

Chapter 35

Dexter

After Jon told us what happen all three of us headed out of the hospital.

We went straight to the palace walking to dads office.

The whole time Jon hasn't said one word to me.

I know he's pissed at me, He also upset with himself not be able to stop them from taking Max,

Reaching dad's office we go in closing the door, Dad sits at his desk.

"Alright, So what do we know,

I walk to sit in the chair in front of his desk.

Jon stay standing off to the side.

"Well from what Jon said it was planned,

Dad nods, "Yes, I agree,

"With what we found at the scene, we know it was dragons, Plus there's traces of Brenda there, I tell him.

With the mention of Brenda's name Jon walks over to the desk.

"Brenda! You sure it was her?

"Yeah, I picked up her perfume she always wears, I say looking to him.

"I didn't get a chance to tell you before you left, But I started following her when her an her father was staying here, I found her a few times listening outside the office doors, I know she snuck to your room the one day,

"What! My father yells out,

"Why did you tell us?

Jon looks to my father,

"I'm sorry, I meant to I just didn't get a chance, With having to tail Cole I wasn't here much, I wanted to have enough proof they were up to something,

He says to us.

"Dad, What happen with them after I left?

"Well her father started a uproar here about you taking off, He was set on the fact of you still marrying his daughter,

"I had to have him removed from here, She went with him,

Dad explains to me,

"Wonder why he was pushing so hard? Jon asked,

"Something was off about them two, They seemed almost desperate for me to marry her,

"But why would she be working with dragons? Does she know of us?

Dad chimed in,

"I'm not sure, But things aren't adding up, Jon says.

"First we need to find the dragons who took Max, We can deal with Brenda an her crazy father later, I tell both them.

"So now your worried about her, Jon snaps at me,

"Jon, My father says to him.

"I'm sorry sir, but I can't! He takes off for six months, Not giving a care about her, Then he causes her unbearable pain to were your wife and myself sit with her while she cry's her eyes out, Then he just shows back up trying to act like he cares now! Jon yells out.

I can see the anger on his face.

I understand he's pissed but he has no right to claim I didn't care, With those words I couldn't hold back my own anger,

I jumped out the chair towards him.

I let out a loud roar, Grabbing him I threw him against the wall,

"Dexter! My father calls me, He up out his chair he has a hold of my arm trying to get me to let go,

"You don't know a thing, I growl at Jon.

He grabs my wrist and elbow he gives them a twist,

Causing my grip to loosen, He then take this opening he shoved me backwards,

He lands a hard kick to my stomach,

I stumble back a few steps, He comes at me he goes to swing at me,

I grab his arm I spin putting my back to him, He's arm is over my shoulder I step back flipping him over onto his back,

"Boys! I hear my father call to us,

I'm still holding his arm as I planned on flipping him to his stomach to pin him.

But he pulled his leg up kicking me hard in my face,

I let go I fall back on my back,

I see him jump up spinning around he comes at me,

He just about to me when we hear my father's roar,

ENOUGH!!

Jon froze instantly, I just laid there looking at my father's back,

He had stepped in between us,

"This will get us nowhere close to finding Maxine!! He yells out,

Jon lowers his head, Showing his submission to my dad,

"I'm sorry Sir, Jon kneels in front of my father,

"Dexter, Get up! He calls over his shoulder,

I get to my feet, Jon is still kneeling. He has his head down.

I walk around my father standing next to Jon who hasn't moved,

My father looks to me, I can see his face is red with anger,

His eyes glowing yellow,

"Kneel, Is all he says to me but his voice was deeper then normal, His dragon was surfacing,

I didn't say anything, I just kneeled next to Jon,

"You two will stop this childish behavior, We have a situation on our hands, Yet you two can't get out of each other's way,

This ends here and now! Is that clear!

"Yes Sir, Jon and I say at the same time,

Keeping our heads down,

"Our only objective is to find Maxine, We will use all our resources if need be,

"Yes Sir, We both say again.

"Now get up, Let's get a plan together,

Jon and I stand we don't look at each other,

Dad walks over sitting at his desk again, His face has come back to normal color as well as his eyes,

"So we know dragons are behind this, Some how Brenda is involved, I think first we find the dragons that took her, Then we deal with Brenda, My father says as he's looking at the two of us.

Jon is the first to speak.

"I agree, Should we maybe try finding Brenda or at least her father? Maybe follow them they could give us a lead.

I see my father bobbing his head to what Jon said,

"That's a good idea, Dad says. "Let's do that,

"Dexter, Do you have a idea? My dad asked me.

I just shake my head, " No father I don't, What ever you two feel is a good plan I'll follow that, I tell him.

I see him scrunch his eyes brows together he had a look of confusion to his face.

"Dexter this is your mate we are talking about, Dad's says to me in a softer voice.

"I know dad, But Jon's right, I have no place to come in here acting like she my everything,

"Dexter, I hear dad say, His voice was light it held the sound of concern and worry.

"Dad, don't if I hadn't come back, she wouldn't have left the palace, they would never have been targeted, Once again she is in harm's way because of me,

I see my dad sigh, "Dexter, She is in harm's way because of who she is, They must have been planning this for awhile, "It was only a matter of time before someone found out about her,

"Dexter, This time it was Jon who called me,

I look up at him,

"Your father's right, I'm sorry for what I said earlier, I look at Max like a sister, Just like you are my brother, I know you left because you thought she would be safe, But she is safer with you then without you,

I wasn't sure what I should say, I looked to my father, He just nodded his head,

I was just about to speak when there was a knock on the door,

Jon walked over opening the door,

There was one of the maids standing there,

"Excuse me Sir, But there is a visitor here asking to speak with Prince Dexter,

I looked at my father,

"Who is the visitor? Dad asked her.

"Sir it's lady Brenda,

With hearing that name I jump out my seat, I was heading for the door.

"Stop! My father calls out,

I halted mid step,

Turning to look at my father.

"We need information, Lets have her come in see what we can find out,

I hear him say through the link,

I just nod walking back to my seat.

"Please show her in, Bring her to this office,

"Yes Sir, She bows her head walking away.

Jon closes the door.

"Why do you think she here? He asked walking back over.

"I don't know, but this gives us a chance to find out if she knows anything, Dad says to us,

I don't say anything, I would rather lock her up in the dungeon, then touch her for the information,

"Dexter, Dad calls me, I turn my head to look at him.

"I need you to remain calm and in control,

I simply nod my head,

We hear a knock at the door again.

Dad nods his head to Jon, He walks over opening it,

There stood Brenda with the maid,

"Brenda, please come in, My father says in the most up beat voice.

She smiles wide walking in, She looks to Jon, Then over to where I was sitting.

"Thank you, She says in that annoying voice.

She reaches the desk she sits down next to me in the empty chair,

I'm just staring at her, I noticed her bottom lip is a little swollen, It looks to be busted, Hmmm I think to myself.

"What can we do for you today? dad asked her,

I couldn't handle the smell of her perfume so I stood to walk over by my father,

When I walked pass her I caught a certain smell,

Stopping in my tracks behind her, I shut my eyes an breath in a little harder.

Lilacs,,, My eyes shot open, I couldn't control myself.

Grabbing her I pinned her to the wall holding her by her throat,

"Why do you smell of my mate!!
