

Chapter 10

Brenda

I let out a sigh that was close he almost caught me. I got to be more careful next time.

“Brenda..” I hear my dad call me I turn around an see him walking towards me.

“Yes dad..”

“Did you find anything?”

“I heard them talking about some girl he recused apparently she his mate.”

“We need to find out who she is so we can use her against him. He will need her to keep his dragon strong. If we take her from him he will become weak plus we have to make sure you two get married.”

“I know dad I don't think he wants to take her as his mate I heard him saying he don't want one.”

“That's strange normally when their dragon find their mate they claim them right away. Let's find out who she is first then we can make a plan if we have to call others to help we will.”

“We gonna have to be careful I think he's suspect something so doesn't his friend just now when I had to come up with something to tell him why I was here I think he picked up on my lie so didn't his friend they both looked at me like they knew.”

“Let's just lay low for a few days let it pass just continue on with the planning of this weekends party maybe you can convince his parents to move the wedding up we need you two to be married first before we take them out that way you will remain queen an we can rule and the dragons will be under our control.”

“Alright dad.” I tell him

He turns and walks down the hall. I head down to the back patio that's where the queen has said to meet her. I've got to step it up. I need to get Dexter to like me or at least be around me. Right now he has been avoiding me. I almost messed up back there. I know their dragons can sense when someone is lying. My father has worked hard to get his parents to agree to marry us if they find out we are hunters and what my father has planned they will take us out. I wanted to talk to my father about maybe sparing Dexter. We can drug him to make him follow our orders. I really don't want to go through all this just to have him killed.

If he's still alive it will help to make the other dragons stay loyal to us. I was so lost in my thoughts as I walked along thinking of our plan. I wasn't watching where I was going when I walked into a hard chest.

I stumble backwards. I almost fall on my ass when my hand grabs my arm.. Pulling back to my feet. I look up and see it's Dexter's father..

“Miss Brenda you alright?”

“Oh yes I'm sorry King Charles I was a little lost in my thoughts. I just wasn't paying attention to where I was walking. Forgive me...”

“That's quite alright. We all have them moments. Something I could help with?”

“I wouldn't want to trouble you Sir.”

“Non sense now what's got you thinking so hard...”

“Um well I um just spoke with prince Dexter and he still don't want anything to do with me. I just want to be a good wife to him but I can feel he don't want me..”

He sighs out.. “Miss Brenda my son is very strong headed. He's not the most warmest person to be around. He has a small amount of people he lets get close to him. It will take some time but he will come around...”

“I understand Sir.. I guess I'm just feeling a little flustered. The party is this weekend and we haven't even spoken more than a few words to each other. I just don't want the party to be awkward. I was just worried people would question our engagement..”

“Yes I can see you worry about this. Why don't we go and find my wife I understand you are to be meeting up to go over some more details for this weekend..”

“Yes Sir we are meeting on the back patio that's where I was heading when I bumped into you...”

“Alright why don't we go there and discuss this with her she has a way to talk with Dexter and get him to understand things better than me.” He turns and holds out his arm for me I link my arm with his and he begins to walk us back down the hall towards the steps.

Dexter

I run after my idiot friend he is always being a clown. “You're such a moron.” I call out to him.

“Yeah and you're chasing a moron!!” he yells back to me.

I finally caught up to him. I dive at him and tackle him to the ground. We wrestle for a bit. He lands some hits as well as I do I finally pinned him.

“What are you two doing??”

I look up and see my mother standing there with her hand on her hip..

I let go of Jon..

“Hey mom we were um just messing around.” I tell her.

“Haven't you two outgrown this yet. It's like you are twelve again. Now look at how dirty your clothes are you are the prince you shouldn't be rolling around on the ground for crying out loud..”

“Sorry Ma'am it was my fault I was just trying to get him to lighten up he's been a little stressed...” Jon tells my mother.

“Can you please find something else to do besides this.” She says to him.

Jon hangs his head. “Yes Ma'am.”

“Good now where are you two off too?”

“Oh I was heading to the hospital to check on something's..” I tell her.

“Uh huh.. Jon will you excuse us for a moment please.”

“Yes Ma'am. I'll meet you there.” he says to me.

“Alright man..”

I look back to my mother.

“Now my dear son you may think I don't notice certain things. But I do an I know that young girl is your mate...”

“What? did dad tell you?”

“No, he didn't but you are my child an I know when things are bugging you. You have been hiding in that office of yours and I can feel that your dragon is very uneasy.”

I just sigh an look down. “Mom I don't want a mate I've talked to dad about this.”

“Dexter why are you so against a mate?”

“Mom they weaken you I don't want to be tied to one person I like my freedom. Plus she is the first person people will go after if they want to hurt me in anyway an she's not a dragon how would I explain Amy of this to her?”

“Oh my dear boy you are so much like your father.. Having a mate isn't as bad as you think. Just look at me an your father it's been century's we have been together it don't make you weaker it makes you stronger an as the bond grows you two will become a stronger pair together an just because she is human don't chance that.”

“Mom i understand what you are saying but It don't change my mind.”

“Dexter you won't be able to stay away from her long you are already fighting your dragon and your going to the hospital to be close to her. You know what will happen if you reject her..”

“I know mom I will figure something out. Plus you an dad are trying to marry me to that fake women aren't you two still planning on having the ball this weekend.”

“If you choose to claim your mate we will not Force you to go through with the marriage.”

“But you need to choose one or the other your father rule is over he needs to step down you are of age to take over but you can't with out a wife.”

“Your really making me do this mom?”

“Yes Dexter I am you can either marry a women you have no feelings for and be miserable or you can choose your mate an have a bond full of love like your father an myself. I will give you some time to think about it. Now I have to meet with Brenda so you take some time to think and think hard Dexter.”
