

Chapter 6

Dexter

We were heading to the last building all the others were empty. I was feeling a little anxious.

"Hey man, you alright you seem like you are not focused."

Jon had asked me.

"Yeah yeah, I'm just hoping this time we find something. "

"I'm sure we will this is the last building something got to pop up. "

"I just want to find this guy and shut him down I can't believe this has been happening here," I tell him.

"Yeah, I agree with you this guy needs to be stopped and this has to be kept from happening again. "

"Sir, we are about five minutes away do you want me to pull up the closer, or do you want me to park away from it this time?" my driver asked.

"Let's park away we will walk up to see how it's the last one don't want to spook anyone," I tell him.

"Yes sir," he replies.

He pulls over and stops Jon and I get out the other men all get out and walk up to us. We see some movement on the side of the building there's a guy who comes out and goes over gets in a car and drives off.

"Well looks like someone is here. "

Jon says

"What's the plan, Sir?"

"Let's spread out all around the building and make sure every door is covered before we go in we don't know how many are in there."

"Jon, once we are in go find where the girls are I want them taken out right away. "

"Sure thing Dexter. "

"Let's go," I tell them.

We all start to walk toward the building we get to the gate and noticed the fence goes all the way around.

I look at Jon and smirk I bend my knees and jump clearing the fence with no trouble.

The others follow my lead once everyone was over it I look at my guys and nod they all take off in different directions around the building.

"Jon, you and I take the front entrance. "

"Copy that," he says and walks up to the door he grabs the handle and pushes it open he looks at me I nod we slip in the door.

It was kinda dark in there but thanks to our dragons we could see in the dark.

I look around and there's a small stage off to the side. We hear some talking so we head down the one hall a door suddenly opens two guys walk out they spot us and start yelling and running down the hall towards the stairs.

We take off after them we almost reached them when one turns and points a gun at us and fires it. Jon and I drop to the floor. I jump up and launched myself at the one guy knocking him down he dropped the gun. He tried punching me I blocked him and grabbed him by his throat throwing him against the wall he fell to his knees. He looks up and I can see he has a black eye already. He jumps up and tries to tackle me but he wasn't strong enough to knock me down. I grab him again and this time I flipped him hard knocking him out when he bounced his head off the floor.

I look over and see Jon has the other guy pinned to the floor he gave him one hard punch he was out as well. I look at him "Find the girls I know they are here I can smell a female's blood on the guy I fought"

I tell Jon.

"On it Dexter." He jumps up and takes off down the hall.

I see my other guys coming and they are dragging two other guys by their feet. Well, that four wonder how many more are in here.

I walk up the stairs I can hear someone else moving around up here.

I reach the top and look down the hall I see light coming from under one door. I walk down and stop outside I know someone is in there and they are moving around. I hit the door hard slamming it open.

I see one guy standing behind a desk he looks at me with shock on his face. I look around quickly to make sure no one else is in there. I walk in heading towards him.

"Mr. Grey, I presume." I spat at him.

"Who wants to know?" He grits out.

"Well if you must know the Prince."

He scoffs." Like that little shit has anything on me. I'm nothing more than a simple businessman. You have no right to come in here now get out!" He yells at me.

I just smirk at him.

"What are you smirking at I said out!!"

I walk over to the desk place my hands flat on it and lean across the desk.

"I have every right to be here this is my town this is my building and if you were a simple business man you would have the documents to prove that. But I'm gonna assume you don't I have every right to shut your so-called business down. I'm not a little shit and I have plenty on you"

I all but growled the last part out.

He takes a step back and his eyes are wide.

" Prince Dexter, " he says to me.

"Yes, I am... "

I hear my guy come through the door. I see him look over my shoulder.

He looks back at me.

"Please sir I'm sorry I didn't mean." Before he could finish his words.

I tell my guys to take him to the Palace and put him in the dungeon.

They grab him and drag him passed me when I get the same smell as the guys downstairs.

"STOP!" I yell at them.

They stop with him I walk over and take a deep breath. I can feel my dragon digging at my insides.

"What blood is that you have on you? "

He just looks at me.

"What do you mean Sir I don't have any blood on me. "

I take another step closer to him I close my eyes and breathe in. It's not blood but something else.

"Who were you with" I growled at him.

"I wasn't will anyone Sir."

I grabbed him by the throat and lift him effortlessly.

"WHO!! " I roared at him.

He shakes with fear.

"I..I..I...had.. a . Buyer contact me he wanted to know if the one girl was pure so we had to check her... " he studders out.

I snapped and threw him across the floor I was on him again before he even landed I grabbed him and threw him again I had him once again lifted in the air and punched him hard repeatedly.

Suddenly I feel hands grabbing me.

"Sir let him go he's unconscious. Sir please we need to take him back so he can be sentenced by your father. "

With those words, I freeze. What was I doing I lost control. It's not my first time smelling the scent of women why did that scent send me over the edge. ?

I drop the guy and my men pick him up and drag him out I follow them out when I hear Jon call me.

"Dexter, I found them... "

I walk down the stairs following Jon's voice I hear the girls crying I see my guys taking them out.

"Dexter, we have one who's hurt badly she can't walk and by the looks, she can't see anything. "

I walk in and go over to where he was kneeling when I see this young girl maybe Nineteen or twenty laying on the floor. Her face was bloody and her eyes were almost swollen shut. I saw another girl sitting there holding her hand.

I kneel her breathing is shallow and is off I know she needs help and fast.

"I'll take her to the clinic call my father and have a team ready for us "

I tell Jon.

"Yes, Sir" I hear him say to me.

I bend down and scoop her up when her scent hits me. This is the scent of the Grey guy and I feel myself starting to get angry again. I must have tightened my hold a little hard she winced in pain.

My hand touched her back where her shirt was pulled up from me lifting her my hand touched her bare skin and I felt the electricity shoot through my hand her scent got strong she smelled like vanilla. My Dragon was digging hard to come forward.

"Mate," I say out loud.
