Sharon walked to the access system and was shocked when she saw the person outside

Edwin!

Why was he there?

What was he doing there at midnight?

On the screen. Edwin stood upright and looked over with deep eyes.

Even through the screen, Sharon could feel his sharp gaze.

The more she couldn't figure out what he wanted to do, the more she didn't want to open the door.

However, if she did that, it would wake her father, who was resting.

Ethan hadn't been very friendly to Edwin, and Sharon did not want to annoy him.

After hesitating for a moment, she opened the door, stepped out, and closed it right away.

"Mr. Stanley, it's so late. Why are you here? What's the matter?" Sharon's beautiful face was guarded.

30

Her vigilance was especially glaring in Edwin's eyes.

However, he had something on his mind and was not in the mood to think too much.

His eyes were fixed on Sharon's. "Why did you go to the ophthalmologic hospital last time?"

Hearing his question, Sharon was slightly stunned.

She thought he must have been there because of frene or something else, but in the end, he asked such a question.

Im going there to check my eyes. After a moment, she replied calmly. "Can't I go to that hospital?" "What's wrong with your eyes Edwin asked, his gaze still on her.

If it was before the divorce, Sharon would more or less fantasize about it. He found out that her left eye could not see and that she was the person who donated the cornea to him. He wanted to thank her.

She tilted her head slightly. "It is my private matter, and I don't need to report it to you. Mr. Stanley, you didn't come here to pay attention to eyes, right? Is there anything else?"

"If it's because Tina complained to you, you'd better figure out what she did first." In Sharon's opinion, that was the only reason for Edwin to be at her at midnight.

Sharon thought that he was going to hit her and instinctively turned her head away. Edwin grabbed her chin the next second.

His long fingers held her face in place, and his face was only an inch away from hers.

Sharon could feel his breath on her face.

They had been married for four ve four years, yet he had never been so close to her. Her head was buzzing, and her mind went blank.

Edwin carefully observed Sharon's right eye.

There was nothing special about it. It moved nimbly, apparently normal.

After confirming her right eye, he looked at her left eye.

Just as Edwin's gaze swept across Sharon's left eye, his phone rang

The sound was especially ear piercing in the quiet night. Sharon suddenly came back to her senses and pushed him away.

Edwin retreated. When he saw Tilda's name on the screen, he frowned slightly.

He wanted to hang up. However, he recalled her mental illness and picked it up

Tilda's voice was filled with anxiety. "Edwin, where are you? I have something important to discuss with you."

"Let's talk about it tomorrow" Edwin said impatiently.

"No. It's really important. It's..."

When Edwin heard Tilda's words, the cold expression on his face silently froze. After a long time, he replied softly, "I'll be right back."

With that, he turned around and disappeared into the corridor without even saying goodbye.

Sharon looked at his back and touched her face.

Edwin's departure was as confusing as his arrival

What did he want to do just now!

Sharon did not think much about it.

Tilda called him away with a phone call. What was the big deal!

In the early morning, a cold wind blew past the hill.

A black Maybach was parked on the foot of the hill, and a silent man in black g got out of it.

Edwin raised his head silently. His originally expressionless face was now filled with seriousness.

The atmosphere was oppressive.

"Are you sure?" he asked after a long moment minutes later, they stopped in front of a grassy

Krave.

Behind the grave was a small gravestone, with the name Jaylee Barnard" on it.

Edwin stood there, his eyes deep,

Tilda whispered, "Jaylee Barnard's mother worked as a servant for your family for a few years. At that time, Jaylee lived in your house. I heard from her mother that she had always liked you. No matter how much her mother persuaded her, she wouldn't listen. However, she knew that there was a huge difference in status between her and you, so she didn't dare to say it out loud. Every time you went to and from school, she would sneak out to see you. Sometimes, she would pretend to meet you by chance.

*Later on, Jaylee fell ill. Her mother resigned from your family and returned home to take care of her. At the time of your car accident, Jaylee was already terminally ill, but she still paid attention to you every day. She knew about your car accident back then and even asked her mother to inquire about your condition.

“After you were sent to Pinevale, she begged her mother to take her to see you. Knowing that you couldn’t see, she finally decided to give you the cornea before she died.

“Her mother said that she chose to donate live tissue because she was worried that the spread of cancer cells would affect the quality of her cornea... I didn’t expect her to be such a devoted girl?”

At the end. Tilda sighed softly

Edwin pursed his lips and remained silent. A blurry image appeared in his mind.

Back then, there was indeed a servant with a child at his home. The child was Jaylee.

Jayler had indeed appeared in his path and showed him a timid and adoring look.

Everything matched.

“She’s going to die anyway. Donating her cornea to you is making the best use of it. At most, you can give her family more money to thank her. In life, it’s more important to be good to the living” Edwin pursed his lips and looked at the grave with disdain. Tilda patted him. “Stop talking. Leave Edwin alone for a while. Let’s wait at the foot of the hill”

As soon as she spoke, Edwin immediately shut up. They went down the hill and returned to the car. Standing in front of the car.

Edwin put away the kindness on her face and looked at Edwin. Thank you for helping me.”

Edwin shook his head. “It’s a small matter.

To him, Tilda asking him for help was a gift..

As long as she was happy, he was willing to take a life–and–death risk.

“But Tilda, why do you suddenly want me to find the person who donated the cornea? Did something happen?” Edwin asked in confusion.

When Edwin heard the question, Tilda’s perfect expression suddenly changed!

Only then did Edwin raise his head to look at Ray. His eyes were deep and mysterious.

Ray could not help but tremble, “What’s the matter? Don’t look at me like that. It’s scary”

He was born to be a gentleman, and his tone was not that cold and indifferent

Chapter 123

“What did I tell you back then? You have to dress up beautifully and amaze others. Two hours are enough to do that?”

Sharon took a gown and looked at herself in front of a mirror. “I’m born to be beautiful. I can shock the whole world with any clothes I wear.”

Alanna was speechless.

Forget it. If she continued, she would be angrier.

Sharon quickly chose a light-colored dress.

Alanna looked up and down. "Too ordinary" She wished she could wrap Sharon's body with a red and purple dress so that Sharon could attract everyone's attention the moment they entered the banquet hall.

Sharon knew what Alanna was thinking and patted her shoulder lightly, saying, "If a person is outstanding, it's not about how eye-catching he is dressed, but how much cultivated he is. His inner self will shine, and it is the most dazzling"

"Ms. Cress' words make a lot of sense" Before Alanna could speak, a clear voice sounded.

Sharon and Alanna turned around and saw Tilda standing behind them at a moderate distance, smiling at them.

Seeing T

Tilda, Alanna felt disgusted, and her expression changed instantly.

Sharon was calm and indifferent

Tilda walked up to Sharon and looked at the dress in her hand with a sweet smile. "Ms. Cress, you are so bold. Shining with the inner self requires a hundred times more than shining with clothes. It's not that easy

Alanna's expression turned even gloomier "Ms. Gill, what do you mean? Do you think Sharon isn't sophisticated enough?"

Alanna's questions were straightforward. Tilda pursed her lips and looked at Alanna. "Ms. Jensen, you can certainly shine with your inner self."

On the surface, Tilda was praising Alanna, but in fact, she was hinting that Sharon couldn't

Sharon felt bored

What did it have to do with Tilda?

She took the desk to the counter. "I'll take it"

Seeing that Sharon was so calm, Tilda silently pinched her fingers. Her smile was still bright and charming as she followed behind Sharon. "I haven't congratulated you yet, Ms. Cress. You should be the lady boss of Disney Entertainment now, right" her.

However, she was dissatisfied to see Sharon being acknowledged so quickly, while she and Edwin had not even started dating. She felt aggrieved, so she had just come to vent her anger on Sharon

“Ms. Cress, although you can’t rely on your inner self, you are also outstanding enough. Ordinary women don’t even dare to think about marrying into a wealthy family, but you set a relationship with two. Although you didn’t get along very well with Edwin back then, the president of Disney Entertainment doted a lot on you.”

Tilda’s

1 tone was sarcastic. In her opinion, Sharon was “capable” and snobbish for only relying on her luck and hooking up with rich men. Of course, Sharon could tell Tilda’s underlying meaning. She only smiled faintly and ignored it as if she had heard nothing.

Tilda didn’t get the response she had expected, and she gritted her teeth in hatred.

Alanna’s personality was different from Sharon’s. She had always been outspoken and would never hesitate if she could resolve problems with words. Hearing Tilda’s words, she chuckled “Speaking of which, Ms. Gill, you are indeed amazing. Four years ago, Mr. Stanley treated you as a treasure. Four years later, he even divorced Sharon for you and continued dating you. It’s so infuriating. Some men don’t even look at the women who love them wholeheartedly. Instead, they like those who are flirtatious, fickle, and likely to cheat on them”

Alanna deliberately covered her mouth. I want

Tilda could say nothing-

you, Ms. Gill. Please don’t take it to heart”

Her face undoubtedly turned red. She gritted her teeth and wished she could poison Alanna into a mute.

The staff of the high-rise building would not gossip randomly. However, when they heard such a conversation, the expressions on their faces had long clung as they began thinking wildly

All these years, Tilda had stayed overseas to make everyone forget what had happened in the past

Now, Alanna mentioned it again, making Tilda embarrassed.

Tilda couldn't help but look at Sharon

Sharon still acted like an outsider, completely ignoring her.

To Tilda. Sharon's disregard hurt her more than Alarma's words!

Tilda secretly clenched her fists, eager to defeat Sharon even more!

The next second, she smiled again.

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 124

"Don't worry. Ms. Jensen, I won't think much about your words. After all, Edwin and I are childhood sweethearts, and my relationship with him is incomparable. So, even if I'm a little willful, he's willing to indulge me. Sometimes, I'm quite helpless because of his kindness. I hope he will care about himself more instead of always focusing on me. Tilda said without blushing.

She was talking to Alanna, but she was facing Sharon, It was obvious that she was showing off

Alanna nodded. "That's right. Ms. Gill, you are so lucky, and I'm so envious of you. Mr. Stanley is so handsome and motivated. It's only been a few years, and he's turned the Genesis Group into a leading company in Rosaria City. Ordinary people can't be comparable to him."

When Tilda heard Alanna's words, she was stunned and could not believe it.

She thought, Is she ... praising me and Edwin?

'Alanna is a sharp-tongued woman, and I'm Sharon's love rival. How could she praise me?'

The more Tilda thought about it, the more vigilant and tense she became.

Alanna sighed and said, "Sharon is different. Her life is really bitter"

With her sigh, the surrounding staff members' cars pricked up.

Sure enough, no one would miss free gossip

Around Alanna. Tilda, and Sharon, more than half of the staff quietly gathered.

“Ms. Gill. Mr. Stanley loves you to the core. Since you don’t want to get engaged, he hasn’t mentioned it until now. My boss has announced several times that he wants Sharon to be the lady boss of Bisney Entertainment Sharon can’t reject him. What’s worse, he’s in a hurry to ask Sharon to manage the company before she marries him. Don’t you think it’s infuriating to meet such a useless boss?”

Alanna shrugged, tilted her head, and raised her eyebrows.

The staff around were waiting to hear Sharon’s tragic story. They did not expect Alarina to say that, and they burst into laughter.

Did Alanna mean that Sharon was pitiful? Of course not. She was showing off her boss’ trust and indulgence in Sharon Tilda and Edwin had been in a relationship for many years. However, they did not even get engaged. Didn’t it mean that she was not favored by Edwin?

The staff quickly looked at Tilda sympathetically.

Sharon had long guessed that Alanna would not let Tilda off easily. When she heard Alanna’s words, she shook her head helplessly.

It seemed that Alanna would not give up angering Tilda.

Tilda’s face was pale, especially when she sensed the looks of curiosity and pity from the people around her. Her nails hidden under her bag hurt her palms.

If not for her kind image, she would have lost control long ago.

After a while, Tilda barely managed to suppress the eagerness to beat Alanna to death. She smiled gently and said, “Ms. Cress is always capable.” Her tone was soft as if she was sincerely praising Sharon.

Tilda’s words made her seem magnanimous and Alanna petty.

Alanna did not expect to be tricked by Tilda once again. Her expression changed, and she was about to speak again.

Sharon walked over and stopped her

Alanna looked at Sharon in confusion. Sharon was smiling as she said, “Of course, I’m not as can’t compare to your Lightfog Entertainment either. Although Bisney Entertainment is a so-called entertainment company, its main business was capable as you, Ms. Gill And Bisney Entertainment nothing more than selling goods. Ms. Cill, you’re undoubtedly a big shot. Alana, you have to be humble”

Alanna understood and nodded repeatedly. "That's right. I'm sorry, Ms. Gill. Please be magnanimous and don't mind my straightforwardness."

Sharon seemed to be flattering Tilda, but she was also mocking Tilda secretly

Chapter 124

Not to mention that Lightfog Entertainment was declining, and Tilda's situation was also getting worse day by day

This time, she returned to the country to seek some more opportunities.

Tilda was so angry that she trembled. She could no longer control the expression on her face, and her facial features were crooked.

Sharon finished what she needed to say and paid the bill. She did not intend to waste time with Tilda and left.

As soon as she reached the door, she saw the tall man standing there.

The man's eyes were deep. He did not look at anyone, yet his aura made others feel suffocated

Originally, Tilda wanted Edwin to stand up for her and humiliate Sharon to vent her anger, but in the end....

She was scared and anxious. She touched her forehead and said, "Edwin, I suddenly feel dizzy and uncomfortable."

As she spoke, she fell into Edwin's arms.

Only then did Edwin come back to his senses. When he saw her pained expression, he quickly carried her up. "I'll take you to the hospital"

Sharon and Alanna had just reached the parking lot when they turned around and saw Edwin walking out with Tilda in his arms

Alanna sneered. "What are they doing? Is there a need to carry her out! Are they afraid that no one will know that they're in love?"

Sharon looked in Edwin's direction. Seeing the scene, she smiled lightly.

She shifted her gaze only a second later

She had long known Edwin was good to Tilda. Her heart was no longer on him, and she would not have any feelings for him

"Get in the car," Sharon said as she opened the car door with the key.

She and Alanna walked toward the car shoulder by shoulder.

At that moment, a light suddenly lit up in front of them, and the strong light made it difficult for them to open their eyes.

Sharon had no choice but to squint her eyes. Then, she saw a motorcycle, which seemed to have lost control and was charging at her...

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 125

"Watch out" Alanna shouted, her eyes wide open.

Sharon reacted quickly. Just as the motorcycle was about to hit her, she took a step back and hid behind a pillar.

The motorcycle rubbed against the ground and screeched to a stop.

The rider took off his helmet and looked at Sharon apologetically: "I'm sorry. The garage was too dark, and I didn't notice you."

"Then why are you riding so fast?" Alanna stood out and started scolding "Can you take responsibility if you bump into my friend?"

Im so sorry. I'm so sorry."

The rider apologized profusely

Sharon calmed herself down a little and walked out. She held Alanna's hand and said. "Forget it."

Alanna glared at the rider again before pulling Sharon to the car.

Sharon looked up and saw Edwin running over and standing less than three feet away from her.

His eyes were fixed

She froze.

on her.

Why did Edwin come!

Was he pla

planning to save her?

Sharon immediately shook her head

With Edwin's hatred for her, he might wish she would die sooner.

He probably ran over to see how miserable she would be if she was hit by the motorcycle.

At the thought of that, Sharon looked away and got into the car with Alanna. Then, the car drove away.

Behind Edwin, Tilda looked at him with a pale face.

Edwin left her alone just to save Sharon

Tilda was originally in his arms, but the moment he realized that something was about to happen to Sharon, he instinctively put Tilda down and rushed forward.

Fortunately, the rider did not hit Sharon. Otherwise, Tilda would have felt extremely depressed today.

Tilda suppressed the uneasiness and frustration in her heart and walked to Edwin with a pale face. "Edwin, I'm not feeling well Send me back"

Edwin did not seem to hear her. He walked to the motorcycle and reached out to grab the rider's collar.

He exerted force to pull the rider down and punch the rider's face.

The rider's nose was smashed and immediately bleeding

He shouted, covering his nose. "V

"What are you doing?"

Edwin did not answer, punching the person a few more times and then throwing him to the ground. After that, Edwin turned around and walked back to his car.

Tilda watched Edwin but the rider and was shocked and disappointed.

The ruler had only scared Sharon a little. Sharon did not pursue it further, but Edwin

This time, there was no need to pretend to be sick. Tilda felt weak all over, and her legs were no exception. The uneasiness in her heart was like a whirlpool that almost drowned her!

“Edwin” After getting into the car. Tilda held Edwin’s hand softly and said in a pitiful tone, “Why were you so anxious jus now! Sharon is a quick- witted racer. As long as she wants to, no one can hit her?”

There were hidden meanings in her words. On the one hand, she implied that Edwin had fallen for Sharon because of her excellence.

On the other hand, she reminded Edwin that it was most likely a show Sharon was putting on to test him.

Edwin rubbed his forehead. “Don’t think much. Even if she’s a stranger, I can’t leave her in the lurch, not to mention that she’s Irene’s mother,”

Tilda did not say anything else. Her deep eyes were gloomy, hiding countless emotions

She looked at Edwin’s well–defined and handsome face and sneered.

She thought, “Edwin, were you that nervous just because Sharon was Irene’s mother!

“You probably didn’t even understand your feelings when you rushed to save Sharon and beat the rider afterward.

Fortunately, Sharon has been Bisney Entertainment’s lady boss and is no longer a threat to me.

Sharon changed her clothes in the car and put on simple makeup. She tied her hair and secured it with a tassel

Alanna parked the car below the hotel where the anniversary banquet was held and turned to look at Sharon

Although Sharon’s dress was very plain, her skin was fair and flawless.

Her eyes were big and clear, her lips as rosy as flowers, and her nose bridge straight. Her eyelashes were long and curly, and they trembled slightly with the opening and closing of her eyes, like the wings of a cicada.

Her hair brought more elegance to her appearance, and the drooping tassels on the hairpin made her look lively.

Sharon was gorgeous but not seductive, gentle but not timid, pure and charming

Now, its every move was eye-catching.

Some guests did not hesitate to spend a large sum of money to obtain an invitation to today's banquet. It was said that its price had risen than 200 thousand dollars.

When the waiter saw Sharon and Alanna, he immediately opened the tall and big door for them.

The people in the banquet hall sensed a flash of light and looked over at the same time.

“Tamn Sharont She must have done it on purpose!” She cursed in a low voice, her eyes filled with endless hatred. “She just wanted to take the opportunity to destroy the reputation of the Stanley family!”

She was none other than Tina, the daughter of the Stanley family.

Previously, Tina had been tricked by Sharon, and she was unwilling to give up fighting back. She heard that Sharon would attend today’s banquet, so she spent a lot of money to get an invitation to make things difficult for Sharon Unexpectedly, before she could make a move, she was stopped by Sharon and those comments.

Then, Tina strode out.

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 126

Sharon and Alanna were chatting with a manager about a collaboration project about livestreaming. Someone walked over and whispered in Alanna's ear.

Alanna tapped Sharon on the shoulder lightly. "I'll go out for a while "Alright." Sharon smiled.

After Alanna left, Sharon nodded politely to the client. Then I'll continue to introduce the projects to you."

"Ms. Cress, you have always been a housewife, I didn't expect you to begin your career to manage Bisney Entertainment so quickly. Before the client could speak, a voice sounded

Sharon turned around and saw a face with heavy makeup.

The lady was wearing a sapphire blue dress with silver threads on it..

Sharon was unfamiliar with the lady a y and did not recognize her.

However, it was obvious that the lady was there to cause trouble.

She revealed Sharon's identity as a former housewife and emphasized Sharon's current career reer. It was no different from doubting Sharon's ability.

As expected, as soon as she finished her words, the client had a suspicious look

Sharon did not bat an eyelid. She smiled faintly and said, "Many of the employees in my company are the same as me. Before they started livestreaming, some were workers, some were farmers, and some were even vagrants. Even now, they still keep their previous identities. Even so, they still win many fans' favor. Nowadays, people have higher standards, and the difference will bring them more surprises."

"That's right. I agree with you, Ms. Cress. I like Bisney Entertainment because of your live broadcasts from different fields. It brings ordinary people hope, and that's also why they will be popular. The suspicion in the client's eyes quickly turned into admiration. At that moment, he not only admired Hisney Entertainment, but also Sharon

"Although Ms. Cress used to be a housewife, she was a sagacious housewife. How can we discriminate against housewives?"

"IL" The lady did not expect to be rebuked by Sharon so quickly. Her face changed, and she felt a little embarrassed.

However, she did not give up and continued, "I don't mean to look down on housewives. Ms. Cress, you haven't even learned the basic business theory, right? As far as I know, your father has an ordinary background. He's just a shoemaker and can't help you receive the best education.

"I'm afraid you have no way to develop a view of the overall situation, let alone the ability to deal with the daily affairs of Bisney Entertainment. Business is not only about eloquence but also about a sophisticated leader with insight and sharp eyes. The lady used a lot of complicated words. She glanced at Sharon and added, "Ms. Cress might have never even heard of these."

She deliberately raised her voice. In addition, the microphone was right beside her and turned on, so everyone heard her.

Sharon was surrounded and eye-catching enough. Now,

In the distance. Tina sipped the wine in her glass. Her eyes with heavy makeup narrowed in satisfaction,

As the daughter of the Stanley family, it was not appropriate for her to openly go against Sharon. So, she arranged for the lady to catch Sharon off guard

She thought, 'Sharon is going to take the opportunity to gain others' recognition! No way! I get everyone to remember her incompetence. Even Disney Entertainment will be implicated by her!

The lady became excited as she spared no effort to belittle Sharon "Ms. Cress, I've more or less heard about your marriage with Mr. Stanley. In short, you know nothing other than playing tricks. You managed to marry into the Stanley family, yet you failed to set up good relationships with its members

"If you're already at the end of your wins when facing a small family, how can you manage a big company like Disney Entertainment!"

The lady stretched her neck and looked like a victorious general

She could imagine how awkward Sharon would be and how the people around would despise Sharon

The lady was satisfied with her wisdom

Sharon could not help but smile when seeing the lady's complacent appearance

She was neither embarrassed nor in a hurry to respond. Instead, she tilted her head and smiled brightly

Everyone thought that she would be so embarrassed that she would hang her head down. They did not expect her to smile

Sharon's smile was so dazzling. The guests were completely attracted by it and forgot to look down on her

How beautiful she was

Beauty was indeed a source of trouble.

Now, because of her novel views, they thought she should be indeed capable of some things.

The lady looked at Sharon in a daze. She did not expect her long speech to be so easily overturned by Sharon’s simple sentence.

“Ms. Cress, you are beautiful and quick-witted. The client, who had been silent, looked at Sharon with sincere admiration and recognition.

He then turned to look at the lady. “You’re the wife of the president of Burden Furniture, right? Mrs Webster, you don’t seem to have any innovative thoughts, and your way of thinking is quite outdated. I have to consider my previous collaboration with Burden Furniture.” Hearing “Burden Furniture”. She

Sharon understood something

Burden Furniture was a furniture supplier for the Genesis Group, and it was obviously related to the Stanley family.

The Lady from Burden Furniture was just a tool to make things difficult for Sharon, and the Stanley family was behind her.

Sharon looked around, and soon, she met a pair of angry eyes.

Upon hearing Danica's words, she felt annoyed and said coldly. "You can go back. Let's talk about the reunion later"

Compared to how Danica suffered at Sharon's side. Tina hated Sharon's disregard for her more!

When she recalled Sharon's glance at her just now, she felt as if she was just an ant, so small that she was not worth mentioning! Time couldn't stand being ignored. At that moment, she wished she could womp Sharon on the ground and beat Sharon up.

Sharon was soon invited to speak on stage

Everyone praised, "Sharon is not ordinary at all!"

Those words irritated Tina even more

Seeing that Sharon was about to get off the stage, Tina quickly walked up

She pursed her lips and thought, "Tina can't take it anymore and wants to take action in person"

Frankly speaking, Sharon didn't care about Tina at

She couldn't be bothered to talk to a brainless person like Tina

At that moment, the music started playing

Tina

had a thought, 'Once the news spread, Sharon and the entire Disney Entertainment would be criticized'

'Sharon is not capable enough, but she still makes things difficult for outstanding talents. Heh! It's enough for everyone to talk about for a while.'

Tina noticed Sharon’s subtle expression and thought Sharon was inferior to her. She felt even more proud, turning around and leading the way into the dance floor.

Alanna went back and happened to see the scene. She shook her head helplessly.

“Tina, aren’t you courting deathr

Sharon’s dancing skills were not to be underestimated.

Even prole

professional dancers could not win her, let alone Tina

However, Tina didn’t realize it and had assumed a pose. It was obvious that she was going to perform a difficult

Sharon didn’t want to make such a meaningless comparison with Tina, yet Alanna wouldn’t miss the good show. Alanna walked over and pushed Sharon out “The guests hope for it.”

Sharon was pushed onto the dance floor speechlessly

Tina tried to force Sharon to act by dancing around her.

The guests saw through Tina's intention and all looked at Sharon.

Sharon stood still and did not respond.

"Isn't it 'Tina?' Why was she there?"

In the distance, Tilda, Edwin, and Ray walked over together.

Tilda held Edwin's arm, a hint of coldness flashing across her eyes. Seeing the scene, she quickly understood what was going on.

"Edwin, is Tina going to battle with Ms. Cress! If that's the case, it's better to persuade Tina to give up. Tina is quite skilled at dancing. However, Ms.

She was more than happy to see Sharon lose to

Tina.

The worse Sharon performed, the more disgusted Edwin would be with her.

"Dancing is completely different from racing. Tilda added deliberately to belittle Sharon.

Other than racing, Sharon knew little about other things.

Ray was originally silent. When he heard Tilda's hypocritical tone, he smiled faintly, and a hint of mockery appeared on his handsome face. "Edwin, you should indeed persuade Tina to give up, h's not because Sharon is the main character, but because Tina can't embarrass herself in Sharon's banquet"

"Mr. Gildon, you're wrong. Tina is so capable. How can she be embarrassed?"

Ray snorted. "You've underestimated Sharon too much"

Ever since he found out that Sharon was Foxy Damon, he had no doubts about her a her abilities.

"Mr. Gildon, you just like to side with outsiders." Tilda said casually. She smiled and looked like she was joking.

Instead, his affectionate gaze was on Sharon.

However, when Tilda thought about how Sharon would lose to Tina and make a fool of herself, Tilda felt easy again.

She decided to stop talking and watch the performance.

Sharon remained motionless.

The surrounding people were discussing in low voices.

"I don't think Sharon can dance.

"You can't dance such a difficali dance just because you want to. Sharon is only good at talking. She knows linde about dancing" "As a gi

“No wonder the Stanley family doesn’t like her. They don’t want a strong businesswoman but a gentle and versatile one”

“How can an ordinary family raise a versatile daughter?”

Sharon listened to those discussions word for word. Her calm face slowly turned cold.

She didn’t care about Tina’s provocation, nor did she care about others’ comments on her past in the Stanley family. However, she couldn’t stand others criticizing her father.

Her father treated her as a treasure and brought her up with all his might.

Sharon would show people with prejudice that her father’s daughter was good or not.

She suddenly lifted the hem of her dress and leaped onto the dance floor with a light spin

Sharon had only danced for a few seconds, and she won a great cheer from the guests.

Tina had danced far away. She heard the cheer and thought it was for her, so she danced even harder.

Alanna intended to split the dance floor into two parts. Sharon was on one side, and Tina was on the other.

Alanna didn’t say a word. Everyone’s gaze shifted from Tina to Sharon, and they moved toward Sharon subconsciously.

Tina's dance was indeed impressive, yet Sharon's was even better. Sharon had immersed herself in the dance and blended her soul with it.

The focus was not the person who danced, but the dance itself

People enjoyed Tina's performance as outsiders. However, Sharon got them to take part in it. It was as if everyone had been to the passionate world of bullfighting, and they couldn't help but spin along with Sharon

I was so wonderful

It was so immersive!

As the song ended, Tina didn't know about Sharon's situation. She heard the thunderous applause and thought it was for herself. She wiped her sweat and felt extremely proud Sharon just took a silent curtain call.

Just as Tina was about to say something to belittle Sharon, she saw Sharon surrounded by people!

In contrast, few people were on Tina's side.

Tina's face instantly turned pale.

How could that be?

Tina did not pay attention to Sharon's dancing. Her teacher was a top dancer, and she had even obtained the professional certificate of the highest level. She thought her dancing skills wouldn't be worse than Sharon's.

However, she soon realized that no matter what she danced, Sharon would follow her immediately. Sharon's no more professional than hers!

When the last music landed, almost no one was left on Tina's side.

Tina had never been humiliated in front of so many people, her lips trembling. She couldn't cry and only clenched her fists

If there was a hole, she would crawl in it and escape.

"Ms. Stanley, I'm sorry. Sharon won Alanna walked over and smiled.

Tina twisted her fingers forcefully. Her red eyes were filled with unwillingness to yield. "She won because the guests had to show her respect at Bisney Entertainment's banquet!"

Alanna laughed our loud.

Since Tina knew she was at Disney Entertainment's banquet, why did she still come to stir up trouble?

Her silly move made so

so many people see Sharon's merits.

Alanna intentionally let out a sigh and gently patted Tina's shoulder. "Look at you, People are talking about how blind the Stanley family is to treat a treasure like a stone and how heartless your brother is. Now, you're here to verify it Why do you have to do that?"

Tina's face changed dramatically. She gritted her teeth with hatred again and again.

In the end, she turned to the staff member and watched his phone.

He had recorded her and Sharon dancing just now

Tina clicked on the video, and the scene of them dancing could be seen.

When she saw Sharon's dance, her face turned pale with disbelief. "How how could this be?"

Sharon danced with her soul

As far as Tina knew, few people could do that. Not only did Sharon manage to dance with her soul, but she also infected the people around her. Everyone was intoxicated by her as if they were drunk.

A person with such skills was at least a top dancer in the country

Tina could not stay any longer and wished she could escape immediately.

It was so embarrassing

Tilda didn't expect Sharon to win against Tuua either. She silently furrowed her brows

She thought. Who is Sharon? How could she know how to race and how to dance at the same

At that moment, Tilda realized that she had never seen through Sharon.

She turned to look at Edwin.

Edwin stood still like a statue, with no expression on his face. He was so calm as if everything had nothing to do with him.

She did not believe that Sharon's singing skills would be better than hers.

Sharon looked at Tina indifferently. Her eyelashes trembled slightly as she smiled faintly. "Sorry, you have to pay for my singing. I don't sing casually

She was busy and didn't want to waste time on Tina's grudges against her.

"You!"

Tina heard Sharon's words and felt that she was being ignored, her face gloomy.

She grabbed the microphone tightly, and her knuckles turned pale.

However, song she cheered up again.

Ms. Cress, you don't know how to sing? The employees in Disney Entertainment all have their unique skills. How can you have the cheek to manage them?"

Sharon only pursed her lips slightly and smiled.

It was as if she was mocking Tina's ignorance.

Alanna added, "Ms. Stanley, you haven't been accepted by a company before, right? Do you think the leaders had to be singers?"

As soon as she finished her words, there was a burst of laughter

By now, the guests understood that Tina was there to cause trouble

On the stage, Tina couldn't speak

Her heart was about to burst from anger, and her lung was throbbing in

"Ms. Cress, why don't you go on stage and sing a song? We're all looking forward to your performance, someone advised.

Edwin lowered his head and took out his phone, downloading the video app that Ray often used.

Seeing that Edwin looked away from Sharon, Tilda secretly heaved a sigh of relief. However, she was surprised to see him download the app on his phone

She was about to ask when she heard a voice. "I'll sing,"

Edwin's hand paused, and he raised his head.

Other guests were also attracted by the childish voice and looked for the person who spoke

After a while, they saw Alanna carrying a little girl in a bubble dress

The little girl's oval face was fair, her eyes big and bright. Her lips were pursed, and she was holding a microphone in her small hand.

Everyone thought the girl was cute, beautiful, and adorable.

Then, they revealed a surprised expression.

Did the little girl speak just now?

Did she want to challenge Tina?

Her cute little mouth opened, her voice childish as she said word by word.

"Oh, it's her."

"Whose family is the girl from! She is so bold"

"My child is much older than her. He never dares to perform in front of others

"Outstanding children belong to other families."

Sharon also noticed the little girl and her expression changed quickly. She asked with surprise, "Irene, why are you here?"

The child Alanna was carrying was none other than Sharon's daughter.

Irene's hair was tied into two pigtails. She heard Sharon's question and leaned against Alanna's arms. She felt a little guilty, but she still replied loudly. "Today is a good day for you, Mommy. I'm here to cheer you on!"

After saying that, she raised her small fist a few times.

When Sharon saw Irene's cute look, her heart softened, and she couldn't bear to say anything more

Others heard the conversation and could guess Irene's identity. Their interest in gossiping immediately increased.

On the stage, Tina never thought that Irene would humiliate her and fight for Sharon

What did it meant

Didn't it mean that her skills were poor and she was only worthy of competing with a child?

Tina was so angry that her face turned red. She kept glaring at Sharon, hinting at Sharon to take Irene away immediately.

Sharon did not notice the change in Tina's expression, but Alanna did.

Alanna smiled and held Irene onto the stage.

“Irene, go for it” She raised her hand to give Irene a high five “Understand” Irene replied as she reached out her small palm.

Her adorable appearance captured the guests’ hearts

“Isn’t the girl from the Stanley family!

“The woman on stage is also from the Stanley family. Her name is “Tina.”

“A battle between family members?”

“Mr. Stanley and Ms. Cress are divorced. How can they still be a family?”

Below the stage, discussions started again. Soon, the grudge between the Stanley family and Sharon was revealed clearly,

The more they more they knew, the more passionate and meaningful their gazes became.

Sharon’s previous sister-in-law went on stage to provoke Sharon, and Sharon sent her daughter to fight her previous sister-in-law!

The show... was really exciting.

Although the guests present were all from the upper class, they were no less enthusiastic than ordinary people in terms of gossiping.

Tina was recognized and was challenged by a child, which made her indescribably embarrassed. She stood on the stage, her face changed again and again.

“I’m sorry, I won’t compete with a child,” She said through gritted teeth and cursed Irene countless times in her heart.

She thought, ‘How dared that hule brat to challenge me!

Tina secretly winked at Irene, signaling her to get lost,

Irene used to be afraid of Tina, but not anymore.

She strode to the center of the stage and stood beside Tina, smiling at everyone.

“Oh my goodness! She’s so cute!”

Irene’s smile caused the audience to exclaim.

Irene had inherited all the advantages of Sharon’s and Edwin’s looks. Her skin was fair, and her facial features were exquisite, just like a doll.

She was short and small, a stark contrast to Tina who was tall and had long legs.

Even though Tina was beautiful and dressed fashionably, regardless of gender and age, people couldn’t help but pay attention to Irene.

Tina’s face twisted. Irene did not give up, and she even stood in a row with Tina as if she was ready to challenge Tina. Seeing that, Tina wished she could beat Irene up.

Irene did not seem to sense Tina’s hatred and anger. She looked up at Tina with a smile. “It’s alright, Tina. If you’re shy, I can sing first. It’s to liven things up for everyone.”

She called Tina by the name,

not “Aunt”

Tina’s face twisted again.

However, a moment later, she felt relieved.

She thought, I have never heard Irene sing at home. All she knew should be some nursery rhymes she had learned from kindergarten Since she dares to provoke me, I’ll embarrass her openly. If Irene was tone-deaf, others would think Sharon couldnot teach a child well.

I need a stage to show my charm. The next time I went to Bisney Entertainment for an interview, if Alanna and Sharon rejected me, I would tell the whole world about it

Tina was still brooding over the humiliation she had suffered at Bisney Entertainment last time. She was eager to turn the tables.

“Alright” She finally nodded in a better mood.

Then, she picked up the microphone and said, “Irene is still studying in kindergarten, and what she learned is limited. If she can’t sing well, please give her more applause,”

Alanna smiled meaningfully and shouted at Irene, “Irene, just perform normally:

Sharon lowered her eyes as if she didn't hear Tiru's belittling of Irene.

Hearing Alanna's shout, Tina was completely relieved. She took a step back and left the stage to Irene.

When she heard Irene call her, she was still in a daze.

Now, Irene was confident, optimistic, and energetic. She did not look the same as before when she stayed with the Stanley family.

And... what did Irene sing just now?

Tina did some calculations in her mind. When she was done with Irene's pitch, her face turned pale.

Although they were asking Tina, their gazes were on Irene.

They were all stunned by Irene.

A few staff members were men

In the past, whether it was young men or old men, their attention would always be on Tina. But now, a three-year-old child had stolen the limelight.

Tina felt discomfort in her heart. Without thinking, she shouted, “I want to sing a song with the highest pitch.”

The staff was stunned. He chose a song that was about the same pitch as Irene’s and played the accompaniment.

Tina started singing along with the music.

As she sang ... she saw the way others looked at her change

She heard a noise like a piece of cloth being torn. Whose voice was it?

Only when Tina felt a tearing pain in her throat did she sober up.

That was her own voice!

Her voice... was cracking!

Tina looked down at the microphone. Her mind was filled with disparagement and disregard for Irene.

She belittled others, and in the end, she was the one who made a fool of herself.

Tina stood on the stage like a statue, her mind blank and her head buzzing.

She knew she should run off the stage and disappear immediately.

However, she did not even have the strength to escape!

“Alanna, let’s sing together,” Irene called out from the stage.

She could tell that Tina had messed it up.

Irene had come to support her mother and did not want to embarrass Tina

She held Alanna's hand.

Alanna jumped onto the stage and sang together.

In the distance, Edwin's eyes were fixed on the little girl on the stage.

In his memory, Irene had always been timid, introverted, and even a little autistic.

Every time she saw him and a stranger, she would dodge and wish she could dig a hole and hide in it forever.

But now, she was bold and confident. She loved to laugh, sing, and dance. She even showed her excellent upbringing.

"Is she my daughter! Edwin wondered.

He suddenly recalled what Sharon had said.

At the Stanley family, Irene was in depression and pain

Now, Irene acted completely differently in front of Edwin, And Edwin finally knew how Sharon felt when she said that.

I almost destroyed Irene he thought.

Edwin was overwhelmed by feelings of guilt. He did not even have the guts to look at Irene, his daughter.

Tilda saw the changes in Edwin's expression and felt panic in her heart. She clenched her fists under her sleeves.

Irene's performance today was so stunning. As her father, Edwin would certainly pay more attention to her.

It also meant that he would inevitably contact with Sharon in the future.

Once they met with each other, Edwin would sooner or later figure out that Sharon was Big Eyes...

Tilda felt dizzy and almost could not stand steadily. It was as if the back of her neck was ruthlessly hit by a club.

Her mind was in a mess.

However, one thing was becoming clearer and clearer.

Tilda thought, I can't give them a chance to interact!

Then, she said in a low voice, Trene is indeed a promising talent. She's only three years old, and she can sing such a difficult song. However, it seems that she is too eager for quick success. Will it affect her health and growth? Even adults can't be trained so intensely. In the long run, Irene's future might be destroyed."

After saying that, she revealed a deeply worried expression.

Tilda knew Edwin very well. He was responsible and would not ignore Irene.

As long as she hinted that Sharon wanted to train Irene to earn money, Edwin would fight for custody.

With Edwin's methods, Sharon was no match for him at all.

Although Tilda had no choice but to be Irene's stepmother, it was at least better than Edwin knowing Sharon was Big Eyes.

Unexpectedly, after a long time, Edwin did not respond. His gaze was on Irene, who was singing and dancing on stage. It was as if he was possessed Ray sneered. "I think Irene enjoys the stage very much. If so, why would she be eager for quick success?"

Tilda hated Ray for always refuting her at critical moments,

She couldn't argue with him, so she could only suppress the anger in her heart,

"How can you tell if Irene enjoys it or not?" A voice suddenly sounded from behind. Tilda turned around and saw Edric.

He tilted his head and snorted, indicating his deeper disdain for Sharon.

Edric came at the right time and even spoke up for Tilda.

Tilda was satisfied. She pursed her lips and suppressed the satisfaction in the depths of her heart so that no one could see it. She frowned and wore a worried expression. Theard that Ms. Cress prepareil a live-stream platform for Irene long ago. Irene has a lot of fans. It's fine for children to dance and sing as a hobby, but it's not proper for them to live stream at such a young age"

– “Sharon only focuses on benefits and even earn money from her daughter. She is not qualified to be a mother at all; Edric added.

In lus heam, whatever Tilda aid was right, and whatever she wanted was reasonable.

Edric and Tilda echoed each other. It was difficult for Edwin to ignore them.

When he heard that Sharon was earning money from Irene, his brows suddenly furrowed, and his eyes turned dark.

He strode forward

In front of the stage, Sharon was holding Irene in her arms,

“Ms. Cress, it’s not good for a child to learn high notes so early. It will affect the vocal cords, Someone in the banquet hall advised,

Sharon smiled and nodded. “That’s true. I only found out today that she had learned such a high pitch. In the future. I’ll take good care of her and choose a suitable singing method for her.”

Although the guests were amazed by Irene’s high-pitched voice, they were skeptical about learning high notes at such a young age. Sharon accepted the criticism and gave a proper explanation. Knowing that Irene was self-taught, they were all surprised, and the complaints in their hearts gradually faded.

“As expected, the outstanding ones are all other people’s children. They can even reach such a level by self-studying.”

“That’s right. My child has several tutors, but he can sing as well as her”

Edwin stopped silently because of Sharon’s words.

After a while, he turned around and walked to Tina, who was hiding in the corner. “Let’s go back.”

Tina looked at Edwin, her eyes red and her eyelashes wet.

She followed Edwin out without saying anything.

Tiks watched them leave and clenched her fists.

Tonight's performance seemed to have been arranged in advance. Every time she wanted to scheme against Sharon, something unexpected would happen

Each time, it was beneficial to Sharon

Tilda looked back at Sharon with deep resentment in her eyes

Unwilling to be defeated just like that, she racked her brains to think of a new way while quickly following Edwin.
