

Chapter 32

Dexter

After my talk with mom, I just stayed sitting in the room I just needed to be in here with her scent.

How was I to fix this Why was I so stupid, I know I shouldn't have slept with them other women every time I did I was so drunk I don't remember them,

Also, I didn't know what I was gonna do about her being a Red dragon.

There hasn't been one in a very long time. I don't know much about their history just that there was a war between hunters and the Red dragons.

We learned about that war in school The hunters wiped out the entire line. It was said that the hunters feared them due to their powers in dragon form as well as human,

I know once other dragons find out what she is they will try to claim her, Hoping they will get her power once they are mated,

I rub my hands over my face First before anything I need to get her to forgive me. I pray she will give me a chance to prove myself to her I know it won't be easy.

I also know Jon is another one I will have to deal with, I've known him my whole life he's not gonna take me leaving as well as hurting her,

"DEXTER!" I hear my mother's voice in my head, She sounded panicked.

"Mom, What's wrong?"

"Get to your father's office there was an accident!"

"Who was in an accident mom,"

"Jon and Max,"

That's all I heard, I sprung off the bed bolting out the door,

I was running down the hall reaching the stairs. I took three at a time going down them.

Reaching my father's office door I slammed it open running into his office.

"What happens?" I say as I'm coming across the room to his desk.

"We not sure, Someone caused them to wreck, We need to get to the scene," Dad says to me.

I don't say anything I turn heading out of his office,

"Dexter wait!" I hear my father calling me, I don't stop I run out of the house to my truck jumping in

I was just about to pull out of the parking spot when the passenger door opens,

I look at my father as he's climbing it.

"Don't you think you need to know where you're going?" He says to me.

"Tell me while I drive."

I hit the pedal speeding out of the drive

We get out on the road dad tells me where they crashed I'm weaving in and out of traffic,

"Dexter slow down we don't need to be in a wreck as well," I hear dad say to me.

I don't slow down I keep speeding I need to get to her, I need to know she is okay.

I see flashing lights ahead,

My heart drops at the scene in front of me, Jon's hummer is on the driver's side it's all smashed on one side.

The passenger side is the worst I jump out running to the hummer.

I'm trying to see in the windows,

"Sir, You can't be that close,"

I hear one of the cops say to me.

"Where are the people that were in there!"

"Sir, I need you to calm down, You need to move away from that vehicle,"

"I'm not going anywhere till you tell me where the people are!!" I yell at him.

"Sir, If you do not move away from the vehicle I'm going to place you under arrest,"

He says to me while he's walking towards me,

"You will do no such thing,"

My father barks out,

The cop turns to look at my father,

"King Charles," He addresses my father.

"You will stand down officers, You will also answer my son's question,"

"Yes Sir, I'm very sorry Sir I didn't realize that was the prince, "

"Well now you have been told, Now answer his question,"

"Yes Sir, There was only one person in the vehicle when we arrived, They pulled him out he was pinned in the back seat, "

"Where is he?" I asked him.

"They just took him in the ambulance he was unconscious,"

"Dad I need to look inside,"

I tell him through the link,

I see him nod to me,

"Officer I need to speak with whoever is in charge here, "

"Yes Sir, If you two will follow me please,"

"My son will wait here," Dad says to him.

He just nods and gestures for my dad to follow him.

I watch them walk over to another police car as dad begins to talk with another officer.

I pull myself up on the side of the hummer I see the windows are smashed out, I slide in through the window so I'm in the hummer,

I look around I don't see much blood what blood is here smells like Jon's blood, I close my eyes letting my dragon come forward.

I take a deep breath in, My eyes shoot open,

Dragons!

I climb back out following the scent of the dragon, I can tell it's a male his scent is strong not of a female soft scent,

I can also pick up Max's scent her lilacs are faint I can smell the dragon over them, He must have carried her,

I let out a growl at that thought,

"You have something?" I snap out of my trance at the sound of my father's voice.

"Dragons took her, I can smell them."

Dad walks over to me,

"How many?"

"I can only smell one his scent is strong it's overpowering Max's scent, "

"We need to get to the hospital we need to see if Jon is awake by now, "

Dad says to me,

Dad starts to walk back to my truck, When I pick up a light scent of perfume, I know that perfume,

"WAIT!" I growl out,

Dad stops turning to look at me,

"What is Dexter, "

"Perfume, " I say to him. "That same perfume I've smelt on a certain somebody,"

"Dexter who are you talking about, "

"Brenda," I growled out.

Dad don't say anything at first, He was just looking at me with a shocked look.

"Dexter, are you sure?"

"Yes, I know that smell anywhere, I hated that perfume," I grit through my teeth.

"Let's get to Jon, He may have seen them or know who they are,"

Dad says as he starts walking to my truck.

I follow him jumping in my truck we race off to the hospital,

I know Jon won't be out long. When he comes to he's gonna be a handful.

We reached the hospital in no time both my father and me jump out and headed into the hospital,

"Jon Leland, He was just brought in by the ambulance, "

My dad says to the lady at the desk.

She looks up her eyes go wide when she sees it's the King with the prince standing there.

"They just brought him in, The doctor is with him now," She tells us.

Just then there's an alarm going off,

"What is going on? "dad asked her.

"One of the patients's out of control," She quickly says.

I look at dad, "Jon, He's probably woken up."

"Let us back," Dad orders her.

"Sir I'm sorry I can't your not allowed right now."

"I SAID LET US BACK! "

Dad yelled at her.

She flinched at how loud dad yelled.

She quickly hits the button allowing the double doors to open.

Dad and I take off running through the door down the hall towards all the commotion. We hear Jon yelling at the people to let him go.

There was a loud smashing sound, We round the corner to see doctors with nurses trying to get Jon back in the room,

"STOP!" Dad yells out.

Jon instantly freezes in his spot, He looks at dad and then back at me,

I see his eyes glow yellow I know he's pissed, His dragon is so close to coming out that he's about to shift right here.

He threw the people off him as if they were nothing more than a jacket he had on,

He starts coming my way.

"Jon, Don't do this," I say to him as I have my hands up trying to get him to stop coming towards me.

He doesn't stop he keeps walking my way. When I see dad step in between us,

"You will stand down Jon, That's an order."

I see Jon stop in his tracks, I know dad's eyes are yellow, Showing his dominance over Jon,

Jon's eyes change back as he bows his head to my father,

"King Charles, Forgive me, "

He whispers to my dad.

Dad steps forward placing his hands on Jon's shoulders,

"It's alright son, you need to calm down,"

"I lost her," He says to dad.

"They chased us they ended up smashing into the side of me causing us to flip, I was pinned I couldn't get to her, They pulled her out then they took her,"

"Did you see who they were?" dad asked him.

He shakes his head, "No Sir, I do know they were dragons I could smell them."

"Damn it!" I cursed out.

Jon just looks at me but doesn't say anything.

"There's more Sir," He says while still looking at me.

"What is it, Jon?"

"I heard the one say that their lord had been looking for her. That she was going to be with her mate,"

"WHAT THE HELL!!!"
