in the research institute, Yue Yang’s friends in East Ocean City’s science circle, the government officials had come to visit Grandma in the hospital.

The news also reached the high-level officials in Beijing, and they called Hao Zhonghua, offering to move Grandma to a hospital in Beijing for the best treatment with a private jet.

Hao Zhonghua had no choice but to decline their kind offers. After placing a desk in front of the ward, he asked some subordinates in his research institute to record the visitors’ names and gifts so that he could return the favors after Grandma recovered.

“Zhonghua! Zhonghua...”

Mayor Wu hurried to him with several secretaries.

Several provincial officials were talking to Hao Zhonghua right now, and they nodded at Mayor Wu when they saw him.

After greeting them, Mayor Wu dragged Hao Zhonghua to the side and said in a low voice, “Weird ocean currents appeared in the coastal areas, and we need you and Yue Yang to have a look at them.”

Hao Zhonghua had thought that Mayor Wu had come to revisit Grandma as the mayor of the city. However, seeing the latter’s serious expression, he knew that something big had happened.

“The helicopter is on the top of the Holiday Hotel, and we can make a quick trip there and come back as soon as possible,” Mayor Wu said.

“Ok. We’ll go and check on it...” Hao Zhonghua entered the ward and whispered to Yue Yang before coming out with her.

Zhao Hongyu had driven Zhao Yanzi to school, and Hao Ren, Xie Yujia, and Yue Yang had been with Grandma.

Seeing Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang exiting the ward in a hurry, they knew that something wasn’t right and came out of the room after them.

In the corridor, Hao Zhonghua gave some instructions to the nurses and took his leave from the provincial officials before hurrying toward the stairs with Mayor Wu.

“Little White, take care of Grandma,” Hao Ren instructed Little White with his mind and walked toward the stairs with Xie Yujia.

With Bai Ze in the hospital and the Heavenly Dragon cultivator in the next ward, Grandma would be safe.

When Hao Ren and Xie Yujia walked out, they saw Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang getting into Mayor Wu’s car which then drove to the direction of the Holiday Hotel.

Hao Ren and Xie Yujia looked at each other and walked to a corner to create an energy sphere before flying after the car. Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang had taken themselves away from work to stay with Grandma, and their sudden departure from the hospital meant that something significant had happened.

On the platform on the top of the Holiday Hotel, a police helicopter was waiting for them. After Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang got into the helicopter with Mayor Wu, it flew toward the direction of East Ocean.

Hao Ren and Xie Yujia immediately flew above the helicopter.

From a distance, they saw that a massive vortex was forming in the ocean dozens of kilometers off the shore!

Traces of black essence were rising from the center of the vortex!

“Devil essence...” Hao Ren immediately recognized the essence.

In the sky above the ocean, about six helicopters were hovering and investigating. However, due to the powerful sucking force of the vortex, the helicopters didn’t dare to get too close to the ocean surface.

All the ships close to the harbors of East Ocean City were not allowed to pass this area. However, the city couldn’t put the detection devices into this vortex that had appeared out of the blue.

“That is the... the position of the East Ocean Dragon Palace,” Xie Yujia said to Hao Ren in surprise.

Hao Ren nodded, finally understanding why Zhao Hongyu and Zhao Guang hadn’t returned to the hospital after driving Zhao Yanzi to school.

The position where the black essence came out was the East Ocean Dragon Palace!

“I’ll go and have a look!” Stepping on a sword energy, Hao Ren lowered his head slightly.

“Don’t!” Xie Yujia immediately held him with both arms.

Not only mortals but cultivators couldn’t get close to such a vortex!

For mortals, the vortex swirled so fast that it would suck in everything around it. For cultivators, the devil essence released from the vortex would even erode the energy sphere.

If the devil essence entered their meridians, no elixir pills could save them!

Judging the scale of the vortex, Hao Ren guessed that at least half of the East Ocean Dragon Palace had been destroyed. He hoped that the cultivators and soldiers had all evacuated.

With Grandma and Su Han still lying in the hospital and so much devil essences releasing from the East Ocean Dragon Palace, Hao Ren gritted his teeth and knew that he had only one option before Ya Zi came out and dealt with the situation.

“Let’s go to Eighth Heaven!” Hao Ren took Xie Yujia’s wrist and shot up into the high sky.

Nodding, Xie Yujia felt nervous at the thought that she would see Old Grandma again.

Bang!

Hao Ren broke through the array formation of Fifth Heaven instantly. Before the cultivators of Fifth Heaven could react, he had immediately broken through the array formation of Sixth Heaven.

There was a harder array formation between Sixth Heaven and Seventh Heaven. While Hao Ren flew with Xie Yujia, he suddenly turned into a white dragon!

Xie Yujia was tossed up by Hao Ren and then put on his back.

Bam! Hao Ren shot through the array formation between Sixth Heaven and Seventh Heaven. While the Soul Formation Realm cultivators on Seventh Heaven were still in astonishment, Hao Ren condensed all the nature essence in his dragon body and broke the array formation between Seventh Heaven and Eighth Heaven!

Several Nascent Soul Realm cultivators who were patrolling on Eighth Heaven saw a beautiful female cultivator with fluttering long hair dashing into the mist of Eighth Heaven while sitting on a dragon!

A cultivator was riding on a dragon!
