

Chapter 75

Dexter

"We don't have a choice we have to get you guys out tonight!"

"We can't Davidson is side tracked yes but Drake isn't we have to wait till Davidson leaves,"

I open my eyes to see Brenda and Dr Martin arguing Hank just sat there with his head in his hands.

With a groan I sit up, "What going on?"

Brenda looks at me she steps over trying to help pull me up.

"Dr Martin wants to get you guys out tonight but it's not possible,"

I look to Dr Martin he seems to be very agitated and that's a first normally he's very level headed.

"Why tonight? I thought we wait for Jon to free our warrior's,"

He takes a breath runs his hands through his hair.

"I overheard them last night when I was heading back to the clinic Drake knows Davidson isn't gonna let him have Maxine so he is planning to take him out he knows where Maxine is, He's waiting to get rid of Davidson then he's going after her there's only one week left till the full moon and you know what that means,"

I couldn't help the growl that ripped through the cell it shook the cell bars.

"How did he find her!"

"I don't know Dexter but we can't wait any longer you have to get out of she needs you,"

"Brenda," I call to her.

"I know what your gonna say but I don't know how we can pull it off with both of them here and all the guards with them if we wait till Davidson leaves, he will take some of the men,"

I sigh rubbing my temples.

"We need to find out when Drake is planning on taking Davidson out,"

"Why?" Dr Martin asked he looked confused.

"Because he will be side tracked with that it will give us the chance for an opening to get out of here,"

"Maybe he will try it when Davidson is in route to your mother's old flock," It was Hank who spoke as he came to stand with us.

"That would make sense it would be the easiest time and it will make it the best time for us" I say to him he nods I. agreement.

"Brenda, can you find out when Davidson is leaving?"

"Yes, I can also see if I can get any information out of Drake being his mate does have its advantages,"

"Wait he hasn't rejected you?" Hank asked sounding shocked.

"No, he's waiting to get ahold of Max he doesn't want to do it now because it will weaken him,"

"What an ass," Hank mumbles.

"Brenda, you do know the longer he waits the harder it will be for you," Dr Martin says to her.

"I know but there's nothing I can do I myself can't reject him I'm just a human,"

"Brenda, you can reject him," I tell her she looks at me she tilts her head a little.

"I can? but I'm not a dragon,"

"No, you're not but you are his mate you have the ability to reject him you don't have to except him."

"Hey that's our way out!" Hank says

We all look at him.

"It will weaken him when he gets rejected, he won't be able to fight or even give orders cause the pain will be too much then we can make a break for it,"

"That's a good idea but it will also be painful for Brenda as well she won't be able to get out by herself," I tell him.

The tension was starting to get high we all wanted out but we needed to be smart about it.

I know I need to get out of here and soon with him knowing where Max is I can't wait for Jon to reach the warriors it's gonna be too late. I will not let him get his hands on what's mine.

"Dexter," Dr Martin calls my name bring me back to the task at hand. Turning my attention back at the conversation I look at him.

"I can get Lily and Elder Fran out the guards won't suspect anything when I go up to the room they are in, why don't Brenda call Drake here to the cell lie to him if need be but get him here let her reject him then when he drops because of the pain you two can take her out with you,"

I nod my head taking in what he said it would work but it will have to be done after Davidson leaves and he will have to get Lily and Elder Fran out at the same time.

"Alright let's go with that but we have to do it all at the same time you get them two while Brenda gets Drake down here also, we have to wait till Davidson leaves,"

All of them shake their heads in agreement.

"Brenda find out when Davidson is leaving,"

She nods her head she looks to Dr Martin. "We should be going if we stay any longer, they will suspect us," He gives her a quick nod they both walk to the cell door opening they are about to walk out.

"Brenda" I call her name she turns to look at me.

"Thanks for your help," She smiles "I told you I'm done with this I want out just like you guys and this to be gone from my life I'll do what I need to so I can move on with my own life," She shuts the door walking away down the hall.

I go and sit back on the small cot Hank walks over standing in front of me I look up at him.

"Do you think we can trust her?" I sigh rubbing my forehead. "I think so she is different from before believe me she was all but crazy and I'm not sensing anything that tells me she lying,"

He nods then walks over sits down on the other small cot I know he's worried about Lily he doesn't know Brenda well so he's hesitant to put any trust in her.

If she goes through with this plan then she will have earned my respect but I'm still a little guarded after all she did help kidnap Max before just thinking about her name makes me miss her.

I've been trying my best to keep my emotions from going through the bond when Drake is torturing me. I don't want her to feel what I'm feeling. I know my parents are keeping her safe but I also know that if Drake would reach them, they would be in big trouble. Drake has too many men and there is only the three of them hopefully Jon made it to them I know he was hurt pretty bad when he left here.

I've tried a few times to link her I know she can't hear me we are too far apart but I still had to try. I think back to what Davidson said about her possibly being with child it's made me wonder if she is.

The thought of her carrying my child made me smile after everything we went through and we still managed to come back together. Now this little ass is trying to take her from me that's not gonna happen she is mine.

I just needed to wait a little longer than I'd be out and be able to get to her I couldn't wait to hold her actually feel her touch. With the thought of her I felt a small ping in my chest I didn't stop the emotion I let it flow through the bond I wanted her to know how much I missed her and I was still alive to bad I couldn't tell her I was coming for her very soon.
