

Chapter 43

Dexter

I check the time again, It's almost Midnight, "Dexter, Jon calls me, "I've checked with the patrols, No one has seen anything, I rub my temples, "We will wait, Tell everyone to stick to the plan, I tell him.

I kneel down looking to the dungeon doors, "Dexter, This time it's my father, He kneels down next to me, "What are you thinking son,

I run my hand through my hair, "I don't know dad, I want to think the letters where right, But now I'm not sure, He reaches out to pat my shoulder, "Let's just wait a little longer then, I don't think someone would go through the trouble leaving note for them to be not true,

I nod my head, I was feeling the same, Why would they go throw all that to just throw us off,

Just then I get a link from the north patrol, " Prince Dexter! We have movement, One of the patrols yell through the link, I look over at my father,

"Let them through make it look as they got pass you, How many is there?

"Yes Sir, So far we see about a dozen, They moving slow,

I stand going back over to Jon, My father follows, " North patrol spotted them, I say to Jon, "How many? Jon asked,

"About a dozen, I tell them, "Alert the guards at the dungeon, I'll link to other two groups,

Jon walks closer to the edge of our hiding spot, He looking at the dungeon doors, I see the guard nod his head at him,

I quickly send a message to the other two groups who are waiting on the other side of the dungeon, "Yes Sir, I hear their reply,

I walked over standing next to Jon, "Let the other patrol know to move so it pushes them the other way, We need them to come around from the left, "On it, He says to me,

"Patrol's moving, They said Drake's group has moved to the other side, Jon says,

"Has anyone seen Drake? "I'm not sure, They said their moving in a group but they are huddled close, I nod my head,

I look around trying to keep watch, "There I hear Jon whisper, I look across pass the dungeon I see some figures, they are slowly inching forward,

"I want them to get closer, Everyone hold your position, I call through the link,

Only a few come out, They are trying to work their way to the guards,

Just as they are about to reach the guards, We hear a commotion to our right, "Help! We under attack! Is all I hear through the link, "Dam it, I cursed out, "Jon with me! "Dad wait here, keep watch of the doors!

I take off running towards the one group Jon is right behind me, When we reached them we see my warriors fighting a small group, Jon runs off to the right fighting off guys as he plows through,

I take off running straight into the group, I'm fight anyone who gets in front of me, I look around noticing we have the upper hand, But I don't see Drake any where.

"Dexter, Dad calls me, "Drake took out the guards at the dungeon doors I'm going in there, "Dad No! Wait, I spin taking off, "Jon! Get the the dungeon, I yell at him, He looks at me, He drops the guy he had ahold of,

We come back through were we had been hiding, We see the guards bodies a long with some of Drake's men laying on the ground, "Find my father! I yell,

Both Jon and myself take off through the open doors, We can hear fighting as we run down the hall, Jumping over a body so often,

I hear a roar, "That's dad, I say to Jon,

We pick up the pace, Turning the corner I see my father is fighting Drake,

Drake is trying everything to take my father down, Dad fires back with hits knocking Drake backwards,

He gets to his feet, I see he has let his claws come out, He lunged at my father,
"No! I yelled, I step in front of my father, He swiped his claws,

Hitting me right across my chest, I let a growl out, I jump at him hitting him square in the face, Blood splattered on the walls,

He falls catching himself with his hands, Looking up at me, "You! He growls out, Jumping up he comes at me again, He swings his claws head level, I dodge his hit side stepping I kicked him in his stomach, He doubles over, I quickly get behind him getting him in a hold,

He struggling against me, I tighten my hold, "Sweet dreams, I say to him, I squeeze harder, I feel his body go limp,

I let him go he falls to the floor, I look around for my father, I see him lean against the wall, "Dad," I call out, He holds his hand up "Dexter, Im alright."

I get to his side grabbing his arm, "Jon drag that piece of shit to a cell."

"Sure thing, He looks at my father, "Sir nice job whooping his ass, He has this smirk on his face, "I'm getting to old for this crap, Dad says, I let out a laugh,

"Mom, I call through the link, "Dexter! Oh my are you guy alright? I chuckle
"Yeah mom all good, Can you come help dad, "Help! What happen? She sounded panicked, "Calm down mom he's not hurt, He fought a lot, "Ok, Ok, I'm coming where is he? "We are in the dungeon, I don't hear anything back she must be on her way,

"Sir, I hear someone call, I turn to see one of my men running towards us, "Alex, What the damage? He stops in front of me, "We lost five of our warrior's, All but six of his guys are dead, They are being brought down as we speak,

"Good, Throw them in the cells by Drake, Jon is back there now, "Yes Sir, He says Turning running back the way he came,

"Come on dad let's make our way out of here, He nods his head pushing off the wall, I keep my hold on his arm, We are walking towards the doors, I see my mother come rushing in, "Charles! She calls him, She gets next to him she is looking him all over, "Dear relax I'm fine, Just winded, That boy was half my age, He chuckles at his own words, He wraps his arms around my mother,

I hear foot step behind us I turn to see Jon is running up to us, "Is he all secure?

"Yeah, I chained him as well in the cell,

"I wonder how mad he will be when he wakes and see his mate isn't even here, Jon laughs, "Oh I bet his gonna be pissed,

We started to walk again, My parents have already reached the doors,

Suddenly we hear this loud roar, Jon looks at me, We both take off running,

Coming through the doors I see this large green dragon, He's holding two women in his claws, One is Maxine,

"Max! I yell running towards the dragon, He let's go of both of them, Max lands on her feet the other feel to her knees, Max helps her up, "Max! I yell again, She turns looking at me, She gets a smile on her face, She runs to me I scoop her up,

"Dexter, She cries out, "Oh god I thought I wouldn't see you again, I feel her shake she was crying, "Shh I'm here, I got you I'm not letting you go again,

She wraps her arms around my neck,

"Max, I hear my mother's voice, She picks her head up looking over my shoulders,
"Laura, I sent her down she runs to my mother, Them two break down crying together,

I look to the other women, When I noticed she just a young girl, She standing there looking like terrified, I look up to the dragon who hasn't shifted back yet,

"Shift, I say to him, He lets of a snort,

We hear cracking of bones he slowly shrinks down in size, Soon he back to a man he's completely naked, Before I could say anything Jon has already handed him a pair of shorts,

I get a whiff of him, "YOU! I growl out, I lunge for him grabbing him by the throat,

"Dexter! Max yells, "Don't, She comes running grabbing my arm, "I know his smell, He was at the wreck,

I have him lifted off the ground, I know my eyes are yellow, He's the one that his smell was over powering Max's scent,

"Dexter, Please let him go, He helped me he's the one who got me out, She cried out, I looked to her, "Please Dexter, She whispers,

I hear sobbing coming from behind me, I glance over I see the young girl is on her knee's,

I slowly set him back down, letting go of him, I step back wrapping my arm around Max waist pulling her with me,

He's standing hunched over he had his hand on his throat, "Uncle Hank, I hear the young girl cry out, He stands opening his one arm, She runs to him hugging him, "He's her uncle, Max says, "Drake killed her parents and kidnapped her keeping her a prisoner, He was blackmailing Hank to work for him, She explains to me,

I look back to him, He's standing up right,

"Your the one who left them letters? I asked him, He shakes his head," Yes, He croaked out,

"How about we go inside, We can discuss everything then, I hear my father say,

I didn't noticed he was now standing next to Max, My Mother next to him, That Hank guy looks to my father, "King Charles, Queen Laura, He bows his head,

"What's you name? little lady, My mother asked the young girl, "Lily, Ma'am, She also bowed her head, "That's a lovely name dear, She smiles shyly at my mother,

"Come on, Let's get these lady's inside, We have much to talk about, My father says,

He walks ahead leading my mother with him, I keep my arm wrapped around Max as we follow,

Hank and his niece followed behind us, Jon was in the back, Just as we were about to the house we see the guards walking towards us, They had what was left of Drake's men, The men looked to us seeing Hank standing with us they started to shout and yell at him, Calling him a traitor, That Drake should have just killed the whole family,

We hear the young girl Lily sob out at those words, Hank wraps her up in a hug,

"Silence!! My father roared out, Everyone submitted, Bowing there heads,

"Guards, Put them prisoners in the dungeon, He barks out orders, "You men will remain quite, They started walking no one spine a word,

We all walked in the house, Heading to my father office,
