“What are you talking about!” After a while, Jasmine finally calmed herself down and roared in a low voice, “You were the one who was indiscreet and cheated with a man. How can you blame it on me?”

Tilda sneered. “Aren’t you the one who sent that man to me Your real goal was to let him lure me into making a mistake and eventually break up with Edwin

Jasmine said, “So what if I am? If you’re really a good woman, would you fall for it? Don’t forget that long before that man appeared, you had been flirting with other men. It’s just that Edwin was kind enough to not argue with you! You couldn’t resist the temptation, so why blame me!”

Tilda asked, “It’s true that I can’t resist temptation, but if Edwin knew that all of this was orchestrated by his mother and that the man you used was the person he hated the most, what do you think he would think?”

These words caused Jasmine’s face to turn pale again. She gripped the hands that were on the side of her clothes. Her hands were covered in sweat.

Tilda held her hand and helped her spread her fingers. She looked considerate. Jasmine, I’m not here to denounce you, nor am I here to dig up old scores. I’m sincerely exchanging terms with you. If you’re willing, let’s work together and take what we need. If not, I’ll leave now.” With that, she stood up and walked out of the door.

“Wait a minute!” When Tilda walked to the door and was about to change her shoes, Jasmine said, “Do you really have a way to get Edwin to help fight for Irene’s custody!”

“Of course.” Tilda’s eyes curved and shot out a dark light.

Today was the day to sign the contract with Ray

It was rare for Sharon to appear in Bisney Entertainment’s conference room. When the secretary handed over a pen and contract, she neatly signed her name. Then, she handed it to Ray. “Mr. Gildon

May took the contract and pen but did not sign immediately. Instead, he looked at Sharon.

Today, Sharon was wearing a black suit that accentuated her slender figure,

Her hair was tied up, revealing her snow–white earlobes. Her entire body was clean, and she looked rather aloof. She was valiant Having seen her many times, Ray’s eyes were filled with admiration when he saw Sharon looking like the boss of Bisney Entertainment

He lowered his head and signed his name neatly. He took the initiative to reach out and shake her hand. "Ms. Cress is the first to operate so many businesses in so many different industries neatly to the extreme."

"You flatter me." Sharon smiled, intentionally avoiding the tenderness and obvious fondness in his eyes.

She handed the contract to the legal stand beside her in a businesslike manner. "I look forward to doing business with you in the future."

"I look forward to that as well. A faint smile appeared on Ray's face.

Although he knew that he was not worthy of her now, he was still happy to be able to talk to her.

He lowered his head to look at his watch. "It's almost noon. Ms. Cress, would you like to have lunch with me?"

Sharon also looked at her watch. It was half past eleven. It was indeed lunchtime.

"Sounds good." She nodded. "It's my treat today. Consider it compensation for yesterday."

Ray did not refuse.

The two of them walked out one after another.

"Sharon Alanna walked over from the corridor. Her high heels clicked loudly, and her footsteps were extremely fast.

Her expression was not very good. She held the tablet in her hand and glanced at Ray. She nodded apologetically and pulled Sharon to the side.

"Take a look at this,"

Sharon lowered her head to look at the tablet. There was an exclusive interview inside. The topic of the interview was "Disney Entertainment's Boss's First Appearance Talking About His Life

There was a photo attached below. A middle-aged man wearing glasses was sitting upright on the sofa. He looked like a scholar, but because it was a side profile photo, he looked kinda blurry.

“I don’t know which wicked person came up with the idea of claiming that Lonny Drury is the boss of Bisney Entertainment,” Alanna said quickly, “Not only that, but he also talked about some sensitive topics.

She went straight to the middle of the interview and clicked on one of the paragraphs. “Look!”

Sharon quickly read it. This was an exclusive interview in the form of a dialogue

The host said, “Mr. Drury, as far as we know, you have given the entire Bisney Entertainment to Ms. Sharon Cress. This is enough to prove how important she is to you. We are curious about whether you are going to marry Ms. Cress. What kind of family are you going to form?”

Lonny smiled and answered. “Of course, I have to get married. My ide

The host asked, “You mean you don’t like having children“” ideal state is that there will only be the two of us supporting each other.”

Lonny said, “In principle, that’s the case because I’m very concerned about the quality of life and don’t want anyone else to participate in our marriage. Of course, having children won’t affect our quality of life. After all, there are many ways to settle children”

The host asked, “So, will you consider sending your children to other places to be raised in the future?”

Lonny answered, “We will not have children. Of course, the currently existing child we have naturally have to leave our lives. In fact, only by leaving the parents can the children have the ability to support themselves independently. This is a win-win strategy for us and the child.”

The host said, “I can tell that you’re a perceptive person”

“He’s a liar! I’ll call the police immediately and get them to arrest him! Alanna said and was about to leave.

Sharon pulled her back. “With his ability, even if he had the guts, he wouldn’t have the ability to do this. There must be someone helping him behind the scenes. This interview was obviously done last night. If you call the police to arrest him now, he will probably have disappeared without a trace

She pointed at the calendar hanging in the photo

Alanna saw it too and roared again, "Turn it! Who is making things difficult for you? What are they trying to do by making him do this interview?"

Sharon frowned slightly. So far, she was not too sure what the other party was going to do.

"I'm sorry, I came up with Lonny Drury." As the two of them were guessing, someone interrupted.

Sharon and Alanna looked over together and saw Ray behind them.

Ray coughed awkwardly. "I know that you don't want the Stanley family to know your true identity, so I fabricated a person named Lonny Drury and sent some information up. I didn't expect it to be used with ill intentions... I'm sorry."

He had done it for Sharon's sake, but his good intentions had ended up bringing Sharon troubles.

"However, Ms. Cress and Ms. Jensen, don't worry. I'll go back and deal with this matter immediately: After Ray finished speaking, he nodded and left without even eating Looking at Ray's departing figure, Alanna shrugged. "He seems to be quite concerned about you. Don't tell me he has feelings for you.

Sharon smiled. She did not deny or confirm. She only said. "To fine like this now. I work during the day and accompany my father and Irene at night."

Alanna understood what she meant and nodded.

If it was someone else, she would have persuaded Sharon to be with him.

However, Ray and Edwin were too close. It was not appropriate for Sharon to be with Ray.

After chanting with Alanna for a while, Sharon walked out alone.

She had just reached the entrance of the office building when she saw a car parked by the roadside. Beside the car stood a handsome figure.

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 142

Sharon stopped in her tracks and looked over.

She saw Edwin leaning against the side of the car. He lowered his head slightly and held a cigarette between his fingers. The smoke slowly rose.

She was slightly stunned. In her memory, he almost never smoked.

Edwin took a puff of his cigarette. When he saw Sharon, he walked over.

He didn't like to talk much to begin with. At this moment, he pursed his lips and his eyes were filled with endless darkness. It was inexplicably oppressive.

Sharon looked at him in silence.

He threw away the cigarette butt and stepped on it to extinguish it. He said, "Since you don't need Irene, hand her back to

k to THE."

As soon as Edwin spoke, Sharon understood. It turned out that he had seen the so-called interview from the boss of Bisney Entertainment.

"What if I say that the interview was fake? That person is not the real boss of Hisney Entertainment" Sharon said as her eyes met his. She saw him

wince

The next moment, he let out a low snort "Do you believe in such a low-level lie!"

If only Ray said that Lonny was Bisney Entertainment's boss, Edwin might still be skeptical about it. However, even Edric h that it was true. In that case, Edwin no longer believed what Sharon said had checked and proved

His expression became even gloomier Although his attitude towardh Sharon improved a bit, it had returned to the past at this moment.

Looking at his raised eyebrows and mocking smile, Sharon felt helpless

However, she did not want to become enemies with Edwin because of Irene

She took a deep breath and suppressed the frustration in her heart before saying again. "Do you believe that I'm Bisney Entertainment's boss! There was never such a person called Lonny Drury! If you don't believe me, you can ask Alanna and Blake. They're very familiar with me"

This time, Edwin did not even sneeze. He only stared at her with his dark eyes,

He pursed his lips and did not say a word, but every cell in his body was silently telling Sharon that he believed that she was lying.

Sharon could tell and smiled bitterly. "Yes, Alanna and Blake are my good friends. In your opinion, they will definitely help me lie."

She thought, I never had any credibility with him, so why should I expect him to believe me? Why can't I see the situation clearly?"

"Trene is my daughter: I will not hand her over to anyone. Of course, I can promise to take good care of her" Sharon could only express her stance

"Are you taking care of her by spending a lot of money to let her live somewhere else so that you can live a peaceful life with your husband?" Edwin's voice was stiff and cold when he spoke.

For some reason, when he thought of Sharon being intimate with another man, he felt inexplicably suffocated

"My daughter has a home. She doesn't need to live somewhere else!" When Edwin said this, his tone was extremely firm

Sharon suddenly felt a headache. "Edwin, what do I have to do for you to believe that I won't ignore Irene like the interview showed! I promise not to get married for the rest of my life. Is that okay?"

Edwin's expression still did not soften.

People no longer needed to get married in order to live together.

Sharon felt that the person behind everything was using an invisible net to trap her. No matter how she struggled, she could not break free from this net.

She thought, 'How brilliant'"

"Trene is no longer suitable to be under your custody, Edwin said.

He did not know that Ray had tampered with Lonny's information. He only believed that it was definitely true since two people had proved that Lonny was Disney Entertainment's boss at the same time.

Edwin believed that Ray had no reason to lie to him, let alone Edric.

Is it appropriate for Irene to be under your custody?" Sharon knew that distrust was enough to stop all communication between the two of them. She did not clarify anything with him and looked into his eyes again with a serious expression. "Don't forget that you and Tilda are going to get married. You will have your own children in the future. At that time, what is Irene going to do? In your family of three, she's just an extra person, How upset will she be? What's the difference between this and living in someone else's house"

"Even if we have other children, she's still my daughter. Tilda will treat her as if she's her biological daughter!" He replied swiftly.

These words caused Sharon to ineer.

She would believe that Edwin would treat Irene well. However, she didn't believe that Tilda would treat Irene well.

Sharon had never been confident in Tülila's character.

"Edwin, how about this? I promise you that I won't fall in love or get married for the rest of my life. Is that okay?" She softened her tone and was almost begging him.

Edwin sneered. Do you think your promise is trustworthy?"

Sharon fell speechless

but her eyes were already already red with grievance,

Her face stiffened, but I

Edwin's words were insinuating that she had gone back on her word and made up a story about their relationship in front of everyone.

That happened for a reason... She didn't finish her sentence.

Edwin denied her from the bottom of his heart. Other than being a reason for him to mock her, Sharon realized that there was no reason for her to Anish her sentence

The conversation had clearly reached a stalemate.

Sharon turned around and looked around. Her gaze fell on the busy driveway.

"Edwin," Sharon gently called out his name and smiled, "Why don't we make a bet? If I lose, you'll take Irene. If I win, Irene will stay with me?"

Edwin frowned and looked at her with a pair of questioning eyes.

She pointed to a car parked beside the driveway. "I'm most afraid of cold-blooded animals. If I can stay with the eels in the car for an hour, I'll win!"

Then, without waiting for Edwin to say anything, she ran over to buy more than half a box of wriggling eels from the owner and jumped into the bucket.

Those eels were as slippery as snakes. Their skin was sucky and cold, and their appearance was extremely uncomfortable.

They were stacked in the bucket. After being disturbed by the sudden entry of Sharon, they began to squirm uneasily. They moved around Sharon's

The cold eel's mouth was even touching the flesh of her legs, constantly moving

Edwin did not stop her when he saw her buying eels.

Because he knew that she was extremely afraid of eels. She would tremble even when she saw them.

He thought that she was just searing him.

lly went in.

In the end, she really

The driver didn't understand why she had run into the bucket. Out of kindness, he added a ladle water.

As soon as the water was poured in, it intensified the wriggling of the eels. They moved faster. The frightened eels collided wildly between Sharon's legy Edwin's eyes widened.

He clearly remembered that Tina had once scared Sharon into fainting just by placing two cels in her room. But now... she actually dared to be in | the same bucket with so many cels.

It was not that Sharon was not afraid. Once a person was afraid of a certain creature, they would feel extreme fear. Even if this creature was harmless, the phobia would cause the person to scream erarily and suffocate.

Furthermore, eels had the characteristics of snakes and could even hite people.

Edwin could clearly see that her body was stiff. Every time an eel slid between her legs, she would tremble slightly

Her face turned white at a visible speed. Sharon became extremely pale, but she was smiling at him.

That smile was pale and colorless. It turned into an invisible hand that grabbed his heart ruthlessly.

A sharp pain came from his heart and he fell numb. This kind of numbness went straight to the scalp.

On the other side, Sharon seemed to be unable to hold on any longer and fell down.

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 143

“Splash!” Water splashed everywhere. Sharon did not fall out but sat in the bucket

As she sat down, the area of contact with the eel increased

Edwin instinctively ran over and reached out to lift her up.

Sharon smiled and avoided him “Edwin, I can do it. If I can’t even take this little challenge, how am I qualified to have Irene!” There was a wheeze in her voice, as well as a distinct tremor.

She was originally talking to him, but in the end, she started muttering

She was making a comparison between the extreme phobia of eel and her love for Irene.

The result was that Irene was more important to her.

Sharon suddenly felt less afraid and closed her eyes.

When she opened her eyes again after an hour, Edwin was gone.

Sharon smiled nonchalantly.

It was understandable that Edwin was unwilling to accompany her after she did something so crazy.

However, after the past hour, she realized that the fear of cold-blooded animals could be eliminated

If what she was going to lose was more serious, Sharon felt that fear of cold-blooded animals was really nothing.

Edwin drove aimlessly.

He did not want to accompany Sharon to do such a crazy thing by the roadside. However, along the way, his chest felt stuffy, as if many rocks had been stuffed into it.

Especially when he thought about how Sharon did not care about her fear of the eel and did not care about the gazes of the people around her before getting into that bucket, Edwin felt a stream of blood inexplicably surge up his throat

He could

could not help but tighten his grip on the steering wheel. His knuckles were all green.

He parked the car by the roadside and sat quietly for a long time.

When he realized that an hour was almost up, he went back and saw Sharon coming out of the bucket wet. A victorious smile appeared on her pale face.

When she walked out, she clearly staggered and almost fell several times.

Edwin almost couldn't help but jump out of the car to help her but in the end, he couldn't take it anymore and got out of the car.

However, before he could take a step forward, a person ran past him and held up to Sharon

When he saw that person, Edwin's expression immediately soured

"What's going on? Why did you get into the bucket?" Ray did not notice Edwin. All his attention was on Sharon. His eyes were filled with concern for her.

Sharon smiled and blinked at him. "I wanted to. Her lips curved in a triumphant smile. She was so happy that she looked like a kid. Her face was so pale, but her smile was so beautiful.

Ray was stunned by her smile.

It took him a while to remember that she was drenched. He quickly took off his coat and covered her. The two of them left together.

Edwin silently clenched his fists. Two blue veins had appeared on his forehead as he tightened his grip,

Back in the office, Sharon quickly changed her clothes and walked out. She looked at Ray, who was sitting on the sofa in sleep thought. "Mr. Gildon, why are you here again? What's the matter?"

Ray raised his head and looked at her with a deep gaze. "You did that just now because of... Edwin?"

Sharon smiled. "It's not for him. I just want to fight with him for custody of Irene

She said it cannally, but Ray's chest hurt terribly.

He thought, "As a dignified boss of Bisney Entertainment she put herself in such a predicament in order to fight for her daughter's custody...."

I'm sorry.

he apologized again, "If I hadn't made an unnecessary move and created Lonny, you wouldn't have..."

"It really has nothing to do with you" Sharon shook her head. "The Stanley family wants Irene. Even without Lonny, they will still think of other Ways

Ray pursed his lips silently with a serious expression on his face.

After a while, he said. "I've already removed the information. I'm also looking for the guy who claimed to be Lonny. I believe there will be a result soon.

Sharon hummed softly and sat in the chair,

Perhaps because she had been soaked in water for too long, her body was thin and brittle, making her look very weak

The more he looked at her, the more his heart ached and the more he wanted to pull her into his arms and shelter her from all the external challenges.

In the end, he could only force himself to look away.

"I'll find Edwin to explain the truth of the matter," he said.

"There's no need" Sharon took a sip of water and swallowed the sigh.

The problem between Edwin and Sharon was not a misunderstanding, but distrust.

if Ray went to speak up for her, she knew that it would make Edwin think too much it would not help her case.

When Edwin stopped the car, he realized that he had arrived at the entrance of the kindergarten

This kindergarten was located in Moorwald. It took more than an hour to drive there, He walked out and looked through the metal railing outside the kindergarten. He happened to see many children playing inside. Irene was also there.

She was wearing a small checkered school uniform with a white shirt. She had two beautiful pigtails and was exercising under the teacher's orders.

She spread her legs and spun her arms in front of her chest.

Because she was young and had short hands, she looked especially cute when she did that

Edwin could not help but be a lule stunned.

The teacher saw that he had been standing there and thought that he was there to deliver something. She could not help but walk over and ask. "May I ask which child's parent you are?"

Edwin was so handsome that the teacher's face could not help but turn pink.

Edwin nodded politely and pointed at Irene. I'm her father."

You are her father? The teacher looked surprised because she had never seen Irene's father. Moreover, she had heard that Irene lived with her modier.

The teacher did not ask much. She nodded and called Irene over.

"Hello, Teacher, Irene called our crisply. Her little face, which was red from the sun, was full of smiles,

However, when she saw Edwin, her smile instantly disappeared, and her big eyes quickly became vigilant. The smile just now could no longer be found

The teacher looked at Irene in surprise. "Trene, isn't this your father?"

"He is, Irene replied in a low voice. It was obvious that she was not very happy about Edwin being there. The teacher immediately felt awkward.

"Miss, I would like to speak to Irene alone. Is that alright?" Edwin asked.

The teacher did not say anything and opened the door to let Edwin in.

After Edwin went in, he tugged at Irene's hand. "Irene, do you want to eat anything?"

Irene blinked her watery eyes and looked at the large freezer in the shop outside.

Usually, Sharon was especially strict with her diet. She did not allow her to eat ice cream in normal circumstances.

Not many children could resist the temptation of ice cream. She couldn't help but stick out her tongue to lick her lips, but she didn't say anything.

Edwin could tell. "You want to eat ice cream, right? Daddy will buy it for you."

With that, he lowered his body and carried her out.

This was the first time Irene was hugged by her father.

The moment he picked her up, she fell onto his broad chest. His chest was wider than Sharon's. His arm was also stronger than Sharon's.

Every time Sharon carried Irene, Irene could tell that Sharon was having a hard time. But he could do it easily.

In his arms, she could see higher and farther.

Irene's eyes were filled with novelty.

Edwin bought the most expensive ice cream for Irene. He carefully opened the package and placed it in her hand

She hesitated for a moment before lowering her head to lick it

She thought. The taste of ice cream is so nice, It's sweet and cool.

Irene narrowed her eyes in satisfaction.

Seeing Irene's cuse action, Edwin's heart suddenly became soft,

For the first time, he realized that children were so cute.

After eating an ice cream, Irene was no longer resistant and wary of Edwin. She became willing to talk to him

Edwin asked her briefly about her and Sharon's lives. He also asked her about her studies in school.

Finally, he asked, "Irene, are you willing to go home with Daddy?"

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 144

Irene's bright little face immediately dimmed.

Her small body also retreated and distanced herself from Edwin. She was on again

"I won't go back with your Her head was shaking like a rattledrum, and the sense of closeness she had just now had disappeared without a trace.

Edwin already knew from Sharon that Irene did not like the Stanley family, so he was not particularly surprised. However, he asked almost uncontrollably, "What if Mommy goes back with us?"

"Are we going back together?" Irene repeated his words and tilted her head as if she were thinking about this possibility.

Edwin did not know why he asked such a question, but after asking, he did not immediately regret it. Instead, a scene of a family of three flushed in his mind.

"I still don't want to go back!" Irene only thought for half a minute before shaking her head again.

This time. Edwin could not help but be surprised.

Irene swallowed her saliva and said very seriously, "I don't want to go back, and I don't want Mom to go back either. Grandma and Tina don't like the two of us. I don't want Mom to worry about me being unhappy every day, and I don't want Mom to be unhappy either. It's very good being out here, and Grandpa treats me very well. Mom, Grandpa, and I are very happy living together Anyway, I'm never going back to that home again. That home is so scary!"

Irene really did not like the environment of the Stanley family. That gloomy and oppressive environment was no different from hell to a child

Without waiting for Edwin to speak, she ran back to the school and slammed the kindergarten door shut.

Edwin stood in silence for a long time until he suddenly heard a horn.

He turned around and saw Sharon jumping out of the car in a panic and running over ver aggressively.

Her face was filled with anger. "Edwin, what are you doing here? You have to keep your word. You have lost and you can't snatch Irene from met Edwin was stunned for a moment before he understood that she thought he was here to snatch Irene.

He came over purely to ask Irene for her opinion. He did not want to snatch her from her. However, Sharon's words successfully angered him. He could not help but snort coldly. "How dare you ask me to keep my word? Back then, you could not keep your word to me. Why do you get to ask me to do this?"

Sharon felt hurt from his words and her face turned pale.

She pressed down on her chest. There was a large amount of blood clots there that made her entire body ache and she was panting.

She glared at Edwin coldly and said in a tone that she had never used before, "I regret it. Edwin Back then, I should have ignored everything and left! I regret my decision so much right now!"

She tried her best to widen her eyes to prevent her tears from flowing

Even after the divorce, she never regretted her decision back then

It was only at this moment that she realized how childish and ridiculous she had been back then.

Edwin looked steadily at at Sharon.

Her eyes were clearly filled with tears, but she stubbornly refused to let them drop.

He saw that her eyes

He thought, "Back then, she was clearly the one who set me up and did something wrong, but now that she is like this, I inexplicably feel that she is the one who has been wronged. How is that possible!"

He tried his best to shake off this strange thought, but every time he saw her teary eyes, he could no longer harden his heart.

"I'm willing to apologize to you in any way. What do you want me to do? I'm willing to do anything you want!" Sharon lowered her voice. This was the only way to hide her overwhelming emotions. "I only have one request. After we break up, let me leave with Irene. I am not very capable, but I can definitely guarantee that I can rely on my own strength to give Irene a superior life. I will definitely not abandon her, and I will never let her be despised by others again!"

she raised her hand and swore with a determined expression

Edwin looked at her silently.

ned again.

Seeing her tense face and her dark eyes filled with determination, his heart thumped.

What made him even more uncomfortable was that she actually wanted to settle the score with him and cut ties with him.

He thought. Is she doing this just because of Lonny?

Edwin's chest felt so stuffy that he could not say a word.

In the end, he turned around silently and walked out.

Behind him. Sharon called out, "Edwin, I will never let Irene go Edhrin did not answer. He got into the car and left.

Looking at his departing figure, Sharon rubbed her temples as countless worries surfaced in her heart.

She knew very well that if Edwin did not let go, it would be useless no matter how much she expressed herself.

Edwin went to Nexus.

He ignored Ray, who was drinking inside, and sat on the sofa.

A staff member walked in and brought the wine he often drank.

He didn't say anything and lowered his head to drink.

Ray finished his glass and turned to look at him.

He noticed how down Edwin was. Ray could not help but smile. "Look at you. Those who don't know better would think that you've fallen out of love. Tilda cares about you so much now I'm afraid you can't even chase her away. Why create an illusion for others?"

Edwin did not respond and continued to drink with his head lowered.

Ray grew up with him and more or less knew him. Seeing him like this, he naturally knew that it had nothing to do with Tilda.

“Are you mad at Sharon?” Ray made a bold guess and asked.

Only then did Edwin put down his cup and looked at him.

His eyes were pitch-black and his gaze was terrifyingly deep.

Kay saw the scene during the day and naturally knew the reason why Edwin was angry at Sharon. He was not afraid of him and looked at him. “Edwin, there’s something I have to say whether you believe it or not. I made up Lonny. As for the interview about Lonny, you’d better investigate it carefully

He didn’t want to tell the truth, which was that Lonny could help him hide Sharon better so that no one would dare to pursue her

However, when he saw her squatting in the bucket with the eels that she was most afraid of during the day, his heart ached for her.

He thought, “How can a man let the woman he likes suffer such humiliation?”

Ray finished the last mouthful of wine in defeat. He did not care if Edwin believed him or not. He got up and walked out.

*Edwin, why are you here!” Tilda had a guest coming in the middle of the night. She never expected it to be Edwin. A joyful smile appeared on her face

When she smelled the slightly strong smell of alcohol between Edwin’s lips, she raised her eyebrows and deliberately moved closer to his lips. “You drank.

After

saying that, she didn’t forget to breathe into his lips.

Edwin did not say anything. Instead, he suddenly grabbed her hands and pulled her forward-

Realizing that he was going to hug her, Tilda leaned against him solily

However, Edwin did not let her lean against his chest. Instead, he dodged and pushed her to the door. “He... You know him, right?”

Tilda was intoxicated by his intimacy and was completely unprepared.

After being pushed by Edwin, he almost collided with the person at the door.

When she saw that person, her face suddenly turned pale.

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 145

“Edwin?” Tilda looked at Edwin hesitantly, her lips trembling violently.

The man standing in front of her was wearing a pair of black-rimmed glasses. He had short hair and a short figure. A pair of crafty eyes were embedded in his round face, and two strands of beard were separated by his lips. He looked like a successful person.

Others might not know his identity, but Tilda did.

The clearer she was, the more afraid she became. Her mind instinctively exploded, and she became so weak that she did not even have the strength to stand

Her legs were extremely weak.

She wasn't sure how much Edwin knew, so she could only analyze it from his expression.

Edwin was no longer drunk. There was no expression on his handsome face. His gaze was as deep as the sea. He pursed his lips and did not rush her to speak.

However, there was a cold vibe emitting from him. That cold aura silently enveloped her, so cold that she could not breathe.

Her fingers curled up randomly

Tilda gritted her teeth and decided to bluff her way i through

No matter how much Edwin found out, she just had to deny i

Hence, she immediately put on a confused and pitiful expression. “Who is this gentleman? Why did you bring him here in the middle of the night?”

was an actress. Even at this moment, her acting skills were good.

She easily concealed her nervousness and smiled.

Edwin did not expose her immediately. He only looked at her face.

Her face was bright and beautiful, just like before.

However, the owner of this face was so unfamiliar that he could not recognize her anymore.

In the past. Tilda might have messed around, but at the very least, she had been honest with her words. Unlike now, she was still lying even though the witness was at their door.

A wave of exhaustion washed over him. Edwin stopped beating around the bush with her. This is Lonny Drury who accepted the interview. Do you really not know him?"

His eyes were dark and cold. His pupils were pitch-black and bottomless

However, he seemed to have seen through her thoughts clearly long ago.

Tilda could not pretend anymore. Her body shook violently and she could barely hold on. Edwin's expression was cold,

Even though he knew that the fake Lonny would be able to expose Tilda as long as he testified against her, he didn't say anything

He wanted Tilda to admit that everything was arranged by her

Tilda knew Edwin's plan.

She was the one who arranged the fake Lonny to do that interview. She didn't feel anything when she was doing evil things, but now that she was exposed, she felt extremely awkward, not to mention that she had to admit to everything she did. This was no better than being humiliated publicly.

She bit her lip in embarrassment, unwilling and unable to speak,

However, Edwin just stood there quietly and let her face the fake Lonny as if she would not let this manter go until she made a sound. If this continued, it would attract the attention of many people.

Tika knew that although she was not as famous as before. However, many people still paid attention to her because of her relationship with Edwin,

If someone took a picture of this scene and aroused suspicion of her relationship with Edwin, it would be troublesome.

At the thought of this, she tugged an Edwin's sleeve and looked up pitifully. "Edwin, I am sorry, okay? I asked him to pretend to be Lonny for the interview because I was too insecure. Recently, Sharon has been around us constantly. Your attitude toward her is ambiguous. I'm afraid that she will snatch you away."

She even wrapped her arms around Edwin's neck in front of the impersonator of Lonny. "Edwin, I lost you for four years. Do you know how I spent these four years? I had nightmares every night about you abandoning me. I was depressed because I had too much anxiety”

Falwin silently pulled her hands away and took a step back to keep a distance from her.

He rubbed his temples and waved at the bodyguard standing outside. The bodyguard understood and brought the impersonator of Lonny out

The impersonator’s face revealed extreme nervousness and worry. He was dragged away by the bodyguards and kept turning back to speak. “Mr. Stanley, please let me off. Ms. Gill said that as long as I help her successfully provoke you, she would give me 200 thousand dollars. I was just tempted by the money, so... I didn’t harm anyone.”

Tilda did not expect him to confess everything. Her expression turned extremely sour. She wanted to flare up, but she couldn’t do it in front of Edwin. She could only explain, “Edwin, let me explain...”

Edwin asked, “Explain what? Explain that I would go to Sharon and ask for custody of Irene after you successfully trigger me, right? When did you become like my mother?”

Tikla fell silent.

She stood there with her lips slightly open as if she was frozen. Her eyes were filled with shock and emptiness.

Tilda did not expect that not only did Edwin find the impersonator of Lonny, who had hidden himself so deeply, but he also knew that she had worked with Jasmine.

Looking at Tilda’s expression, Edwin silently rubbed his eye eyebrows.

Previously, he had never thought that Ray would lie to him. He also did not expect Edric to give him false information. Once these things were exposed, it was easy for him to figure out many things.

It was not difficult for Edwin to find the impersonator of Lonny “I’m doing this for your own good. Jasmine wants Irene. Irene is the child of the Stanley family. She should have been with you. I don’t want you and the Stanley family to be criticized when we get married in the future. I also want to be a qualified mother and take good care of Irene Tilda quickly said.

She even sniffled aggrievedly as if she was about to cry. “Edwin, to be honest, this won’t do me any good. If Irene comes home, I’ll become her stepmother. What will the public think of me? They’ll think that I am even willing to be a stepmother just to marry a rich husband. My relationship with you will be completely rejected by them. The final outcome is that everyone will think that I’m a shallow woman who only cares about money. Why did I still do this even though I knew that I would be misunderstood? It's because I love you. Edwin, it was my fault in the past for not knowing how to cherish your love. Now, it's my turn to cherish and care for you. As long as it's beneficial to you, I'm willing to do it, even if you misunderstand me"

After saying that, her face was already filled with tears. She looked pitiful and it seemed that she was the victim.

She thought that after saying so much, Edwin would at least be moved and come over to hug her to comfort her

In the end, these words were not all lies. She had certain sincerity.

Tilda thought that there was no reason for Edwin to not be unhappy since she was currently giving him back all the love he had once given her.

However, Edwin stood there quietly. His eyes were cold, and there was no emotion in them.

Tilda was anxious and took the initiative to pounce on him. "Edwin, I know you'll be unhappy if I do this. I'm just 100 insecure. Let's get married. We're going to be together anyway. As long as we're married, my heart will be at ease!

She wrapped her arms tightly around Edwin's waist and rested her head on his chest. She closed her eyes and said. "In the future, no matter what decision you make, whether you want to bring Irene home or not, I'll do as you say"

Edwin did not respond. Instead, he put his hands behind his back. One by one, he removed her fingers. Then, he took a step back and kept a distance from her again.

Tilda did not give up. She wanted to hug him again, but a low voice sounded in her ears. It was no different from a thunderclap to her.

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 146

Edwin said, "Let's break up"

Tilda was stunned by this sentence. She looked at him with her eyes wide open as if she did not understand. "What did you say?"

"We are no longer suited to be together. Let's break up Edwin repeated.

"Edwin.." Tilda's mouth opened and closed. After a while, she said his name. She stood rooted to the ground and slowly regained her senses. The more she thought about it, the more her body trembled. "Why do you suddenly have such thoughts! Haven't we always been fine! You want to break up with me because of this

"It's not because of this, Edwin replied coldly, "It's the result of careful consideration

"Careful consideration?" Tilda was struck by these words again, and tears streamed down her face again.

She thought. So, while I thought I had him again, he was thinking about breaking up!

Tilda was such a proud person. She thought that if she lowered herself to please Edwin, he would definitely give her his heart. In the end, he ignored all her efforts

She bit her lips tightly, unable to say a word.

She only felt that her pride was being silently stepped on by Edwin, ravaged and trampled on.

Edwin finished saying what he needed to say. Then he nodded and walked out.

Only then did Tilda suddenly wake up and pounce over to pull him back. "Edwin, you can't do this. I don't want to break up!"

Her tears rolled down again as she hugged him from behind. "I know that you're still angry about what happened four years ago. At that time, I was too willful and didn't explain immediately, causing you to fall into such an awkward situation. At that time... I was too young. In addition, your mother didn't like me so much. I just wanted you to lower yourself in front of me and pamper me in public to teach your mother a lesson I really.... really was just confused at that moment."

When Tilda said this, her face was filled with discomfort.

When she was exposed for cheating, she kept quiet and did not explain because she wanted Edwin to abandon his dignity and protect her in public. If words got out, many people would scold her for being shameless and ignorant. However, at that time, she felt that it was only right

"I'm sorry. Back then, you doted on me so much that I was full of myself. That's why I didn't understand the severity of the matter," she hurriedly apologized.

Edwin lowered his head and looked at her hands that were tightly clasped around him. His lips curled into an ambiguous smile.

He called out Tilda's name softly. His tone had never been so gentle. "I know very well what happened four years ago."

Not only did his soft voice not make Tilda feel safe, but it also made her even more nervous. Immediately after, she felt extremely embarrassed.

"It's true that you wanted to force my mother to lower her head, but it was also true that you slept with that man," he added calmly.

She suddenly froze, and her blood froze as well 'Edwin. Then why did you."

Edwin asked, "Are you asking me why I didn't expose you when you told me that you didn't have sex with him? At that time, I was already married to Sharon. What's the point of exposing you? Moreover, when you cheated on me. I had sex with Sharon What night did I have to criticize you?"

Tikla was stunned

Only now did she realize that it was an illusion that she used to think that she was able to deceive Edwin,

Shame and embarrassment engulfed her like surging water.

After a while, she asked weakly, "If that's the case, why are you still so cold to Sharon!"

Edwin's indifferent expression dimmed at the mention of Sharon. His brows were dyed with emotions that even he could not distinguish clearly. "I am cold to her because she went back on her word and set me up."

As the son of a wealthy family who had always been successful in the business world, Edwin had been tricked by an ordinary girl. This was no different from cutting his heart with a knife.

Edwin said. "Speaking of which, the two of us actually have to thank her. If it weren't for her, Genesis Group, the Stanley family, you and I wouldn't have been so lucky today!"

This time, she didn't need Edwin to push her away. She let go. She stood there weakly as if someone had pulled out her tendons.

Tilda thought. For the past four years, he has never expressed this thought. Now, he wants to thank Sharon What does that mean? This means that he has already changed his attitude towards Sharon. It is only a matter of time before he falls in love with her! He does not even know that Sharon is Big Eyes...

Tilda's face was desolate. Her chest was so cold that it was as if she had been placed in a desolate desert

She thought. I had everything. How did I end up being so miserable!

When she thought about how she had lost to Sharon, who had grown up in the countryside, Tilda felt so painful as if needles had pierced through her chest.

She was unwilling to admit defeat.

Tilda closed her eyes tightly. "Edwin, even if I was wrong in this matter, I still endured the punishment and lost you for four years. During these four years, I didn't dare to look for you even when I missed you so much that I suffered from depression which led to me committing suicide. Isn't that enough? Can we forget all the unhappy past and only think about the days we spent in Pinevale We only had each other, and it felt that way," Tilda had never personally experienced what happened back then. She could not explain the details and could only briefly summarize them.

Edwin and Big Eyes had promised each other that they would never mention that period of time when they met again in the future. This was also the reason why Tilda could stay by his side as Big Eyes for so long

In the past, when she took Sharon's place, she would feel embarrassed.

However, the more she lied about it, the more she felt that this was the truth.

At this moment, she did not even have the slightest sense of shame. She felt that it was only natural for her to mention the past

Tilda knew that it this period of history was extremely important to Edwin,

To be precise, the existence of Big Eyes meant a lot to him.

As expected, Edwin's tense brows softened. He turned around and held Tilda's shoulder. Tilda was overjoyed.

She suppressed the joy in her heart and pursed her lips. She looked at him pitifully. "Edwin, let's go to Pinevale for a while more. I really miss those days"

"Alright." Edwin nodded readily.

Seeing that he agreed. Tilda realized that her plan was effective. She lowered her body and wanted to go into his arms,

Edwin pressed her shoulders to prevent her from jumping into his arms. "I can accompany you back to Pinevale, but not as a couple. Just as friends."

Tilda fell silent. Shock surfaced on her face again.

She thought, "This time. I lost again. Even the identity of Big Eyes is not working anymore?"

Tilda's heart was beating fast as she called out his name, "Edwin... You're joking with me, right"

In the past, Edwin could tolerate all her nonsense because he mistook her for Big Eyes. She did not believe that he would suddenly become so heartless.

She was in a hurry to grab his finger. "You won't abandon Big Eyes, right? We'll be together, we'll get married, and we'll have many, many children, right!"

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 147

Edwin did not respond. He took out a card from his pocket. There's 20 million dollars in this card. You can spend it however you want. Also, if you need anything in the future. I'll do my best to help. With that said, he did not stay any longer and walked out.

Tilda fell silent. As she watched him leave, she looked at the bank card in her hand and her body trembled non-stop

She thought, 'Is Edwin using money to pay me back for everything that happened between him and Big Eyes?!

Tears streamed down her face again. In the next moment, she started laughing manically. "Sharon, so what if you're Big Eyes? Edwin can still abandon you when he wants to Edwin returned home, Jasmine was still there.

When she saw him, she immediately welcomed him. "Edwin, I've seen the news. Now that the facts have proven that Irene is not suitable to stay with Sharon, when will you bring her back

Edwin frowned and rubbed his forehead with his slender fingers. "Irene won't come back. In the future, don't do anything to her and Sharon!"

The anxiety on Jasmine's face quickly froze because of these words. She could not help but secretly size up Edwin and guess if he knew about her cooperation with Tilda.

Seeing Edwin not say anything else, her heart slowly calmed down and her expression dimmed. "Lonny has already made his stance clear. Why are you still insisting on keeping Irene by Sharon's side? What exactly do you mean?"

"Literally Edwin was not in the mood to waste time me with Jasmine, "I'm tired. If there's nothing else, I have to go up and rest

Jasmine thought that Tilda's brilliant move would work. She was waiting for Edwin to bring Irene back so that she could save some face. Now, not only did Edwin not bring Irene back, but he also expressed that he would not fight for Irene's custody. There was no way that Jasmine would accept this outcome.

She didn't care that Edwin was tired and raised her voice. Previously, you thought that I wanted to have Irene back to save face. But now, reality has proven that Lonny and Sharon don't want her at all. As her grandmother, how can ignore i

She walked up to Edwin and swallowed her saliva. She suppressed her tone and said, I'm doing this for Irene's good. Irene can only live a normal life if she returns to the Stanley family! Now, Sharon is having an ambiguous relationship with Disney Entertainment's boss while flirting with other men. Even Ray is with her. How can such a woman like care of Irene? Irene will become had sooner or later!"

Upon hearing Jasmine's words, Edwin could not help but think of Ray's undisguised feelings for Sharon. His chest swelled uncomfortably.

Seeing that he did not speak, Jasmine thought that she had convinced Edwin. A hint of joy appeared on her face. "So, Edwin, the sooner you bring Irene back, the less she will suffer from being with Sharon. Don't worry, when Irene comes back, I will treat her well and nurture her into a perfect socialite

"I've already asked Irene. She doesn't want to come back. Edwin came back to his senses and could not be bothered to explain that Lonny was fake.

"What does a child know!" Jasmine immediately added. "If you bring her back, she will naturally bond with this home after a while. Edwin, Irene is still young and can't tell right from wrong. She also don't know what kind of life is good for her. We adults have to help her. She looked earnest as she spoke locking smile when he heard her words.

Edwin's lips curled into a mocking

When Jasmine saw his expression, her heart could not help but thump. She already knew what he was thinking

Jasmine thought, Isn't he silently criticizing me? Although I said that adults have to help children, I had abandoned him when he was blind

This was the most difficult thing for Jasmine to talk to Edwin about. At this moment, she no longer had the confidence to speak. She intertwined her fingers uneasily.

“I believe that Sharon can raise her well” Edwin did not bring up the past with Jasmine.

For some reason, he was willing to believe her when he thought of Sharon jumping into the box full of cels which she was most afraid of, and the things she said.

e did

With that, he not give Jasmine a chance to speak again and went upstairs.

Jasmine was left downstairs. She could only stomp his feet.

Sharon sent Irene to school early in the morning, then drove to Disney Entertainment.

Recently, there had been several major innovative projects going on. Sharon did not dare to slack off at all.

By the time she finished her work, it was already past noon.

Fortunately, Alanna’s assistant was meticulous and had already arranged lunch for Sharon.

Previously, she rarely came to the company and did not manage the actual business, so she did not hire an assistant.

Now that the company was going to make a big move, she would come to work more often. Sharon felt that it was not good to share an assistant with Alanna.

She stretched and walked to the dining table to sit down for lunch. As she ate, she searched for a suitable assistant on her phone.

There was a knock on the office door. Sharon looked up and replied, “Enter”

Alanna’s assistant, Serina Curry, walked in. “Ms, Cress, there’s a Ms. Stanley outside who wants to see you.”

Sharon was stunned for a moment. She didn’t think she had an appointment to meet with a person with that last name.

Serina could tell what Sharon was thinking and hurriedly added, “She doesn’t have an appointment, but she said that she’s Irene’s grandmother. She has something very important to tell you”

Irene often came to the company, so Serina naturally knew her

Hearing that it was Jasmine, Sharon's expression changed slightly.

She thought. What is she doing here?

Sharon knew that it was not a good thing for Jasmine to come. She was afraid that seeing her would affect her appetite, so she only nodded and said, "Go tell her to wait. With that, she continued eating

When she was full, she closed the lid of the lunch box and walked into the reception room.

In the reception room, Jasmine arrogantly crossed one leg and leaned to the side of the sofa. She pressed one hand on the handle of the sofa and the other on that hand. She frowned and looked displeased. "Does your company have any hospitality! I've waited for so long. Why hasn't Sharon come out?"

She did not say anything else, but from her expression, it could be seen that she was filled with disdain for the company and Sharon.

She looked like an empress who was high and mighty, waiting for others to bow down to her. Behind her stood a middle-aged man in black.

That man was the lawyer Sharon had seen in the cafe last time.

"I'm sorry, Ms. Cress is busy. In addition, you didn't make an appointment in advance, so you have to wait a little longer, Serina said politely.

"This company doesn't look that busy. Why do we need to make an appointment to come!" Jasmine looked around.

She did not know about the operating model of Disney Entertainment. Looking at the relatively small work environment, she thought that Serina was bragging

"Don't you know how precious our time is? We've already wasted twenty-three minutes!" The lawyer tapped the large watch plate on his wrist, his fingers tapping on the dial.

Sharon pursed her lips and smiled before walking in. "If you're afraid of wasting time, make an appointment in advance. The time of the CEO of this company is even more precious. It's impossible to waste it on every unannounced visitor. If Jasmine doesn't understand this logic, don't you understand it as a lawyer?"

"Well. The lawyer was so embarrassed that his face turned red

Sharon walked to Serina's side and patted her shoulder. "Leave this to me?"

Serina nodded and could not help but look at Sharon worriedly.

She had only been with them for a few minutes and she could not take it anymore. She was worried about Sharon.

However, she was just an employee and could not say anything. She turned around and left.

Only then did Sharon look at Jasmine. "Jasmine, what brings you here?"

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 148

Jasmine's elegant face twitched. She was obviously displeased. She did not say anything and only pointed at the lawyer.

The lawyer took a step forward and said, "This time, it's still about the custody of Miss Irene. Ms. Cress, the Stanley family hopes that Miss Irene can return to the Stanley family

"Didn't we already make it clear?" Sharon raised her eyebrows when she heard this. Her expression turned ugly.

She thought. 'When is the Stanley family going to give up'

"In the past, you were still acting like a mother. The Stanley family pitied you for giving birth to Irene, so we temporarily allowed Irene to be with you." Jasmine patted the hem of her skirt and lowered her eyelids. Her disregard for Sharon was very obvious. "Now, it has been proven that you're not qualified at all. Irene is the Stanley family's descendant. I can't have you mislead her."

Sharon asked, "Not qualified? Jasmine, how do you think that I am not qualified?"

Jasmine's excuse was too far-fetched. Sharon's face immediately turned cold. She looked at Jasmine with a clear and cold gaze. Her tone was not threatening or cold, but it showed a powerful vibe.

Jasmine snorted in disdain. "Don't you know what you've done?"

Sharon tilted her head and replied with a smile, "I really don't know. Why don't you enlighten me?"

Jasmine frowned. Her well-maintained face revealed a sense of superiority that she thought was noble. Then, she sneered

She did not answer directly. She raised her finger and said, "Mr. Ruell."

Marvin Ruell raised his square face and quickly nodded. He was extremely respectful to Jasmine

In Sharon's eyes, he was like a rooster with its tail stuck between its legs. He was flattering to Jasmine.

After Marvin nodded, he clenched his fists and cleared his throat. When he faced Sharon, his lackey appearance disappeared without a trace. He looked like he was borrowing Jasmine's power. Ms. Cress, according to our investigation, your private life is very indecent. You have an ambiguous relationship with many men. This is very disadvantageous to Miss Irene. On this point, even if we go to court, the judge will favor the Stanley family, which is beneficial to Irene's growth. Why don't you take the initiative to send Irene home to avoid embarrassing yourself!

"I'm indiscreet? To Sharon, this sounded like a joke

"Excuse me, Mr. Ruell, how did you conduct your investigation? How did you find out that I was indecent? How did you know that I have an ambiguous relationship with many men?" Sharon was a confident person, Naturally, she would not be frightened by his words.

Marvin babbled on and on. It was nothing more than a cliché. He mentioned something about Sharon having an affair right after the divorce and having an ambiguous relationship with Rocky Jensen. She was also involved with Randall Silva/ Marvin even mentioned Ray,

Upon hearing Marvin's nonsense, Sharon's pretty face immediately darkened. She turned cold and tensed up. Her cold gaze glared at Marvin. "It seems that Mr. Ruell never speaks according to the facts! Rocky and Randal have already explained their relationships with me. If you still want to spout nonsense here, I'll sue you for framing me! As for Ray, why don't you call him over now? We'll confront each other and see if there's anything between us!"

Sharon's glare was extremely imposing. Marvin, who was a lot older than her, was so frightened that he secretly shivered. A chill ran down the back of his neck

Although he had interacted with Sharon before, he did not think that Sharon was very capable since he had Alanna's help. He had just said those examples to scare her, but he did not expect her to be clear-headed and retort quickly. He had just finished speaking when he was firmly trapped.

Marvin did not dare to let her bring Ray over. He clenched his fists and faked a cough. His expression was very ugly. Even if this doesn't count, the matter with Bisney Entertainment's boss is always true. Since Ms. Cress wants to be with Bisney Entertainment's boss, why should you bring a child along? You are a smart person. Naturally, you should know that with a child around, there are many troubles. Bisney Entertainment's boss has a deep relationship with you now. Perhaps he won't say much, but as time passes, it's inevitable that there will be bumps. Ms. Cress, you have already divorced once, so why should you add trouble to your second relationship? After Miss Irene replies to the Stanley family, it's not like you won't be able to see her in the future. You can always see her when you want to. You don't have to spend a lot of effort on your child, and you can also protect your second marriage. Isn't this a great deal?" He was full of lies

If one move didn't work, he immediately switched to another move. This time, he acted as if he was completely on Sharon's side and was thinking for her.

From the sound of in, this reason was really unassailable, If Bisney Entertainment's boss was not Sharon, she would really be convinced.

"I appreciate your kindness, but I don't intend to give Irene to anyone. Moreover, I can guarantee that my life will not be affected by Irene. Instead, I will be happy." Sharon said confidently and waved at Marvin "So, please leave Seeing that Sharon was unmoved by force or persuasion, Jasmine slapped her hand on the table. Her face was distorted beyond recognition.

"Mr. Ruell!" She raised her voice at Marvin. I didn't hire you to talk nonsense Get to the point Marvin's expression changed after being shouted at by Jasmine.

After some hesitation, he said. "Ms. Cress, we suspect that you have mental issues"

Sharon chuckled. "Mr. Ruell, not only do you want to snatch Irene from me, but you are also planning to frame me

"Mr. Ruell did not wrong you," Jasmine interrupted.

She was used to seeing Sharon's pitiful look in the past. What Sharon said and did now was like a blunt knife cutting into her flesh. It was painful and Jasmine could not help but speak.

As soon as she finished speaking, Marvin turned on his phone and handed it to Sharon 'Ms Cress. Take a look for yourself

Sharon looked down. What she saw was a video.

When she saw the content of the video clearly, her face changed and turned ashen.

That video was none other than the scene where she jumped into the eel box yesterday and made a bet with Edwin

“It was broad daylight, and people were coming and going. You jumped into such a place for no reason and even stayed there for an hour. We can reasonably guess that there’s something wrong with your mind,” Marvin said. “You can deny in or go to a psychiatric appraisal agency to prove your innocence. Even so, it at least proves that your emotions are unstable and you can overreact at any time. Obviously, Miss Irene is not suitable to live with you under such circumstances. Marvin seemed to have suddenly been injected with steroids as he spoke non-stop

Sharon did not respond immediately. Instead, she silently clenched her fists.

She thought. ‘Only Edwin was present at that time. So, he was the one who took the video? In order to obtain custody of Irene, he actually went this

Her chest suddenly felt like it had been punched by someone. It was stuffy and painful

“Ms. Cress, if you don’t understand the law, you can ask someone. Just this video alone is enough to make you lose Irene’s custody! The Stanley family can even apply to the court to deprive you of your visitation rights!” Marvin’s voice sounded again like a demonic voice. Instead of letting the matter come to this point, why don’t we resolve it in private now and talk nicely? Perhaps Mrs. Stanley will give you the right to visit on account of Miss Irene!”

Dumping My Billionaire Ex Chapter 149

“You should know that Irene is the Stanley family’s child. She can’t grow up in a chaotic environment. She will become the face of the Stanley family in the future. She has to be raised in the best environment.” After Marvin finished speaking, Jasmine stood up and said in a tone that sounded like she was teaching Sharon a lesson. “Irene is also your child. Naturally, you want her to receive a better education. The Stanley family is her home. Only the Stanley family members will treat her sincerely. Don’t you think so?”

Sharon had been trapped in the thought that Edwin had done such a despicable thing to fight for Irene’s custody. She did not say a word,

She only came back to her senses when she heard Jasmine’s question. She looked at Jasmine’s arrogant expression coldly and said. “You sound so nice. Irene has stayed in the Stanley family for four years before. Tell me truthfully, which Stanley family member has ever treated her well!”

She pursed her lips and the corners of her lips were full of sarcasm. She was too lazy to beat around the bush and directly exposed Jasmine. “Mrs. Stanley, you are trying so hard right now because Irene wasn't raised in the Stanley family and made you lose face. That is not worth anything to me. I don't have to destroy my own daughter to make you look better!"

This straightforward revelation was like a slap to Jasmine's face, causing her face to turn pale.

She was surprised that Sharon had seen through her.

Her fingers were twisting in a mess because of embarrassment.

However, Jasmine was used to being domineering in front of Sharon. She could not be defeated so easily. She snorted heavily. "Nonsense! I did not interfere in Irene's business when she was with the Stanley family because you are her mother. I gave you a chance to raise Irene. It was you who failed and raised Irene to be as timid as a mouse. Now, you're blaming the Stanley family for being heartless! If I had known that you would be like this back then, I definitely wouldn't have let you raise Irene for even a minute! Irene might already be very outstanding now!"

In my opinion, Irene is already outstanding enough now! Sharon followed her last sentence and said. Her beautiful face was calm and her lips curled into a proud smile. Irene only became outstanding after leaving the Stanley Family. That family is too oppressive for her. It's not suitable for her to stay there." She looked at Jasmine, her big eyes clear.

Sharon knew that Jasmine's so-called giving her a chance to raise Irene was just an excuse. If Jasmine really liked Irene, she would not be cold to her all the time.

Back then, when Sharon chose to divorce, she did not settle Irene's custody because she had thought that the Stanley family did not care about Irene. She was considerate of the reputation of both parties and did not bring this matter up. She thought that everyone already understood that she would take custody of Irene.

If she brought it up, it would instead alert the Stanley family, which might end up with them fighting with her for the sake of their reputation. Reality proved that everything was as she had guessed.

The more Sharon realized that the Stanley family had bad motives for snatching Irene, the more she could not give Irene to them.

As soon as Sharon finished speaking, Jasmine snorted impolitely. "You teach her to do some grandstanding performances and she has become your money-making tool at such a young age. Is this what you call outstanding! I knew you would be so short-sighted since you came from a poor family!!

Jasmine had always looked down on Sharon's background. She immediately brought it up as a counterargument

Sharon was not angry. Instead, she smiled and said, "According to your intention, we have to force Irene to be proficient in things such as music, chess, and painting so that she can be on a bigger stage in the future?"

"Of course" Jasmine nodded without thinking.

As soon as she finished speaking, Sharon asked, "Isn't this the same as what you accuse me of? What's the difference between doing it on a small scale and on a big scale?"

Jasmine said, "Well..."

"You want to force her to learn something she doesn't like for clous. Aren't you just trying to treat her as your tool as well? Sharon's impolite words revealed the evil intentions that Jasmine had.

Jasmine had never been talked to in this way. She pulled a long face and her expression was sour.

She slammed her fist heavily on the table. "How dare you!"

She could no longer maintain her sense of superiority. Her facial features were twisted into an angry arc. Even though she maintained herself well, she looked extremely ugly at the moment. Her voice was deafeningly loud.

If it was in the past, Sharon would probably be so nervous and worried that she could not speak. But now, this roar was no different from a thunderclap to her. It did not affect her mental state at all

She quietly confronted Jasmine.

She was so calm that she was like a beautiful statue which was elegant and peaceful, and would remain unmoved despite the violent winds and rain.

Compared to her, Jasmine suddenly felt like a clown.

Jasmine, if you really want Irene, let her live with me. If you insist on taking her away, we can only go through legal procedures Sharon said calmly, but her attitude was firm. The last sentence landed strongly.

"If this is what you want, then, as you wish jasmine was so angry that she could not stay for even a minute longer. After saying this, she quickly walked out of the reception room with the heavy and anxious sound of high heels.

The lawyer also glared at Sharon with his beady eyes. He did not say anything and followed Jasmine out the door.

Sharon only sat down on the chair after the two of them had completely disappeared more th than once. In the future, she

The thing that she hated the most and hoped for the least had happened. Moreover, she had fought about this and knew that she would have to keep fighting on this issue endlessly.

She thought, "How can I stop these fights?"

Because she was deep in thought, she did not even notice the sound of high heels outside the door.

A moment later, Alanna appeared at the door.

"I just saw Jasmine in the corridor. What's going on? Is she looking for trouble with you again?" Alanna was impatient. She spoke as she pushed open the door.

Sharon nodded and briefly explained what Jasmine wanted.

"These bastards are really shameless! Alanna became angry as soon as Sharon finished speaking. They actually fought for the custody of Irene for the sake of their reputation. What do they think Irene is! A toy or a robot Sharon, no matter what, we can't let them succeed! Even if we have to sacrifice everything, we have to fight for Irene Sharon did not respond. She only sighed softly.

If that was all it took, she had nothing to be reluctant about She was just afraid that the Stanley family was determined to get Irene. With the Stanley family's connections and Edwin's methods, she was really not their match.

She lowered her head and thought for a while before suddenly standing up. "I'm going out for a while!"

With that, she passed by Alanna like a gust of wind and left quickly, Sharon went to Genesis Group.

Standing downstairs at Genesis Group, she silently looked up at the tall building that had disappeared into the clouds. Suddenly, she remembered that she had an infection after donating a cornea and had been lying in bed for a long time.

At that time, although she was in danger, she was not afraid at all. In fact, she was excited.

All she could think of was that after Edwin regained his sight, he would be recognized by the Stanley family and become the owner of this building. After she recovered, this was the first place she came to Back then, the building of Genesis Group was not so tall, and Genesis Group was not as rich as it was now. However, she was filled with joy. She wanted to meet Edwin by chance.

They had indeed met by chance, but the situation was something she had never imagined.

As Sharon was thinking, a woman walked towards her.

When she saw Sharon, a cold and hostile glint appeared in the woman's eyes. "What are you doing here?"

Sharon was lost in her thoughts when she was suddenly disturbed. She could not help but look up

She saw that the person was dressed in fashionable clothes. The high-end endorsement brand made her figure look curvaceous. Top-notch cosmetics dyed her facial features bright and beautiful. It was Tilda.

Tilda and Edwin were a couple, so it was not strange for her to appear there.

Sharon didn't have too many doubts and didn't want to talk to her. She walked towards the building of Genesis Group

Tilda was there to look for Edwin today.

Edwin broke up with her yesterday. Whether it was out of personal feelings or the need for a career, Tilda could not accept it.

She thought about it for a long time and finally decided to look for Edwin to salvage this relationship.

She did not want others to know that she was there to beg Edwin. She specifically put on makeup and said to her manager and assistant that s she was there to hang out with Edwin

Seeing how Sharon was ignoring her, Tilda silently clenched her fingers. Her face was still bright, but her eyes were filled with ice.

“Tilda, aren’t you going up” Seeing that Tilda had not moved for a long time, the assistant walked over and asked.

After all, she was a celebrity. If she stood there for too long, she would attract the attention of passerby and arouse their suspicion “Maybe later” Tilda managed to suppress her emotions. When she spoke to her assistant, her tone was calm and elegant, creating the image of an elegant woman.

If she went up now, she would be letting Sharon know that Edwin had broken up with h

She walked back to the van, ready to wait in it.

As soon as she got into the car, her phone rang.

It was Edric..

Her slender eyebrows raised a few times in disgust, but she still answered it. “Hello?”

ther. Naturally, she could not do that.

Edric’s voice quickly sounded on the other end. Tilda, what the hell, I’ve used all of the Greenwood family’s connections, but I can’t find Bisney Entertainment’s boss.”

Ever since Tilda used an impersonator of Lonny to deceive Edwin and was exposed, she looked for Edric and asked him to find the real boss of Bisney Entertainment

“How could this be? This result made her extremely unhappy. The corners of her lips were tense, but she did not forget that her assistant was with her. She raised her chin at her assistant

The assistant understood, got out of the car, and closed the door for her.

Tilda pulled out a blanket and covered her legs in frustration. After the assistant left, her tone changed. “Isn’t the Greenwood family supposed to have top–notch information channels? Why can't you even dig out the boss of such a big company? Did you slack off?"

On the other end, Edric swore, "I swear to God, I've always put your matters first. I've been personally monitoring their work since last night. I didn't even sleep the entire night!"

"Alright, I get someone else to investigate again" Tilda was not in the mood to listen to him. She said impatiently and was about to hang up, Edric's voice quickly came in. Tilda, have you ever thought that perhaps Bisney Entertainment doesn't have a boss?

What do you mean?" Tilda's heart suddenly tightened. She did not know what was going on, but she felt her chest tighten. It was even difficult for her to breathe.

On the other end, Edric did not know about her changes and continued to analyze. "As you know, the Greenwood family's information network in Rouria City is one of the best. We have successfully found many people who were hidden deeply and had never revealed any traces. However, the boss of Bisney Entertainment has spoken through the media time and time again. There's no reason for us to be unable to find that person, but we just can't. This doesn't make sense. With my sensitivity, this person might be fabricated."

"Even if this person is fabricated, such a big company like Bisney Entertainment really exists. Who would believe that such a big company doesn't have a boss" Tilda felt that Edric's analysis was ridiculous to the extreme. She really felt that he was being stupid

On the other end, Edric scratched his head hard.

Since last night, he had repeated this action countless times. His head was about to go.

His unruly face had a bitter expression. "I also know this, but I've already checked the legal representative they filed. It was someone they randomly found Edric kicked the chair in from of him far away in frustration.

Tilda rarely asked him to do something, but he did not do it well,

"However, I've investigated Bisney Entertainment's situation. The actual person who runs it has always been Alanna. That woman's dance is called Blake Peay. He's in the same industry as the Greenwood family and has made a lot of investments. It's possible that Bisney Entertainment belongs to him." Edric's analysis stunned Tilda.

She was not familiar with Blake, but if he was in the same industry as the Greenwood family, Tikla felt that it would be easy for him to crase his own information.

If Disney Entertainment's boss was really him, many things would make sense.

Tilda thought. So, is Blake the boss then?"

When she realized this, another question immediately surfaced in Tilda's mind. She thought, "If that is the case, why did Sharon claim to be in a romantic relationship with the boss of Disney Entertainment?"

The more she thought about it, the more she realized that something was amiss.

She thought, "Sharon is probably doing all this just to let the Stanley family know that she is very valuable. His real goal is to attract Edwin's attention and return to the Stanley family. Why didn't I think of that?"

Tilda) Tilda" On the other end, Edwin could not help but call out when he had not heard her response for a long time.

Tilda was not in the mood to talk to him anymore. She quickly hung up the phone and jumped up.

She pushed open the car door at an extremely fast speed and chased after Sharon.

At this moment, Sharon had already arrived at the front desk.

"Hello, I'm looking for Ed

"Day for Edwin, Mr. Stanley, Sharon said politely you have an appointment?" the receptionist asked politely

Sharon shook her head. "No, but I have something urgent."

"I'm sorry, if you don't have an appointment, Mr. Stanley won't see you" the receptionist said matter-of-factly. She was well-trained. "If you really have an emergency, you can call him."

With the receptionist's reminder, Sharon remembered that she still had Edwin's number. She had been too anxious and angry just now and had forgotten such a simple matter.

She nodded and thanked the receptionist. She retreated to the side and took out her phone to call Edwin.

Before she could dial the number, her phone was taken away.

Sharon was shocked. She looked up and saw Tilda standing in front of her, holding her phone.

She seemed to be running in a hurry, and her forehead was covered in sweat “Miss... Gill.” The receptionist naturally recognized Tilda. When she saw her, she called out in surprise.

Only then did Tilda remember that she had lost control. She lowered her head slightly to wipe away the sweat before turning her bright face to look at the receptionist, “Ms. Cress is here to look for me. Don’t worry”

She was indeed an actress. In just a few seconds, she had restored her usual image

The receptionist quickly nodded. She also knew that Tilda and Edwin were a couple. She blinked and pointed opposite. There’s a reception room. next door. The two of you can talk inside. It’s very private.”

Tilda could not wait. She secretly glared at Sharon. When she spoke, her tone was like the spring breeze. “Ms. Cress, come with me.”

Sharon narrowed her eyes and looked at her footsteps. She also wanted to know what Tilda wanted to say to her. So she followed.
