

Chapter 40

Dexter

Jon and myself are currently in the dungeon, We have been interrogating one of Drake's guys,

Our warrior's caught him, Right before that guy got a hold of dad,

Dad's been feeling guilty, He felt it was his fault that guy snuck up behind them, Causing him to let go of Max,

I know it's not his fault, My father is a great fighter, He's seen more battles than most, I know if he wouldn't have been distracted that guy would never have gotten him,

The sound of another hit rips through the cell,

"I'll ask you again, Where did he take her!

Jon shouts at the guy who is tied to the chair,

He's a bloody mess, His one eye is swollen shut, His nose is broke in more than one spot, His lips are so busted up, I think some of his teeth have been knocked out,

Jon has been working on him for days, I don't know how he's hanging on,

The guy spits at Jon, "You can just kill me now, I'm not telling you anything!

He growls out,

I go to step forward, When a sharp pain rips through my chest,

"Ahhh, I clasp my hand over my chest,

It was like someone stuck a hot knife straight through my chest,

"Dexter! Jon yells coming to my side,

Just then we hear another scream,

A guard comes running to the cell, "Sir the women prisoner, She laying on the floor screaming in pain.

"What's going on Dexter, Jon ask while he helps me out the cell,

I couldn't answer him, My breathing was heavy the pain was unbearable,

I wasn't sure what I felt but one thing I could feel was fear,

Why was I feeling fear, Wait, It's not mine it's Max's fear, What's she afraid of,

My thoughts were swirling,

"Dexter, Talk to me, Jon says He is all but dragging me to a bench, He sits me on it I'm trying to calm my breathing.

"Max, I coughed out, I can feel her,

Jon was about to ask something when we hear the screaming again,

I look at Jon, "Go see what's happening to her,

He nods getting up running down the hall with the guard,

"Mom,, I call through the link.

"Dexter! What's wrong why do you sound troubled,

Feeling another wave of pain tear through my body,

"Mom, It's Max, I barley able to call to her,

I slump over holding my chest,

I feel hands on my shoulder, I tried to look up,

"Dexter, What's wrong son, I hear my father's voice,

"Dad, It's Max, Someone hurting her I can feel it, I say to him in between breathes,

I know you can feel when your mate is with someone else, I know she felt it every time I slept with another, But this was different, The amount of fear I felt meant someone was forcing her,

"Dexter, Slow breaths, Dad had his arm over my shoulders trying to give me support,

Just then I heard my mother yelling at someone,

"Where is he! Her voice rung down through the dungeon,

"Hang on Dexter, I need to get your mother before she kills someone,

He lets go walking up the hall, I can hear him calling her name,

The next thing I know my mother has her arms around me,

"Shhhh, Dexter, Just breath,

I hear someone walking, "Sir, It's Jon's voice I hear,

"Yes Jon, What is it, My father speaks,

"Brenda has passed out, she was having the same pain as Dexter,

I sit up leaning my back against the wall behind me,

"What are you talking about Jon, Dad turns looking at him,

"I don't want to assume anything but I think she maybe Drake's mate,

I look at him, The pain has all but stopped, Even though I'm still feeling alot of fear,

"Why you think that, I croaked out, He walks closer to were we are sitting,

"He took Max, He's the only one that would be trying to be with her, If Brenda is his mate she will feel he's trying to be with another,

"Dexter, He has a point, Dad's says,

"Jon, let's wait till she wakes up, Then we are going to question her, I'm sure she knows more then she told us, Dad gives Jon the orders,

"Yes Sir, Jon says to dad, He turns walking back down the hall to Brenda's cell,

"Dexter, What exactly did you feel, It was my mother who spoke,

I rub my hand on my chest,

"Fear, Like she was scared out her mind, Then the pain, It was like a knife cutting through me,

Mom rubs my back,

"Mom, Is this how Max felt every time?

I hear her let out a sigh, She still rubbing my back.

"Yes, Dexter, We would hear her screaming in the middle of the night, Most night she would cry her self to sleep,

I just hung my head, How could I do that to her, I would get lost in the drinking I was mad at myself for leaving her,

I thought I could make myself forget her,

But in the end all I did was cause her pain,

"You have a chance to make it up to her, I hear my mother say to me,

Turning my head I look at her, "I don't know mom, I really messed up, I didn't mean to hurt her, I wanted to keep people from harming her,

"Well now is the chance to fix what you did, Find her Dexter,

My mother gives my hand a squeeze,

We hear someone running, "King Charles!

All three of us look to were the voice came from.

There was one of the patrol guards running towards us, We could see he was holding a envelope,

He reaches us stopping in front of my father, "Sir this was left but the wall on the south side of the palace,

My father takes the envelope, He rips it open, We watch as he reads it quietly,

Dad snaps his eyes back up to the guard,

"Did anyone see who left this?

"No Sir, I'm sorry it was nailed to the wall,

Dad hands me the paper, "You need to read this,

I reach out taking it from him, I begin to read it,

Prince Dexter this is a warning to you that there will be a attack coming your way very soon, you need to be ready for he is prepared to do what ever to free a certain her, She is his mate , Even though he has no desire to claim her for he has plans for another, He knows she will be his down fall, until he claims the person he's chosen,

PS He has your mate, I will be in touch,

I couldn't help the roar that I let fly out,

Crumbing the paper,

"What was on that? My mother asked.

She looking between my father and me,

I hear foot steps, "Dexter, We heard you, What happening?

I had him the paper, He undoes it smoothing it out even so he could read it,

He lets a smell grumble out, "Who left this? He asked looking at me,

I point to the guard, "He found it on the south side wall,

Jon turn to the guard, "No one saw anything or anybody?

"No Sir, I told King Charles, No one was there it was nailed to the wall.

"It says they will be in touch, Do you think someone is double crossing Drake?

Jon asked,

"I'm not sure, it says she his mate, The only female prisoner is Brenda,

"I knew it! Jon slaps his leg, "His planning to come for her, We need to be ready,

Jon says look to my dad,

"I agree with Jon, I tell them, "Let's get back to the palace, We need to have a plan,
He thinks he gonna come in here and take her, He's got another thing coming,

Dad turn to the guard, "Double the guards along the walls, I want check in done every half hour, I also want extra guards put on the dungeon,

" Yes Sir, He bows to my father turning on his heel taking off down the hall,

All of us start to make our way to the palace, On the way out Jon told the one guard to through the guy we were interrogating in a cell,

My thoughts were already rolling, I was going to find Drake, He was going to pay for taking Max, I could feel my anger building,

He touched what was mine, He was as good as dead when I get my hands on him,

Walking to my office I had one focus,

It was to find my mate,
